On Main Street

Anyone got a home for a little dog? One was dropped at a farm home west of town. The folks like the little pup, but they have one dog and he just doesn't like the set-up. So if you are interested phone 2702. The people who have the pup are not interested in charging for it—all they ask is that it gets a good home.

Russell Schwab left Tuesday for Fort Sheridan and next Monday Ralph Wurster will leave for service.

All teachers wishing to have their Christmas programs for rural schools in the paper are asked to call 2941 by the end of this week. They should be in next week's paper and we can't get them in unless reservations are in early.

Postmaster and Mrs. George Merriman are on vacation. Yes, they have gone to Arizona for a couple of weeks. At the postoffice in their place are Mrs. William Richardson and Mrs. Joe Brooks.

The Christmas tree for Main street has arrived and early Wednesday morning Frank Lowery and several of the men were working on arrangements to put it up.

Ernie Hoffman of Lincoln Park is now in the employ of the Manchester Frozen Food plant—a professional meat cutter.
