

There are hundreds of amateur radio outfits scattered throughout the state and nation, and thousands of people have been listening in to the grand concerts, lectures, etc., hundreds of miles away. Great singers and actors claim that they are cheated out of money, those people should pay to attend theaters to hear them.

SEND ALL LIQUOR VIOLATORS TO JAIL

Sheriff Pack Bids Wine and Beer Proposal Urged by Brewers And Others.

Bootlegging will not be stopped in Washtenaw county by the $100 fines, was the opinion expressed by Sheriff A. C. Paek in his address before the W. U. F. U. at Ann Arbor.

"I am firmly of the opinion that the only effective method of stopping bootlegging is by sending the offenders to Jackson and Ionia where they can no longer sell their poison," the speaker declared.

"Because it is such a revolutionary movement, we cannot expect it to be entirely effective," he continued.

"When the present generation of addicts has become extinct our problem will automatically solve itself, but until that time there is no need to be discouraged."

"If the light wine and beer amendment goes into effect, liquor will be sold under its name. I do not approve of that any more than I do of the man whose policy it was to cut off his dog's tail with his own teeth."

As a basis of comparison, Mr. Paek gave the following figures as applying to Washtenaw county: "He said: 'During the last wet year 114 persons in Washtenaw county were incarcerated for drunkenness. During the second dry year 147 were imprisoned for drunkenness and violation of the prohibition law, and of the 147 very few were drunks.'"

Another startling statement made by the sheriff regarding Washtenaw county is that 90 per cent of the bootleggers and whisky makers are foreign-born residents who have not become citizens. "Nearly 75 per cent of other violators of the law come from this same group, while three-fourths of the bootleggers are of Slavic birth," the speaker declared.

"What will help the enforcement of prohibition just now more than any other thing is a change in the immigration laws."

NEW ROAD NOT YET ACCEPTED

Highway Built West of Town Last Fall Still in Doubt—Workers Will Get Their Money.

Bennett C. Root, clerk of the Manchester township board, has received a letter from the engineer of the county road commission in regard to the new road west of town, built last season, in which he says that Mr. MacAllister, assistant district engineer, was unable to determine the exact ditch elevation near the road intersection, Heimerdinger's corner, where the culverts are approximately six inches too low.

"As soon as the weather permits we expect to make a complete report as to the condition of these culverts." In the meantime those who have not been paid for work will have to wait. We learn that the township board have made complaint about the construction of that road. There appears to have been a lack of attention on the part of someone in authority, while the road was under construction.

PLAN MORE PARKS FOR COMMON MAN

Governor and Director Baird Seek to Add to Number of State Parks Or Camp Grounds.

Proposals to increase the number of state parks so that "workingmen will have a place to go over weekend" are being considered by the state department of conservation, according to John Baird, director.

Gov. Grosbeck is understood to have endorsed the idea and expressed the opinion that there are not enough state owned camping sites in Michigan.

According to state officials the man of limited means is disappointed when he seeks to find a place for an outing. Most inland lakes are surrounded with fenced-in private property upon which trespassing is forbidden. It is the idea of the governor and his department that parks and camping sites should be accessible in every part of the state.

Friday afternoon the governor and Mr. Baird inspected a proposed park site at Island Lake, near Brighton. The Washtenaw lake park site will be a popular one and is said to be one of the finest in the state.

CITIZENS' TICKET PROGRESSIVE HEAD

Voters Have Selected Good Men to Represent Them on Common Council This Year.

Everything passed off quietly at village election Monday. A considerable number of women voted, but not as many as was expected.

There were 258 persons who showed an interest in village affairs by voting. The vote was by ballot instead of by machine in order to allow complete choice of candidates for trustees.

There were 55 straight Citizens votes and 41 straight Progressive votes. Following is the number of votes each candidate received; the first name following office being Citizens:

President—Thos. J. Thorn, 124; G. H. Breitenwischer, 130; Clerk—LeRoy A. Marx, 170; Clarence Lindbert, 184; Trustees—John E. Bowler, 175; Fred Widmayer, 168; Dr. L. C. Kent, 175; Roy J. ## BARN MEETINGS IN JACKSON COUNTY

Speakers From M. A. C. Are Helping in Dairy and Alfalfa Meetings.

Two crews of speakers, each crew attending four day meetings and the night meetings are traversing the county. The visits began Monday and have been conducted during the week and will continue until next Saturday.

They make a visit to the barns and sheds where stock is cared for and give helpful talk to the crowds assembled at each. They will cover the entire county and endeavor to obtain an accurate list of breeders of livestock in the county and records of alfalfa grown, etc.

In the southern part of the county they will make visits as follows: Norvell District, Tuesday, March 21. 8 a. m.—Farm of N. J. Nichols, west of Napoleon, and F. E. Ford farm, south of Norvell. 10 a. m.—William Wyckoff farm, west of Napoleon, and Charles Horning farm, south of Norvell. 1:30 p. m.—William Rollman farm, north of Norvell, and James Pierce farm, northeast of Norvell. 3:30 p. m.—David Curtis farm and Charles Pittman farm. 8 p. m.—Big night meeting at Norvell town hall, with motion pictures.

Brooklyn District, Wednesday, March 22. 8 a. m.—Roy Stephenson farm, west of Brooklyn, and Robert Hixon farm, west of Brooklyn. 10 a. m.—J. D. Reed farm, one mile north of Clark lake, and Cyrus Cook farm, northeast of Cement City. 1:30 p. m.—E. Siegfried farm, north of Brooklyn, and Walter Reading farm, south of Brooklyn. 3:30 p. m.—H. G. Wesch farm, northeast of Brooklyn, and C. H. Rothfuss farm, southeast of Norvell. 8 p. m.—Big night meeting at Mason's hall Brooklyn, with motion pictures.

Wine and beer, unless they have the "kick," is not wanted by drinkers. Why there is plenty of the other stuff in use. Who ever thinks of taking that when they go fishing? A large number of sheep have been and are being shorn of their fleeces.

WASHTENAW COUNTY

Congressman Earl Michener of Adrian recommended Wm. Steffer, an ex-serviceman who lost a leg in France, as postmaster in Dexter.

Ypsilanti Democrats nominated T. E. Schauble, who has served the city acceptably as mayor, for reelection, but he declined the nomination.

George B. Rhead of Ann Arbor formerly of Norvell, was stricken with apoplexy last Friday but has recovered somewhat, gaining the use of his left side which was paralyzed. He was driving his car at the time and ran into another car parked on the street. Mrs. Rhead, who was waiting for him, seeing that something was wrong, went to the car and spoke to Mr. Rhead. He could not speak but motioned for her to take the wheel. She then discovered that his left side was paralyzed.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION MEETS

Work of Past Year Is Gone Over and Trustees Are Elected.

The annual meeting of the Oak Grove Cemetery Association was held Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Ella Nestell, George Nisle and Lewis Wolff were re-elected on the board of trustees.

A report of collections on assessments showed that there were many delinquents. It appears that a good many lot owners have no idea that the association has no right to collect them pay and hence refuse or neglect to come across. It should be known that the association is organized under state laws and they have not only a right to levy assessments to maintain the cemetery, but also have the power to collect them. Of course the association has no desire to sue anybody, but if it does so it certainly will collect, or deny the owner the right to burial until all assessments, digging of graves, etc., are paid.

The association keeps a sexton at work continuously and he hires other help when necessary to keep the grounds in good order. A large number of lot owners appreciate this and have paid assessments promptly, otherwise the association could not exist without forcing collection.

The association has made considerable necessary improvements, including grading and widening of driveways, and has further improvements in view. The sexton has straightened up many tombstones that were crooked, has trimmed the trees and done other work that has about used up the available funds, and lot owners will have to pay up all arrearages and for the coming years in order that this work may be carried on.

Were it not for the many words of encouragement and appreciation received from visitors and others the trustees would not feel like continuing to serve on the board, which they have to do without remuneration, as the state law will allow of no profit being made.
