WAMPLER LAKE

Mr. Nisle is putting in good time making improvements at the Farm Hotel.

It is true that some land owners are holding back the good roads money. We hear talk of a proposition by some of the lake land owners to build a road to the lake and make it a rest station and point for a lake house for travelers.

The mate to that 75-pound pig, captured by Henry Crane in Ilogie like a few weeks ago has not yet been landed, though we understand it is still sought after. O. C. Nausey said a six-pounder from Wampolee, Mich. and it fairly well satisfied with that size.

The Farm Hotel tower is the crowd at this time of year, but its fame for good eats lives on, and Mr. Nisle who enjoy a trip in the autumn air, with a good meal in the tower, is the joy of the town.

Published Weekly. By MAT D. & F. H. BLOSSER. $2.00 per Year in Advance.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1920.

Governor W. P. Hobby of Texas says that there is no longer any reason for withholding recognition of the new Mexican government.

Exercise and education may have succeeded in producing better laying hens, but the average auto driver will affirm that bobby is just as reckless as to cross the road as his grandparent was.

If there is anyone in this community who will vote for the proposed amendment to close parochial schools, we advise voters to scan closely the various amendments in order to vote for the one that is contained in the legal notice of election published in another column.

It is reported that the cities are full of idle men. When the wise men of the country would devise ways and means for keeping shops and factories in working order, so that men and women would be assured living, wages and steady work, but it appears that nothing was accomplished.

People cling to the idea that there must be labor troubles, paucity, etc. following every war, and do it. There is no recourse. If every individual would keep busy at something, keep on earning even a little, spending judiciously, it would help wonderfully in tiding over a calamity. No political party will be able to adjust matters without individual assistance.

Every family should procure what apples and potatoes they will need for the coming winter, and do it while the weather continues favorable. Farmers are so busy with other work that they really have no time to pick and care for apples, and if they find time they have no barn or better club to store them, and go out and pick apples and bring them home. They can be bought at a few prices. Many farmers will pick only what apples they need for home use and take the balance to the cider mill.

ABSURD NAMES WORK HARD

May Be Witty, But They Too Frequently Tend to Put Community in Disrepute.

Freight and absurd names given to communities, villages and counties by some vagabond in the primitive stages of a new settlement, sticking to the community, so that it is most difficult to get rid of them when a new people have succeeded to residence there. Some of these absurd names are so ridiculous they have the community, tending at all times to put it in disrepute, make it a "jab" and byword.

Altho' the country are to be found places where the origins of their contribution of harmful levity, against which the community struggles. In the northern part of Missouri was a little community that was given, in place before the war, the rather startling name of "Burnshirt." The name grew out of an incident that took place when some big-game hunters were encamped at the settlement. The name applied to the richly dressed of the community and for two generations it was compelled to bear that name. It had a small degree of comfort from the fact that a lesser community, hard by, had won the name of "Hoopole" township in Posey county, Indiana, is quite the most widely known of any township in the Hoosier state, yet strangers might not be induced to locate there because of the attractiveness or promise found in the name—Ohio State Journal.

Bess Swifter Than Pigeons. There is a story to the effect that a farmer in Westphalia laid a wager that 12 bees of his, released at a distance of three miles from their hive, would travel as rapidly as a like number of pigeons over the same course. The first bee, properly powdered for purposes of identification, and, as a matter of fact, set at its hive a quarter of a minute before the coming of the first pigeon to its cage; and there were three other bees that came in before the second pigeon arrived.

WASHTENAW COUNTY

The board of supervisors favors an increase in English sparrows. The county infirmary fund received $4,815.68 and paid out $95.51. The eastern Washtenaw road district has a balance of $1,403.16 on hand. The upper layer on some of the cement floors of the new county infirmary has already begun to chip. And Arbor Presbyterians are to build a new church at cost between $350,000 and $400,000 on South University avenue. Just a little rain came down Friday night, hardly enough to lay the dust in the roads, but held up the cloverseed bulbers for awhile. Michigan batt. M. A. C. on Perry Field last Saturday, the score being 25 to 0. Saturday afternoon Illinois will meet Michigan there and a great game is expected. At the annual meeting of the grand chapter order of the Eastern Star, at Grand Rapids last week, Mrs. E. W. Goodrich of Ann Arbor was again elected grand secretary.

Registration Notice for Election Nov. 2, 1920.

To the qualified electors of the Township of Manchester, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan: Notice is hereby given that in conformity with Act 126, Public Acts of 1917, I, the undersigned Township Clerk, will upon any day except Sunday and a legal holiday for the day of any regular or special election or official primary election, receive for registration the name of any elector who is not already registered, who may apply to me personally for such registration, or who may make application for registration by mail or messenger, as provided by Act 7, Public Acts of 1919, except that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the second Saturday before any general or special election or official primary election, and the day of such election.

Oct. 22, 1920—Last Day for general registration for said election. All voters not already registered and intending to vote at election, should make application to me on or before the 22nd day of October, A. D. 1920.

Notice is further hereby given that I will be at The Union Savings Bank, Manchester, Mich., on Oct. 3 and Oct. 15, A. D. 1920, from 9 o'clock a. m. until 5 o'clock p. m. on each of the above dates, for the purpose of receiving the registration and registering said electors in said township as shall properly apply therefor.

The name of no person but an actual resident of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the election, shall be entered on the registration book.

Registration of Absentee by Oath. If any person whose name is not registered shall offer and claim the right to vote at any election, and shall under oath state that he or she is a resident of such precinct and has resided in the township twenty days next preceding such election, continuing pertinaciously the place of his or her residence and that he or she possesses the other qualifications of an elector under the Constitution, and that owing to sickness or bodily infirmity of himself or herself or some other member of his or her family or owing to his or her absence from the township on public business or his or her own business, and without intent to avoid or delay his or her registration, he or she was unable to make application for registration on the last day provided by law for the registering of electors preceding such election, then the name of such person shall be registered, and he or she shall then be permitted to vote at such election.

If any applicant shall in said matter wilfully make any false statement, he or she shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction, be subject to the pains and penalties thereof.

Registration by Mail or Messenger. Under Act No. 7, Public Acts of 1919, the privilege of absentee voters is extended to include registration. Upon compliance with this Act registration can be secured without personal appearance.

The time limit for registration by mail or messenger is the same as where personal registration is made. Therefore, the affidavit of an elector desiring to register by mail or messenger must be received by Township Clerk not later than the second Saturday preceding the election.

State of Michigan, County of Washtenaw, Township of Manchester, to the Township Clerk, to have his or her name transferred from the registration book of the precinct from which he or she has removed to the registration book of the precinct in which he or she then resides. Such elector shall have the right to have such transfer made on election day by obtaining from the board of inspectors of election of the precinct from which he or she has removed a certificate of transfer and presenting the said certificate to the board of election inspectors of the precinct in which he or she then resides.

Women Electors. The names of all qualified women electors not already appearing on the registration list will be registered, in conformity with the foregoing provisions. Dated Sept. 22, A. D. 1920. BENNETT C. ROOF, Clerk of said Township.

Brief News Items

We are informed that political meetings are better attended this fall than they were four years ago.

We hope that those transformers will arrive soon, as other work on the transmission line from Clinton is about finished.

The Academy of Forty held an interesting meeting at Supt. Neverth's Tuesday evening and began work on the year's program.

Mrs. A. A. Schoen was called to Chelsea, Saturday, on account of the death of an aunt, as a result of a fall down the cellar stairs.

There will be a meeting of the Waif's Association at the village hall this, Thursday, evening, to discuss important matters.

Some Manchester masons expect to attend a meeting of Mount-Cornwall R. A. M. at Detroit Saturday afternoon and evening, to witness degree work.

People say that the women are going to vote this fall and we hope that is true. Heretofore only a mere handful in each community have taken any interest in election.

This is pretty warm weather for playing football, but there is likely to be a great game at Ann Arbor on Saturday between Illinois and Michigan. It will be well worth the price to see it and many of our readers are expecting to drive over.

An interesting game of football was played on Brighton field Sunday afternoon, between Chelsea and Manchester teams, and resulted in a tie. It might have been considered a rough game from the number of injured taken from the field, but Alvin Clark was the only one so badly hurt that he is since unable to work.

Brass paper fasteners for school work and other paper classes at the Enterprise office.

George D. Remar of Lansing, of the state utilities commission, was here Wednesday inspecting the electrical transmission line to Clinton. There had been complaint that our lines were too close to telephone wires, and he advised what should be done, and it will be done. He thought work on the line otherwise had been well done.

People declare that this is the most wonderful season they ever experienced. It has surely been a fruitful one. Crops of all kinds have been good, some exceptionally so, and the weather is delightfully warm. There is, however, need of a soaking rain, as wheat is suffering for it and cornstalks are so dry there is great waste when handled.

Manchester celery growers are to be aided by the county Farm Bureau in marketing their large crop of celery. They will have about 15 carloads ready for shipment within the next two weeks. When they called upon the Farm Bureau for aid, County Agent Oeler, at once got into communication with the Potato Growers' Exchange. Finding they had a place for the crop at a good price, the executive board of the bureau at once took out a membership in the exchange in order that they might legally set in the matter.

EQUIPPED TO RULE OCEAN

Monster That Lived 100,000 Years Ago Must Have Been a Terror to Other Fishes.

In the National museum at Washington is exhibited the skeleton of a reptilian monster which in life was seventy feet long and which must have been ruler of the seas during a bygone epoch. This is good reason to believe that this alarming creature dates back fewer than 100,000 years, says a bulletin.

With an enormously long tail and powerful swimming paddles, the saurian must have been able to swim at the speed of an express train, and its great alligatorlike head was armed with huge carnivorous teeth.

It was manifestly a ferocious and predatory brute and presumably fed on fishes and porpoise. The head was four feet long and in the front part of each jaw were eight teeth for seizing and tearing, which were supplemented by a series of saw edged cutting teeth at the back.

The zeuglodon were mammals, related to modern whales. They must in their time have been very numerous, judging from the quantities of their bones dug up in Mississippi and Alabama, where in places there are so many as to interfere with plowing. Farm walls are built of them.

Apparently the creatures, which are denizens of warm seas, died and were washed up in shallow waters that afterward became dry land. Drifting sands covered their bones, preserving the latter to some extent. Their teeth, those of the jaw-like those of alligators, are found scattered about in the neighborhood of the bones.

LOST IN FRANCE

NEVER in the history of our voting experience have we seen so quiet a campaign. Not one rally in Manchester; and less than two weeks to election! The war is over and everybody is too busy to talk politics. We are out of politics, but we feel we owe a debt of gratitude to one who nearly lost his life in the battle of Chateau Thierry, France, and in his behalf we are ready to acquaint the voters of this township and vicinity with our reason for appealing to you to vote for and help elect Emil Schlenker, candidate for County Clerk on the Democrat ticket.

Not until we had urged Mr. Schlenker several times, did he consent to give us the history of his sacrifice, for publication. The following brief data will speak for themselves.

Enlisted Dec. 14, 1914, Co. I, 31st Mich. Inf.; called to Mexico June 19, 1916 to Jan. 21, 1917; called to World War, July 15, 1917; left Ann Arbor, Aug. 24, arriving at Grayling; at once sent to Waco, Tex. Organization there changed to Co. E, 126th Inf., 32nd Division; left Waco, Jan. 19, 1918 for Camp Merritt. Under cover of darkness the Division left New York harbor, Feb. 18, arriving at Brest, France, March 4. Easter morning they arrived at Champlette, France, for final training. May 6 they arrived at the front line trenches, Alsace, Lorraine; defensive sector, under occasional attacks; July 17, left Alsace, Lorraine, for Chateau Thierry. July 30 they relieved the 3rd Division on the Ourcq river in the Aisne-Marne defensive. Aug. 1st, at 4:30 a. m. they made their first attack, this Division remaining on the line eight days. The total loss by the Division was 3,547 men killed, wounded and missing. They captured 97 prisoners, four pieces of heavy and five pieces of light artillery, 10 trench mortars, 28 machine guns, and 400 rifles. Their burial squads buried more German dead than were lost by the whole 32nd Division. They were opposed by three German Divisions: the 200th, 216th and 4th Prussian Guards. The 32nd Division victory completed what Marshal Foch had planned when his offensive of July 18 was launched. On the eve of Aug. 2nd, with machine guns to their right and left they encountered a close-up terrific point-blank fire by enemy artillery, their retreat flanks and front being cut off by intense concentration of shells. A high-explosive shell exploded to the left and a little forward—a brilliant explosive glare—and Emil Schlenker was its victim—with his right arm shattered and a long gash in his nostril that more than spurred his life's blood. There was no feeling in his right side because of impact of shell splinters. To the rear, through intense bombardment, he sought first aid, plodding nearly exhausted through rain and mud to a station approximately two and a half miles to the rear, then farther back in an ambulance. At Evacuation No. 19 his arm was trimmed and amputated four inches below the elbow. For three days, going constantly to the rear, far from the roar of cannon, he arrived at Base Hospital No. 30 to recuperate. In the meantime he was reported to Co. E, 126th Inf., as officially dead, and buried at Chateau de la Forest. Being a very brave "died one," he arrived in the good old U. S. A., Oct. 16, on the U. S. S. Leviathan, formerly the Vaterland of Germany. After spending approximately eight months in U. S. hospitals, he was discharged, March 18, 1920.

Could any man with one grain of patriotism oppose one who has gone through such an experience? Emil Schlenker should receive every single vote in not only this but every voting precinct in the whole county. We would then feel the voters were as anxious to have him elected as they were in 1918 to have him help win the war. We want you to help him go over the top. Start the bombardment Tuesday morning, Nov. 2nd, and rejoice in having helped to knock the JAY out of PRAY.

We also want you to take advantage of our heavy artillery fire and bombardment of high prices next Saturday. Eight years ago we promised our patrons part of our profits on one or more articles every Saturday in the year. We have kept faith. We have won many decisive battles against old H. C. L. We have him staggering right now and when you take advantage of our drive next Saturday, you will pay less for some articles that we paid for them. We are always ready to boost Manchester and its products. There are some things that can't be discounted. We are ready to say there is no discount on Miss Norris, of whom it is said she is the best qualified aspirant for Register of Deeds this county has ever had. She has had over 15 years' experience and is running against one who wants a third term. She is a Manchester product.

We want everyone who is in need of any article in our store to take advantage of the 10 PER CENT DISCOUNT. Every article in the store included.
