If Michigan is to continue as a leader in manufacturing aim we were responsible for 15 per cent of the entire nations was armament output, manasment must get production and union contracts must be enforced."

John L Lovett, manager of the Michigan Manufacturers' Association, was speaking. His adudence was a group of 200 college professors and instructors.

Brusque and straight-forward Lovett is realist in the world of industrial relations. A graduate of the University of Kansas, he served as is legislative correspondent of the Chicago Tribunt at Springneld, Ill. For the past 27 years he has been employed by Arichigan manufacturers; he has been frank and outspoken in warning them of their faults as he has been in depioring labor's irresponsibility and restrictions on production, where he believes they exist.

Michigan, if the draft doesn't mow down Fritz Crisler's freshmen, can be one of the best. So can St. Mary's with new and bigger men coming in. Navy may rank close to Army—but not too close. Navy will down Frity Cristor's fract ertainly be the second hest team in the east. Pennsylvania won't be far away, the top of the Ivy league, in a much closer run.

What about Notre Dame with

Frank Leahy back? Good, but not great. The South and Midwest will both be strong. The East, outside of Army and Navy, wen't be much different. The Far West still has a wide gap to close. The best pick along the Pacific will be St. Mary's. where Jimmy Pheian gave out one of the best coaching jobs I've ever seen and where Herman Wederney-er will again be a vital factor. What about the two pro leagues? We'll turn that over to the Delphic Oracle. What about boxing? The two tops
