Everyone is going to be able to give their new homes a "new look" because on Saturay, May 20th, the village truck will be out to pick up all the rubbish. The main thing to remember is that the trucks are going out early in the morning seven o'clock to be exact. They go through the streets once and pick up all the rubbish left at the curb with the exception of since. An autopsy was scheduled

Last Saturday's strong wind brought no good to Robert Kappler, 33. of 12939 Schleweis road, Manchester, who is a patient at Mercy hospital at Jackson with injuries suffered when supports, which were holding a pile of 2xt's gave way and let the lumber crash twelve feet to the barn floor. Kappler was feeding some lambs in the barn when he heard the noise and managed to duck in time to miss most of the heavy load. The lumber had been placed in the barn of "season" and the high winds of Saturday morning were given credit for loosening the supports. Bob has a fractured right shoulder, broken ribs and arm and ankle iniuries. Mrs. Kappler said the doctors thought it might be six weeks before he will be able to bout and working again.

On Saturday night Harold Sutton was given a job to do and he did it. Seems that a couple being married that evening wanted their car in a good safe place so they decided to take some crepe paper—and with a little detective work found the location of the car in question—so they slipped out to the Sutton farm. Just one thing happened that they hadn't planned on—the car was there all right—owas Harold. And with him he had a shot gun which he fired in the air once—just to show he wasn't foolin'. For you future br des and bridegrooms, if you like the supports and bridegrooms, if you like the form of the car was there all right—owas Harold. New Beauty To 4-H Homes

More than a hundred inousand 4-H homes will be enhanced with new outdoor beauty this summer because a city woman took up gardening as a hobby 20 years and plants began when she moved to a home in the country and saw the native beauty of many rural homes scarred and neglected. She longed to do something about it. She particularly wanted to do it through the farm boys and girls so they, too, could experience the joys of restoring nature's handiwork and add a bit of their own.

This resourceful woman—who has since become a renowned horticulturit—is Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen of Chicago. She reach—

Wednesday proved to be a sunny day after all and the rain clouds seamed to varied by noon. That was just wise the 20 sections of Mannhester high achool had been keping for. Early in the day the school bus stopped at the high school and the class accompanied by the class action, Mrs. 22thebeth Houghthy and Supt. V. W. Downing were whisked to Detroit by Allie Lackhardt, one of the school bus drivers. They housed the D. & C. Mess. The Greater Detroit, at the foot of Third Street and were off to the fine Leons and Mackinaw Island. Although they could not take as long a Unip in was originally planned, because of school regulations, we hope they'll have good weather for the trip—it they den't, and find the sailing rough, they'll be glief to be beek —come faturday.

Blot Manshester High ins't the only school taking a trip. From up at Trout Labe, a small bus loaded with minth and tenth graders left the sund commently at a am. Monday to cross the Straits and came 346 miles to join their Superintendent and wife, the Donald Brazes. The
