Some 40 or 50 persons attended the road meeting at the Paul Couch house last Saturday afternoon and discussed the question of whether or not the county road commissioner should build a Covert road through the northern part of the township which is called the Manchester Soling route. Commissioners McCalla, and Bird and Engineer Bailey were present and answered many questions directed at them by the irate farmers who claimed that they had been deceived as to what they would have to pay for the road. The commissioners told them that 75 per cent of the cost would be paid by the township, 15 per cent by the townships of Manchester, Saline and Freedom, and 10 per cent by the farmers along the line. They also said the question as to whether the road would be built or not rested entirely with the commissioners. The query was asked what the cost was to this time and they replied $1,500 for surveying, etc. This the petitioners would have to pay even if the road was not built, and rather than have them pay it, about 15 voted in favor of building the road. None opposed. There will be another meeting, when further information will be given and we hope everything will be made satisfactory.

Smart of the Manchester M. E. church officiating. Miss Run Day also of Manchester, some very helpful solos. Several pupils from the public schools were present and with others accompanied the remains to the cemetery at Deatons, where Miss Cobbske and other school children there sang while surrounding the grave. Everybody did what they could to lighten the sorrows of these bereaved, which undoubtedly was greatly appreciated.

Reasonable Statement.

The creator of strange new beauty has a right to demand so much (attention) from anybody who undertakes to pronounce judgment. Is it too much to ask? I don't imagine, for example, that my own fair for strange new beauty is special and extraordinary, a thing that could not be cultivated by any lover of old familiar beauty who honestly desires to cultivate it. For beauty is ageless, eternal and one, recognizable under all differences of form.—Baltimore American.
