60 Years Ago

Complaint is being made of the hog pens in this village. Sugar has taken a jump now that the berry season is at hand. A young man from Iron Creek was in town Saturday selling raisins.

George Kay had a pimple on his hand which he picked with an old pen and soon the hand began to swell and pain him.

A party of lady friends presented Mrs. Charles Singar a fine willow rocker on her 60th birthday.

D. Woodward of Bridgewater calculates that he will have as many peaches this year as he had last, but not as many years.

For June only, cabinets $1.75. Good work guaranteed. Special rates for families. Come in the forenoon if possible.

William Westphal, Bridgewater Station, was bitten by George Rheinfrank's dog last Sunday, but not seriously.

Clinton will have another season. Clinton has a lodge of fifty good Templars.

Salt 70 cents a barrel at Kenner's.

Arch Gordanier started on Monday for an overland trip to Clare county.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reno observed their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary on Sunday when their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. William Watson took them to Detroit where they enjoyed dinner at the Stockholm. They particularly liked the Swedish smorgasbord.

Ann Little was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given for her by Mrs. Theodore Kuhl and Mrs. William Reno at the latter home. The shower was held Tuesday evening for 22 guests from Dearborn, Ypsilanti and neighbors and friends of the bride-elect from the Manchester area.

About 45 members of the Dewey PTA gathered at the home of Hiram Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Don Mackintosh for a potluck supper after which cards were enjoyed. Prizes were won by Mrs. Herman Windman, Mrs. Clara Erentzenmacher and Floyd Parr. This was the concluding event of the group until next September.

The Freedom Ideal Homemakers Extension Group and their families, thirty-five in all, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kuhl at a potluck dinner. A card game followed the dinner. The fire department was called the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin McElroy at 9923 Sharon Hollow road to extinguish a fire in the roof of their garage. The fire was caused by wind which whirled rubbish being burned in the garden to the roof. According to Fire Chief Lawrence Schied about $200 damage resulted.

Seventy-Five At Sott Reunion. The Sott Reunion was held to seventy-five at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vogeling with a potluck dinner at noon. The occasion also marked the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George Sott of Jackson. The gathering surprised the couple by presenting them with a decorated wedding cake, a set of dishes and Mrs. Robert Sott had charge of the program and presented a sketch of the various episodes in the life of the honored couple. Group singing was enjoyed. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Reuben Sott and followed by next year's officers election: President, Alton Gieske of Chelsea; vice-president, Herman Romelhardt of Pleasant Lake; treasurer, Eugene Huber of Manchester and secretary, Mrs. Herman Romelhardt of Pleasant Lake. The recreation and program chairmen will be Mrs. Alon Gieske assisted by Howard Sott of Jackson and Mrs. Wilbur Maurer of Manchester.

With The Eighth Army In Japan. Private James O. Flint, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Flint of Manchester, is now on duty with the 8th Army in Japan. He is part of the Pacific Tenth Infantry (Tropic Lightning) Division, commanded by Major William B. Kenn. His present duty is that of 90th Field Artillery Battalion. Joining the Army on November 9, 1949, at Ann Arbor he was sent to Fort Riley for his basic training. He arrived in Japan on April 1950.

The Rowes Corners Extension will meet the next Sunday at 10:15 a.m. at the home of Miss Minnie and Lawrence War. The King's Daughters will meet Thursday, June 22 at the home of Mrs. Don Mackintosh at 2 p.m. St. Mary's Altar Society will have their regular meeting on Thursday evening, June 15 at the home of Mrs. John Schneider.
