Bell Asks Permission To Issue Additional Stock

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has filed with the Michigan Public Service Commission an application for permission to issue $100,000,000 in additional common stock.

The last time that Michigan Bell sought new money for its construction program, it requested to bond type securities. The company now proposes to issue common stock to avoid the burden of debt. This $100,000,000 in capital would give freedom to adjust its capital structure to the economic situation it now faces.

Having resorted to debentures, the company now proposes to issue common stock to avoid the burden of debt. This $100,000,000 in capital would give freedom to adjust its capital structure to the economic situation it now faces.

In its application, the company said it will need $75,000,000 in new money for construction during the 2-year period ending in 1950. Michigan Bell said it planned net additions of more than $90,000,000 to its facilities in that time with the difference largely from funds made available from depreciation accruals.

Other general county commissions are required to finance new construction for improvements, and expansion of telephone service over the next two years.

Rather than add to the company's debt, Oehler emphasized that Michigan Bell seeks to obtain the new money from capital able from depreciation accruals.

Cuts From Fluorescent Light Tubes Are Dangerous

Even the slightest cut made by the broken glass of fluorescent light tubes is dangerous and requires the treatment of a physician; it should not be treated by ordinary first aid methods.

The Michigan Department of Health warned today that the injured person should tell his doctor that he has been cut by a piece of glass from a fluorescent light tube and not merely by a piece of glass.

Fluorescent tubes are coated internally with a powder which, when it gets under the skin or into a cut, causes slow healing, chronic inflammation or painful tumor-like growths.

Broken tubes and glass particles from them should be handled only with gloves, and should be buried underground deep enough so that children will not cut themselves by playing with them or stepping on them.

Precautions should be taken also to avoid inhaling the dust from broken tubes: it may cause lung disease, the Department said.

Fluorescent tubes are coated with a powder called "phosphor" which makes the tube fluoresce or glow. Phosphors normally contain beryllium and small amounts of mercury. These two substances are poisonous.

Fluorescent lighting is perfectly safe, when the tubes are handled with care. Danger exists only in handling broken tubes, inhaling dust from broken tubes or inhaling the dust in the course of manufacture of the tubes.

Detailed information on the use of fluorescent lighting, the disposal of tubes and the hazard from local health department or from the Bureau of Industrial Health, Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Mich.

LANDSCAPING LESSONS TO BE GIVEN IN ANN ARBOR MARCH 1 AND 2

Mr. J. T. Cox, Landscape Specialist from Michigan State college will hold a two day lesson on landscaping in Ann Arbor on March 1 and 2 from 10:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. in the Bethlehem church basement.

The first day's lesson will be on the selection of plants.

Not only is the right kind of food vital to our welfare but it may even help slow up aging processes. Older persons can contribute a lot to the community in which they live from their fund of knowledge and experience. But they must be mentally alert and physically active to do this. So much in an older person's life depends upon his health and that in turn upon his food habits.

Many years of study on all age groups will be required to complete the answer to the question of how much is enough. In the meantime enough information about nutrition is available to help you watch those food habits and enjoy your later years a great deal more.

How to maintain good health in later years is the current study of the foods and nutrition department at MSC. Lois Jackson reports that the department has set up a program to study the everyday diets of healthy older women.

By observing what these older women eat and how nutrition is related to their health, researchers can help advise others what they need to eat to stay healthy.

How much is enough? How much of various nutrients do older people need? Studies at MSC and elsewhere indicate that older people need nearly as much protein as younger people. Their calcium needs are at least as high as those of younger adults.

School Bond Election Set for March 11

Three Propositions To Be Voted On

The Manchester Enterprise

Floor Plan Of Proposed School Unit

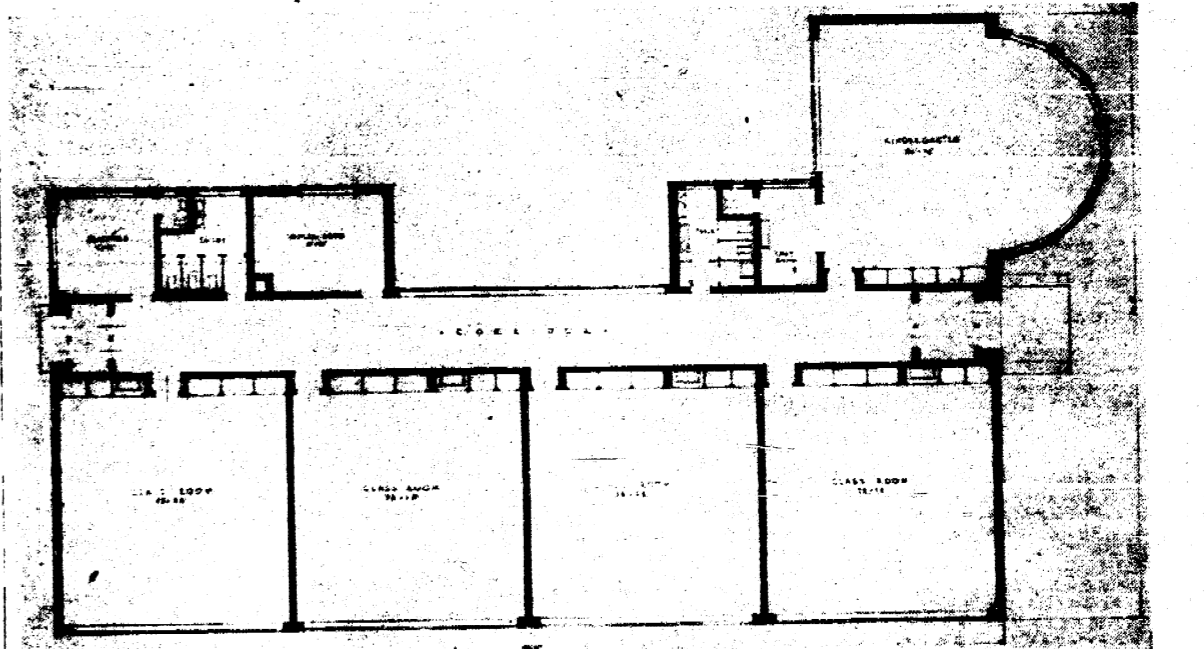

Friday, March 11 has been set as the date for the School Bond Election. The School Board has announced that the election will take place at the school building, the polls remaining open from two p.m. until eight p.m. This will allow members of the district who work on afternoon and night shifts sufficient time to get to the polls.

Three propositions will be voted on. The first proposition, to borrow $100,000, may be voted upon only by taxpayers and their wives (or husbands).

The second proposition, to raise the tax limitation, may be voted upon by any citizen of District Two who has lived in the district 20 days and in Michigan six months.

The third proposition, to rescind the present three-mill building-improvement fund, may be voted only by taxpayers and their wives (or husbands).

For the full wording of these three propositions, readers are referred to the Notice of Special Meeting published in this issue of the Enterprise.

The architect has tentatively estimated that a building such as shown will cost in the neighborhood of $77,000. There is some indication that building costs may be lower this summer than they have been, in which case the above figure may be lower. The architect, however, includes brick facing and fairly complete cabinet work inside. The above figure does not include furnishing such as desks, curtains, etc.

The school board will welcome suggestions from room mothers and parents of children in lower grades as to decorations and furnishings for these rooms.

School Unit Cost Will Be Moderate

Manchester citizens have wondered what a new school unit will cost THEM as taxpayers. Here is the information on which any citizen can figure his annual personal cost of the school. The total school tax in 1950 is likely to be around twenty mills. It has been estimated that operating expenses will require eleven mills and the new building nine mills.

Last year, the taxpayers of District II paid 14.12 mills. The notice of special meeting of the qualified electors of School District No. 2, Manchester Township, was in tenav county, Michigan.

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF SAID SCHOOL DISTRICT:

Your Cost of Grade Valuation Unit to You

| | |
|---------|--------|
| $1,000 | $4.50 |
| 2,000 | 7.00 |
| 3,000 | 9.50 |
| 4,000 | 12.00 |
| 5,000 | 14.50 |
| 6,000 | 17.00 |
| 7,000 | 19.50 |
| 8,000 | 22.00 |

The above costs will go down after the first few years, as interest and principal on the bond issue grow smaller.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor: We were pleased to see the sketches of the proposed additions to the local school system and the backers who must appreciate the need for these facilities. It is refreshing to know that these people realize that what was good enough for grandpa is not necessarily good enough for the children of today. The days of strong back and weak knees we hope are in the past. Certainly our future citizens are entitled the best preparation we can furnish.

Yours truly,
Pleasant Peasant

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Balesville last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hops now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked through and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should've been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to his opinion—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of molasses beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something!

New Grade Unit Planned for Manchester

Crowded Conditions Call For New Grade Rooms

The Manchester Enterprise

VOLUME EIGHTY-TWO MANCHESTER, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1949 NO. 23

Nine Mills Required To Build New Grade Unit

Manchester needs classroom space. With a kindergarten of 45 and a first grade of 42, and a general increase of population in the area promising even larger classes in the future, Manchester's District Two is faced with a critical need for more classroom space.

With the rest of Washington county, Manchester is growing in population. The increase of population in the county is 32 percent since 1940.

The architect firm of Kasurin and Kasurin, experts in school design, have planned an economy building for Manchester, consisting of four rooms and a kindergarten. Each room will be one-third larger than present classrooms, better lighted, better heated and better ventilated. In the opinion of builders, this unit can be constructed for around $60,000. Decks and other equipment may cost in the neighborhood of $10,000 more.

Taxpayers of the district who have been consulted, believe that the district should build itself for $100,000, on the theory that it is better to have more room than "too little, and too late."

K & W Will Hold PTA Family Night

The K and W Farm Supply store, 1.2 mile north of Manchester on the Chelsea road will welcome visitors all day and evening Saturday, February 26th.

Several door prizes will be given away and free refreshments will be served.

Information will be given on farm machinery, feeds, sprays, etc.

Motion pictures will be shown 8:00 p. m.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ambrose of Jackson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schwab.

PTA Family Night Attracts Large Attendance

About 150 persons gathered at the Manchester high school on Monday evening to enjoy the potluck supper Family Night of the PTA.

Serving on the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Higgins, Mrs. Norman Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gage, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kirk, Mrs. Roscoe Landon, Mrs. Robert Kohl and Mrs. King.

Professor William C. Morse of the University of Michigan was the speaker of the evening. He stressed the fact that the methods of teaching are not important compared with the character of the teacher. He said that too much time is spent teaching facts and subjects which are soon forgotten instead of teaching the students how to meet situations and live among their fellow men. All these things depend on the character of the teacher. A child's first conception of the school is acquired at home. A child's character is first molded in the home.

It was interesting to note that one room school is not far different from a large grade school room where one teacher divides into groups of students and each requires special attention because of the varied ability of students to grasp the material. Although all are on the same lesson there are several or even six groups of students of different abilities and characteristics and the one teacher must cope with.

During the program the children were entertained by the Girl Scouts. Others appearing on the program were: Mary Jean Englund, who gave several readings; Leonard Stark sang accompanied by Mrs. Wesley Proctor.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Boss:

Having followed with much interest the recent editions of your paper, we wish to commend you for your courage in publishing letters written to you. Be not dismayed if some of our letters are not heard. I am afraid, however, that the shuffling of the others, though in some instances noteworthy, is not sufficient to make the results of which will be nil.

It is our belief that any newspaper, no matter how small, should have, besides local news and advertisements, a good editorial. This editorial should not be time to time point of departure for the editor's own musings. It should also keep the community informed of the accomplishments of its neighboring villages and when deeds warrant it point to them with pride.

We realize, however, that any one in your position cannot feel free to give his views on local affairs, but we believe that a considerable thought to the reactions of his advertisers. They, after all, are the bread and butter of the paper and must be treated with respect. We would issue their remarks about the lack of knowledge of the current generation. The teacher was kind enough not to read his name as the author of the epistle a mere ten years prior to that time.

(The rest of the story—You may not have been a hot shot in your youth.)

Questions And Answers On School Bond Issue

(Do you have other questions? If so, send them to the Enterprise.)

Q. Are other schools faced with building problems?

A. Building problems in this county is general. Washington county has increased 32 percent since 1940. This has caused crowded classrooms and use of temporary quarters such as basements and vacant commercial buildings.

Q. Who can vote on raising the tax limitation to allow for additional revenue?

A. Any citizen of the United States, 21 years of age, who has been a resident of the state for six months and of the school district for 20 days prior to the date of the election.

Q. Who can vote on the bond issue itself?

A. The taxpayer only. If the wife is a joint property owner with her husband, she also has a vote.

Q. What will be voted on?

A. Two measures: (1) to raise the tax limitation above the constitutional 15 mills (this is not an actual levy); (2) approval of the bond issue.

Q. When the bonds are voted, how are they sold to investors?

A. Through regular bond house channels, to the bidder who offers the lowest interest rate.

Q. Can local people invest in the school bonds?

A. Yes, if they form a syndicate and make an offer for the entire issue.

Q. How is the contract for the new school building let?

A. By sealed bids.

Q. Will there be a room for each grade?

A. The plans provide for a separate room for each grade from kindergarten through eighth, plus one extra room which may be used as needed.

Q. Will there be a room for additional enrollment?

A. Yes, if we do not desire their burdens, let us not burden them, for they seldom materially err.

Our eyes have beheld, on many occasions, the teen-agers' aimless wanders and your recent issue, doubted their ability to stop long enough or even slow down enough to read

What Will Be Total Annual School Tax?

What will be the total school tax in the next few years, including both operating expenses and bond retirement, if the millage will remain about the same as last year, or perhaps a little less. Increased state aid, the new tax return, and other revenues will permit the school to run a somewhat larger school at the same tax rate as the present one.

No exact guarantee, of course, can be made. However, studies show that the operating levy in 1949-50 should be 19.47.

How does this compare with the millage in recent years? The following table shows that there is a three mill building improvement fund that will come off Very Heavy, our operating millage will remain about the same as last year, or perhaps a little less. Increased state aid, the new tax return, and other revenues will permit the school to run a somewhat larger school at the same tax rate as the present one.

No exact guarantee, of course, can be made. However, studies show that the operating levy in 1949-50 should be 19.47.

WHAT A NEW ROOM WOULD MEAN TO ME AS A STUDENT

- Kindergarten
1. I think I could concentrate on my work better.
 2. I think it would be all right.
 3. I think it would suit me fine.
 4. I think we would have more room.
 5. I think we would have more room to play in.
 6. I think we would have more room to make a larger circle.
 7. I think we would have more room to put our tables out and not be so close together.
 8. I think we would have more room for the boys and their blocks.
 9. I think we would have more room to get the toys out.
 10. We would have more room around the desk.
 11. We would have more room to put the furniture in different places.

*Four per cent interest used in this computation.

*Nine months interest. This amount, approximately, would be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and therefore reduces the amount available for building purposes.

The authorizing resolution should provide for a levy of at least nine mills in 1949 and each year thereafter until a reserve of $10,000 has been accumulated in the Bond Retirement Fund. Assuming no decline in valuation and population, the reserve would be practically paid off the last two maturities and no levies would be required after 1960.

Recommended a voted increase of 14 mills for 20 years as security to the bond buyers.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We are extremely happy that you wrote recently and that you were so kind in publishing said letter. It certainly was worth three bucks to have the sign in front of the post office changed and see very happy with the hours printed on it. Never did I realize though, that my little letter would start such a polylog of correspondence in your paper. Even a teenager had to put in his two cents worth although it leaves one wondering what he considers good reading. The only column he neglected to mention was the "Cards of Thanks." Maybe that is the one he likes.

I am hoping that Pleasant
