The drive to secure subscriptions for the new $200,000 hotel at Ypsilanti finished with $900 more than enough was secured. There were 648 subscribers.

R. J. Bird, member of the county road commission, will resign when the supervisors meet in April, and will accept a position offered by the state tax commission, working in the southern tiers of counties.

Sam Stanich of Ecorse, convicted of robbery armed at Whitaker, was remanded to jail until March 21 on information that his counsel intends to make a motion which if granted would necessitate a new trial.

The Detroit Edison company are planning to supply Washtenaw county with electricity with a 110,000 volt capacity, the present voltage capacity being 48,000. New power houses at Superior and Ypsilanti on the Huron river will be added, also other power.

WHEN SELF-LOVE IS WOUNDED

Then is Called Into Play the Ugliest of All Human Passions, That of Jealousy.

Jealousy is the ugliest of all human passions—and the one which makes the greatest misery in the world. It is the outcome of egotism; the twin sister of vanity; and its brood are all the sorrows of the human race. But what is jealousy when analyzed?

It is the bitterness which arises either when someone else possesses that which we desire and cannot obtain, or the fear that what we possess may be taken from us by another. The very fact of our feeling fear shows that we know this other possesses a power stronger than our own—and this is a reflection upon our personal merit, and therefore a wound to our self-love, says Elinor Glyn in the London Times.

Men and women are jealous when another approaches one they love—their natural egotism is wounded by the inference that this other has not realized their own worth, and dares to dispute their sway—jealousy being roused to fury should the one they love respond to alien glances, because the wound to self-love is deeper still in that case, and the poison sinks into the very being.

But jealousy between the sexes is a more pardonable fault than any other form of the virus, because it goes back to the instinct of self-preservation and, in the broader sense, race-preservation, and although its indulgence produces misery and crime, its origin is not altogether base or wholly egotistical.

"ANGEL" WANTED THE MONEY

Evidently Backer of Show Was Tired of Its Making Nothing but Good Impressions.

The manager of a burlesque show told the following incident of his theatrical career:

"Fifteen years ago a certain Chicago 'angel' stalked me to a small repertory show, instructing me to make one-night stands in Kansas. Our show was terrible, indeed, but finally we left Chicago."

"Our first stop was Topeka. After the night's performance I sent a telegram to my angel, saying: 'Topeka receipts $2500. A big good impression here.'"

"The next night we played in Hutchinson. After the show I wired: 'Hutchinson receipts $2500. Made a splendid impression here.'"

"The next night found our troupe in Chanute. My telegram that night read: 'Chanute receipts $21. Made a wonderful impression here.'"

"Seven hours later I was at the Chanute depot with my trouper when the telegraph operator handed me a telegram. It was from my 'angel.' The message said: 'Make one more impression—then come home.'"

Electioneering Expenses in France.

Whereas electioneering in Great Britain is nothing like so expensive as it used to be, the tendency in France is all the other way, for there is no limit imposed on the amount a candidate may spend. In an article advocating the need of a law to restrict election expenses M. Jean Barnard remarks: "My old friend Floquet told me that in 1891, when he was first elected for the Eleventh arrondissement of Paris, the election cost him only 1,500 francs. At the general election of 1891, when he was defeated, Floquet spent 25,000 francs, and I had to spend even more than that when I stood for the same constituency in 1910. My opponent's victory on this occasion is said to have cost him 200,000 francs, and I believe that estimate to be by no means exaggerated."—Manchester Guardian.

PRIZE FOR BRITISH MUSEUM

Institute Presented by Sir Rider Haggard With Ring Taken From Peruvian Mummy.

A ring with a romantic history has recently been presented to the British museum by Sir Rider Haggard. He first saw it 57 years ago, attached to the watch chain of the headmaster of his preparatory school, who had received it from a friend who had traveled much in America. The friend's story was that while traveling in Peru he had opened a gravestone in which he found a stone table with 13 mummified figures seated round it. On the finger of the principal figure was this ring, which the discoverer withdrew; and the bodies, according to his story, crumbled into dust.

It was the legend attached to this ring which, according to Sir Rider Haggard, first turned his imagination toward the invention of stories of adventure, and readers of "King Solomon's Mines" will recognize in it the origin of a striking episode in that book. Fifty-five years after he first saw the ring it still remained vividly in Sir Rider Haggard's memory, and he described its appearance in a story which is now on the eve of publication. Shortly after he had done so, he chanced to renew acquaintance with his former schoolmaster's family, and made inquiries about the ring, of which he eventually became the possessor, and he has now given it to the British museum.

Last Feeling of Satisfaction.

Postmaster Chance told the Klwans club last week how he took an examination to get his first promotion in government service.

—He entered as a messenger. One day he happened to look into a room and saw about thirty people bending over tables.

"What are they doing?" he asked. "They are taking an examination for promotion," he was told. "Don't you want to try?"

If they were trying to play a joke on M. O. Chance of Illinois he called their bluff.

He went in, took the examination and later was told that he was the only one promoted.

"I tell you, I felt pretty proud," declared Postmaster Chance, recalling the time "and they told me that the others had taken the examination for promotion to $1,600—and that I had been the only one to take the examination for promotion to $1,000."—Washington Star.

To Tell If She Loves You.

Some one has invented an instrument by which the quality of love may be measured by observing the exaggerated effect of the lover's presence on the heart action of his lady.

Such was the announcement of the Society for Electrical Development in describing the workings of the "telegraphone," an instrument by the use of which the inventor declared, "no happy marriages would be prevented."

All that is necessary to insure results, the inventor explained, is for the doubtful swain to adjust the device over the heart of his intended, whisper a calculated word into her ear and watch the indicator. If it nutters violently, then all is well and the banish may be published, but if not, beware!

Improved Pumping Machine.

On Little Isle, the municipal playground of Detroit, there is a peculiar pumping machine which was improvised for the purpose of draining the water from the canals on the island. These canals are drained and cleared of refuse each year in preparation for the skating season. The machine, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, is a box three feet wide and twenty feet long, open at the ends and mounted on two wagon wheels at the center. At each end are two sprocket wheels. Endless chains pass over these sprockets and through the box. On the chains, at intervals of 14 inches, paddles are attached.

He Wasn't Saying.

"You want a big army, battleships, submarines and airplanes merely for self-defense?"

"Of course," said the diplomat. "And you have no thoughts of aggression against any other nation?"

"None to speak of," replied the diplomat, stily.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

TO SECURE GOOD ALFALFA CROP

Number of Pointers Given by Expert To Aid in Securing a Good Stand of Crop.

Manure a piece of ground in the fall and plow; or if this cannot be done, manure the ground in the winter or early spring and disc thoroughly and then plow.

2. Disc or harrow or cultivate the ground every week or ten days during April, May and June to kill the weeds. Keep the ground clean. Do not let the weeds get a start. In addition this will give a firm seed bed, just what alfalfa must have.

3. Apply from three to five tons of ground lime rock per acre any time during the spring when most convenient.

4. Sow from 10 to 12 pounds of seed per acre the last of June or during July or the first of August without any nursery crop.

The important things are: Manure, killing the weeds, a firm seed bed, sowing early so as to get strong plants to withstand the winter, and determination.

By sowing early, say in July or the last of June, as soon as the weeds are killed, there is time to resow in case of heavy rain which may form a hard crust on the soil and prevent the seed sowing from coming up.

5. Inoculation—never hurts and east of the Missouri river usually helps and often is essential; especially until alfalfa has been grown on the farm for several years.

The inoculation is a simple matter and easily done. During the spring or summer distribute from the rear of a wagon three or four hundred pounds per acre of sweet clover or alfalfa soil, secured from a sweet clover patch or from a good alfalfa field. Alfalfa will not do well in soil that is soggy ground. If not naturally drained it should be tilled.

Cultivate and cultivate both ways. Don't be afraid of hurting the alfalfa. There is nothing equal to a spring-tooth harrow for cultivating alfalfa. It destroys the weeds and especially blue grass which is alfalfa's greatest enemy, and forms a mulch, keeping the ground from getting hard. Cultivate in the fall, cultivate early in the spring, cultivate after each cutting except after the first cutting in the spring when you won't have time. Begin cultivating the second season after sowing.

Cut when the little shoots or buds begin to start at the base of the plant. This is important and especially for the first cutting in spring. When the buds or shoots start that means that all the strength is going to the new shoots for the next crop. If we delay cutting until these shoots have grown up so that we cut them off, we will cut two crops of alfalfa and get but one. Keep your eye on the little shoots—never mind the blossom.

LITTLE SHORT OF MIRACLE

If Story is True, This Englishman's Middle Name Must Surely Be Good Luck.

Lying on a path 18 months a leather wallet containing over $140 was found by the loser after being unaccounted for by hundreds that passed each day.

Writer on English correspondent dining-car conductor on the Great Western railway, who lives at Southall, left home one morning in June, 1920, and went to Old Oak Common, near Acton, where the dining cars are stored. From Acton station he walked through a private path used by the railway staff and leading to Old Oak carriage sheds. Enter he went to Paddington station and worked the dining-car train to Plymouth. When he returned to London he discovered that he had lost his wallet. He had not the faintest idea where or how he had lost it, and although he made inquiries he could find no trace of it.

The other morning he walked up the same private path on his way to work, as he has done scores of times since he lost the wallet, when he stopped for a moment, and looking on the bare ground just at the side of the path he was amazed to see his wallet lying there. He picked it up, and was further amazed to find that the contents had not been touched. The wallet was weather-beaten and the notes were soiled as though they had been soaked in rain, but when he found them they were dry. The path is used by hundreds of men every day.

INVALUABLE AID IN COOKING

British Journal Points Out How the Use of Thermometer Will Help the Housewife.

Every housewife is aware that the actual cooking of a dish is a very important factor of success or failure. A "hot oven" and a "moderate oven" are often referred to, and testing by holding the hand inside for a few seconds is a method frequently employed.

But there is no real dependency on such hazardous methods, since one person can bear much more heat than another. Therefore, in an efficient household a kitchen thermometer to register cooking-heat should be considered as necessary as a clinical thermometer. There are two varieties of kitchen thermometers to be had.

The cheaper kind is of white china, and can only be used for oven cooking. A more durable make, of brass, which costs a little more, can be used for testing frying fats, etc., and will not break so easily. An iron leg supports the thermometer so that it stands upright and can be seen at a glance when in the oven.

The annual report of Emanuel's church for 1921, printed in English, has been circulated among members.

low to high temperature is registered, and at the side the standard temperatures for cooking are printed.—Manchester Guardian Weekly.

Population in A. D. 2000.

According to Dr. Edward A. Ross, by the year A. D. 2000 the population of the United States will number about 223,000,000. Extremists are painting vivid pictures of our country, pointing out that the condition of China, Japan and India will be rivaled here. They predict a starving country with too many inhabitants and too little space in which to house them. In their minds are scenes of war, famine and misery as a result.

On the other hand, John S. Sumner, secretary of the New York Society for the Suppression of Vice, says: "Overpopulation is not a menace to the peace of the world, because there is no overpopulation. It is not the physical and spiritual condition of people which determines the question as a menace to continued peace."

Little-Known Washington Portrait. Discovery of a long-lost portrait of George Washington by the American artist, Gilbert Stuart, in New York City, directs attention to the Stuart portrait of Washington which hangs in Memorial hall in the State Library building at Hartford, Conn. It was bought direct from the artist by virtue of a resolution of the general assembly in May, 1808. The understanding was that it had been painted by order of a committee from South Carolina, and was then declined on the ground that it was not a portrait of Washington.

A committee from Connecticut conferred with Gilbert as to a Washington portrait, and purchased the one he had painted for South Carolina.

Shrunken Body Is Two Feet Tall. Preserved better than many an Egyptian mummy, a shrunken body of an Indian chief who died more than 400 years ago has been brought to the United States by Juan Krael, a Peruvian engineer. The mummy is only 25 inches high, for the body was shrunk and preserved by a secret "pickling" process known only to the South American Indians.

Tradition records that this is the mummy of Kurumbi, a Peruvian chief who led his tribe against the Spaniards in 1535. The beads worn by Senor Krael were found with the shrunken warrior.—Popular Science Monthly.

FISH THAT SWALLOW STONES

Antarctic Seals and a Certain Species of Whale Need Them to Aid in Digestion.

Stones are commonly found in the stomach of the crab-eating seal of the Antarctic seas; and it is believed they with a certain amount of grit, are scooped up with the crustacea from the bottom of the sea. The emperor penguin, on the other hand, shows an instinctive craving for stones for gizzard-grinding purposes, and these stones must be assiduously sought, since these birds never rest upon dry land, but only upon ice.

Another unexpected name in this list of stone-swallowers is that of the Lesser-Boreal whale. This is a "blue" whale feeding upon minute crustacea, and fish. From the peculiar method of feeding which is, so to speak, forced upon this animal, it is unlikely that any portion of its food is scooped up from the sea-floor; hence the pebbles found in its stomach must be deliberately swallowed, and it is supposed, for the purpose of digestion, or rather, of irritation. They are hardly likely to be derived from the fish which are engulfed, for these are mostly herring.

Spider Outdone by Man. Romance in business? Of course there is. As soon as we think of foreign trade we get the glamor and thrill of it; and to Joseph Pennell's eyes a giant crane or a viaduct or a steel mill is a picture. But who of us ever thought of romance in connection with wire rope?

John Kimberley Mumford has not taken wire for granted. In "Outspanning the Spider," he has told the story of an amazing industry in a fashion to rival the fictionist. Let a single passage speak:

"Seven one-thousandths, three one-thousandths, one one-thousandth—one record after another was passed. 'At last a wire was drawn that measured one four-thousandths of an inch in diameter—twelve times finer than the hair on your head.'"

The spider, so long counted a master workman, had been outdone.—Nation's Business.

JACKSON COUNTY

The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Jackson, has been using an old building near the corner of Main and Jackson streets for a church, but having outgrown it, will build a new church at the corner of Homestead road and Wildwood avenue.

Eight young men from Jackson were arrested for disorderly conduct at a dance at Community hall, Michigan Center, and were sentenced to serve two months each in the county jail and pay a fine of $25 each and the costs. That ought to be a warning to others who disturb public gatherings.

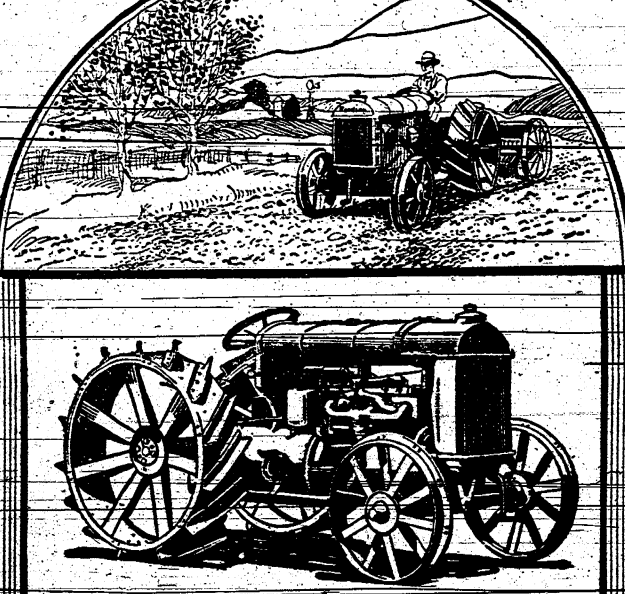

The body of Aletha Curtis aged 15 years, who disappeared from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis of Jackson, on the evening of Feb. 2, was found Sunday night in the millpond where she had probably drowned herself. Because of injured feelings when her father refused to allow her to visit a movie show, strenuous efforts have been made to locate the girl, as some thought she might have eloped with some fellow, but the fact that she was clad only in her night clothes and a coat convinced her father that she had drowned herself. The water in the pond had been low, and men with boats and jacksights made the fortunate discovery and the mystery is solved.

Robins and other song-birds, and others that do not sing very much, are arriving back from the south and are establishing summer quarters near their former habitations. The cats are watching operations with greedy eyes, for they know full well that the young fledgling soon to appear will furnish many a satisfying meal for them ere the season closes.

Past Chancellor Clishy of Birmingham was the principal speaker at the Knights of Pythias annual banquet at Arbeiter hall, last Friday evening. Rev. H. M. Smart also spoke and Mrs. Smart and Miss Day sang, to the delight of all. Frank Leeson presided as master of ceremonies.

The 60 reindeer purchased by the state arrived in Lansing Monday and were taken to the state game farm at Mason before shipping to the upper peninsula to be turned loose in the woods in hopes they will multiply rapidly and assist in furnishing food.

Neighborhood News

IRON CREEK

Frank Troiz of Jackson was in town Tuesday.

Rev. Peter Schauer preached at the church last Sunday.

Mrs. G. H. Ford went to Detroit Saturday for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. Rose Martin of Ypsilanti spent Sunday at Rollin Austin's.

Lawrence Herman visited relatives at Ann Arbor over Sunday.

Mrs. Harvey Welling of Detroit visited at George Sutton's Saturday and Sunday.

The woman's home missionary society will meet with Mrs. Otto Pini, Thursday, April 6th, a week earlier than usual.

Evan R. Bowins of East Lansing is spending his spring vacation here with his father, Geo. Bowins and sister Miss Ruth.

There is a great deal of sickness in this locality; much is caused by gripple, in some cases whole families being confined to their home.

Mrs. Grant R. Sutton spent several days last week at Fred E. Alver's in Sharon, helping care for the children who were sick with gripple.

George Ingraham who is serving on circuit court jury at Ann Arbor was at home Saturday and Sunday. He is stopping with Moore at the St. James hotel, who used to run the Manchester hotel. George was on the jury that heard the trial of one of the robbers of the old jeweler at Whittaker.

WAMPLER LAKE

We learn a cottage will be built between Wm. Sloat's and Wm. T. Eccles' cottages.

First arrivals of those who wish to see how things came through the winter have been many.

Cottages will probably be erected at the west end, on land purchased of C. N. Rothfuss last fall.

There will not be as much early fishing as heretofore as the law now prohibits taking blue gills on the beds.

Howard Clark was here from Manchester Saturday to meet Dr. Greenfield of Toledo who wants to have his cottage remodeled.

Dr. Greenfield of Toledo will make extensive changes in his cottage the coming season. The upper porch will be glass enclosed and interior arrangement of the house will be much changed.

Everybody around these parts are feeling pretty fine now that the state park commission have really located a park at Wampler and Round lake, and hope that operations will begin at once to fit the grounds for the purpose.

Henry Lentz bought what was the John Spaford cottage of Mr. Foster of Toledo, and will move it onto one of his lots and remodel it. Howard Clark of Manchester has been engaged to build a new cottage for Mr. Foster.

Township Has Ten Residents.

The most peaceful place on earth at present is said to be the township of Le-Tarre-Gaudran in the Department Seine-et-Oise, not far from Paris. Never large, the war has reduced its population to an even ten souls, only four of whom are eligible to office. But each French commune under 500 inhabitants must have ten aldermen. Le-Tarre-Gaudran elects her first four without a dissenting vote and then invites six outsiders to help steer her canoe of state. The annual budget is 1,500 francs. The present clerk says, "It's a rien a faire." His predecessor claims that in one decade he recorded three births and two deaths, but no marriages. Yet to have this commune dissolved or annexed would cost immense sums and make ten persons unhappy for ever after.

Improvement on Banjo.

A new banjo is specially designed to meet the requirement of dance orchestras, stage performances and playing in jazz halls. The banjo described in Popular Mechanics Magazine, has a wooden sounding board set just back of the head. A horn opening from the space between the head and sounding board, passes through the frame of the instrument and throws the entire volume of sound forward into the hall. A second board covers the back of the instrument. This not only increases the volume of sound but, by variations in construction, the quality of tone can be controlled to suit special purposes.

New Harbinger of Spring.

There was a drumming roar above the city the other day, rising and waning and passing into distance. "Listen to her," said the man in the street, "that's the first plane I've heard for months. Sounds kind of good." His companion was equally pleased. "You know what that means, don't you?" he rejoined. "Means it's spring; that's what it means. We used to depend on the robins, but now a very different sort of bird flies when the weather seems to warm again. Look at her, would you?" The gleam of a propeller wing as the plane banked, the sudden windborne flutter of sound, and spring's modern harbinger, distant beyond ken.—Portland Oregonian.

When She Has Gone.

"Woman's place is at home, and she should stay there," was the opinion of the municipal board of Versailles, France, when, some little time back, they considered a proposal to admit women to the higher municipal posts. And the report says that women should not be encouraged to apply for administrative positions, but should remember that they would have to continue their activities to the home.
