FOUNG PROPLE AND ADULT TOPIC

1. Paul's View of Death (v. 6). Set forth in two metaphors: 1. An Offering (v. 6). "I am ready to be offered." This specifically meant a drink offering—a libation. The shedding of his blood was to be an offering poured out upon the sacred altar as an act of worship. Death ca only be an offering to God when th life has been wholly yielded to the do nently true of Paul, for he could say, "For to me to live is Christ" (Phil

This backward look is presented in three figures:

1. "I have fought a good fight." The figure here is that of a soldier. The Christian life is a warfare of difficulties, conflicts, dangers and temptations. As a soldier, the Christian must fight and overcome all these.

2. "I have finished my course." The figure is that of an athlete who sets out to win a race. The Christian life sout to win a race of the course life was happy and biameless."

3. "I have kept the faith." The figure is that of a husbandman to whom had been entrusted a treasure. This dead, until one day during the war had been entrusted a treasure. This disappearance was explained by the foliation of the lift of the
