Poppy Day To Be Observed By Nation

Poppy Day is generally observed throughout the nation on the Saturday before Memorial Day by wearing Memorial Poppies in honor of the war dead.

The idea of the poppy as a memorial flower for World War dead was inspired by the blooming wild poppies "between the crosses, row on row" in the battle cemeteries of World War I. The idea spread spontaneously throughout the English-speaking world. The poppies which are worn in the United States are crepe paper replicas of these wild European poppies, made by veterans in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the country.

Doctors in veterans hospitals consider poppy-making a valuable form of occupational therapy. The psychological effect of having work to do, and being paid for it, rebuilds patients' pride and self respect. Their wages, paid by the American Legion Auxiliary, will approximate one-half million dollars this year.

The official Memorial Poppy is composed of seven pieces of crepe paper and two pieces of wire. It was selected by the American Legion Auxiliary because its manufacture combines the maximum amount of therapeutic work for the disabled veteran with the minimum expenditure for material.

The distribution of poppies on Poppy Day is conducted entirely by volunteer workers without compensation. Approximately 150,000 women will give their time to this project this year.

More than two and one-half million dollars is realized from this work every year. Most of it remains in the community where it is raised for use by American Legion Posts and Auxiliary Units in aid for disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

During 1951, the American Legion Auxiliary's distribution reached approximately 30,000,000 poppies.

Local People Attend Concert

Manchester was well represented at the third annual spring concert given by the Ped-Ford Chorus in Ypsilanti, Tuesday night. Ann Palmer, Hilma Bunney and Deslyn and Steve Kravay are the local people who sang with the chorus which is selected from musicians working in the Parts and Equipment Manufacturing Division of the Ford Motor Company. Luther Fenker of Ypsilanti is the conductor for the group.

C. W. Knauss, Jr., received the Ford Motor Company Employee Suggestion Plan Award for the sixty Manchester men and women who have contributed constructive ideas to the divisions program this year. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Townley represented the local Ford plant at the awards assembly.

Other events besides the outstanding chorus work of the thirty singers were a stage drill by the Ypsilanti High School Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps under the direction of George Cavender and impressions by the Michigan State Normal College Modern Dance Club directed by Sue Rose. Linda Reck, freshman at the University of Michigan, was guest accompanist, assisting Irving Dixon, organist and pianist for the chorus.

Linda Reck Receives Highest Award

Linda Reck was one of the forty-four students at the University of Michigan eligible for Alpha Lambda Delta, national freshmen women's honorary fraternity this spring. She was initiated at a Sunday morning service a week ago.

Coeds who are eligible must have an average of 3.5 or more for the first semester or the first two semesters of their freshman year. Membership in the group is the highest award for first year students at the university.

AG STUDENTS SETTING UP FARM MACHINERY

The 11th and 12th grade agricultural boys at Manchester public schools are now getting some actual practice in assembling farm machinery.

The local firm of Dresselhouse and Davider have opened the shop to the boys and it has proved a very satisfactory arrangement. The boys to date have assembled several machines and will probably be there another week.

Due to the absence of a shop at the high school this arrangement has given the boys the training which they would not otherwise have a chance to experience.

KINDERGARTEN NEWS

Our room blossoms with bridal wreath, vari-colored tulips and lilacs. The children think it is like a garden. We have a pair of orioles on the playground. They like our elm trees. Our showers made very busy house keepers and block builders inside this week.

Red Cross Aid Puts Disaster Stricken Families On Feet

Less than two months ago, hundreds of families had a grim, uncertain future after March tornadoes slashed through seven Southern states. Among the more than 4,500 families who suffered tornado loss, these families faced a lifetime of indebtedness—hospital bills, doctor bills, mortgages. In many, the bread winner had been killed, or injured so badly that it would be weeks or months before the family again had an income. Meanwhile, they were homeless.

For help in meeting their needs, 2,337 families turned to the Red Cross. Today, 85 percent of them are off to a new start, with definite plans for their futures, and the financial means of making the plans work. The plans have been carefully made with Red Cross caseworkers, experts in family assistance, and the money to put the plans into action is there, because people from all parts of the United States make it available when they give to their Red Cross.

To meet the emergency needs of the people in the 36 tornado areas, and to plan individually with each family for Red Cross rehabilitation assistance, a staff of nearly 200 Red Cross workers was on the job in the seven states. White county, Arkansas, where the tornadoes virtually wiped out the town of Judsonia and dealt heavy blows in the vicinity of Searcy and Bird Knob, is the only one of the 36 areas in which Red Cross workers still are engaged in individually family planning. There, the Red Cross has completed assistance planning with 556 of the 867 families who have asked for help, and Red Cross commitments to provide the needed family aid, so far total $328,735.

Total Red Cross commitments in the seven state area now amount to $890,000, just about half of what the Red Cross estimates the complete tornado relief operation will cost. Necessary Red Cross staff, with hundreds of chapter volunteers, will remain on the job in the seven states until every one of the 2,337 applications for Red Cross assistance has been handled, the amount of each applicant's need determined, and the needed assistance given. This probably will be mid-June.

The largest part of the $890,000 committed by Red Cross so far is for assistance in rebuilding or repairing storm damaged homes and essential farm buildings, this phase of Red Cross rehabilitation now having passed the half-million dollar mark. With 1,044 dwellings destroyed in the seven states, Red Cross has received applications for assistance in repairing or rebuilding 775.

The next most costly item of Red Cross assistance is for medical and nursing needs. The tornadoes killed 214 persons and injured 1,820. Of those injured, 892 suffered serious injury and 636 were hospitalized. At the peak of the emergency, there were 22 Red Cross nursing staff members on duty, along with 140 volunteer nurses. (Continued on page 3)

You're money ahead when you buy on these PLAIN HARD FACTS

Stack up what you get for what you pay... and join the nation's largest group of truck users by choosing Chevrolet

By far the biggest number of truck users today are Chevrolet owners... and for good hard-headed reasons. Because what they get is this: Low Cost—in purchase price and in upkeep. A truck that gets the job done. A truck that's rugged, long lasting. Take a look at the four facts below... and see why you, too, will be money ahead with a Chevrolet truck. Come in and see us about it!

- FACT NO. 1 Save money on purchase price. Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck with comparable specifications. You'll find the Chevrolet truck lists for less.
- FACT NO. 2 Save money on operating costs. Hundreds of thousands of truck users have proved to their own satisfaction that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain.
- FACT NO. 3 Save money on job efficiency. Chevrolet trucks are factory-matched to your payload requirements. You don't buy "too much or too little truck."
- FACT NO. 4 Save money on low depreciation. Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more money at resale than any other make which costs about the same new.

GOV. WILLIAMS REPORTS TO THE PEOPLE

LANSING—With all due respect to the Legislature, I found it impossible to wait for their action to strengthen guard forces in the state prisons.

I tried again last week to get the State Administrative Board into emergency session to make fund allocations for the salaries of re-hired guards.

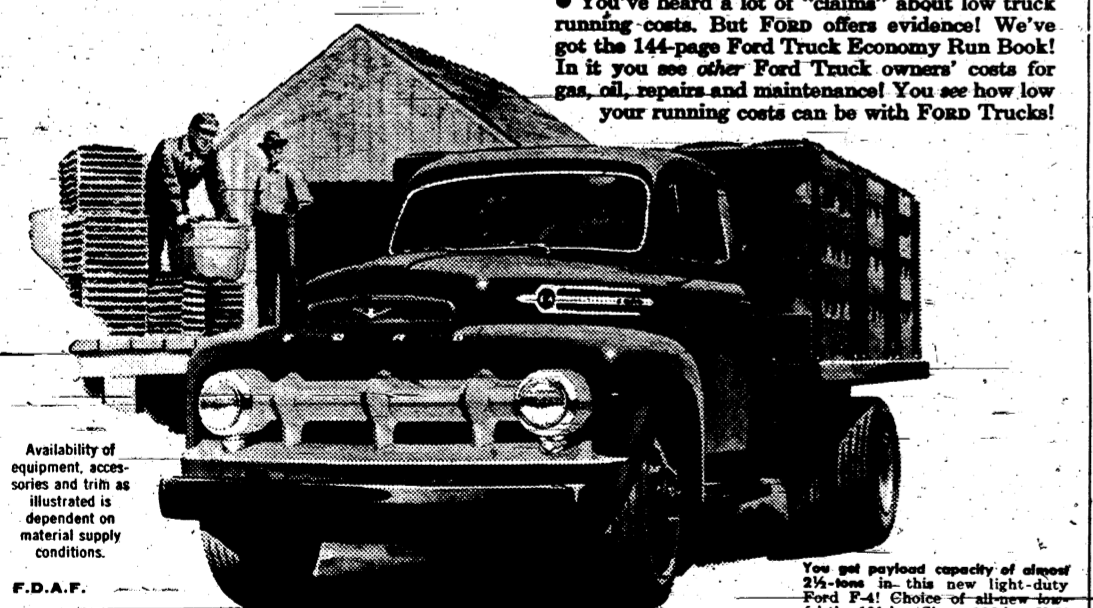

I believe the people will support me overwhelmingly in ordering an end to at least temporary employment of a policy which only invites new riots.

LEGISLATURE HAS REINS: I have no desire to infringe upon the Legislature's constitutional power to hold the purse-strings of government. It is unquestionably the executive function to decide how many prison guards we are going to employ.

As soon as the Legislature returns here this week, I will make a full report on the situation and abide by their decision. I am confident the Legislature in the light of what has happened, will reconsider its appropriation for the corrections system and give us enough money to staff the prisons adequately.

MENTAL HEALTH BUDGET

ET: The prison system is not the only place where the financial shoe is pinching an important state function.

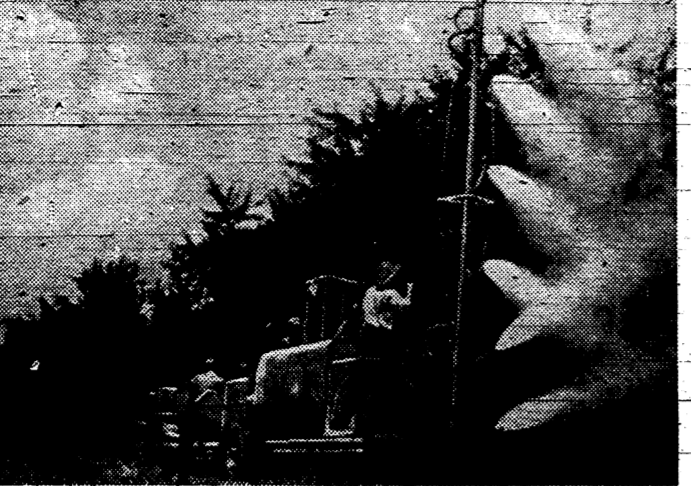

I have been building new mental hospitals as fast as possible with the $65 million dollar bond issue authorized by the people in 1950.

GROSSLY INSUFFICIENT: The Mental Health Commission has called the appropriation "grossly insufficient."

DEER LAW: I have signed the bill which at long last permits the Conservation Commission to make rules for the management of the state's deer herd.

Under this law the Commissioner can set season and bag limits in the Lower Peninsula to adjust the deer population to the available food supply.

New Weapon An Aid To Healthier Trees

Spraying apple trees with glyoxalidene fungicide

Apple growers who have been waging war against scab and European Red Mites have a new weapon—a weapon that will give them healthier trees and firmer fruit.

The glyoxalidene fungicide was first developed in the early 1940's at Boye's Thomson Institute in Yonkers, New York. It was given exhaustive tests before being placed on the commercial market.

DEER LAW: I have signed the bill which at long last permits the Conservation Commission to make rules for the management of the state's deer herd.

sees and 47 nurses paid by the Red Cross for this operation. In addition, the Red Cross used the services of four Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. nurses working throughout the operation.

Head injuries lead the list of types of injuries caused by the tornadoes. Among the bills paid by Red Cross are included a leg amputation, an eye removal, plastic surgery, skin grafts, surgery for removal of part of the brain and long-time care for victims who as a result of injuries, are now paraplegics and probably never will be self-sufficient.

One of the largest awards of Red Cross assistance was made for a Tennessee family. In three generations of this family, four persons were killed, including 13-month-old twin girls, and 14 members of the family required hospitalization.

The Red Cross assistance this family received—assistance for medical bills and rebuilding the farm home—has saved himself seven while his neighbor's loss were so heavy infected that seven and even eight sprayings were necessary to get rid of the pests.

Federal Jobholders In Michigan Double Number of State Employees

There are almost twice as many employees of the United States working in Michigan as there are employees of the state government, according to the Citizens Research Council of Michigan.

A constant reaching out by Uncle Sam into more and more fields of public activity was given by the Council as a principal reason for the rapid increase in the Federal Government's payroll.

As an illustration, the Council said:

"Twenty years ago when the Government in Washington was composed of some 450 departments, bureaus and other units, it had a total of 563,800 civilian employees. But the most recent official count shows there are now more than 2,000 governmental units and as late as February, 28 there were 2,531,000 Federal civilian workers on the payroll. New Federal jobs are being filled at the rate of more than 400 a day."

In Michigan alone the latest Civil Service figures show 45,514 Federal employees, the Coun-

IS IT 3 OR 8?

Surprising how many people mistake a 3 for an 8 when playing cards.

That's one of the penalties of advancing years. But it's easily corrected.

Women, especially, often refuse to recognize the fact that when they reach the years of impairment of clear, near vision they must squint, develop "crow's feet," frown and move about awkwardly because of inability to see clearly.

Everyone who lives long enough must experience what physicians call "presbyopia" or middle age farsightedness. It is not a disease. It is merely a natural change in the eye muscles which makes it difficult to do close work such as reading or sewing.

Presbyopia is simple to remedy. When there is no eye disease present, ophthalmologists and other eye specialists recommend ready-to-wear reading glasses for middle age farsightedness. These simple reading glasses can be purchased without a prescription and at low cost from the counters of almost any good variety or dime store. Millions of them are worn by people in this and many foreign countries with great relief and comfort.

Transportation For "Know Your America"

Ultra-modern streamlined caravan buses will carry the traveling Americanism production sponsored by the American Legion, Department of Michigan, as it makes its 33-day tour of the state in May and June. The above photo shows the appearance of one of the vehicles as it will appear on tour. The sides of the buses open out and form a stage from which the anti-communist production will be seen. Thousands of Michigan Americans are expected to view the musical pageant which will open at the Holland Tulip Festival May 16.

The American Legion believes there's no business like show business—to whip communism. To that end, 20 points in the state of Michigan are being mobilized to handle details of "Know Your America", a musical pageant sponsored by the Legion, which has its opening date at the Holland Tulip Festival May 16.

Local Legion posts will ask cooperation of Women's clubs, fraternal organizations, church groups and civic, service and religious organizations in an endorsement of the production.

No admission charge will be made nor will there be any sort of commercialization or advertising connected with the production. Its sole aim is to sell Americanism to the general public.

Narrated by Dale McIntyre of Radio Station WJR of Detroit, the hour and one-half show will depict some of the advantages which have made our nation great.

In a flashback to Revolutionary War Days, the pageant will progressively show how freedom of thinking, individual initiative and private enterprise aided greatly in bringing about the strong USA as it exists today.

Actual demonstrations of mechanical inventions starting from the electric light and continuing through jet propulsion will be included in the production.

An accompanying exhibit will feature a pictorial review showing replicas of famous American documents such as the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights.

Main vehicle of the traveling show will be an ultra-modern caravan bus, the sides of which open out via means of hydraulic power and form a huge stage. Special effects through means of music, short movie excerpts and live actors will help create the settings of the historical musical extravaganza.

A street parade is planned at each community where the production will show, with local musical organizations, civic dignitaries and officers of clubs and community groups participating.

It will be in Dearborn, May 17; Jackson, May 18; Ecorse, May 19; Adrian, May 20; Lansing, May 29; East Detroit, May 30; Pontiac, May 31; Flint, June 1; Royal Oak, June 2.

cil said: In contrast, Michigan's own state government has but 24,505 employes. The Council explained that every new spending program passed by Congress calls for the creation of a new Federal agency to administer it. Once created, an agency tends to grow. The Council cited the State Department's foreign information program set up in 1948, which had 2,857 employes in its first year of operation. Today it has 7,889 employes and it has requested funds to employ 11,250 next year.

The Council continued, "In his budget message in January the President asked Congress to approve numerous new spending programs. Each would require a new batch of employes. One of them, the proposed $300,000,000 Federal school aid program would, if adopted, eventually require as many as 3,000 employes to conduct it, according to a competent witness before Congress.

The best way to reduce Uncle Sam's huge civilian payroll, the Council suggested, is to follow the advice of Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and "eliminate things which the Government does."

DEFENSE IS YOUR JOB TOO!

MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

While Michigan residents along the Great Lakes shoreline battle the ever-increasing threat of flood, natives of our vast jack pine sections in the north have had the driest spring in years with extremely high fire hazard.

More land has been burned over so far this year than during the entire twelve months of 1951. Yet the loss per acre is amazingly low thanks to the efficiency of our Conservation Department in forest fire control.

Huge Network Alerted
During conditions of "high hazard"—after a prolonged dry spell, with low humidity, high temperatures and a fresh breeze—the entire field organization of the department is on its toes, with crack teams trained in fire detection. Once fire breaks out other squads schooled in controlling the spread of flame get there fast. Well-directed manpower combined with modern forest fire-fighting machinery keep the loss per acre 'way-down. Up thru the first week in May 298 fires burned a total of 1250 acres. That's less than 5 acres per fire! With tinder-dry conditions and any kind of a wind blowing fire can destroy 5 acres in a hurry. Every second counts, and the first wisp of smoke throws the entire organization into gear.

Radio Network Active
Radio communication is the most important single factor in the system. The Department has more than 350 radio transmitters in its network in which are included 160 fire towers, 130 Conservation Officer cars, and miscellaneous back-pack sets and mobile units. Fire towers spot the first curl of smoke, take a compass bearing, radio another tower within range of the fire, and thru coordination of their readings they pinpoint the blaze on a map.

MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

WITH MORT NEFF

FIRE AND FLOOD

Tractors, plows and power-wagons are dispatched to the scene with adequate manpower. Overhead a department plane may circle reporting the progress of the flames, directing the equipment to the most strategic spot, and pointing out the quickest route to remote sections.

Radio central at regional or district headquarters crackles constantly with terse directives. Huge wall maps are studded with squares of paper carrying the up-to-the-minute history of each fire—where and when it started, what manpower and equipment is on the job, estimated cause, time it is brought under control, and acreage burned.

Impressive Results
The efficiency of the system is nothing short of spectacular to watch in action. And the results speak for themselves! Hats off to our Conservation Department for a job well done—the job of standing guard against fire everywhere in Michigan Outdoors!

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 10:15 p.m. on stations WWJ-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Cleary Promoted For Secretary of State

It was announced in Ann Arbor that a committee has been formed for the purpose of securing the nomination of Owen J. "Pat" Cleary as Republican candidate for the office of Secretary of State. At a recent meeting of the committee, there were elected Douglas K. Reading, Chairman; Everett Edwards and William Hayes, vice-chairman; Nancy Oyster, secretary; George W. Sallade, treasurer; Also, Carl Arvin of Ypsilanti and Philip McCallum and Roscoe O. Bonisteel, Jr., of Ann Arbor, are co-chairmen of the Finance Committee.

Because of Mr. Cleary's long record of unselfish devotion to the cause of good government and outstanding achievements throughout the State, the people of Washtenaw County are justly proud of their native son. With the formation of this committee in Washtenaw County, it is expected that like committees will be formed at once throughout the State.

At great personal sacrifice, Mr. Cleary has given distinguished service to the State and the Republican party with the highest integrity and with warm responsiveness to human needs. Mr. Cleary resides in Ypsilanti with his wife and two children. He was born in Ypsilanti and was graduated from the Ypsilanti High School, Cleary College, Michigan State Normal College, the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit. He is a member of the Ypsilanti Post 282 of the American Legion and served as its commander. He has been State Chairman of the National Defense Commission, State

Spring Brings Mud And Mischief!

When Mr. Mischief tracks home mud, don't despair. Cleaning up after him isn't such a bad job if you follow the right rules. Let mud dry—don't try to rub it off or you rub it in. If, as in this case, a bedspread is involved, determine first if it is washable. If not, take it to the cleaners immediately.

If it is washable, here are the rules to follow, according to Winifred S. Carter of Procter & Gamble's Household Information Service. Shake spread to remove lint and loose dirt. Fill the washing machine as you would for a full load. Use warm water for colored or quilted spreads, hot for white. Make plenty of rich suds with a good all-purpose soap such as Duz or Oxydol. Wash one large spread or two small ones at a time. Don't overload the washer. Place them loosely in the machine to permit plenty of motion. Wash only five to eight minutes, then rinse in warm water.

Put spreads through the wringer at low pressure to help avoid wrinkles. Shake out and hang over a line—two parallel lines are better. Smooth out seams, square the corners and hems. Dry colored spreads out of direct sunlight. Pick a breezy day if possible. Candlewick, chenille or corduroy spreads do not need ironing, so let them dry thoroughly on the line. A quilted spread may be placed on the bed when still slightly damp, if you have any doubt about its shrinking. Then stretch it to its proper size and press right on the bed to restore it to its original shape.

service guards on duty, will continue on Sunday, May 25, on Memorial Day, May 30, and Sundays, June 1, 8 and 15. Thereafter, all facilities will be open daily. On week-days until June 15, the Food Bar is open daily and there is free access to the park.

A pre-season toll parking fee of 25 cents per car will be charged on Sundays and holidays through June 15. Thereafter, the rates will be the same as last season, 25 cents per car on week-days including Saturdays and 50 cents on Sundays and holidays, except on Saturday, June 21, when a Grand Opening Celebration will be staged and there will be no toll parking fee.

At Kensington Metropolitan Park, the dressing shelters and checking facilities at Martindale and Maple Beaches and the boat rental dock on Kent Lake will open on May 25, unless warm weather calls for opening the previous Sunday. Week-end (Saturday and Sunday) operation will continue thereafter until June 16 when daily operation will begin.

Negligible high water damage is reported by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. St. Clair Metropolitan Beach is 20 feet less broad, due to rising water, bringing the average width of the mile-long beach to 320 feet, still the widest and largest inland beach in the country. None of the sand beach has washed out.

Miss Agnes Romsek H. Haselschwardt Married At Copemish

Agnes Romsek of Ann Arbor, daughter of Mrs. Peter Romsek of Copemish, became the bride of Howard Haselschwardt in a double-ring ceremony performed in St. Raphael's church, in Copemish at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. Edward Kubiak, pastor of St. Joseph's church at Copemish, officiated in the presence of approximately 50 friends and relatives of the couple. Among those from this area who attended were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Haselschwardt, and his grandmother, Mrs. Mary L. Comstock, of Manchester; also Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haab, Mrs. John Kilmer, Mr. and Mrs. George Winans, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haselschwardt and son, Ronald; and the latter's fiancée, Jean DeVerna, of Grass Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pardee, of Manchester, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mertz of Tecumseh.

White chantilly lace fashioned the bride's gown. The fitted bodice was styled with long sleeves and a stand-up collar, while the skirt was very full and in ballerina length. A pearl-trimmed headband held in place her fingertip-length tulle veil. She wore a pearl necklace and carried a bouquet of white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Walter Gawkowski of Muskegon, was her sister's only attendant. Her gown, of powder blue organdy, was also ballerina length. Her accessories were all white and her flowers were yellow daffodils. Walter Gawkowski, the bride's brother-in-law, was best man and her brother, Robert Romsek, acted as the officiant.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the parish hall of St. Raphael's church. For the wedding the bride's mother wore navy blue with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother, also in navy, wore black accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations. After a week's trip in the northern part of the state, the couple will be at home at Cavanaugh Lake. For going away the bride wore a beige linen suit with cocoa brown accessories and a natural straw hat. A graduate of Copemish High school and the Northwest Institute of Medical Technology, the bride has been employed as a medical technician in the blood bank at University hospital, Ann Arbor. The bridegroom, who now operates his fathers farm and is Sharon township clerk, attended the University of Michigan.

ers, Frank of Manchester, and Edward and Albert Riedel, both of Jackson; and two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Noll of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Julia Murphy of Detroit. Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church in Jackson. Burial was in St. Johns cemetery, Jackson.
