Boy Scouts Observe 42nd Birthday

Sixty-seven Scouts, their families and guests attended the annual Scout dinner at the Emanuel church hall Thursday evening.

Wade Schuck of the Ann Arbor-Livingston Scout Council gave a short talk after which he presented Troop 26 with its charter. Later he showed an interesting sound film on Explorer Scouting.

The Main Street

The last home game of the season will be held Friday with South Lyon Friday, Feb. 15.

On Wednesday evening the H-Y boys went to the Intramural building in Ann Arbor for swimming.

Michael Scully, Jerry Meyer, Tom Burch, Terry Walsh will graduate from the Cub Scouts at the Blue and Gold Banquet Wednesday, February 20th.

Out at Johnny's Service we learn that Johnny is pretty much on his own. Lynn Voegding, who has been working for Johnny Walz for sometime was called to service and left Tuesday morning. All in the same week Johnny's son, Forest, hiked himself to Lansing where he is attending Oliver Traeter Training school at the Oliver warehouse through February 15th. Forest is the mechanic at his father's garage.

We were interested to note in reading the Brooklyn Express that the Everett Queens, former Manchester coach and home economics teacher, have purchased the John Wessel home at Napoleon.

Over at Grass Lake we see by their paper that the high school students are making plans for the annual PTA Fair for February 23 with the election of a "Queen of the Fair" from the high school. Each of the four high school classes has chosen its nominee for the title.

The freshmen of Grass Lake high school found themselves in a mess when they shot paper wads through a hollow stick—the hollow stick happened to be poison sumac. One boy was out of school three days and the rest seem to be coming along fine according to the Grass Lake News.

Local Man Serves on Lincoln Day Dinner Committee

More than five hundred tickets have already been sold to the Washtenaw County Lincoln Day dinner scheduled for 6:00 P.M., Feb. 16th, at the Michigan Union, Ann Arbor, according to George W. Sallade, general chairman. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts will be the speaker. An executive committee has been named to handle the affair which is the first Lincoln Day dinner in this area in many years.

Good News for Dairymen

Manchester Artificial Breeders' Association has its own inseminator in the very capable person of Veal Widmayer. The territory he will serve will be the West Saline, Bridgewater, Manchester and North Clinton areas. Any dairyman interested in using the service call Veal Widmayer. Veal is attending school at Michigan State College this week and will begin the work on February 18.

The Band Booster's Bake Sale will be held Saturday, Feb. 16, at the Haller Central Market.

At the Bridgewater Extension party which was held last Saturday evening there were 70 present.

Exchange Club Holds Annual Athletic Bust

The Manchester Exchange Club held their seventh annual Athletic Bust for all boys and girls engaged in high school athletics. The wives of Exchangeites were also invited and between guests and wives about 150 people were present.

Athletic Head Coach Larry Soldan and his assistant, Charles Mills, and their wives were also present and Coach Soldan introduced the members of the football squad.

The program was quite varied with much excellent entertainment offered. The Exchange Club has just purchased a new trophy for the school and it will be awarded each year to the "Outstanding Athlete of the Year". The trophy hadn't arrived yet so we can't describe it too well, but it will be given a place of prominence in the high school and each year the name of the boy who wins the award will be inscribed on it. The winner will also receive a miniature of the trophy for himself. Bill Aiken was voted the "Outstanding Athlete" for 1952 and his will be the first name to be inscribed. Bill was quite naturally pleased but also in good sportsmanlike fashion thanked his team mates, who aided in the voting, for their support during the past and present athletic year.

The next part of the program was presented by Dr. Clyde Cairy of MSC, who entertained with a great number of mystifying magic tricks and an amazing display of mind reading and memory work.

Steve Seybold, who has just been promoted to head backfield coach at MSC, spoke about the place football has at MSC. Mr. Seybold complimented Bill Aiken on his display of good sportsmanship toward his team mates when he received the "Athlete Award". Mr. Seybold pointed out that it is this type of teamwork that MSC coaches strive toward and he also pointed out that studies and graduation still come first at MSC. His talk was full of actual reference to players at MSC.

The program was quite long but as usual the Exchange Club entertainment committee composed of Luther Klager, Rollie Grossman and Pat Roesch had come up with a program that was very, very interesting to all present. Pat Roesch acted as MC for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Marx and Ethel Fahey spent Tuesday in Detroit.

Earl Koebbe showed pictures which he had previously taken of the Scouts of Troop 26 while at camp and also pictures of the Soap Box Derby held last fall. At the close of these pictures a cartoon comedy for the little folks was shown.

A note of interest is that the first Scout troop at Manchester was started here by Gotlob Jacob in 1919.

Terry Walsh was also initiated into the Boy Scout troop at the dinner meeting.

Mrs. Mary White, Former Resident, Died Saturday

Mrs. Mary A. White, 90, former resident of Manchester, died at her home at 223 Union street, Parma, on Saturday night.

Born on January 13, 1862, in Cambridge township, Mrs. White was the daughter of the late Peter and Ann Harrison Nolan. She was married to John White on February 23, 1879, at Manchester. Mr. White died on August 3, 1929.

Mrs. White moved from Manchester to Parma in 1936. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Rogers of Parma and Mrs. Edythe Hunter of Monroe; three granddaughters, Mrs. Herman Wimmer of Birmingham, Mrs. Arthur Kosiorek of Monroe and Mrs. Warren Cone of Dearborn and three great-grandchildren.

William Kulenkamp To Be New Fair Board President

Members of Manchester's Community Fair Board met Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing and beginning tentative plans for the annual community fair.

Vice-President D. C. Weed called the meeting to order. Plans are underway to hold the fair board meetings the second Tuesday evening of each month. A slate of officers was submitted by Clayton Parr, chairman of a nominating committee.

William Kulenkamp was unanimously elected the new president. The treasurer will be Harold Burch who will replace Stanton Roesch. Vice-President D. C. Weed and Secretary Robert Crandall were re-elected unanimously.

Plans were made to follow the same pattern of dates for the fair as was followed in the past few years in order that the dates of our fair not conflict with those of Chelsea and Saline.

Although few questions were definitely settled due to the absence of the new president—many questions were discussed.

General opinion seemed to be that some type of inside program should be held in the civic auditorium prior to the actual fair dates in an effort to gain revenue.

The question of the carnival was discussed with some in favor and some not favorable to the idea of a carnival. The question as to how many pieces there should be in the carnival was discussed.

State Auditor Speaks

John B. Martin, jr., auditor general of the State of Michigan, was the guest speaker at the February meeting of the Jackson County Council of Parents and Teachers which met at the Civic Auditorium of Napoleon high school Wednesday, February 13.

A potluck supper was held at 7 p. m. Music was furnished by the Four Tune Tiddlers, Tom and Sam Cushman and Bud Knorpp of Manchester and Everett Queen of Napoleon.

North Sharon Church Marks Drafting of First Constitution

For the first time since functioning as a community church in 1931, the North Sharon Community Bible church has drafted a constitution which has been approved.

In recognition of this a celebration was held Friday at 7:30 p. m. beginning with a cooperative supper. The Rev. Burt Phelps, pastor of the Grass Lake Federated church was the speaker. Music was conducted under the direction of Robert Snyder of Chelsea.

With the assistance of the pastor, the Rev. H. N. May, the constitution was drafted by a board composed of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gardner, Lynn Cooper, Harold DeMint, Lawrence McAtee, Leland Herman, Mrs. McAtee and a former member, Walter Kuhl.

The building, which was erected in 1883, was dedicated as an Evangelical Lutheran (St. Pauls) church which was functioning until about 1913. The remaining members then attending St. Johns church in Francisco.

In 1931 through the assistance of the Rev. F. I. Waler, a former pastor of the Grass Lake and Chelsea Methodist churches, services were again conducted and the group functioned as a Community church. In 1933 the 50th anniversary of the building was celebrated, but in 1945 it was again abandoned.

Three years later, Roy Grindall of Michigan Center, later ordained, assisted by the community, made necessary repairs, installed electric lights, and resumed services until his resignation in 1950 when Mr. May filled the vacancy.

Michigan's whirlwind legisla- ture still is hitting it at a fast trot. Lawmakers are crying for still more speed as the February 21 deadline for all bills other than appropriation measures draws ever closer.

Both chambers have jammed calendars full of early bills, and committees are burning midnight oil, something unprecedented in Michigan annals for this time of the year. The legislature is determined to meet its new early adjournment time.

Senator George N. Higgins (R-Ferndale) has promised to keep his taxation committee nose to the grindstone in a search for the revenues needed to balance Michigan's red-inked budget.

But while the rush continues, politics are not forgotten and the steady whirl of the boxes can be heard in the background. Republicans are thinking in terms of a $750,000 campaign budget, some 25 percent more than the loyal members came up with last year. But costs are up for politicians same as for anyone else. Postage, news- paper space, radio and televi- sion time have climbed in cost.

In Detroit, February 8, a $50 million field crop produc- tion last year was second highest on record. Combined pro- duction of corn for grain, wheat, oats, barley and rye totaled 3,600,000 tons, 11 percent more than in 1950 and higher than any other year except 1949.

a plate birthday dinner will be held to raise funds for Wil- liams. Mayor F. Joseph Flaugh of Benton Harbor, chairman of the dinner committee says, "Or- iginally we intended to present the proceeds to the governor without any strings in their use." Now he says it has been decided to give Williams the money for such non-partisan pur- poses as his radio report to the people, and specifically not for political campaign use. Flaugh says he is a Republican, but is supporting the governor for re- election.

Senator Charles Diggs (D-De- troit) has introduced a resolu- tion for a constitutional amend- ment extending voting privileges to 18-year-olds. The resolution, if adopted, would submit the is- sue to voters in November.

Last time this issue came up an unofficial poll showed most 18-year olds do not consider themselves mature enough to vote.

Michigan's field crop produc- tion last year was second highest on record. Combined pro- duction of corn for grain, wheat, oats, barley and rye totaled 3,600,000 tons, 11 percent more than in 1950 and higher than any other year except 1949.

If a bill introduced in the leg- islature by Rep. Lawrence Lin- dener of Stockbridge is passed Junior can cut Pop without a drop of the cup that cheers. His measure would prohibit liquor establishments from selling or furnishing liquor to any per- son when forbidden to do so by the husband, wife, parent, child, guardian, employer or township supervisor.

Violations of state sausage laws have jumped from 56 con- victions in 1950 to 123 in 1951. Meat shortages and in creasing prices are cited as the prob- able causes.

A Lansing man says he lost his job because of his religious beliefs. Lee Pruett, 41, lathe operator for a tool and die com- pany said he refused to join the union, believing all men should come to brotherhood without organizing or being af- filiated with any natural force to which they must pay dues. He said he offered to contribute an amount equal to the union dues to any charitable organi- zation, but was refused.

The U. S. Chamber of Com- merce figures it will cost every Michigan family another $248 in tax or federal debt burden if current spending plans are ap- proved by Congress. Total fi- gure for the state: $466,000,000 more.

Rep. William W. Blackney, Flint, still hasn't revealed his intentions. He may retire from Congress. The 75 year old leg- islator has been deluged with suggestions both ways.

De Lee M. Thurston, superin- tendent of public instruction, has asked legislature for $15,000 to conduct an engineering sur- vey of the possibilities of set- ting up a statewide educational TV network. Michigan colleges are willing to assist with the survey.

Average life expectancy in Michigan has jumped from 49 years to 68 years in the last half century. And it is ex- pected to keep on rising. In 1950 seven out of every 100 residents were over 65. In 1900 it was five out of 100.

To The Editor

Inflation, Politicians And Government

Inflation is never created by business. It is 100 percent a government institution and monopoly. The government can stop it any time it wants to. I challenge the whole fraternity of politicians, both Democrats and Republicans, to sight even one instance where inflation has been caused by business. Inflation is a child of government; our government is run by politicians, therefore inflation is the handiwork of politicians who rather face an election with the hidden tax of inflation than with a visible high tax rate.

Here is the formula for what has happened: An emergency developed caused by politi- cians, then to relieve the emer- gency, Congress gave the Presi- dent four billion, three hundred million dollars ($4,300,000,000) to spend as he pleased. Some few hundred millions of money was doled out for relief, but more was used to set up a prop- aganda machine that could control the press, radio, and movie industry—a thought control machine that could build up a fictitious superman who could be kept in office indefinitely. Government buying caused prices to rise and a war scare caused people to buy and hoard goods and prices began to soar.

Then the politicians got a group of foggy-eyed university professor-economists to say that the pressure of inflation could be stopped by control on prices of consumer goods. Controlling the safety-valve on a steam boiler won't relieve the steam pressure, but checking the fire that causes the steam will relieve the danger. Controls on prices won't check the pressure of in- flation, but stopping the waste and corruption in government administration will lessen it.

Next, Foggy-eyes said in- flation could be stopped by in- creasing taxes. "Hurrh!" said the politicians, "more money to spend." What did Congress do? It imposed an income tax. Then Foggy-eyes made a wonderful discovery—"deficit-spending." "Hallelujah!" Now the propa- ganda machine could spend an unlimited amount of money on doles which the voters like with- out increasing taxes which vot- ers don't like. So bonds were sold and government waste, cor- ruption and graft ran wild.

Why was it that Congress would not and could not use reasonable common sense in its deliberations? Here are a few of the reasons:

- 1. More than 10 percent of the entire session of the House of Representatives is wasted counting yea and nay votes and quorum calls. Remedy: Elec- trical voting equipment; politicians, both Democrats and Re- publicans opposed this.
2. The Senate wastes even more time in permitting irrele- vant debate. Remedy: Adopt a relevancy rule requiring debate to be germane to pending legis- lation; politicians, both Democ- rats and Republicans oppose this.
3. The Senate consumes hours on end whenever a small group of senators want to impose minority rule by filibuster. Remedy: A majority cloture rule; politicians, both Democ- rats and Republicans have re- peatedly voted against this.

4. Absenteeism of members is continually impairing the work of Congress. Remedy: Tighten rules curbing absent- teesim; politicians, both Dem- ocrats and Republicans have re- peatedly voted down attempts to remedy absenteeism. Con- gressmen object to being com- pelled to attend to business.

The reason politicians oppose such reforms as the Hoover Committee recommended two years ago is the ancient opposi- tion of politicians to limit the spoils system and power of party tailwags to appoint the faith- ful-political cronies to fat jobs.

Already politicians are busy sidetracking the issue for the 1952 election. They want voters to believe that electing a Presi- dent is the one important issue. That is pure political bunk! The one important issue is to elect Congressmen who will curb the power of the chief executive, put him where he belongs, and restore constitutional govern- ment to this great country of ours. Statesmen who will take immediate steps to:

- 1. Make it unlawful for our President to leave our shores and attend a conference of any kind. Agents and diplomats may attend vodka and booze banquets but the President should remain in Washington where he has at least a 50-50 chance to use sober judgement.
2. Take the power of the purse away from the President and restore it to Congress as our constitution provides.
3. Change rules of Congress so that the majority instead of the minority rules its delibera- tions.
Our present disaster is the result of the failure of Con- gress to perform its duty of curbing the mad ambition of the chief executive, and of bestow- ing on him almost unlimited power. We need to return to democratic government and never again allow a President to surrender our rights to a for- eign power as was done at Te- heran, Yalta and Potsdam.
Commitments made at Yalta by our President were unknown to even our State Department until the Russian Ambassador, V. M. Molotov, told about them at embarrassing moments at United Nations meetings. It is useless to blame a crippled, sick, weak, haggard man for his blun- ders when the fault lies with Congressmen who surrendered our rights into his hands. We now know that President Roose- velt, surrounded as he was with political advisers, was but molding clay in the hands of Stalin and his agents at Yalta. He made secret commitments which he could not have made if we had had statesmen instead of politicians in control of Con- gress. Our constitution pro- tected us from the President usupping power but our Congressmen ignored the constitu- tion and surrendered our power into the hands of our chief ex- ecutive.

Now, in 1952 is the time to get rid of politicians and nomi- nate and elect statesmen to Con- gress who will put the Presi- dent where he belongs and keep him there instead of making him an all powerful dictator who can make commitments that may involve us in a need- less war to regain rights which were foolishly given away.
Politicians intend to conduct the 1952 campaign for the own advantage. Reform must come from the grass roots. Farmers, businessmen, civic club mem- bers and all blue blooded Americans should cooperate with their local newspapers and insist that the campaign be on the issue of "constitutional government versus one-man dic- tatorship." The slogan for the 1952 campaign should be, "Shun the politician."

A recent survey of the Ameri- can Institute of Public Opinion showed a two percent of voters listed themselves as indepen- dents. Voters under 30 were 34 percent and among the 2,800,000 eligible to vote for the first time 41 percent. Some 60 million voters will be watching television and wherever you go there's radio. Opportunity is before us.

H. E. Bradley 609 Emmet street Ypsilanti, Mich. Reel has found:

Dehorning cattle will save farmers money, according to Dr. Glen Reed, extension veter- inarian at Michigan State Col- lege. Horns on cattle are both expensive and dangerous. Dehorning your cattle will cut down 'hogging' in the feed bunks and in the dairy shed," Dr. Reed said. That means fewer expensive injuries and less chance of injury to the herds- man.

Finished cattle also bring bet- ter prices on the market. Some shipments of cattle are severe- ly docked because of the deep bruises caused by horns. Late fall, or during the winter and early spring are good times to dehorn because screw worms or maggots are not a problem then. Unless you are an expert, you'd better let your local veterinarian do the job. Dr. Reed said. He can pull the horn arteries to prevent severe bleeding which might cause loss of weight or even death.

Dairy cows in production need special attention when being de- horned. The veterinarian may suggest a local anesthetic to deaden nerves from horn to pre- vent pain. Otherwise the cow is likely to drop in milk produc- tion. It is safer to dehorn ear- ly to a cow's calving time if a local anesthetic is used. Dr. Reed has found:

Household Hints

Waxed candles that have been thoroughly chilled in the refrigerator will burn more slowly, thus lasting a longer time.

A sheet of plastic fastened to the wall behind the stove will keep your kitchen looking cleaner. Grease often spatters on this wall area, but plastic can be wiped clean in a jiffy.

Place one of your favorite ribbon for an attractive choker clip earrings on a black velvet ribbon for evening wear.

A piece of white chalk carried in your purse will work wonders in touching up dirty smudges on white gloves.

Dairy Cows Need Mineralized Salt

Fifty cents a year will provide the needed cobalt and iodine for a Michigan dairy cow, according to Ames A. Hays, Michigan State College extension dairyman.

He arrives at this figure by calculating the extra cost of a trace mineralized salt which contains enough cobalt and iodine for the cow's needs, if self-fed. A cow needs 75 to 100 pounds of salt a year. Salt with trace minerals included costs about 50 cents more than common salt - hence the half-dollar figure.

HOME ECONOMICS GIRLS ATTEND FARM WEEK

by Marianne Schook

The home economics girls attended National Farm Week on Thursday, January 31, at Michigan State College.

They left school at 8:30 in the morning. On the way up there they had a 25 minute wait in Jackson at a railroad crossing for a train to pass. After arriving at East Lansing they started their tour at the Kellogg Center where there are laboratories for testing foods. There were lectures all morning and a fashion show in the afternoon which they attended. At the fashion show there was a review of the uniforms worn by women of the Army, Air Force and Marines.

They went through the cow and horse barns and the engineering building and then started for home at 3:45 in the afternoon.

F. F. A. BOYS ATTEND FARMERS WEEK

by Nancy Budnik

At 9:00 Thursday morning, January 31, the Future Farmers of America left the Manchester High School bound for East Lansing and Michigan State College.

The first stop made was at the artificial insemination barn where the boys spent a few minutes in a modern bull barn. Leaving here the boys went over to the main grounds where they began by going through the sheep barns and the Agriculture Engineering building. After they left this building the boys broke up into small groups.

The Fat Stock Auction Sale where the grand champion steer was auctioned off could be seen. The steer was a Shorthorn and sold for 49c a pound. The new dairy barn and many other new buildings were also very interesting.

A Hungry Convalescent

"Yes, 'Sis' is practically normal again."

"How do we know," you ask? "Why just look at her eat. What an appetite!"

And while on the subject of culinary appreciation, here is a delicious milk and fruit dessert that is excellent for the convalescent and in fact, for anyone, whether they be six or sixty. This Orange Rennet Dessert with a Fruit Whip Topping is not only a tasty treat, but nutritious as well. Truly, it is a light but nourishing delicacy suitable for any occasion.

The young lady in the photo is taking time out to enjoy her rennet dessert, before she finishes reading the kind cards and notes of her many "well wishers," and judging from the happy smile on her face, it looks as though all those good wishes have been answered.

Orange Rennet Dessert with Fruit Whip Topping
2 cups milk (not canned)
1 package orange rennet powder

Set out 4 or 5 dessert glasses. Warm milk slowly until lukewarm, stirring constantly. Test a drop on the inside of your wrist frequently. When it feels comfortably warm (110° F.) not hot, remove at once from heat. Stir in entire contents of package at one time. Mix until powder is dissolved - not over one minute. Pour at once, while still liquid, into dessert glasses. Do not disturb for about 10 minutes, while milk sets. Then chill in refrigerator until served. Whipped cream to serve top with Fruit Whip.

*If milk gets too hot, cool to comfortably warm before adding powder, or it will not set.

Fruit Whip Topping
1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup strained fruit (peaches, prunes, apricots, etc.)
Beat egg white until foamy. Gradually add sugar, beat until stiff. Fold in strained fruit. Serve on chilled rennet desserts.

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

CRANBERRIES ARE GOOD IN SAUCE, AND IN MUFFINS AND RELISH, TOO

by the General Electric Consumer Institute

If you see fresh cranberries in the grocery store and think only of cranberry sauce, you are missing some taste treats.

Not that cranberry sauce isn't tasty; it is. And here's the General Electric Consumer Institute recipe, using frozen berries. (You can freeze cranberries now and have them on hand all year round. Just wash the berries, pick them over, place in a moisture-vaporproof container, and freeze.)

Ten-Minute Cranberry Sauce
Tested in the G-E Consumer Institute
1 cup sugar
¼ cup water
2 cups frozen cranberries, unthawed

Place sugar and water in 2-quart saucepan. Bring to boil on a high heat, then switch to medium heat and boil 5 minutes. Add frozen cranberries and boil, without stirring, until all the skins pop open (about 5 minutes). Remove from unit and allow sauce to cool in saucepan. Makes 2 cups.

But the tangy taste of cranberries lends itself to a variety of uses. For instance, there's Frosty Cranberry-Orange-Relish, which is especially appropriate for Thanksgiving time.

Frosty Cranberry-Orange Relish
Tested in the G-E Consumer Institute
1 medium orange, unpeeled
1 carton frozen cranberries, unthawed (2-3 cups)
1 cup sugar

Wash orange. Cut in eighths and remove seeds. Using coarse cutter or food chopper (on mixer at Speed 12), alternate put cranberries and orange through food chopper. Add sugar and mix all ingredients well. Let stand about 10 minutes to allow sugar to dissolve before serving. Makes about 3 cups.

And if you like hot breads, you can add new color and flavor to muffins by adding cranberries to the recipe.

Cranberry Muffins
Tested in the G-E Consumer Institute
1 egg, unbeaten
1 cup milk
½ cup melted shortening
½ cup frozen and thawed cranberries, coarsely chopped
½ cup sugar

Place egg, milk and melted shortening in small mixer bowl. Beat at medium speed (Speed 6) until thoroughly blended (about 30 seconds). Combine chopped cranberries and sugar. Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt evenly over surface of liquid ingredients. Add with cranberry mixture to first mixture. Beat at a low speed (Speed 1) until ingredients are just blended (about 10-15 seconds). Place in greased shallow muffin pans. Bake in oven 425° F for 20-25 minutes. Makes 12 muffins.

Cranberry-orange relish is a "natural" for Thanksgiving time—and it has added eye appeal when served in scooped-out orange halves. Cranberry muffins will be a colorful addition to your holiday table, too.

A Jewel of a Pie

By BETTY BARCLAY

How would you like a lovely Star Ruby for Christmas? Well, here 'tis—only this one is destined for your Christmas table, instead of your finger. It's a beauty, though, and what's more, it can be "mined" right in your own kitchen. Sour red cherries, whipped cherry-flavored gelatin, and shredded coconut to accent both flavor and texture, make the filling for this delectable pie. And for a finishing touch, a gleaming white star of snowy coconut is outlined on top to really make this a jewel of a pie.

Star Ruby Pie
1 box quick-frozen red sour pitted cherries, thawed
2 cups hot water and cherry juice
1 package cherry-flavored gelatin
1½ cups shredded coconut
1 baked 9-inch pie shell

Drain cherries; measure juice and add hot water to make 2 cups. Dissolve gelatin in the hot liquid; measure ¼ cup and reserve. Chill remaining gelatin until slightly thickened. Then place in bowl of ice and water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Add ¼ cup of the coconut. Turn into pie shell. Chill until firm.

Add cherries to reserved ¼ cup gelatin. Chill until slightly thickened. Then pour over whipped gelatin in pie shell. Chill until almost firm. Cut star-shaped stencil from paper, place on pie, and fill open space with remaining coconut to form star. Chill until firm.

Farm Production Can Be Raised

Prof. C. R. Hoglund, Michigan State College agricultural economist, believes it is possible by 1955 to raise Michigan milk production by 10%, red meat production by 8% and poultry and turkey meat production by 15% over the 1950 level. He says better cropping practices could boost production of feed grain by 5% along with a 10% rise in hay and pasture. Prof. Hoglund also sees a possibility for a 10% rise in corn yields and production gains of 10 to 25% for other crops if Michigan farmers make more extensive use of fertilizer.

Television is now a part of the American way of life—and the successful homemaker is always on the lookout for new and interesting television room arrangements. This room was especially designed for television. The television set has been partially recessed by the flanking bookshelves. The sectional sofa permits convenient viewing arrangement and the low lounge chair mounted on casters gives the room flexibility. The nest of tables is ideal for serving snacks from the hostess cart. The long low coffee table also adds beauty and utility to the room. This room arrangement provides ideal comfort for the entire family.

do in the event of Biological Warfare?
 The simple things are the important things, Civil Defense points out.

Keep yourself and your home clean. Germs have trouble living in clean places.
 Report sickness promptly. If you live on a farm, report all sicknesses or deaths among your poultry or livestock. Report plant diseases or unusual insects you find in your garden or crops.

Give all possible help to authorities. If you're asked for a blood sample, give it. If you're told a "shot in the arm" or vaccination is needed by all, don't delay.

Don't take chances on food and water in open containers. Bottled or canned goods are safe after a BW attack if the container isn't broken. If in doubt, boil for ten minutes. That will kill most germs.

Don't start rumors. Don't believe rumors. Start a rumor and you may start a panic and a panic could cost you your life.

Civil Defense officials ask the public to "kill the myths" whenever they appear.

"Germ warfare will not knock out entire cities," the official BW booklet points out.

"Talk of poisons that can kill millions is nonsense," the booklet continues.

In spite of all our knowledge of how to fight biological warfare, it is possible for our country to be hit. Citizens will not necessarily have advance warning of biological attacks, Civil Defense officials say. But by keeping yourself, your family, your house and your neighborhood clean, by reporting any unusual diseases promptly, and by cooperating with medical and public health authorities, we can win a biological war just as we won an air, sea and land war in World War II.

(The next installment deals with what would happen if a biological attack were spotted.)

SCIENCE and HEALTH

Wonder Drug for Skin Disease

Scientific doggedness has given modern medicine another weapon in its fight on disease—neomycin, a new wide-range antibiotic. Neomycin has created a stir in medical circles. Laboratory tests marked it as the most potent of all the wonder drugs, though unsuitable for injection into the human body. Scientists at the Upjohn Company in Kalamazoo, Mich., continued to work on the drug. They refined it further, stepping up its potency so that much smaller doses might be used. Finally, they tried it in both an ointment and a wet com-

Manchester Certain Of Title Share As Dexter Loses

Team Standings	W	L	Pct.
Manchester	7	1	.875
Dexter	5	3	.625
South Lyon	4	4	.500
Brighton	4	4	.500
Hartland	2	6	.250
Pinckney	2	6	.250

Manchester had a share of the League of the Lakes basketball championship all sewed up since Friday night's 51-50 squeak past Pinckney plus Hartland's 48-42 upset of Dexter.

In the loop's other game Brighton surprised South Lyon 46-34.

With only two rounds to play, Manchester's Dutchmen can do no worse than share the championship and will have it all alone with one more victory regardless of how Dexter performs in its remaining league engagements.

Manchester and Pinckney staged a real thriller on the latter's court Friday evening. The Dutchmen had a 24-29 lead going into the final period and were still in front 47-40 with only two minutes to play.

But then Pinckney's Jerry Mrofka, who produced 20 points for his night's work, went wild and stole the ball three times, scoring after each theft, to narrow the margin down to a point. With 10 seconds to go, Pinckney had a 50-49 lead, but Manchester's Bill Aiken dribbled the length of the floor and counted a layup shot that produced the winning point.

At Mrofka, Jerry's older brother, had 17 points for Pinckney while Bill Aiken and Jack Evisizer produced 12 for Manchester and Bud Lamb added 11 and Jerry Fennell nine. In second team play, Manchester was a 33-31 winner.

Free throws provided the victory margin in Hartland's surprise at Dexter. Each team made 17 field goals. Dexter in 64 shots for a slim 26 percent take and Hartland in 52 for a good 36 percent. But the visitors cashed 14 of 28 free throws while Dexter made only eight in 24.

Dexter held a 23-19 lead at the half but fell behind in the third period, 35-30 and couldn't catch up. The host team's Dale Krull led all scorers with 19 points and Dan Nuttle added nine. For Hartland, Harry Brown had 16 and Bob Noss 14. Dexter sent Hartland's second team down to its first defeat of the season, 48-38, in preliminary play.

In South Lyon-Brighton game in the latter's new gymnasium, the host Bulldogs led throughout for an easy victory as Tom Evarson poured 17 points through the hoops and Jack Wood added 10. For South Lyon Ed Hock had 13 and Bill Goodrich six. South Lyon won the second team game 44-28.

How Good Is Your Color!

With spring in the air what homemaker hasn't noticed that everything in the house, including the family clothes, needs freshening? White curtains, white towels, white shirts, white nylons—say, look again! No sparkle in that white—it's just plain dingy! Let's face it... these things need a special beauty treatment! Now is the time, too, before you have to get down to the real business of cleaning rugs and washing paint. And the magic of your achievement—all those shining white clothes—will lift your spirit to the extent that ever housecleaning will be fun! Once the clothes are really white again, the best method for keeping them white is frequent washing BEFORE they get too heavily soiled—and with the addition of head bluing in each wash you can be assured of a plus white performance.

Start the beauty treatments on your very next wash day. You will get best results using a mechanical washer, and really hot water—from 120° to 140°. Add a double quantity of a good water softener and a half cup of La France bluing. Wash as usual, and rinse. It will take about five such treatments to complete the reconditioning, but use the double dose of water softener only in the first wash—after that follow manufacturer's directions.

You can recondition in the wash tub, too. Give clothes, except rayons and woollens, a 15-to-20 minute soak in twice the usual amount of water softener. Remove clothes and put into freshly prepared wash water—as hot as the hands can stand—with detergent and bluing. Continue with the same directions given for washer reconditioning.

Today's Fashions by Betty Rose

NEW SILHOUETTE AND NEW FABRICS DRAMATIZE THE "ROMANTIC" IN SPRING FASHIONS.

Fabrics with surface interest—such as fleeces, ribbed wools, tweeds, flannels—tailored with conscious romantic styling, inspire a "big spark" of something different in coats and suits for spring. The three garments shown here, styled by Betty Rose, typify the new silhouette and the new spring fabric. Colors, too, are exciting. Neutrals and bright pastels in coats are favorites. They harmonize with the browns, navies and golds of suits. The little coat on the left, popular in peach, shrimp, gold, pink and lilac, with deep-cuffed sleeves and pockets and square-buttoned, notched tuxedo front, portrays the graceful lines of the new spring tailoring. The soft-to-the-touch fleece adds feminine warmth. The same basic features—romantic styling and fabrics with surface interest—are especially prominent in the full-length coat. They are dramatized in the coat on the right. Here is sweeping contour which complements, with its single-button closure, bold worsted plain in gay spring colors. And the tailoring of the new spring suits is in harmony with coat styling. Feminine lines of the Betty Rose suit in the center, accented by notched collar, turn-up pockets, arched hipline and full skirt, bespeak all that is alluring and romantically sophisticated. Rich texture of the yarn-dyed worsted again complements the styling.
