The FICTION CORNER

A WOMAN'S PLACE

By JOHN T. CAVANAGH

"SO, SALUSTRI is back." Man-aging Editor Pepper Driscoll exclaimed as he checked down the receiver. "Exactly, Editor Chief."

In the editorial rooms of the Herald, Editor Driscoll was looking at the man who had just returned from his city trip. "You're back, Salustri?"

"That was two years ago, wasn't it?" Driscoll asked. "You were in the States, weren't you?"

"Yes, I was," Salustri replied. "I was in the States for two years, and I was in the States for two years more."

"You were in the States for two years more?" Driscoll asked. "Yes, I was," Salustri replied.

Faith

by Grace Noll Crowell

FAITH takes on the look of silver things. It is a shining path in night across the sea.

Faith is a shined brightness in the soul. A light to guide the way to heaven, and a sword upon it is a blessed word.

God help us keep my faith undimmed. And surrounded by the rest of years.

New Uranium Discoveries

Show Wide Distribution

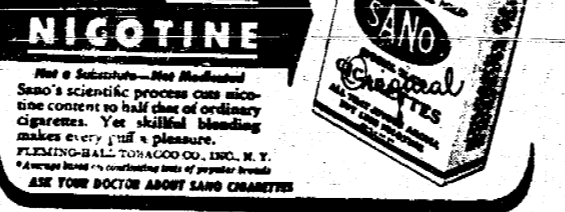

Some of the most important discoveries of uranium, vital mineral for atomic energy, have been made in the United States.

Prospecting for uranium ores is now simpler than searching for gold. The uranium can be detected easily by a scientific method.

Radioactive by nature, the mineral is used in atomic energy. It is time, says a German scientist, to begin the search for uranium in the United States.
