Couch Covers and Slipcovers

EVERY homemaker arrives at the point where everything at home looks happy. Usually this is when the children have passed that gangly stage and don't seem to concentrate on wearing out the furniture since their activities take them outdoors a bit more.

Or, if you don't have children, perhaps you suddenly cast a look about the house and discover that the furniture has faded and is not exactly on the better side of several years wear. It's really a simple matter to cover faded upholstered chairs, and particularly couches.

Mystery of the Yankees

So what happens? Nearing the end of July the team batting average of the Yankees is under .233. They are far below the Athletics and the White Sox. Outside of Charlie Keller they stand with a flock of .233 hitters, taken as an average. Yet most of these players were once dangerous each time they moved to the plate. They were batters to be feared. Today almost any one with eraced in England.

The Anchor Fire Chief Kolstoker will bring to your home uniform, healthful, clean heat 24 hours every day-without the drudgery of hand firing. Being entirely automatic in its operation, even a youngster can easily regulate the amount of heat desired. All you need do is fill the hopper with coal and Anchor automatic regulators do the rest to provide all the heat you want-when you want it. ...

The Anchor Fire Chief Kolstoker embodies several notable improvements in design that make possible unusual savings which we can pass on to you. Just a few dollars per month will pay for a Fire Chief, and since this Anchor Kolstoker uses far less coal to produce the same amount of heat you can get by hand-firing, you can even save part of the purchase price each
