SHARON

The Young People's Alliance of the Row's corners church will have a special program Sunday evening.

August Linde, who is master of the Masonic lodge at Manchester, went to Kalamazoo to attend grand lodge this week.

There are 16 graves of previous war soldiers in our cemeteries: John Andrews, Carlos C. Dorr, Azarus DuBois, Benjamin Fairchild, Ransom P. Jones, Stephen Fairchild, Francis Labaron, William J. McCord, Robert Miller, and H. Middlebrook at the Center; Albert Perrin and Conrad Hildebrand at Row's corners; Myron B. Evans, Frank Gillett, Addis Gillett, and Baylis Sweezy at the Gillett cemetery; also one who was Feldkamp, who died at Camp Custer and was buried in North Sharon.

Mrs. Myra Gage, who has recently entered the old people's home at Chelsea, as mentioned in The Enterprise, is a daughter of the late Nathan Morse who came to this township in 1836, taking up land and building a home on the Manchester-Chelsea road about two miles north of Manchester. The large brick house he built still stands. The farm is owned by Mrs. E. M. Gage, but is worked by Clarence Huesman, Henry Goodyear, Wm. Schulte and O. L. Torrey are among those who have owned the farm since Mr. Morse sold out and moved to near Dundee.

The following pupils in district No. 1, of which Matilda L. Haarer is teacher, have been neither absent nor tardy during the month of May: Alta and Mildred Breitenwischer, Vernon and Christine Dresselhouse and Mabel Linde. Alta and Mildred Breitenwischer have been neither absent nor tardy for the spring term. Those having E spelling lessons for the month are: Mildred and Alta

Breitenwischer and Ella Bruestle. The following pupils received a prize for not making the grammatical errors of "ain't" and "have got" for the spring term: Ella and Mary Bruestle, Alta and Mildred Breitenwischer, Ralph Scheid, Vernon Dresselhouse, Forbes Smyth, Dora Linde and Gertrude Kuhl. Mary Bruestle received a prize for being the star speller for the year. School closed Friday, May 23, with a picnic on the lawn. The children enjoyed themselves running races and playing games, after which refreshments were served. Miss Haarer has been engaged to teach the coming year.

Arrangements are completed for the Decoration Day exercises at the town hall at 1:30 p. m. The Manchester band will assist in the musical program. Hon. A. J. Waters of Manchester will deliver an address. Perhaps Sharon never has made arrangements for observing Decoration Day. The exercises will be held at the town hall, on the lawn if the weather is favorable. Following is the program:

- Music... Manchester Liberty Band Invocation... Rev. Schleicher Recitation—Welcome... Ronald Kendall Chelsea, as mentioned in The Enterprise, is a daughter of the late Nathan Morse who came to this township in 1836, taking up land and building a home on the Manchester-Chelsea road about two miles north of Manchester. Owing to the illness of the pastor, Rev. Gilchrist, Dr. C. B. Wilcox of Grass Lake will preach at the Irwin schoolhouse Sunday, June 1st at 2 o'clock.

About 20 friends of Miss Clara Holden surprised her at the home of Mrs. Frank Ellis Saturday evening. The evening was passed in games and music and a pleasant time was had. Light refreshments were served. Miss Holden leaves soon for her home in Detroit. As a token of remembrance her friends presented her with a spoon.

A DAREDEVIL FEAT.

Something worse than rocking the boat was accomplished at Atlantic City, Monday when Lieut. Orme Locklear climbed from one airplane to another at an altitude of 2,500. Climbing out to the end of the wing of a biplane, he grabbed for a rope ladder suspended from another airplane passing just overhead. He seized the last rung and climbed safely into the second machine.

Reopening services at the Methodist church next Sunday morning. Rev. Dr. Fruit of Detroit will occupy the pulpit. Sunday school services at 11:15. Rev. Tolson of Detroit, a former pastor here, will preach in the evening, service beginning at 7:30.

Notice of Meeting.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Be it known that on the 19th day of May A. D. 1919, an application was filed with Clayton E. Deake, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw, for the locating and establishing of a certain drain which was described in said application as follows: to wit: Beginning in the Saline River Drain about 80 rods north of section line between sections 19 and 18 and 80 rods east of the west section line of section 19 on lands of Mr. Sheldon, T. F., R. E. Meridian of Michigan, thence south-westerly to section line between section 19 and section 22 of said township, thence south-westerly on lands of Press and Hogan, thence westerly on line between Hogan and Arnold, Press and Allen and Linden, thence west on lands of Press and Hogan, crossing highway and continuing westerly across section 22 and 23, crossing highway and continuing westerly on lands of W. H. Every and Christ Braun, ending at Braun's west line about 80 rods south of section line between sections 19 and 21. Following line of old drain was ascertained that said drain will traverse the township (or township of Saline and Hogan) as described. Be it further known, that on the 2nd day of June A. D. 1919, a meeting (or joint meeting) of the township board (or boards) of the township (or townships) of Saline and Bridgewater will be held at W. H. Every's, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of determining whether or not the said proposed drain is necessary and conducive to public health, convenience and welfare, and if so, to determine all persons owning lands liable to assessments for benefits, or whose lands will be crossed by said drain may appear for or against said drain proceedings. Given under our hands this 19th day of May A. D. 1919. EDW. J. MUIHL, Township Clerk of the Township of Bridgewater.

ALBERT G. PAUL, Township Clerk of the Township of Bridgewater.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN THE conditions of a certain mortgage made by Benjamin Slater (single man) to Arthur L. Waters, dated the 5th day of April, A.
