County School Study Committee Meets

Too Many; Too Few In Districts

Pittsfield District No. 9's newest school, Mary D. Mitchell, not yet occupied by students was the meeting place for the county study committee's meeting. Problems of too few pupils in some school districts in Washtenaw County seem to be causing about as many problems as those with overcrowded conditions. The county-wide group heard a report on finances as one of five being prepared by subcommittees of the 30-man school committee, which may submit its reports to the County Board of Education by June 1.

The Main Street

On Wednesday morning two crews of men from the Consumers Power Company were in town checking the gas pipes that go into the homes and stores in the village. The men were working in pairs, expected to complete the survey in one day as compared to two weeks for the same number of men in the Jackson area for defective pipes. This is the first time that they have checked in Manchester and a check is taken every six months.

Maybe we better take this time to explain to our readers that we are always willing to print letters which are sent to us. However, these letters must appear in print if we have been instructed not to—but no letter can be acknowledged without the signature of the sender. Sorry.

It has been brought to our attention by the Washtenaw County Council of Veterans that on Lincoln's birthday every two flags were displayed either in Ann Arbor or in the nearby towns—including Manchester. Mel Pierce of the Veterans' Council called this office to ask us to remind folks at Manchester that Friday is Washington's birthday and that everyone is asked to make a special effort to have their flag displayed especially in the business district of the town.

At the sophomore dance which was held Saturday at the town, Jerry Trolz was crowned king and Betty Miller queen by Village President L. V. Kirk who with Mrs. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crandall and Mrs. and Mrs. Larry Soldan acted as judges.

At the village camping over at Dexter we noticed that Dr. A. G. Wall, who is completing his 28th year as village president, was re-nominated on the Citizen's ticket to run against Theo. Tirl on the Progressive ticket.

Michigan Mirror

Loren B. Miller, Detroit advocate of reform in state government has a nickname of "Red." It refers to his hair. Miller lived up to his sobriquet at a Michigan Press Association convention luncheon featuring proposed reorganization of state government. But in a rare way to this extent: He became obviously red-faced when State Treasurer D. F. Blake made the thunder and delivered the best speech of his capital career. Here's the story.

Miller was given the lead-off spot preceding appearance of constitutional state officials. He pleaded that the governor should be given more power—authority to appoint heads of departments such as mail, service, conservation and agriculture. He also recommended of joint legislative committee of which Miller was director.

Blake's reply was masterful. He tore the argument into shreds and wound up with a terrific applause. Newspaper editors, declared Blake: "Civil service in Michigan is safeguarded from partisan politics through a commission. The Republican slate of Governors' last year was under study. The building would be a self-paying project, of course."

Since 1838, Michigan has spent $161,510 in bounties on wolves. Only 27 were taken last year. Michigan is now using this method of stamping out wolves is futile and expensive. The state predator research specialist, of the bureau of civilization is the only factor in reducing the wolf population so low that those state hunters' complaints are constant change of directors as governors arrived and left.

The conservation commission would become "advisory" under Miller's plan with the director named by the governor. Blake's beat punch line was this: "The Michigan wolf is a constant change of directors as governors arrived and left."

Michigan began reverberating last week to the thump of Eisenhower drama as various factors with a low vote are the likeness of the general, began lightning organizations and facts and collecting pledges for funds.

Timely Topic Offered In Extension Course

Political Parties and Political Activity is the next course to be offered in Ann Arbor in the series on Positive Citizenship, the University of Michigan Extension Service announced.

Prof. James K. Pollock, chairman of the department of political science, will open the series on Thursday, February 21, with a lecture and discussion on "The Characteristics of Our Party System."

How American political parties function, what party work is, and how they are organized, are some of the topics to be covered by members of the political science department in this six-week survey of American party politics. Special emphasis will naturally be placed on the presidential election.

Prof. Harold M. Dorr, political science instructor, will give the second lecture in the series, speaking on Party Organization and Machinery. The third lecture by Prof. Joseph E. Kalenbach will be The Presidential Nominating and Election Process.

Remaining topics and speakers are The Strategy of Political Campaigns by Prof. Arthur B. Bronson; Money and Elections by Prof. John W. Lederle; director of the Institute of Public Administration; and Voting Behavior by Prof. Samuel J. Eldersveld, coordinator of the series.

GOV. WILLIAMS REPORTS TO THE PEOPLE

Lansing—An estimated $38 million in extra road-building money is piling up in the state treasury through the operation of the increased gas and weight taxes.

The federal civil defense administration warns Michigan citizens against being taken in by racketeers who sell guaranteed "radiation-proof" overalls and the like. The state department of health says that the state would be devised probably no one would be wearing it at the right time.

Michigan's birthrate is playing hob with its schools. Some 170,000 babies were born last year, as compared with 99,000 in 1940. School officials say they will get 100,000 new pupils next fall while seats are needed already for 108,000 more in overcrowded facilities.

Michigan taxpayers paid out $4,909,900 in federal, state and local taxes last year. This compared with $3,454,049 in 1950, the largest increase in history, according to the department of revenue. The tax load in Michigan has increased 10-fold since 1930.

The emergency commission on defense contracts has moved to Washington in an effort to alleviate the jobless situation in Michigan's industrial areas. Current aims are to set up a defense contract reserve of industrial subcontractors to help plants get contracts. All major employers have been asked to submit a list of workers for possible employment so the commission and its subcommittees can work ahead to forestall future crises.

MANCHESTER CLINCHES A SHARE OF LEAGUE TITLE; BEATS PINCKNEY 51-50

By Donna Sturdevant

Manchester's Flying Dutchmen edged out Pinckney by a score of 51-50 in Pinckney Friday night.

Manchester was well ahead most of the game, but in the last few minutes Pinckney threw in a flurry of baskets and went ahead by one point. With the score 50-49 with less than five seconds left, Bill Aiken dribbled the length of the floor and dropped a push shot through to give the Dutchmen their winning one point edge. Before Pinckney could get into scoring territory the game ended.

Manchester's leading scorers were Bill Aiken with 12, Jack Evislizer with 12, and Red Lamb with 11. Jack Evislizer made ten of his points in the first half. Manchester has won even of their eight league games to top the League of Lakes.

MANCHESTER RESERVES SLIP PAST PINCKNEY BY CLOSE SCORE 33-31

Manchester Reserves beat

Pinckney by a score of 33-31 in Pinckney Friday, February 8.

In the first quarter the coach gave Manchester's subs a chance to play. They were not able to match Pinckney's play as they scored no points to Pinckney's 13. With less than a minute to play the regulars came in to relieve the subs. The end of the quarter showed a score of 13-2. Manchester really came back in the second quarter and when the buzzer had sounded for the end of the half the score was 20-13 in favor of Pinckney. The game was fairly won in the next quarter. Although Manchester managed to tie Pinckney. When the buzzer finally sounded for the end of the game, Manchester was victorious, winning their fourth game. Stanley Buss was the leading scorer for Manchester with 12 points. Ray Mitchell was next with 6.

Booster feeding through plant leaves shows promise

Many plants and trees absorb food through their leaves. This discovery opens up possibilities of larger, faster-growing crops by applying additional fertilizer as a spray. Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment Station is studying ways of making leaf feeding practical to the average grower. Among plants which respond readily to nutrition through their leaves are tomato, celery and corn, as well as apple trees. Best results have been obtained by spraying relatively low concentrations of plant food during the spring and early summer. As more information is obtained, it will be available to you by calling, writing or visiting your County Agricultural Agent.

New life for old grasshoppers

To you, a grasshopper can cause damage. But, to your telephone service, a "grasshopper" prevents damage. For this is the name of a tiny fuse, so called because it looks like a grasshopper. If there's too much current, the fuse blows and saves other equipment from damage. A new "grasshopper" costs 9 cents. After it has blown, we have it repaired for 5 cents, saving 4 cents over buying a new fuse. On the millions of grasshopper fuses we use, that's a real saving... and another way telephone efficiency helps keep down the cost of your service.

Tangerines Make A Picture-Pretty Salad

Tangerines make your salad platter as pretty as your centerpiece. Florida's little zipper-skin fruit is here this month in abundance. Easy to section and prepare, it's a natural for salads and fruit cups. And like the other Florida citrus fruits, it's one of the best natural sources of vitamin C.

- Tangerine Salad
- 6 tangerines
 - 2 3-ounce packages cream cheese
 - 2 tablespoons top milk or cream
 - 1/4 cup cranberry jelly or orange marmalade
 - Crisp lettuce cups

Cut peel of tangerines part way down to form 4 sections, and tuck them under like flat petals; separate tangerine sections but do not loosen from the peel. Place each tangerine in a crisp lettuce cup. Soften cream cheese and blend in top milk. Add jelly or marmalade and whip until smooth. Serve over tangerine-salads. Makes 6 salads.

WINTRY WEATHER is the time to have a pot of hearty homemade soup for the family. It sticks to the ribs and is satisfying when the weather is cold.

Cream type soups are especially nutritious, and here's a speed-up method of preparation. Use economical nonfat dry milk and you won't need to make a roux, cooked butter and flour mixture, to thicken the soup. To illustrate this quick method we have a recipe for Cheese Vegetable Chowder, especially delicious for school day luncheons for the youngsters on a cold day.

But a word about nonfat dry milk first. It is milk with only the fat and water removed and it can be used for cooking, baking, drinking, with cereals—and it will even whip. Nonfat dry milk is an extremely valuable source of protein, calcium, riboflavin and lactose. It is a very economical food item, too, for a one-pound package, available at the grocer's, will make five quarts of nonfat milk at only about eight cents a quart.

And now for Cheese Vegetable Chowder:

Cheese Vegetable Chowder
(Makes 6 servings)

- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper
- 3 tablespoons butter, melted
- 4 cups water
- 1 cup Starlac (nonfat dry milk)
- 1 lb. processed American cheese food shredded
- 3/4 cup cooked whole kernel corn
- 1/2 cup diced, cooked carrots or turnips
- 3/4 cup finely shredded cooked cabbage
- 1 cup diced cooked potato
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper

Cook onion and green pepper in melted butter in small frying pan until tender and light golden brown. Pour lukewarm water into soup kettle. Sprinkle Starlac (nonfat dry milk) over surface; beat until just blended. Add shredded cheese, cooked onion-pepper mixture and the remaining ingredients. Cover kettle and heat to boiling over low heat, stirring often. Serve at once, if desired, garnish each serving with chopped parsley.

Fifty Manchester Dogs Vaccinated At Clinic

Washtenaw County Veterinary Medical Association and Health Department announced that 1,576 dogs were vaccinated in the anti-rabies clinic which they sponsored in the county early in February.

This is about 200 more dogs than were vaccinated in the same clinic series last year. The best showing was made in Dexter with 273 dogs. Chelsea was next with approximately 170. Whitmore Lake was third with 120. Some 220 dogs were vaccinated at the Ann Arbor clinic, but when the size of the community was taken into consideration this was not an unusual number.

Vaccinations in the other nearby towns were recorded as follows: Manchester—50, Milan 90, Saline 100 and Salem 38.

County Health officials are relying heavily upon the individual citizens having unvaccinated dogs treated at the veterinarians' offices before March 1 when the license deadline expires and the new licenses must be obtained.

The law requires that each dog be vaccinated for rabies within the year preceding the granting of the license. Failure to live up to the law on the part of dog owners will practically guarantee the return of rabies to this community and all unnecessary expense and suffering that exposure to this disease entails.

Rabies, which used to be prevalent here, has disappeared because the dog owners are getting their dogs vaccinated each year, according to the local Health Department.

Flying Dutchmen Lose by One Point

By Donna Sturdevant

Manchester's Flying Dutchmen were defeated by South Lyon in Manchester Friday night by a score of 31-30. It is their second loss in league competition against seven wins. No matter how the other teams come out in their games, the Flying Dutchmen still win the championship.

Bill Aiken took scoring honors with 10 points and Jack Evisizer and Duane Troz were second with five each.

The game was close all the way with South Lyon outscoring Manchester only in the second period. The Dutchmen fought hard to win but bad luck stopped them.

The Kingdom of God
 Thursday, February 21
 Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 18:3) Real Matthew 18:1-6.
 One time as I was standing near my study window which looks out on an alley, I saw three children, one little boy and two little girls, down below. One of the little girls, who was about the age of six, stopped for a moment and looked in the brick trash burner. Then I saw her reach, ever so carefully, over the dirty brick wall of the burner and bring forth a partly-burned bouquet of flowers. Very carefully she separated the destroyed ones from the rest. When she had finished, she triumphantly held her little hand. And then I heard her say, both to herself and also in the hearing of the others, "Oh, aren't these beautiful?"

Christ saw in little children their ability to appreciate the good and the beautiful. We need not be astonished that He said, "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven."
 Prayer
 Almighty God, we are grateful that little children can teach us of Thy paths. May we know something of the full significance of a childlike spirit as we meet the challenges of this earthly life. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Thought for the Day
 Only the converted, the childlike in heart, get into heaven. Charles P. Knight (Kansas) der discussion would "recapitulate" $11,000,000 now returned to the cities from the intangibles tax. Another would reduce the amount of liquor license money sent back to the cities for local enforcement of liquor laws.

I think this is a false policy. It amounts to "robbing Peter to pay Paul." Any dollar which is taken away from the local communities and channeled into the state treasury is a dollar which will ultimately have to be made up in higher local taxes.

That's not an effective way to balance the state's budget.

Distribution in Michigan of a new cough drop was announced today by Vick Chemical Co., makers of cold remedies since 1880. The new cough drop combines Vick medication with fluid extract of wild cherry bark, an ingredient well-known for its medicinal properties.

New Cough Drop On Market

According to Kirby Peake, president, Vicks Products Division, the State of Michigan was chosen as a test area because it has one of the nation's highest cough drop sales per capita. More than 1,000,000 packages of the new medicated wild cherry cough drops already have been distributed in the state, he said.

Craft School News
 The following officers have been elected at the Craft school:

for the second semester: President, Gerald Proctor; vice president, Jack Taylor; secretary, Betty Cummings and treasurer, Patricia Proctor.

The librarian is Norma Meiser and the reporter, Rita Trolz. A large amount of paper has been collected for the paper drive.

For health study, the children have chosen the subject, "Community Health". On February 14th the children had a Valentine party sponsored by the mothers, who served refreshments. The second graders have finished the first book of phonics and the first grade is taking up book one. The second grade is beginning book two of phonics.

Pleasant Lake Area Voters Approve Consolidation

At a special election held at their respective schools six school districts in the Pleasant lake area overwhelmingly approved the consolidation of the school districts. In each of the individual elections there was a large majority.

A total of 154 votes were cast for and 19 votes against the proposal. By school districts the results were: Dresselhouse, 24 to 2; Pleasant Lake, 50 to 5;

Irish, 14 to 1; St. Thomas, 10 to 4; Kuebler 24 to 4; and Silver Lake, 32 to 3. Julius Haab, county superintendent of schools, will call a meeting of the county board of education for next Tuesday, if possible, to declare formally that a new primary school district has been legally approved. One of the main issues or goals of such a proposal is the consolidation of the schools is the erection of a new, modern elementary school at Pleasant Lake which will be adequate to the needs of a large territory surrounding Pleasant Lake.
