SAFETY AND THE SCHOOL BUS

Passing School Buses. The driver of a vehicle approaching a school bus from the rear should pass it with caution. It is the duty of the driver of a vehicle approaching a school bus from the rear to pass it with caution. It is the duty of the driver of a vehicle approaching a school bus from the rear to pass it with caution.

At an intersection where traffic is stopped by a traffic light or a stop sign, a vehicle need not be brought to a full stop before passing any school bus if it may proceed past such school bus at a reasonable and proper speed in no event greater than five miles an hour and with due caution for the safety of passengers being received in or discharged from the bus.

The law is not applicable to buses inside incorporated cities or villages. There is no exception as to types of roads. There are many reports indicating that drivers of vehicles are observing the school bus passing law to a greater degree each year.
