Bowling Gets Underway For Another Year

The Manchester Business Men's Bowling League started with a bang on September 9 with Speck Kappler making the most pins fall. He had a series of 222, 190 and 182 for a 594 series, which according to Rolly Grossman is very good for the first bowling of the season.

Other bowlers who had good series were Morgan Kern, 530, Fritz Wurster, 529, Earl Bersuder, 519 and Robert Clark, 513. Larry Miller with a 196 game and Mike Wolff with a 193 game right in there bowling strikes.

This is a little early in the season to tell who is going to be near the top in bowling as most of the fellows haven't bowled since last spring but you can bet there'll be some hot series bowled before the season is over. There is likely to be fireworks when Kappler's Contractors and Klager's Hatcheries meet this week.

Fair President Greets Visitors To Big Event

Will Kulenkamp

We checked with president of the Manchester Fair Board, William Kulenkamp, just before the paper went to press to get any last minute message from him before the fair actually starts on Thursday. Mr. Kulenkamp is a pretty busy man these days but he took time out to write the following message to everyone interested in the Manchester fair.

"Hi Neighbors: This is the week of our big community fair. On Thursday morning all exhibits are to be in place by eleven o'clock. All tents, stalls and crates are ready for your convenience to avoid confusion and delay.

"The Fair Board has every reason to be proud of this exposition, first for the quality and second for the size. Every booth in the Merchants' tent has been sold. Nearly every tent is larger than last year. This has been made necessary because of an increased demand for space.

"Each day of the fair will carry its own special attractions which are listed elsewhere in the Enterprise. We feel that it will be well worth your time to come look the fair over and have a visit with your neighbor. In this day of high speed our doctors advise us that a pause or rest is good for the heart—better come and get that rest at the fair ground."

Attention Mr. Citizen

Were you one of the 48 per cent of the nation's eligible voters who didn't vote in the last presidential election? If so, maybe your reason was that you forgot to register. Don't let that happen this year. If you are not registered now you have until October 5th to remedy that oversight. Also, if you are registered and do vote, will your ballot count? Of course. No, not necessarily.

There are very definite rules as to how to mark your ballot. Study the instruction ballots before marking your own.

At the voter's specific request, the manner of voting may be explained, but under no circumstances may a voter be told HOW to vote. If a voter should happen to spoil one or more of his ballots while marking them, he must return all the ballots issued him. He shall then receive a new set of ballots, all bearing a new number.

The cross designating either a straight ticket or before the names of the various candidates must fall within the square and be a cross with the lines intersecting. Many people use a check mark which is not valid and in no way must the ballot be marked as to be distinguishable. When it is evident that a ballot has been mutilated for the purpose of distinguishing it such as markings, printing or other alterations which are obviously unnecessary to declare the voting intent, such ballot becomes void. Marks other than crosses shall not be counted.

Some mistakes invalidating ballots observed at the polls recently were one marked with X on the instruction ballot, one to which a voter had signed his name, several with V marks instead of X, one in which the voter had marked every candidate.

Study the procedure and be sure that your vote will be counted on November 4. This is one of the most important elections in history.

YOUR BEST BET

Advertising is, of course, an accepted thing. Otherwise businessmen wouldn't put a sign on their places of business or trucks, etc.

But what we want to stress is that advertising in the columns of The Manchester Enterprise is your best bet to reach the market that Manchester merchants want to reach.

Going into the homes of the prospective customer each week, your weekly newspaper is read, completely, and that is the essence of advertising pull—reader interest.

Place your advertising message where it will get results—in the columns of the hometown paper.

TO DECORATE THE TABLE for autumn, bring a bit of outdoor beauty inside. Use colorful squash, gourds or corn for the centerpiece. Arrange these on a straw mat. Or place them in a low wooden bowl or tray. Tuck branches of fall leaves around the edge. Even the best food tastes better when served from a pretty table.

FALL BRINGS A FESTIVAL of good things for eating. From the garden and the grocer's come all the bounty of harvest foods. Bright red apples, plump squash, sturdy onions and potatoes. Plan a "Fall Festival Dinner" for your family some night soon, featuring the plentiful vegetables and fruits. An ideal dish that combines choice vegetables and beef is a savory stew. With this main feature, have a salad of tossed greens and a basket of hot biscuits. The happy ending is spicy apple dumplings with thick cream poured on. Try this fine recipe for stew.

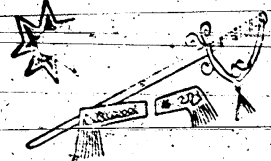

TOMATO BEEF STEW

2 tablespoons flour	3 cups water
1/2 teaspoon salt	1 can (1 1/2 cups) condensed tomato soup
1/4 teaspoon pepper	6 small onions
2 pounds beef, cubed	6 small carrots
2 tablespoons shortening	3 potatoes, quartered

Combine flour, salt and pepper; roll meat in this mixture. Brown meat in shortening in a heavy saucepan. Add water; cover and simmer 1 1/2 hours, stirring occasionally. Add soup, onions, carrots and potatoes; cook until vegetables are tender—about 1/2 hour. Makes 6 servings.

GOOD MEALTIME QUIZ QUESTION is to ask yourself how much milk the family is getting. You're a smart meal-manager if you serve plenty of milk or milk-dishes each day. Both little tots and their elders will benefit. And the start of the school season is an especially fine time to check up on the food-value of the youngsters' meals. There are many ways to include milk in their lunch boxes and at other meals: as a beverage, in soups, creamed meats and vegetables, with cereal, etc. When you prepare condensed soups with milk, use a can-measure of milk to each can of soup for just-right results.

Knowledge is Power

1. WHICH REVOLUTIONARY WAR GENERAL WAS AN IMPOSTER?

2. CAN YOU REDUCE YOUR CHILD'S TOOTH DECAY?

3. DO AMERICANS BELIEVE IN FORTUNETELLERS?

(1) Baron von Steuben, the man who turned the raw recruits of the revolutionary war into an effective army, was an imposter. Benjamin Franklin and four other men brought von Steuben to our shores, and presented him as one of the leading generals of Frederick the Great's army, so that he would be placed in charge of the training of American soldiers. Actually, a Milwaukee Journal article reveals, von Steuben had been only a captain in Frederick's army, and was not the nobleman he pretended to be. Franklin knew that only a European general would have a chance of getting anywhere in the American army at that time.

General or no general, von Steuben was an expert drillmaster. After historians had accepted the original hoax as fact for more than a century, John McAuley Palmer, a retired general, did the research in Prussian archives which revealed von Steuben's true background. Palmer ranked von Steuben second in importance only to George Washington.

(2) By introduction of fluorine into the community water supply, tooth decay in children under 13 years old may be reduced by as much as two-thirds, the U. S. Public Health service reports. Many parents have dentists apply fluorine directly to their children's teeth for the same purpose. A Parents' Magazine article on fluorine cites the experience of 121 communities in 43 states where fluorine has been used in the water supply.

Opponents of fluorine state that it is a poison. This is true, but so is iodine in your diet, chlorine in water, and salt on your breakfast egg—if you get too much of them.

(3) Americans spend $125 million a year on people who "read" cards and palms, gaze into crystal balls or engage in astrology. More than a dozen astrology magazines are published in the U. S., and the five leaders boast a circulation of more than a million readers. Mrs. George W. Youngling, who tried fortunetelling for a lark, writes about her experiences in McCall's magazine. She mentions a man in Los Angeles who earns $20,000 a year drawing horoscopes for dogs.

Articles in the September Catholic Digest provided information for this feature.

last year, Mrs. Walsh was presenting a gift from the group. The R. B. Henslers, Millard Uphaus, Walter Vogts and the Walsh family enjoyed a mother's dinner held at the Cotage at Wampers Lake. Mrs. Walsh, who are moving to Parma were presented with a gift by the group.

Defense Needs
Under a state of defense mobilization, railroad cars would be needed to add 25 per cent more ton-miles of freight transportation service than the nation's railroads achieved in 1951.

Slip Covers
It is better to select closely woven fabrics for slip covers because they give greater protection against dust, hold their shape better, wear longer, and tailor more easily than do loosely woven materials.

Here's the new way to handle hard-baked fields. Use the mounted coil shank cultivator with double-pointed shovels on your WD Tractor. This rugged tool provides thorough tillage and sheds trash well. And with the WD you get the tractor pull needed for steady, thorough work through the A-C Traction Booster. It adds implement weight automatically to the rear wheels as the load increases... lets you take full advantage of Allis-Chalmers engine power.
Chisel cultivation opens up stubble fields to catch hard showers as they fall, and helps subsoil moisture move upward into the plowed layer. It controls weeds and prepares the way for easier plowing or other tillage.
Let us demonstrate in your fields.

HARD LUCK STORY OF THE YEAR

You and I have heard many a tale of woe from fishermen in our time—stories of sea monsters that got away, alibis for coming home empty-handed, and sweeping statements to the effect that there "never" were any fish in that lake anyway.

lost much of its future usefulness, the monster was boated. Old-time Houghton Lakers gathered in nearby boats, and gaped like just about stopped breathing. It was a gigantic small-mouth bass, all agreed. Out-came the tested and proven "De-Liar" pocket scales. The needle wiggled, then settled at 7 1/2 pounds! Everyone knew that Ike had a prize-winner this time, for, as every angler can tell you a small-mouth bass of such dimensions is a once-in-a-million-life-time catch. And to cap the climax it was caught on a fly rod!

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 10:00 p.m. on stations WWJ-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Here's my fall speech on worming with PTZ

Nobody wants to go into winter with a bellyful of worms. Now it takes a real remedy to give those worms a terrific blasting at the end of the pasture season. That remedy, for my money, is PTZ, the photostatin remedy of Dr. Hess & Clark. PTZ is highly effective against six species of sheep roundworms, including stomach worms and nodular worms.

So now is the right time to give us that worm-expelling dose of PTZ. For this purpose, you can use either one of two products—PTZ Pellets or PTZ Powder in a drench.
