Case of the Nazi Reception, Or Misleading Propaganda

By BAUKHAGE News Analyst and Comments

WASHINGTON—Last month there was a memorandum on my desk from the department of the army addressed to "all former war correspondents, subject: Army Day, 1948." It suggested that perhaps I had a war story that stood out in my mind that I would like to relate as an Army Day feature. The memorandum didn't state which war was preferred if any but I amposed that it didn't matter so long as it wasn't the next one.

I reported the landing on the Normandy beaches, the Battle of the Bulge and many of the other important events of the last war-from a microphone in Washington; my connection with World War I was less vicarious; my experiences during earlier conflicts such as San Juan, Gettysburg, Chapultepec, Yorktown and Hastings are a little hazy.

Therefore I decided that the department of the army might permit me to relate an adventure which provided a little comedy relief in 1839, in the nervous interrude, known as the "phony war," before the real storm broke. It

THERE are many of us who don't consider ourselves dressmakers of any skill, but I've yet to see the woman who doesn't like to make something for herself, even if it's The materials which have reached

The materials which have reached the market recently are intriguing enough to him everyone to their back and call. You'll see the most delightist cettons, empirith rayons and nice slock, cool linens. The colors are everything and more you've desired, so why not just go on a little, if not a big spree, and see the pleasure of seeding.

If you like picnics and garden-ing, you'll be fescinated with the full skirts with their swish of ruffle. If you like sports, you'll certainly want to make a pair of shorts and skirts as well as blouse for your activities. At least you certainly wint if you see some of the nice prints

Choose your pattern first to fit you and the activity: then choose the fabric to fit the pattern as well as the activity. Let these all combine to make a more attractive you.

Don't feel that you have to finish the garment at one sitting Cur at the garment at one sitting. Cut at one, baste at another and then sew it altogether, leaving the fine finishing touches for another sitting. In this way you won't harry the work and become careless.

Firemen Bush to Extinguish Blaze—In Heating Stove

Tact is without doubt ine essence of charm, graciousness and of gentleness. But do you know what is is?

It's merely the percention of what to do or say under delicate or difficult circumstances. That's a definition of tact. But tot is much more than a definition really.

Tact is really a way of life! You can't be tactful unlers you are thinking about other people, about what they like, about their rights and feelings more than you tank and feelings more than you tank about your own.

The world with a session and selected in the session of the coincidence that brought go many quints in so short a time does not mean the rules were out of order. They are not expected to be applied to any one given year or even a few years. But taken over the condes they are valid. Then the
