WUERTHNER BROS. THE STORE THAT MAKES GOOD

All Eggs In One Basket

Putting all surplus cash in investments, no matter how good, is unsound practice for the average business man. Too many men have had to take losses through the forced sale of securities in order to get cash together.

An ample cash reserve would have prevented this loss. It protects your business. We shall be glad to explain how such a balance can be made profitable.

HERALDS WIN LAST FOOTBALL GAME After Making First Touchdown in Quick Time, Manchester is Unable to Gain Points.

In an exciting football game between Jackson Herald and Manchester Independents on Thanksgiving day, the Jackson boys were victorious by a score of 13 to 7.

Manchester's goal line was closed the night of the long polar night, and the phenomenon was most intense at the time of the maximum frequency of aurora, when the sun is perpendicular over the equator, and light is simultaneous at both the north and the south pole.

ANOTHER WOMAN ESCAPES

Mrs. McCumber Avoided a Serious Operation by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time

Georgetown, Ill.—"After my first baby was born I suffered so with my left side that I could not walk across the floor unless I was all humped over, holding to my side. I doctored with several doctors but found no relief and they said I would have to have an operation. My mother insisted on my taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. Now I can do all my own work and it is the Vegetable Compound that has saved me from an operation. I cannot praise your medicine too highly and I tell all of my friends and neighbors what the Compound did for me.—Mrs. MANDARIN McCUMBER, 27 S. Frazier St., Georgetown, Illinois.

Farmer's Wife Finally Freed From Torturing Backache

Enduring backaches so intense that many times she had to quit her work... Mrs. A. J. Robbins, of Quebec, Tenn., regained health and happiness through Dodd's Kidney Pills. "Weakness made me a case seem hopeless. My back muscles were so stiff and weak I could not rise from a chair. Doctor's treatments, medicine—nothing gave relief. Despairing, Mrs. Robbins was finally induced to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. In a remarkably short time she regained her former good health—permanently. She writes: "I had not been taking Dodd's Kidney Pills long before this trouble left me. I cannot say too much in praise of Dodd's."

ROYALTY HAS ITS FETTERS

By the Royal Marriage act of England, the prince of Wales may now marry without the consent of the king. In that case, however, he would have to give notice of his intention to the privy council twelve months before the date of the ceremony. Even then the marriage would only be in order legally so long as both houses of parliament did not disapprove of it. This act, which dates back to 1772, was made by George III, who was annoyed by the marriage of his two brothers to women who were not of royal birth. The measure was forced through both houses by the king in spite of tremendous opposition. It is still operative, however, so that if the prince defied this act his marriage would be void, and his children could not succeed to his rank or title. Such a marriage would be recognized by the church, however, and the children would be legitimate.—Cappon's Weekly.

Kansas City Star. "Me and wife had a little lover last night," related Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, "and when I got the end of the argument she loved that yarrafter she'd suffer in silence. I aim to watch her a day or so, and if she don't kick back I reckon I'll invite all the married men on the Ridge to gather around and enjoy the spectacle."—Kansas City Star.

Girdle Adds to Milady's Frock

Embellishment Provides Excellent Means of Rejuvenating Last Year's Garment.

The girdle shares with the sleeve the distinction of being the only strikingly new feature of this winter's clothes. Honors are about evenly divided between the two, according to a Paris fashion correspondent. Perhaps the sleeve has been more talked of than the girdle because the majority of the new girdles are so elaborate and so costly that the woman who is averse to plunging into heavy expenditure on clothing feels that she can exist without one of these girdles, whereas sleeves she must have.

But, as the season is still young, it is likely that less expensive copies of these costly affairs will be made and that these will be seen on the less exclusive frocks.

dressmakers have united on this feature. Every dress and every suit carries some sort of girdle ornament or trimming of its own which is placed at a low waistline.

Resemble Old-Fashioned Stomachers

Many strange things have been done in the name of fashion, and almost every material incorporated in dress at one time or another. There have been clothes of paper and clothes of wood, but it remained for the designer of the present day to make wearing apparel from tin and steel.

BAGATELLE SATIN IN LIMELIGHT

The newest and smartest effect in the doted materials is bagatelle satin, the bulletin of the Retail Millinery Association of America says. Just at present it is said to be very hard to keep in stock in the black and negre brown shades. The bulletin continues: "This new satin has a lacquered surface, but it is very much heavier than the well-known crepe satin. Its surface also carries a much higher sheen than the latter. Mirror-like in effect, the new satin is still sufficient-ly pliable to allow charmingly soft treatment, though it does not take kindly to creasing.

of the household. It has range, sink and built-in cupboards. Coming back to the reception hall again, we find it opens into a small hall beyond the doors into the living room. This hall leads to stairs to the floor above, and also to another hall opening into the kitchen, lavatory and bedroom for the maid or cook. There is a linen closet as well as an extra clothes closet.

Upstairs are three large bedrooms: the master bedroom 16 by 17 feet 6 inches, the other two 17 by 13 and 17 by 14 feet. The bathroom and trunk room constitute the rest of this floor. Each bedroom has ample closet space and plenty of windows of the old-fashioned casement type. The linen chute and broom closet are located in the hall.
