Pressure 'Out' in Berlin Controversy; British Welcome Lillibet's Princeling; Farmer Priority Looms in Legislation

By Bill Schoengen, WNU Staff Writer

PRESSURE: Polite 'NO'

Sore point in all the Berlin controversy continued to be the Soviet blockade of the western capital. The Big Three Western powers still blamed Russia for continuation of the crisis through perpetuating the blockade, and President Harry Truman had given emphatic evidence that he planned no further discussions with Russia on the subject until the blockade was lifted.

Day of Judgment

These two made urgent appeal to chief executives of the big powers—going over the heads of these nations' U. N. delegations to secure the Berlin dispute to an end and thus bring about world peace.

Current Events?

You probably will recall that the U. S. had a presidential election (Nov. 2) and the biggest upset since 1860. It was Harry Truman who won.

1. Mr. Truman is the first native of Missouri to be elected President. In what two states were the largest number of votes cast for him?

2. How do you think Truman succeeded to the presidency on the death of the chief executive. How many of those, besides Mr. Truman, were elected to a full term as President in their own right?

3. When does the President's term of office begin? And when does it end? How long does it last?

4. There are nine men in Mr. Truman's cabinet. Other Presidents who have had 10-member cabinets. Why the difference?

ANSWERS: 1. Missouri, Kansas. 2. Truman was elected in Missouri and Kansas. 3. It begins on the day after the death of the chief executive and ends on the day after the President's term expires. 4. There are nine men in Mr. Truman's cabinet. Other Presidents who have had 10-member cabinets. Why the difference?

THE MORNING AFTER... A seething London crowd gathered in front of Buckingham Palace's gates the morning after the royal baby arrived. In the center, the Duchess of York, Princess Elizabeth, and her newborn son who some say may be ruler of the British empire. It was a happy, good-natured crowd, where dozens contemplated the attitude of the British people toward authority. When this picture was made, the newborn, not yet named, prince was nearly 12 hours old. He ruled a 41-year reign on his arrival.

IS THIS A MIRAGE?... We're not drilling any policemen. Anyway, we don't have enough policemen in the general gift of Russian politics to Western powers' questions on the reported great increase of Red-army police and removed military drilling of the police in Berlin. However, this photograph recently snapped through a window of a block-out and remote area of the Russian sector of Berlin shows Berlin police performing a military drill with a marching to the auditorium in the background.

HARBOR HOLIDAY AND MAIL MELEE... Not even the U. S. mail—traditionally aloof from the ordinary run of grid and trouble—was immune to the effects of the longshoremen's strike at ports along the eastern seaboard. Here, clerks in the Morgan sector of the New York post office sort and pack into bags the overseas mail which had to be kept in storage until operations got under way once again. Although clerks did agree to exempt from their freight handling bus food and fuel cargoes as were required to keep New York City warm and fed.

THE ROAD FROM BEERSHEBA... The victorious sweep of the Israeli army against Arab and Egyptian forces in the Holy Land revives in the minds of many the names of the Old Testament—modern vehicles of war are spreading over the main Gaza-Beersheba road after the capture of the aged city. The Mosque of Beersheba can be seen towering in the background. The city was wrested from the Egyptians by Israeli forces after the U. N. enforced truce in the Holy Land broke down.

Woman's World Select, Make Thoughtful Gifts That Will Be Used, Enjoyed

By Etta Halcy

News for Knitters

EVERYONE'S mysteriously busy and happy. Everywhere there's a stir of the Christmas spirit—in the early bit of holly on the front door, in that extra branch of pine on the front lawn, in the house ablaze with lights and full of laughter and long conversations on Christmas presents.

It's a job, this business of gift giving, but none of us would do without it because it's such a little before Christmas. Does the chosen present fit the scheme of life of the receiver? Will it be of use? A thing of enjoyment? Something to be prized or shown off with pride when presents are unwrapped.

These are the things to consider, to make the choice, and even prettier to make the gift. An inexpensive apron sewn with loving care may be more prized than a jewel which does not fit the wearer. A thoughtfully chosen lingerie set may be more prized than a fur coat.

Hand towels, too, can be made easily. Crochet a dainty edging of lace or mesh or sprig-like flowers on one edge of them.

Hand towels need not be white or cream. They can be made in any color. They can be made in any pattern. They can be made in any material.

KATHLEEN NORRIS Traitorous Cheats

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

"HOW can a man be sure I'm not cheating on him?" asks Van Harrison of East St. Louis. "I've got a very pretty wife."

"Last year she got hold of some handsome fur, said she had picked up a pawn ticket in the street and found that they were over on payments and could be bought. Well, I investigated that. I fell like a beet doing it and it seemed that she was cheating on me."

"Now she has two good-looking boys, said she had picked up a pawn ticket in the street and found that they were over on payments and could be bought. Well, I investigated that. I fell like a beet doing it and it seemed that she was cheating on me."

WHAT IS left of the calendar for 1948 is getting rather thin and in checking we find that there are but 15 shopping days left before Christmas, so do not tarry by the wayside.
FOR SOME time past we have had calls for the Wm. Finishing Shears and we have been able to get a few pair, so if mother would like a pair, now is the chance to get them.
IF YOUR daughter has just started house keeping, look about buying her a nice ironing board for Christmas. We have in stock three different models, one with a wooden top and metal legs, one all metal, and one made of all aluminum which is very light and easy to handle.
HOW ABOUT buying Junior a set of Socket Wrenches so that he can make use of his mechanical ability. Perhaps he will surprise you in what he can do.
IT MAY be a little early to talk about Hand Saws but we have a good stock of Flexible Files, so if you are in the need of anything in that line, give us a call.

Farmers Should Build Strong Financial Reserve
Some first-class advice for the farmer recently came from Dean William Myers, of New York State college of agriculture at Cornell, when he said: "It seems today that good management calls for people to continue to build financial reserves in United States today. There is a long — and a fragile number of farmers lost not only their new holdings, but their old ones as well."
Everyone hopes that this will not be repeated. At the same time, it is only the part of wisdom for farmers to place a substantial part of surplus income in liquid assets — assets which can be immediately turned into cash if the need arises. Have in where U. S. Savings Bonds particularly fill the bill. They are the safest possible investment. Depending on the type purchased, they either appreciate in value as time goes on or pay a good rate of interest. They are as liquid as cash in the bank, and, best of all, they give the farmer and everyone the opportunity to own a financial share in his government.

Tastiness of the frozen fruits and vegetables from your local grocer has been in the news time they have been in. However they were wrapped and the temperature of the freezer.
If you have wrapped them properly and stored them at zero degrees Fahrenheit you can realize how long they will keep fresh and check them out accordingly.
Suggestions for the length of time various foods may be kept under proper conditions are made by Pauline Post, of the foods and nutrition department at Michigan State college.
Many foods will keep up to 12 months. Whole frozen sweet corn, sliced apples, rhubarb, blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, peaches, apricots, plums.

Why Dutch is Growing a Beard
This beard on Dutch Miller's chin doesn't mean that he's getting ready to play Santa Claus. He's simply proving off the election he lost to Clegg Swanson.
And while some folks allow it's all a lot of nonsense—like the wholehearted ride that Clegg had to give Dutch after last election day—from where I sit it's a mighty wholesome aftermath to a difference of opinion.
Because good Americans all take their politics and voting rightly seriously. But when the state's settled, and the die is cast, it's good to have a little of good humor.
And that's as it should be when it comes to any difference of opinion. Some folks will let their favorite beverage—alcohol—take for them. In that, we'll have a little of the Dutch Miller story. (Oh!) But that doesn't mean that we can't live together in a spirit of good fellowship.

THE FICTION CORNER

THE JAGGED SCAR BY DONALD HUNTER

Tom and his dad had always been pals, so much so that when "the old man" suddenly became stiff and morose toward his son, Tom attributed it to his "growing up" and he began to find life almost unbearable.

Tom thought struck him then that maybe that was the whole thing that was wrong. He was growing up! He would be a man soon. He would not cry. Crying wasn't grown up!

Tom thought struck him then that maybe that was the whole thing that was wrong. He was growing up! He would be a man soon. He would not cry. Crying wasn't grown up!

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS by Lynn Chambers

Homemade Presents Are Sure to Please Discriminating Friends

A DAY or two or three spent in the kitchen instead of out among Christmas crowds will yield several low-cost as well as edible presents to give your closest friends.

Make a gift list of food presents, and bring out the recipes and odds just how much of each to make. Wrap prettily and deliver just as you would other presents.

Combine bran, milk, shortening, sugar and salt. Stir until shortening is melted, then cool to lukewarm. Soften yeast in this mixture.

HERE IS an excellent fruit bread to have on hand for the holidays because it will keep fresh for weeks if kept wrapped in waxed paper and placed in a tin.

HELPING HAND TO AILING HOUSES

QUESTION: The floor of our trailer home is covered with an asphalt covering which is rather badly worn. Would you recommend laying tile over this covering, or taking up the old and starting from scratch?

ANSWER: A good floor-covering to take up the old covering because it might make an uneven base for the tile.

QUESTION: Is there a paint to seal leaks in a roof by painting over the roofing?

ANSWER: Leaks often can be stopped by the application of an asphalt roofing cement. A roofer can do this job for you. But if the roof leaks all over, a new roof would be more advisable.

Make or buy small and pastry mixes and store in the refrigerator to have them ready for quick use.
