VOLUME SEVENTY-NINE $1.50 a Year In Advance MANCHESTER, MICH. THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1946 $1.50 a Year In Advance NUMBER THIRTY-NINE

COUNTY WILL TAKE OVER STATE ROADS

Washtenaw County Road Commission on July 1 will assume the maintenance of state trunkline highways in that county, under contract with the State Highway Department.

The original party formula is based on the period from 1936 to 1941. The party price of what the farmer has to sell is determined by the cost of what he has to buy, comparable to the amount that product would have purchased during the base period. In theory then, the party price is supposed to advance automatically with the rising price of things which the farmer must buy to carry on his business. In practice this has not worked out due to several reasons, not the least of which is that farm labor which was never figured in the original cost of what the farmer has to buy increased 84% over the wages paid farm help during the period 1936-1941.

However, the OPA does not want any revision in party prices. It would raise retail food prices 15% and begot new drive for wage increases.

The general opinion of the group last Friday evening was that the increase in wages paid to farm labor should be figured in the party price for economic conditions on farms. So one way to help avoid a depression is to maintain satisfactory income on farms.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Matteson.

MRS. MATILDA GROSSMAN

Mrs. Matilda Grossman, 65, died at Tecumseh hospital last Monday night. Born in August, 1880, in Freedom township, she was the daughter of Jacob and Basina Bravatzki.

She was married in March, 1918, to George Grossman. She was a member of Emanuel, Evangelical and Reformed church and of the Women's Guild. She was a charter member of the MOM's Club.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Emanuel church, which burial in the Oak Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Grossman is survived by her husband, three sons, Roland, George, Jr., and Milton of Manchester; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Goodell of Manchester; and three granddaughters, two sisters, Mrs. Little Jacob of Sharon township and Mrs. Julia Tetter of Manchester and two brothers, Theodore Schabie of Ann Arbor and Oscar Schabie of Hamilton, Ohio.

At the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church presided over by Bishop Raymond J. White, the Rev. John Bunney was assigned to the Manchester church. During the past 11 years the Manchester and Napoleon Methodist churches have had Rev. Bunney as their pastor, but the present assignment is for the Manchester church alone. The Napoleon church will be cared for in some other way.

ALL IS QUIET AFTER ELECTION

Michigan's "Republican" civil war was now over — to quote words voiced last week by former Governor Murray H. Van Wagoner, a Democrat.

It was a hard fought political campaign, and some party scars are in evidence.

The democratic nominee for governor has a choice of effective ammunition, all supplied by rivals of the winning Republican candidate. Looking over some of the pre-primary campaign speeches, in which several G.O.P. candidates paraded plenty of political bokum, we suspect that John Wagoner, chairman of the Republican state central committee, is secretly thankful that the primary was held so early in June.

The disappointed party candidates and their followers will have a long "cooling off" period before they go to the ballot box again in November.

The Michigan Children's Institute, Ann Arbor, seeks understanding foster parents for Billy, age 12, a difficult child. Here's the story. His family lived in trucks, trailers, shacks; they hitch-hiked about the country. At 21 Billy's mother had four children. Billy's father rarely worked. When he did, he drank but he was not violent. Billy has never known love and care.

The Institute is interested in Billy because he is attractive, intelligent, likeable, eager to learn. Upon receipt of a letter, the institute will send a representative within 200 miles of Ann Arbor. Good luck, Billy!

State of fishing licenses will break all records in Michigan, according to conservation officials. The bass-pan fish season opens Tuesday (June 20). To help defray increased costs, the conservation commission may ask the legislature to raise resident fishing fee from $1 to $1.50, deer license from .25 to $3, and small game fee from $1 to $1.50. State ferries at the Straits of Mackinac are now operating on a summer tourist schedule of excursions.

Gold sells in Canada for $21 an ounce, and in the United States for $30 an ounce. That is why the Detroit Customs office estimates that $100,000,000 worth of gold is smuggled into this country annually from Canada, much of it through Detroit. A doughnut machine, five ice cream makers and ten electric toasters were acquired by the State of Michigan for use at state institutions. With other equipment the purchase of federal surplus property, valued at $40,000, cost the taxpayers $1,224.

Hotel disasters at Chicago and Dubuque, Iowa, prompted fire chiefs in many Michigan municipalities to make a hurried survey of local hotel facilities. Flint investigators found one office building whose exit doors were locked day and night. The first of Michigan's 108 fairs and festivals will be held at Ithaca, July 1-5. The last at Hartford, Oct. 1-5. Forty thousand pounds of copper sulfate compound will be used this summer to kill snails on bathing beaches. The snails cause swimmers' itch.

State stream control commission supervises the program. Sentiment for the one-room public red school house is gradually fading in face of better educational facilities at consolidated schools. Voters in the vicinity of Nashville in Barry county have just approved merging of 12 school districts into a rural one. Having just spent nearly $400,000 to celebrate the golden jubilee of the automobile industry, Detroit is now replacing 19,000 street arc lamps.

While small towns offer an opportunity for industrial workers to have a home, garden and more leisure time, many of these towns have poor schools, run-down churches, dirty streets and a dependency rate higher than that of the larger cities, according to Dr. David E. Lindstrom, University of Illinois sociologist and president of the American Country Life association which held its annual meeting last week at Michigan State college.

Twenty-two members and guests of the Freedom Home Extension Club attended a picnic at Pleasant Lake Sunday afternoon.

Miss Elaine Reno, Miss Helen Huschke of Webberville and the Misses Vivian Harris and Virginia Harris of Ann Arbor returned Tuesday from a week's vacation in New York City.

THREE FROM MANCHESTER RECEIVE U. OF M. DEGREES

With Perry Field as the setting for the first time since 1941, Commencement will be held at the University of Michigan at 6 p. m. on Saturday, June 22.

There are 1,711 candidates for degrees at the 102 Commencement. Diplomas will be awarded to those candidates who complete the academic requirements as established by the faculty and the Board of Regents.

Among those receiving degrees are three from Manchester as follows: Mary Patricia Cameron, A. B.; Leslie Warren Parr, Bachelor of Science in Engin. (Chem.); and Kenneth Edward Way, A. B.

Handwriting on the Ballot

If Tuesday's Primary election results mean what they seem to a lot of people are tired of a lot of things. They are disgusted with a great many things and they evidently want that very plain at the polls—those that did get out and vote—when they chose Sigler and Keyes as their candidates.

I doubt that they were voting for these candidates as much as they were voting against the group that has been in office during the time that the recent accusations of graft and rank favors have come to light.

For many years the rural districts and small towns have been the strongholds of the "reform" candidates, but the larger cities have seemed to go along with the organized party groups, but this time it was different. The towns which were the heart of the rural areas fell out of line somewhat, but the city folks went along with them and look what happened.

So it seems to us that a lot of people who were disgusted showed up at the polls and voted Tuesday. They perhaps the powers that be in national political circles might be wise to take a second look at what is happening in Michigan, California and other states where recent primary elections have been held. If the "trend" does not change and rapidly some of our national top-drawer office holders had better get a different slant on things or stook up on tornado insurance for the wrath of the people may soon be on their heads.

At present, two of the three houses is complete. One contains chickens, and the other some 2,000 turkey poulters, and the third is nearly ready for use. Shore's Cafe uses an average of 1500 chickens a week, and it is hoped that soon they will all be produced here, plus the large number of turkeys, ducks used particularly during the holidays. The farm also now has some 80 cows, 100 pigs and other stock.

Among the guests were members of the Pioneer Club of Dearborn, of which Mr. Shore is a prominent member and they as a token of their esteem, with appropriate ceremony, presented him with a flag to adorn the pole on his front lawn.

At a late hour the last of the Jackson party guests departed and the Maurice Dunn house now occupied by the "Don Gieskes". They plan to take possession in July. The Norvell Mill pond is attracting many fishermen this Mr. Shore's ability as a host and excellent food, etc. consumer, proved to those not already familiar with it, why Mr. Shore's restaurant is so successful. May we add our humble congratulations and those of the community to Mr. Shore and express our gratitude to him for making his farm one of the show places of our community.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE AT SHORE FARMS

Sam Shore held "open house" Tuesday afternoon at his farm west of town, having as guests more than 300 of his friends and neighbors, city officials and others from Dearborn; many of the business and professional men of Manchester and vicinity; reporters or various daily newspapers, poultry and farm journals, etc., who came to inspect this ultra modern poultry plant. Assisting him as co-hosts were R. C. Merfether, Luther Klager, Allen Schaffner, Wm. Goings and others who have helped him develop this project.

The event was in celebration of the beginning of production of chickens for use in this famous restaurant in Dearborn. The poultry unit consists of three buildings each 50x155 each of which has a capacity of 6,000 chickens.

The first group of 1,500 was recently sent to Dearborn, having attained an average of two and a quarter pounds in six weeks and three days, a record unsurpassed in broiler production. This record was made because of the ideal conditions under which the chickens were raised and the cleanliness and scientific feeding methods employed, and of course the excellent chicks used. They are New Hampshire Reds from Klages—of course.

One of the unique features of the chicken houses which has contributed to its success is the growth and almost unheard of low mortality rate, is the radiant heat in the houses. This consists of hot water pipes imbedded in the concrete floor, which keeps the litter on which the chickens are raised absolutely dry at all times and the heat in which the baby chicks are placed at a very even summer temperature.

At present, two of the three houses is complete. One contains chickens, and the other some 2,000 turkey poulters, and the third is nearly ready for use. Shore's Cafe uses an average of 1500 chickens a week, and it is hoped that soon they will all be produced here, plus the large number of turkeys, ducks used particularly during the holidays. NO INDIANS... But here is where some 25,000 Indian clay pipes can be made every day. The factory is at Pamplin City, Va.

In These United States

Indian Stone Pipes Are Big Industry in Virginia Town

Pamplin City, Virginia, town of 300, has the world's largest plant making Indian stone clay pipes. The factory has a capacity of 25,000 "smokers" per day, using a kiln that will handle 200,000 at a single burning. It uses four regular employees and as many as 70 on a part-time basis.

Most prized product of the plant is patented after the "Powhatan" Indian pipe. This is held to have been invented by Virginia Indians many generations ago in the Virginia county whose name it bears. It had a long stem, gradually curved at the upper end so that the smoker once seated in his easy chair could pull away knowing that "all the nicotine would be gone after the long journey through it and the smoke well cooled" when he lit the pipe...

Clay in the Pamplin City area meets requirements for the original "Powhatan" as well as other pipes including "Old Virginia," "Powwow" and "Wigwam." It has been used for more than 200 years, according to authentic records, having "gone through" the system since for almost 50 years.

Pamplin City has a scene of a couple of radio stations. This is a fairly recent development. The station is owned by the late Mrs. J. W. Rivers (widow of the late J. W. Rivers) and is known as "W. J. Rivers Radio." It is a 50-watt station and is owned by Mrs. Rivers and her son, John W. Rivers, Jr., who is a member of the local radio club.

Organization Plans 1,000 Movie Circuits for Farmers

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Under sponsorship of the Foundation for American Agriculture, from which it received a substantial grant of money, the Farm Film Foundation has been incorporated here under the presidency of Walter D. Fuller, president of the Curtis Publishing Company.

The newly organized film foundation has a major objective of creating a minimum of 1,000 sound moving picture circuits throughout rural America; maintaining a national film library from which any responsible group can secure desirable pictures; and setting up of an advisory committee on farm film production which will be available to any acceptable organization desiring to produce and circulate pictures through the foundation facilities.

The creation of this film foundation was among the announced objectives of the Foundation for American Agriculture upon its organization several months ago. Other officers of the foundation include: Paul Armstrong, general manager, California Fruit Growers Exchange; Herbert Voorhees, director, American Farm Bureau federation; Ken Gerer, executive committee, National Co-operative Milk Producers' association, Hartford, Conn.; E. A. Edger, chairman, executive committee, National Grange, North-west, Bercorporeation, Minneapolis, Minn.; and Earl W. Benjamin, eastern director, Washington Co-operative Farm association, Seattle.

Leaders of major farm groups and other industry leaders are being named to a board of trustees and a national advisory board composed of Herbert Voorhees, director, American Farm Bureau federation; David L. Walsh of Massachusetts; Elbert Thomas of Utah; Claude Pepper of Florida; Lester Hill of Alabama; Joe Guiley of Oregon; and Wayne Morse of Oregon.

The president got right down to cases. His organization has always followed President Truman's recommendations in labor disputes and the record proves it. Murray declared: "Look at the auto, steel and oil disputes. We went along with the conflicting boards. In some cases we did not accept much below what we asked, but we did so patriotically."

"Can industry say so much?" Murray continued. "Look what happened during the auto strike. General Motors held out for months against the recommendations of Truman's fact-finding board, which labor was willing to accept. That was a case of management striking against the government, but it was President Truman who got the most serious of congress to upgrade General Motors officials as he did recently against labor?" He did not.

NO-STRIKE PLEDGE: Then, with a scowl, the usually mild-mannered CIO boss softly added: "Did he offer legislation then to penalize and entangle all management he did in this case against labor? Well, I don't remember reading anything."

Senator Hill inquired if labor would be willing to offer Truman a compromise on the strike issue, such as a six month no-strike pledge. "It is impossible, as far as the CIO is concerned," replied Murray emphatically. "My organization is run on Democratic lines and such a pledge could never be enforced. When members of a CIO union are working under unfavorable conditions, I couldn't distance to them not to strike. Therefore, I would never agree to such a pledge."

PLAIN TALK ON IDIOTS: No matter who you may think of his stand on other matters, Harry Truman is right about automobile strikes. He has said it in many other ways to cook a potato except as french fries. Try to get a potato or boiled one, without indigestion.

PRODIGY OF SCIENCE: Dr. Linnus Pauling, California Institute of Technology, who has been awarded the Willard Gibbs medal by Chicago section of American Chemical society. At age of 36, in 1931, he was hailed as a "prodigy of American science." Native of Portland, Ore., he is one of world's leading theoretical chemists. He is a graduate of Oregon State college.

Early had the ball fans gathered, But the game was slow to start Due to technical objections. On an organizer's part. Now the battle seemed impending— Fans sat ready to entwine Till a further stay demanded. From some unaided union dees; Then a check-off was demanded. And the game was over. When three pitchers were excluded As they had no union card!

Eugene Senate Vandenberg of Michigan not only has been about a good job on foreign relations, but he takes it—and Vandenberg's Michigan one is necessary to the other. SENATE LABOR REBELLION: Deadlines, backstage pumbeas against President Truman's labor program were scored by CIO Pres. Paul Murray in a scorching tirade held by the senate education and labor committee. Those present included Murray; Lew Hine, AFL legislative representative; and Miller, representing Al Whitney's railway trainmen; plus Senator Jim Murray of Montana (chairman); David L. Walsh of Massachusetts; Elbert Thomas of Utah; Claude Pepper of Florida; Lester Hill of Alabama; Joe Guiley of Oregon; and Wayne Morse of Oregon.

C. to study effects of the passage of the federal airport bill and other matters. Those present at the meeting included William L. Anderson, president, Pennsylvania; Leo Dwyer, Indiana; David Conover, Ohio; Edward F. Knapp, secretary-treasurer, Vermont; Clarence W. Brown, Ohio; and others. Other members of the group included: W. H. Brown, Ohio; Cooker Shaw, Massachusetts; W. F. Pennington, Maryland; L. L. Schroeder, Minnesota; Charles L. Payne, New Jersey; A. W. Hoy, Oklahoma; William S. Channing, New Mexico.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "Ontario airport enthusiasts who have worked for 10 years to attain the development of a modern airport that could be used for industrial purposes are coming to realize their dream."—Ontario, Oregon Observer, Ontario, Ore.

More Crop Dusting: Farms may be dusted from airplanes in the future. One farm near Omega, Okla., first of the kind in that section, proved that dusting from the air not only costs less, but is more efficient, such as dusting of sprays from tractors. It is more efficient, such as a single plane can dust 1,000 acres per day.

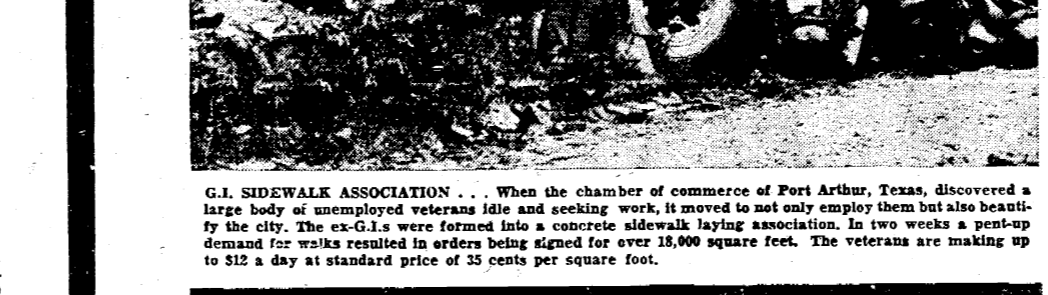

FLYING MISSIONARIES: Through aeronautics service program for prospective foreign missionaries is the latest innovation of the "peace" city. Because of the two light training planes will be used in the course, which will include commercial pilot course and theory of flight, meteorology, navigation and aircraft maintenance.

Train Tennessee Vote: The Miss. Tenn. going service has been approved by the veterans' administration to accept application for flight training under the G.I. bill of rights. Courses offered to veterans include private flying course, commercial pilot course and single-engine rating course.

Major Arthur Wormuth, the "one-man" army, has visited many of the larger towns recently as field director for the Flying Tigers air circus.

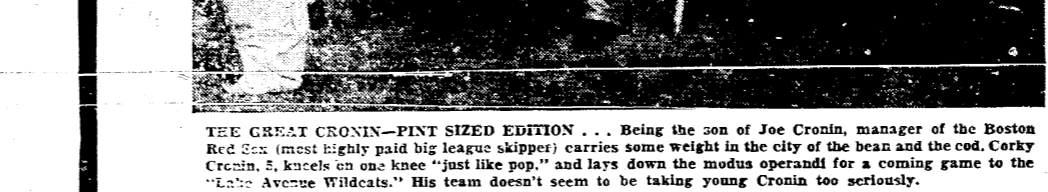

G.I. SIDEWALK ASSOCIATION... When the chamber of commerce of Port Arthur, Texas, discovered a large body of unemployed veterans idle and seeking work, it moved to not only employ them but also beautify the city. The ex-G.I.s were formed into a concrete sidewalk laying association. In two weeks a pent-up demand for work resulted in orders being signed for over 15,000 square feet. The veterans are making up to $12 a day at standard price of 3 cents per square foot.

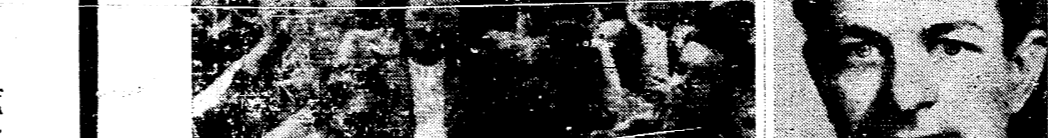

THE GREAT CRONIN—PINT SIZED EDITION... Being the son of Joe Cronin, manager of the Boston Red Sox (most highly paid big league skipper) carries some weight in the city of the bean and the cod. Corky Cronin, 11, knelt on one knee ("just like pop") and lays down the mottos operandi for a coming game to the "Lido Avenue Wildcatters." His team doesn't seem to be taking young Cronin too seriously.

PRODIGY OF SCIENCE... Dr. Linnus Pauling, California Institute of Technology, who has been awarded the Willard Gibbs medal by Chicago section of American Chemical society. At age of 36, in 1931, he was hailed as a "prodigy of American science." Native of Portland, Ore., he is one of world's leading theoretical chemists. He is a graduate of Oregon State college.

THE UNION AT THE BAT: 'Twas a balmy day in summer With a double-headed plumed— But to one game they had cut it On the union's late demand! Early had the ball fans gathered, But the game was slow to start Due to technical objections. On an organizer's part. Now the battle seemed impending— Fans sat ready to entwine Till a further stay demanded. From some unaided union dees; Then a check-off was demanded. And the game was over. When three pitchers were excluded As they had no union card!

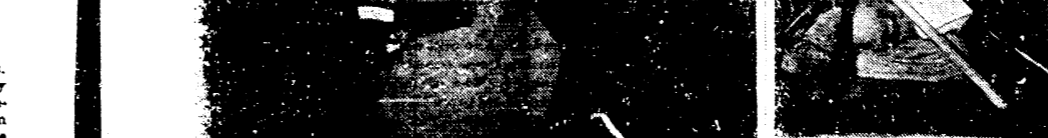

CAN YOU REMEMBER: Any boy who, whenever might happen at breakfast, it would never wind up as a radio broadcast. America is now to get bread made from potatoes. We await the future who will not have a rail trench fire.

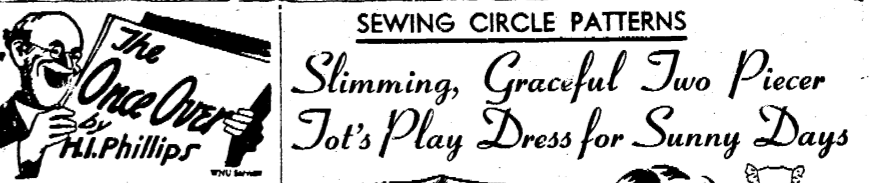

WE UNDERSTAND THAT CHESTER BOWLES HOPES THAT WHATEVER THE CRISIS MAY BE, HE WILL NOT BE CALLED UPON TO SUE FOR PROTECTION. We understand that Chester Bowles hopes that whatever the crisis may be, he will not be called upon to sue for protection.

GOT HIS BREAD... A determined sort of a lad, Charles Robinson, T. Somerville, Mass., trekked through Somerville, Medford, Everett and Chelsea to find bread for his mother. He ended with police protection.

THE SHOWGIRLS: Bea Little once played chemist-defer at a Paris casino when she suddenly recognized the couple thought she stood out "banquet" and paid her $50,000 francs.

FISHING BY RADIO: Hardline fishermen are already using the device and hope to increase use, catches greatly. Any instrument that can locate sardines should be terrific when after swordfish. Different fish make different sounds. These will be tabulated so fishermen may know which fish is broadcasting.

Graceful Two-Piece: A SIMPLE, unpretentious two-piece frock for the slightly larger woman. Waistline fitted, a neat fit, shoulder shirring gives a soft feminine touch. The patterned skirt is graceful and demure. Dress it up with a flower bouquet or frilly labors or dickers.

ASK ME ANOTHER? A General Quiz: The Questions: 1. The cornerstone of the White House was laid during whose term of office? 2. What fish has used the radar principle for millions of years? 3. What does "sotto voce" mean? 4. What color is the rectangular flag with a white center that is hoisted when a ship is about to sail? 5. Who would wear a burmoss? 6. When do we start dying? 7. For whom was the month of July named? 8. What type of ship was the old Constitution?

The Answers: 1. George Washington. 2. The electric eel. 3. In a process similar to radar in locating food. 4. Red. 5. A burmoss (a circular garment worn by head-women in one piece). 6. At birth. 7. Julius Caesar. 8. Frigate.

THEY would well feel that she should be locked away. Put in a prison. The pain of the thought shone in her eyes for a moment, and after he had got himself somewhat under control, he managed a smile at her that was little more than a grimace and said: "So you know. What are you going to do? Get out of the look and from the words. She looked at him with wide, distressed eyes. "What's it got to do with me? I mean, why should I do anything?" she protested swiftly. "I'm terribly sorry—I didn't mean to pry into your affairs."

"I know," Tom brushed the words away with a gesture of the hand that held his pipe. "But I think, somehow, I wanted you to know. After all, you are my nearest neighbor. We see each other every day. It's inevitable you should know. I hope you won't feel it necessary to tell me."

Megan's face flamed with hurt. "Thank you," she answered lightly. "I don't think I'd care much for it, and it is expensive."

Obviously Tom understood the logic of that, and for a moment they were both silent. Then the pipe came out. Megan said after a moment when the silence threatened to become awkward: "How is Mrs. Fallon? Does she seem to be getting on?"

"Mrs. Fallon is as well as could be expected, under the circumstances," Tom answered. "She's a little nervous, but she's getting on. I'm sorry if I seemed inquisitive or nosy."

"The only service anyone can do my wife is to leave her alone," Megan said. "I'm sure she's glad to see you."

"You may be quite sure that I shall reveal your secret to no one," Tom said. "I'm sure you'll be glad to hear that."

"I'm sure you'll be glad to hear that," Tom said. "I'm sure you'll be glad to hear that."

Pineapple Motifs to Crochet

5132

ONE of the most popular of designs is the crocheted "pineapple" motif—shown on the dollies illustrated above. At the top, the dollie center makes it an unusual effective lace piece. The completed dolly measures 10 inches in diameter. The dolly at bottom was copied from an old 11-inch dolly.

Household Hints

To remove a black coating from the outside of a frying pan, sprinkle borax on it and scrub with steel wool moistened with water. Wash in suds and rinse thoroughly.

Small bottles with a combination screw cap and medicine dropper are convenient for storing small amounts of household oil or regular oil.

Patches that press on may be used for mending weak spots in the feet of shoes. Mend before the weak spot wears through to make certain patch does not show.

Stinking feet can be made more durable by rubbing candle wax or paraffin on feet and toes.

Spool Shelves for Interesting Trinkets

THESE graceful corner shelves are 10 cent wide and 7 inches deep at the bottom. Just the right size to hold the quaint match holder, the end-fashioned china doll head and other interesting trinkets that you have been accumulating. In Victorian times such shelves were strung together with cord and the spoons saved from the voluminous amount of sewing done each season. Today, with spoils piling up...

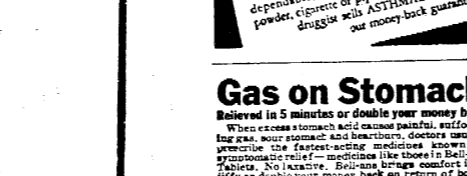

5132

From our sewing, we make similar shelves that have all the old charm but are much more rigid and substantial.
