

WASHTENAW COUNTY

Congressman Michener has recommended Geo. A. Cook for postmaster at Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Bertha Freeman was elected matron and Chancy Freeman patron of Chelsea Star Chapter.

Earl E. Combs, a piano salesman at Ypsilanti, died to death Sunday because of a severed artery in an auto accident a week ago.

An Arbor Commandry Knights Templar will attend services at the First Methodist church of the city on Sunday evening, for annual Easter services.

R. J. Bird of Superior has tendered his resignation as member of the county board of road commissioners to take a position offered by the state tax commissioners for work in this district.

Judge Sample of the Washtenaw circuit court has been mentioned for a position of United States judge for the eastern district of Michigan. Judge Sample has served on the county bench only five years.

There is considerable excitement among the residents and land owners between Dexter and Pinckney over what Henry Ford intends to do with all the options he has secured on land overlooking the Huron river and the work of dredging the pond at Pinckney. Surely Ford intends to develop the water power facilities but where he will build a power plant and factory is like a puzzle to the people.

The dust has been very annoying to merchants of late.

TEACHER WILL BE ADDED TO SCHOOL

Following Recommendation of State Board of Education Additional Teacher Will Be Employed

Acting on recommendation of C. L. Goodrich, assistant superintendent of public instruction, acting as inspector for the department and the University of Michigan, the local school board are considering applications for an additional teacher on the staff.

Mr. Goodrich's letter said that at present two teachers here have too many daily recitations, and the University code for the accrediting of schools does not allow more than six recitations per day in any subject, and in the case of an English teacher only four or five are recommended.

Among other recommendations by the inspector are: That a high standard for teachers in the grades and the high school be maintained. That maps be provided for the fifth and sixth and seventh and eighth grades. That supplementary reading material, reference works and physiology charts be provided for the seventh and eighth grade rooms.

That the permanent records of students' scholarship be properly safeguarded against fire. That the windows on the east, south and west be provided with light-colored, very translucent shades, and that shades be removed from all north windows.

Perhaps no part of the inspector's report is more interesting on the whole than the last paragraph, in which he urges that serious thought be given toward the erection of a new school building in the near future. In closing he says: "Briefly, your building is of insufficient capacity, is inadequately lighted, is not well ventilated, lacks wardrobes, corridors, space, and proper stairways. While it is possible to remodel any school building and is of advantage to do so in many cases, with your building at Manchester the expense will be enormous and when done you will not have what you wish and need. If to building is renovated and placed in proper condition, it will not accommodate as many pupils as the present building or buildings supplied. In my opinion, the only real solution of the matter is to erect a new school building to accommodate at least the high school, or both the high school and the grades and all of the vocational and industrial work which you may wish to offer in the future."

MICHIGAN TO BE PLAYGROUND

New Yorkers Plan to Come Here for Recreation Each Week.

Michigan is to become the summer playground of Wall street financiers, according to word received by John L. Lovett, executive secretary of the Michigan Manufacturers' association.

According to information he has received, the business men of New York are looking favorably upon Michigan as the place in which to spend their week-ends during the summer months and a number of them are offering to purchase sites for cottages at some attractive Michigan lake. These men propose to leave their desks in New York Saturday afternoon during the summer, reaching Michigan by Sunday morning. They would remain until Monday evening, getting back to New York early Tuesday morning in time for business. It is pointed out by these enthusiastic New Yorkers that Michigan is but a night's ride from Wall street and that the advantages of relaxation to be found here cannot be duplicated anywhere in the country. They have been to the state's lakes and other beautiful spots, those who enjoy fishing being especially enthused.

GOING NATURE "ONE BETTER"

Man Has Been Engaged in Work of Altering Domestic Animals for Many Centuries.

What a curious thing it is to realize that St. Bernard, a Pekinese, and a Skye terrier are all three from a common wild stock.

Man has been altering domestic animals of every kind for centuries past. He has taken the common pigeon and invented something like 60 distinct varieties, while hundreds of different sorts of fowls have come from the original jungle bird of Ceylon.

Curious experiments have been made in coloring birds by feeding them on certain foods. One man obtained pigeons of a beautiful red by putting in their food a chemical with the terrible name of "methyltrabromo fluorescein," and he got others of a rich blue by similar means.

Man is changing not only animals and birds, but also fish and insects. Take bees, for instance. Of course, various species of bees are constantly crossed in order to get kinds that will produce a bee which shall be more useful for fertilizing flowers than any of the present sorts.

With object, certain breeders are trying to produce a bee with a longer tongue than any possess at present. For flowers like clover such a bee would be invaluable, since the result would be a great increase of fertile flowers, and consequently, seed.

The latest branch of creation which man is tackling with a view to modifying is fish. The experiments were begun at the University of Chicago, about five years ago.

NEVER LINCOLN'S REAL LOVE

His Marriage With Mary Todd Seems to Have Been Largely Matter of Convenience.

Mary Todd, wife of Abraham Lincoln, was the sort of woman who is described as "capable and upright." Lincoln is testified by biographers, was not deeply in love with Mary either before or after their marriage. As a matter of fact, his heart was buried in the grave of his first love, and he had proposed marriage to a second and unwilling young woman. By the time he married Mary Todd, who was neither beautiful nor gracious, he had come to regard marriage as a necessity rather than as the ultimate result of love and romance.

Their courtship was long and suffered many bumps and separations before it culminated in marriage. When Lincoln first met Miss Todd she was only sixteen years old and was being courted by Stephen Douglass, the great man's rival in many things.

Lincoln had suggested in a rather offhand way that he would marry her. Apparently regret set in rather soon, for he made several attempts to gracefully withdraw from the compact. But Mary, with prophetic vision, had an idea that he would one day reach the White House and she was determined to be his mistress.

"Kidnap" Camera. When you inquire about the big camera the station photographer uses in taking the 1 1/2-inch square photographs for the 50-trip family ticket he says "Oh, it is a special one we invented years ago for kidnaping." "How do you number them?" "It is a slip of paper, and each of these spaces on the sheet of paper corresponds to one on the plate. Each plate is numbered. We used to use this camera for kidnaping. Then you swallow your pride and ask body: "What do you mean kidnaping?" He laughs kindly at your ignorance. "Why, you know," he says, "we take our camera and go out on the street and see a little boy and take his picture. We get his name and address. By and by, after we develop the picture, we go around to his home and show it to his mother. If she likes the picture, she buys one. That's kidnaping."—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Furs

Trapping is being carried on more extensively this season than for the last ten years, and the catch is abnormal, reports the manager of the Winnipeg Fur Auction Sales company. Economic laws work as rigidly in the fur north as elsewhere. A shortage of any commodity runs prices up. Then high prices lure larger production. With the supply increased, price slumps. Then production falls off.

It's the eternal merry-go-round, with speculators playing the turn in the market.

He Found Himself. The marine had tumbled off a motorcycle, and he was dead to the world when they carried him to the hospital. The next morning he woke up just as the doctor came around to see how the patient was getting along.

"Well, my man," said the doctor cheerily, "how did you find yourself this morning?" "I opened my eyes," said the Gyrene, "took a good look at the bed—saw some guy lying in it—and there I was."—The Leatherneck.

The Youngest Soldier Killed. Representative Isaac Segal, of New York, recently made claim in the house of representatives that Albert Cohen, whose parents now live in Memphis, Tenn., was the youngest soldier to be killed in action in France. He was killed in action on October 5, 1918, while serving with the 26th infantry. At the time of his enlistment he was thirteen years and six months old.

And Now the "Final Hopper." That section of Manhattan called the Acropolis of America, extending from Riverside drive to Montauk-point park, has a new designation for ultra-modern girls—"final-hoppers." They are the young women who are a year ahead of the present or think they are doing now what the rest of their sex will be doing at some time in the future.

A final-hopper is never in style. She is a trailblazer, a pathfinder. She anticipates style. As soon as what she is doing is taken up and adopted by the crowd she drops it and turns to something else that is absolutely new. That applies to music, art, dancing, dress and even slang. She is ever on the still hunt for anything fresh that has never before been done or known—Raymond G. Carroll, in the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

SIEGFRIED'S SWORD IN BERLIN

Weapon Had Long Been in German Capital, Though the Hero Was Really a Belgian.

The theft of the sword from the statue of Siegfried in Berlin raises the question: What has Berlin to do with Siegfried's sword or with Siegfried himself? That hero was no Prussian, but rather a Belgian—at any rate a Netherlander—and it was a Burgundian princess that he married. In his day the Burgundians were an obscure tribe and scarcely heard of in Burgundy and along the Rhine.

Moreover, the difference in character makes it hopelessly incongruous for the Prussians of today to exploit Siegfried as one of their national heroes. Hagen of Troje would be more fit, chosen at the moment when he treacherously murders Siegfried, when he steals Kriemhilde's fortune or when he brutally slays the infant Ortleib. But Siegfried was honorable, Siegfried was brave. Siegfried was chivalric, Siegfried was not a Hohenzollern. To exploit Siegfried and his Balming as emblematic of our day, is gross impertinence, perhaps. It is well that the sword is gone. The statue itself should follow it into retirement from a place where it does not belong.—New York Tribune.

Now Believe London Is Dead.

The Danes are at last convinced that Jack London is dead. A rumor had been widely circulated among them to the effect that the American author was living a secluded life on a South-sea island and would not emerge until he had finished a momentous novel. A young Dane returned to Copenhagen the other day, fresh from San Francisco, who had taken a walk with Mrs. Jack London, near the London California home. Coming to a boulder, he leaped over it. Mrs. London said: "Do you know what you have just done?" The Dane confessed his ignorance. "You have jumped over my husband's grave," she said. The Dane apologized for his seeming lack of respect, took the next train for South Brooklyn, and embarked on the Oscar II for the Danish capital, where he related his experiences. Jack London's Danish publisher, Herr Martin, said: "I never did quite believe that rumor."—New York Evening Post.

Valuable Weather Predictions. Forecasts recently issued by the British meteorological office predicted ten days of fair weather, probably a record for long distance weather prediction in England. ARE HOME FROM FLORIDA SOJOURN Came North to Be Greeted With Weather With Hint of the Winter Still Left.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Nisle and daughter Irene and Mrs. F. H. Blosser arrived home Wednesday from Orlando, Florida. Mrs. Blosser, who was taken ill while there was detained several weeks longer than planned, and is not yet fully recovered, though much better. They experienced considerable difference in weather on the trip home, leaving the southern with bright sun every day and a temperature of about 85 degrees, they found here a gray, blustery day typical of the month.

Mr. Nisle and family drove south early in November and report a delightful winter and one more enjoyed than ever before. They report a wonderful influx of northern people into all parts of the state for the winter. In consequence of this increasing tourist attendance many improvements of a public utility nature are being made throughout the state, adding to the value and the desirability of property.

Mr. Nisle has been in the habit of driving both ways but the roads were reported in bad shape at this particular time so he concluded to leave his car there for use next year and all returned by train.

A Curie of Radium.

Mme. Curie's modest autobiography omits mention of one single honor that more than anything else will help make her name immortal. The official scientific designation of the unit of radioactivity is named in her honor the "curie," and the degree of radioactivity is expressed in millcuries, centicuries and so on up the metric system scale. In selecting Mme. Curie's name scientific bodies have followed the well-established custom that accounts for the introduction of such words as ohm, watt, ampere, etc., into our language—all of them the names of inventors or discoverers.—Delineator.

Improving on Nature.

I plucked an autumn leaf in the park and took it to the studio. Showing it to the man with the wonderful relatives, I said: "How's that for an imitation leaf made out of a very fine grade of leather?" "Leasee?" asked the man, with the wonderful relatives. "Passing his fingers over the tinted surface, he remarked: 'My uncle used to make imitation leaves.' 'I suppose,' I queried, 'that they were much better than this one?' He looked at me in pity and sneeringly said: 'I'll say they was!'"—Exchange.

LENAWEE COUNTY

A company has been organized at Adrian to capitalize at $200,000 and purchase Hotel Gregg and thoroughly remodel and furnish it.

Bids are asked for building a cattle barn on the fair grounds at Adrian, 64x224 feet and "H" from the center 64x88 feet. The building is to house 300 head of cattle.

E. H. Ahrens, formerly proprietor of the Clinton Local and Tecumseh Herald and for the past year and more of the Blissfield Advance, has sold out to his printer, Mr. Berry. Wilson Aldrich, a Tecumseh grocer relates that when on his way home Saturday night a man stepped from behind a tree and struck at him with a weapon, but he dodged and then laid the man out with his fist and ran for home before the vanquished one could arise. He thinks the man knew that he was carrying money.

FREE SEEDS FOR THE GARDEN

Your's for the Asking—Gift of 2nd District Congressman.

The Enterprise has a miscellaneous collection of garden seeds for free distribution in this locality. The seeds come from Congressman Earl C. Michener and are a part of the annual free distribution authorized by congress. We have no doubt the seeds are perfectly good—even though free—and should be used.

Mr. Michener sent them to the Enterprise presumably thinking the easiest way of getting them into the hands of people who would use them. This free distribution of seeds is a custom so old that the origin has been forgotten. Probably it was started at a time when seeds were hard to obtain, money was not plentiful and one could not walk into a cross-roads store and in a few minutes pick up a collection of vegetables and flowers. The custom is now opposed by many, but as long as Congress continues to vote for it he wants his constituents to have a chance at the collection.

TEACHERS' EXAMS APRIL 27-29

Three-Day Session at Ann Arbor for Washtenaw County Teachers.

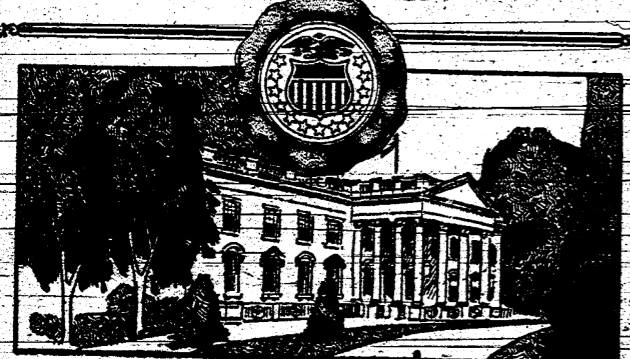

Examination of teachers for the county schools will be held at the Ann Arbor high school beginning Thursday, April 27th at 8 o'clock, Eastern Standard time and will be continued Friday and Saturday.

Any applicant who observes Saturday as the Sabbath day may be examined in the subjects assigned for Saturday on Wednesday morning.

The questions will not be the same as those for Saturday. No one will be allowed to write Wednesday morning except those who keep Saturday as the Sabbath day.

All applicants not known to Evan Essery, county commissioner, must furnish written references as to their eligibility.

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST JOB—AND ITS SCOPE

Every year the Presidency of the United States grows more important, until now it is recognized as the biggest job in the world. Yet few people realize that the president is not chosen by a majority vote and that several of our presidents have not been the most popular choice of all the people. This fact is clearly discussed in the story of the Presidency, one of the series of articles on Our Government, which we are issuing monthly. If you are not receiving this material, drop in and let us add your name to the list of those to whom we are sending it each month.

NEVER before has the amazing Knight sleeve-valve motor been available in so fine a car at so low a price. Europe uses the Knight motor in her most famous and expensive cars. Now Willys engineering, Willys' famous production, put it in the reach of all in a car equally famous, but far less costly.

The Motor. The Willys-Knight motor is the highest development of the Knight sliding sleeve-valve principle. It gets more power out of less gas than any other motor of its size and weight. It is free from valve trouble, free from carbon trouble, smooth, quiet, flexible. Scientific tests and driver experience show that it grows more powerful with use. And its life-limit has never yet been ascertained.

The Car. The Willys-Knight Car is especially designed to match the motor in long life and distinction. Graceful, refined, dignified, its sturdy steel chassis beats off jolts and jars and holds the body permanently free from rattles and squeaks. Vigilant springs translate the roll of the road into undulating ease. It is fleet, comfortable, responsible—and a sound investment.

MARRIAGE and the AFTER

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"Then you agree with me?" he asked eagerly.

He rose the somber sweetness of the library, with the man she admired and respected above all others looking to her for confidence and counsel, what could she say? Her hand had found the door handle, and she was about to open it when she remembered that she had not yet said a word. She looked at him and he looked at her. He was waiting for her to say something. She was waiting for him to say something. He was waiting for her to say something. She was waiting for him to say something.

When Will There Be A Disarmament of Dining Tables?

Suppose everybody would recognize the fact that there's no gain but much loss in keeping up hostilities with the stomach.

Suppose the ancient aggravation of improper food on indigestive organs should be settled by a guarantee of sensible diet and tranquil digestion!

The saving would be beyond all possibility of counting.

Yet millions go on declaring war on the stomach and accepting a load of misery on a stomach, heavy unbalanced and highly-seasoned food at breakfast or lunch—and wonder why they feel so nervous and why their efficiency is so low.

Order Grape-Nuts from your grocer today, and let a delighted taste pass a treaty of peace to an enthusiastic digestion and assimilation.

There's a charm and satisfaction to this delicious food which prompts appetite to say, "There's a meal!" and then to answer, "Thank goodness, here's peace at last!"

Grape-Nuts is the perfected nutriment of wheat and malted barley—sweet, crisp, and wonderfully nourishing. It digests quickly, and provides the necessary elements including the vital mineral salts for body, nerve and brain.

Order Grape-Nuts from your grocer today, and let a delighted taste pass a treaty of peace to an enthusiastic digestion and assimilation.

There's a Reason!

Potato Cookery

Potatoes are a common food upon our tables but in the average home they are not prepared with the care and attention that they should be given.

1. The potatoes should be washed and scrubbed to remove all dirt and soil.

2. The potatoes should be cut into uniform pieces.

3. The potatoes should be cooked in a large amount of water.

4. The potatoes should be served with butter and salt.

One of Great City's Tragedies.

An old-time tragedy of the Central Market has been recalled by the death of an advanced age of one rich woman, who for many years made a poor living there overhauling garbage cans and selling anything of value she might be able to find there.

Her name was unknown, and for nearly half a century she was merely called "Thirteen." Fifty years ago she was a fashionable and well-to-do society in Paris to pass a riotous night in the cafes and stalls of the market.

On one occasion, a respectable woman of a gay party, was robbed of money and jewels, presumably by her second husband.

She had a large fortune, and she sought employment and gradually fell into extreme poverty. She got her nick-nack and went to the Central Market to sell her goods.

She was known in an Enterprise office.

BRIDGEWATER

George Schmidt visited Dr. H. W. Schmidt in Chelsea, Saturday.

William Quid had purchased a new Dodge touring car and we suspect that he will have a sedan before winter comes.

Misses Blanche and Lilian Robinson of an Arbor are visiting their mother, Mrs. Wm. Gadd, and husband this week.

The roads are very good now. Some are somewhat rough, but the efficient road workers are smoothing them out as fast as possible.

George Girshick was sick in bed with the flu last week and Mrs. Girshick besides doing her house work had to feed the sheep and do chores.

A large number of people in this township are to be attended to by the grippe, the influenza, or something of the kind and in some cases nearly the whole family are sick.

Mrs. Frank Lowry of Manchester came to see the doctor at the home of Mrs. Nettie Lowry's in the whole family was sick with the exception of her mother, Mrs. Nettie Lowry.

We see by the Enterprise that the board of road commissioners of Washington county advertise that they will be at the Park schoolhouse Saturday, April 15th at 2 o'clock p. m. to discuss the road question.

SHIPS THAT FATTEN SAILORS

Modern "Tankers" Are Now Blamed for Added Weight Taken On by the Seaman.

Shipping experts continue to argue regarding the advantages of oil fuel upon such surfaces as steel casings, and other shipping accessories are widely known; ships' doctors are now divided in the question of whether it is harmful or beneficial in its effect upon sailors, a writer in London Tit-Bits states.

The roads are very good now. Some are somewhat rough, but the efficient road workers are smoothing them out as fast as possible.
