Thanksgiving

AND THOU shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God, with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

AND thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God has chosen to place his name there.

AND thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and that thou shalt observe and do these statutes. THOU shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine;

AND thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the widow, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

SEVEN days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shall choose; because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

THANKSGIVING

How many of us really appreciate Thanksgiving in its true spirit can hardly be said. There are some whose consideration does not go beyond knowing it is Thanksgiving day, and that is all. We appreciate the fact that we are alive and that our creditors have had to worry for their commercial bills—but we are hard up. We are now in need of money and would be thankful to receive part if not all from those owing us. We know you will make an effort if you are well, and to keep so you must have dry feet. We are going to give you a special discount on all Rubber Footwear beginning Saturday, Nov. 26.

10% DISCOUNT from list prices of both "Hood" and "Hipress" makes, and will continue until Jan. 1st on all goods on hand. P. S.—Special Heavy Kersey Pants, 10 per cent off for Saturday.

SEEM TO ENJOY WORRYING

Persons Possessed of That Tragic Temperament Can Only Be Regarded as Afflicted. Even if the manufacturers of worry only suffered themselves, it would be no loss to society, but however, they have a knack of transferring their tragic feelings to others. A whole host of people can be made miserable by one person with a tragic temperament. The question arises: What is the best way to deal with such a person? Experience tells me that we should never show sympathy. At the same time, nothing is gained by making little of a trouble which they regard as grievous. That has an irritating effect. The best cure is to ignore their "tragic tales" as much as possible. Just express a passing regret that the "tragic" has fallen to "send," or that "a husband started on his journey without a wife's blessing" (as if he couldn't buy one in the place for which he was bound), or clean his teeth for once with a handkerchief, and nothing more!

THE MEANING OF "RESERVE" The custom of punishing a culprit by forcing him to "run the gauntlet" practiced in the Seventeenth century, is said to have originated during the "Thirty Years' war" (1618-48) and to have been adopted by European nations as a mode of punishment. The culprit was stripped to the waist and had to pass between two ranks of soldiers facing one another, each of whom struck him with a short stick or switch. The word "gauntlet," as here used, has the meaning usually given to that of an iron glove, and the custom of gauntlet or gaiting, as it is called from the Swedish gaitop, meaning "running on a iron shoe." Some etymologists, however, derive the word from the German gassenlauf, which means "running the gait," and others from the Dutch gaitop, having the same meaning.

HERALDS WIN LAST FOOTBALL GAME After Making First Touchdown in Quick Time, Manchester is Unable to Gain Points. In an exciting football game between Jackson Herald and Manchester Independents on Thanksgiving day, the Jackson boys were victorious by a score of 13 to 7. Manchester won the toss and chose the north goal. Riedel, after crossing the half-line, plunged and a run around end by Kiebler hit the end zone for a 30-yard line for three downs. Here Kiebler threw a forward pass to Riedel, who crossed the half-line and kicked goal. After Jackson kicked off, Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line. Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line. Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line.

ACT OF WATER ON FIRE Just What Takes Place When the Liquid is Employed for Quenching Flames. Practically, water thrown on a fire drowns out the blaze. Scientifically, however, the water absorbs so much of the heat of the fire that the temperature of the fire is lowered so that the oxygen will not combine with the carbon of the burning material and the fire goes out.

Aurora Australis. During one of the British expeditions to the antarctic regions, more than sixty observations were made of the aurora australis, the southern counterpart of our northern lights. The appearance of the southern lights did not occur during the months of the long polar night, and the phenomenon was most intense at the time of the equinoxes, when the sun is perpendicular over the equator, and daylight is simultaneous at both the north and the south pole.

HERALDS WIN LAST FOOTBALL GAME After Making First Touchdown in Quick Time, Manchester is Unable to Gain Points. In an exciting football game between Jackson Herald and Manchester Independents on Thanksgiving day, the Jackson boys were victorious by a score of 13 to 7. Manchester won the toss and chose the north goal. Riedel, after crossing the half-line, plunged and a run around end by Kiebler hit the end zone for a 30-yard line for three downs. Here Kiebler threw a forward pass to Riedel, who crossed the half-line and kicked goal. After Jackson kicked off, Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line. Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line. Manchester's ball was kicked to the 10-yard line.

ACT OF WATER ON FIRE Just What Takes Place When the Liquid is Employed for Quenching Flames. Practically, water thrown on a fire drowns out the blaze. Scientifically, however, the water absorbs so much of the heat of the fire that the temperature of the fire is lowered so that the oxygen will not combine with the carbon of the burning material and the fire goes out.

WORK AWAY YOUR TROUBLES Man at His Best, and Happiest, When Physically and Mentally Busy. You can't overwork. God Almighty intended this wonderful mechanism called the human body to work. It is working all the time. Did you ever think of that? Think of it once more! This heart of yours pumps on 72 times a minute, from the moment that it takes its first beat, until it dies, at fifty-six years, or sixty years, or one hundred, or it pumps 2,900 times a year, 108,000 times a day. Everything in us is constructed to work. We are an organized machine. It is constructed to hold your body up, and teams of horses pulling you. Everything in us is constructed to carry big loads, big burdens. This human hand—it is a masterpiece of mechanics. STREAM A FREAK OF NATURE Small Steam called Boer Creek flowing from the glaciers of Mount Adams, near Huum, Wash., is a freak. It plays hide and seek along its course. During the forest, slipping into a cave, it creeps there and reappearing below a tall, jagged rivulet. Its bed is covered nearly the entire year, on the surface rocks float and in the water logs sink. The water is bright yellow in one place, red in another and light bluish when it flows into the Chocoma river. Boer creek differs from other streams, freezes at the bottom first instead of the surface. This is caused by a rocky formation, similar to a corrugated washboard, retarding the movement of the water, forcing the surface to move softer. In this way air bubbles are shot downward, carrying freezing temperatures, and the forms, both able to rest on the stream flows, the top is soft too.
