EIGHTY-SIXTH YEAR

NUMBER 4

MANCHESTER, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

THURSDAY, OCT. 2, 1952

FIVE CENTS PER COPY $2.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

The Main Street

This may be the first day of October but you'd scarcely believe it if you looked in the flower garden of Mrs. Harry Young—for she has an Easter Lily with two blooms and two buds in the yard.

Don't forget that the ladies of the Rowes Corners Evangelical United Brethren church will hold a Smorgasbord supper at the church hall Friday evening beginning at 5 p. m.

Then on Thursday, October 16, the St. Mary's Altar Society will hold a chicken pie supper at the church hall. Tickets may be obtained in advance at the L. V. Kirk Electric Store or contact Mrs. L. V. Kirk at the Enterprise office. However, it will not be necessary to have tickets in advance.

No doubt it will be music to the student's ears to know that there will be no school on Thursday or Friday, October 9 and 10 as there is Teachers' Institute in Detroit on those dates. There will be a game here on Friday evening at 8 p. m. when the local Dutchman meet Hartland under the lights.

R. B. Gottfredson of Grass Lake has entered five head of registered Brown Swiss dairy cattle at the national show of that breed at Waterloo, Iowa. Also at the show with registered Brown Swiss stock is Albert Feldkamp of Manchester.

In our premium list we omitted the names of Donald and Kenneth Wolf. These boys won first and second places respectively with their ponies which they displayed. In the croqueted rug division the names of Mrs. Ida Way was also omitted. She was a first place winner.

James Hendley and Joe Schwab represented Manchester at a meeting of mayors, presidents of villages and their representatives at the Hotel Pantland in Grand Rapids last week.

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Manchester office the news of the Community Fair did not appear in last week's paper. The information reached our office in plenty of time for publication and we are asking our readers not to blame their committee heads for lack of interest in getting the material in. However, we hope that the complete reports in this paper meet with your approval.

As far as we have been able to determine the local fair was in every way a success. Only one article was reported found—a purse—and the owner may obtain it by calling for it at the Enterprise office.

In a pie eating contest, conducted by the Manchester Bakery, eighteen boys competed to see who could swallow a huckleberry pie, first—the pie being a bit on the soupy side. Just one boy complained that he couldn't manage it very well—without a fork or spoon. In first place was Denny Steele, second—place Ralph England and third place, John England.

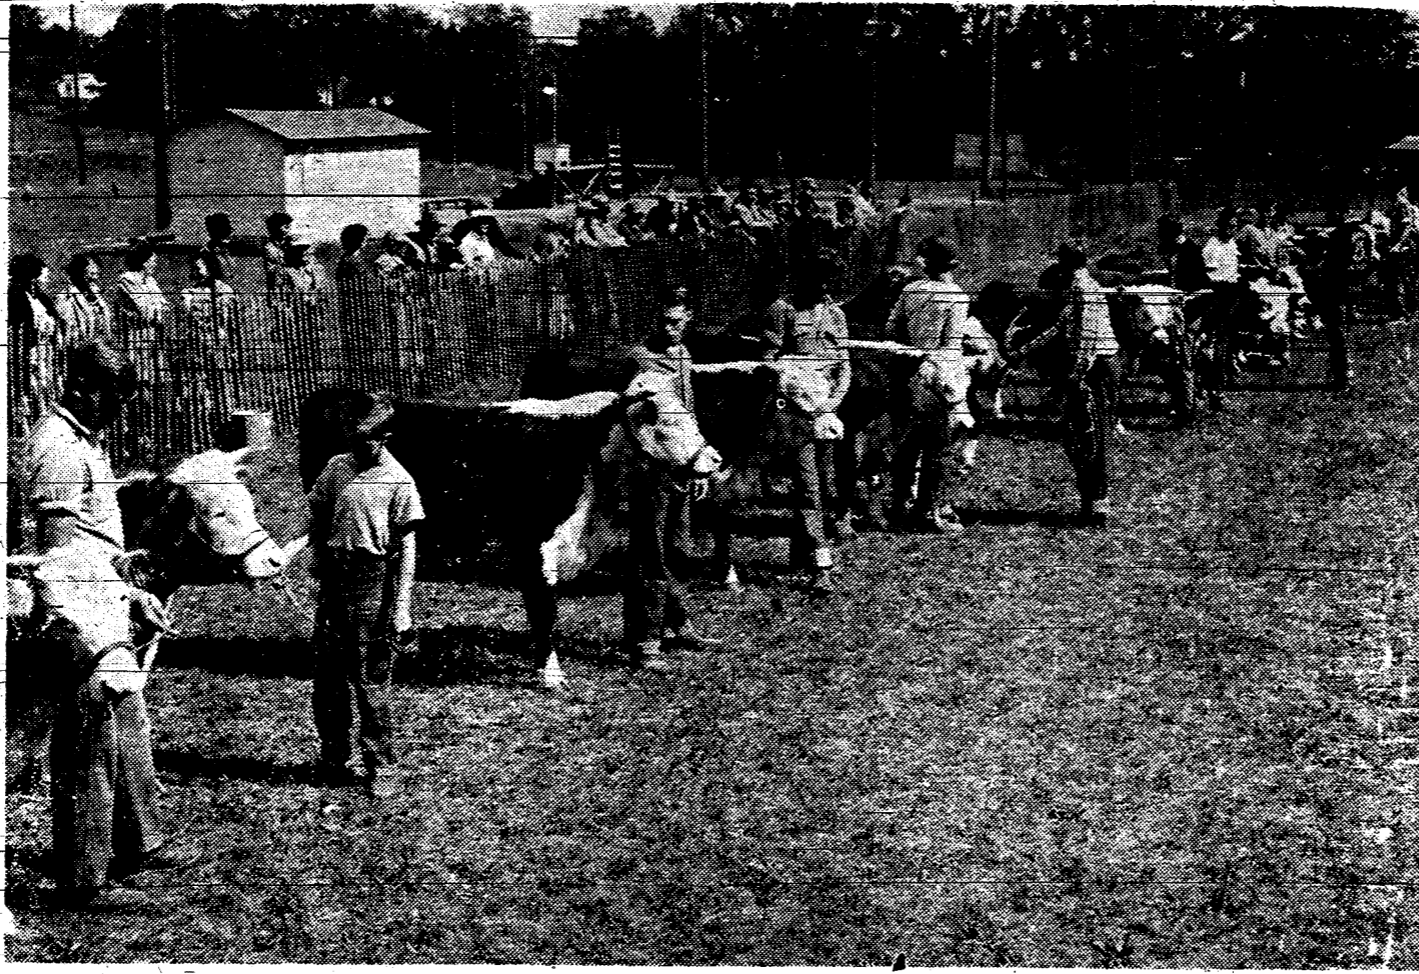

At the G. E. Freezing School which was held Friday morning there was an exceptionally large attendance. The representative from Consumers Power Co. at Jackson, explained the use of the G. E. Freezer as well as the stoves. The event was sponsored by the L. V. Kirk Electrical Appliance Store. After the demonstration the dinner prepared was given as a door prize to Mrs. William Steinway; Edna Dietle won the apple pie and snowflakes; Mrs. LeRen Trolz won the chicken pie and peach; chosen a king went to Mrs. Robert Kober; strawberries and vegetable combination to Mrs. Fred Steinway; food combination to Mrs. Mahon Smith; the alarm clock to Mrs. William Schlicht; electric iron (G. E. light weight) to Mrs. William Kennedy and the waffle iron to Mrs. Clarence Schauble.

The winners of the drawing of the Emil Jacob Post 117 American Legion, which was held Saturday night at the Fair are as follows: $200 bond to Gordon Gary, Manchester; $50 bond to Henry Bunge of Dundee; $25 to Dale Everole of Manchester; $15 cash to Guy Alford of Brooklyn and $10 cash to William Kulenkamp, Manchester.

Mrs. Elwood Pniwski of Manchester won the electric clock given as a prize in a guessing game by Short's Electric Store.

The Manchester Exchange Club which sponsored the 1952 Steer Club is "justly proud" according to Willard Mann of the auction sale returns. The Dexter Livestock company sent Roy Linehan here as the auctioneer for the sale which was held on the school athletic field. The twenty steer were judged by Wilton L. Finlay, Extension Specialist of Michigan State College, Grand Rapids. The Best of Show steer weighed the most prior to the sale. All services including the judging, weighing and auctioning were handled by each individual for this event.

The prize steer was owned by Lemont Guenther and sold at $37.00 per hundred and was purchased by Robert Hamilton of the Manchester Central Market. When bought by Jeanette Guenther it weighed 410 on November 10, 1951 and on September 20 it weighed 1020 pounds. In second place was the steer owned by Carl Buss which was sold to the Manchester Country Market for $42.50 per hundred. On November 10, 1951 it weighed 435 and on September 20, 1951 it weighed 1030 pounds. Stanley Buss placed third with a steer that weighed 455 when he bought it and weighed 1055 on September 20. This third place winner was also bought by the Manchester Country Market which is owned and operated by Carlton and Sons of Manchester and Clinton.

Harold Strahl owned the fourth place steer which weighed 455 when purchased and 960 pounds when sold at $43.00 per hundred to the Manchester Central Market. Joanne Guenther's steer placed fifth and weighed 430 when bought and 1055 when sold at $40.50 per hundred to the Tom Walton Farms, Inc.

On the steer club committee from the Exchange club with chairman Willard Mann were Stanton G. Roesch, Albert Haller, Robert Hamilton and Dan J. Boutell. This committee worked with a group of fathers of members of the steer club made up of Erwin Buss, Roland Guenther, Willard Manor and Amos Curtis. Actual administration of the year's club activities have been handled by officers elected by the members of the Steer Club as follows: president, William Curtis; vice-president, Stanley Buss; secretary, Gordon Schultz; and treasurer, Thomas Snyder who worked under the supervision of Agricultural teacher Robert Crandall. The Union Savings Bank of Manchester was host at a dinner for the Steer club members, their fathers and committee.

All profits on the individual steers go to the Steer Club members. The program, sponsored by the Exchange club, aids the local high school's agricultural department in the training students in proper record keeping and beef raising methods. Much credit for the success of the 1952 program is due to Wilton L. (Bill) Finlay, Extension Specialist in Animal Husbandry from Michigan State College.

Special premiums were awarded in the following categories by Walter Schauble, Willard Mann and Carl Schauble:

Ten dollars went to Joan Guenther for the steer with the best average daily weight gain. Displaying the best showmanship was Gordon Schultz. His prize was ten dollars, in second place was Carl Buss winning five dollars and in third place was William Curtis winning five dollars.

Other students who belong to the steer club and whose animals were sold at the auction are as follows:

In sixth place was Jerry Ekin whose steer weighed 405 when purchased and 885 pounds when sold to the Carlton Market of Manchester and Clinton at $37.50 per hundred; Jack Ekin placed seventh with his steer which he bought weighing 410 and sold at 935 pounds for $37.50 to the Carlton Market of Manchester. Washtenaw Audubon Slates Movies

The Washtenaw Audubon Society and the Adult Education Department of the public schools have arranged a motion picture-lecture series offered in the interest of wildlife protection, wise use of natural resources and conservation education.

According to Audubon spokesman this non-profit screen forum brings the finest of natural history lecturers who personally present the best in all-color outdoor motion pictures on a variety of wildlife subjects.

The first of the six picture series will be held October 4 when Dr. Arthur Allen, distinguished ornithologist of Cornell University will present the "Voice of the Jungle". He has recorded some of the sounds of the jungle and reproduces them to accompany the film. During World War II the U. S. Armed Services used this picture to aid the service men in overcoming their fears of the unusual jungle noises. This is a county project and the meetings will be held in the Pattengill auditorium of the Ann Arbor high school. Other dates for the series will include October 18 when Dr. Walter J. Breckenridge will present "Paul Bunyan Country".

There Is A Story . . .

There is a story NOT there for you to read on the front page today. It is on the front pages of most newspapers, most days. It is the same story you can't read in the magazines. The TV can't picture it for you. The radio can't tell you about it. It is the particular story that censorship denied you today. Maybe it's a big story. Maybe it's small. Maybe it would make a great deal of difference in how you vote this November. Maybe it wouldn't. Maybe it would make you write your Congressman a hot letter telling him what you think of it. Or maybe the letter would be one of warm congratulations. Maybe. . . But there is not going to be any letter from the people about this story. The story is blank, hidden, buried in dark files where only the eyes of officials paid by the people's tax money and using the people's power, can see it. The people will not be permitted to see it. For such is censorship. Not that all censorship is bad. It isn't. True military security is a vital necessity. True military security saves the lives of our troops . . . helps us win battles. So we demand true military security just as strongly as we deplore any false censorship that dally can deny American readers information to which they are entitled. Before Korea, newsmen knew what stories were being denied you. When they believed you were being taken advantage of by some either well-meaning or misled government officials, they could appeal the case. Today, newsmen don't know. There can be no appeal from mistakes by censors. No one but the censors know the mistakes — mistakes which can cover stories of jobs well-done just as surely as they can cover stories of botched-up jobs. There can be no appeal . . . but there can be a remedy. The remedy is to go back to the voluntary censorship that carried us through World War II. For as long as government officials are a law unto themselves, the people shall not know. They shall not know if the blank story on the front page of their newspaper is justified because of real military security or unjustified. And never forget . . . for every blank story there is a blank space in your mind. A blank space that you cannot use. You, the people for whom this government is . . . of . . . for . . . and by.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S MESSAGE ON NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

I hope the annual observance of National Newspaper Week, to be held from October first to October eighth, will re-emphasize to all Americans the importance of knowing the facts. That is the reason why our Constitution guarantees freedom to the Press. The newspapers which use their freedom to dig out and print the truth are vital to our democracy. This is an election year. Probably at no other time do citizens need more exact and truthful information. An intelligent voter wants facts, not supposition or superstition. This gives our newspapers an unsurpassed opportunity to serve their country by supplying accurate and unbiased information so that their readers can be prepared for the choices they must make in November. Please extend my best wishes to all those participating in National Newspaper Week.—HARRY S. TRUMAN, The White House, Washington.

Michigan 4-H Club Style Champ

MODELING a trim top coat and suit ensemble, Patricia Ann Jezewski of Bay City, has earned the privilege of representing Michigan in the National 4-H Club Style Revue in Chicago in late November. Miss Jezewski is 17 and a senior at T. L. Handy High School in Bay City. The honor came when she was judge dress-revue winner at the 37th annual State 4-H Club Show held recently at Michigan State College.

In seven years of 4-H Club work, Miss Jezewski has concentrated on clothing projects and vegetable gardening. Upon completion of high school she will attend Bay City Junior College and Michigan State College.

Her trip to Club Congress in Chicago will be sponsored by the Simplicity Pattern Company, Inc. of New York.

Patricia Ann Jezewski
Miss Jezewski's award-winning outfit was a smartly styled navy gabardine top coat with reversible blue and white check lining. The suit, of the same blue and white check material, was set off by a navy waist. The fine tailoring and good taste exhibited in her costume were representative of the 4-H Club clothing program which helps girls design, budget and select a wardrobe to fit their personalities and develop good grooming and poise. Miss Jezewski's honor was the highest award for the 20,000 Michigan girls participating in clothing projects.

The awards program is conducted under the direction of the Co-operative Extension Service of Michigan State College and the U. S. Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the National Committee on Boys' and Girls' Club Work of Chicago.

Best way to harvest beans
the ALL-CROP Harvester with...
Wide-Flow Feed... soybeans travel in a wide, even flow straight through the full 5-foot cylinder.
Rubber-Cushioned Threshing Action... gently but thoroughly shells every pod with less crackage of beans.
Air Blast Separation... blows the beans and stalks in a high curving arc just behind the cylinder, so that air blast does much of the separation ahead of the straw rack. You save more beans and they are cleaner.
Plus
Straw Chopper... attachment does two important things - makes plowing easy by chopping all material into short lengths and spreading it evenly... speeds decay of the straw. Returns it to the soil more quickly.
New Wide Dividers... make it easier to harvest two rows of wide-planted soybeans. Curved rod extensions reach ahead and below dividers to gather in lodged or tangled beans.
Let us show you why your own ALL-CROP Harvester with the new Wide Dividers and Straw Chopper is the best way to harvest soybeans.

This village has always had very good walks. The plank walks were good width, from four to six feet in the resident portion and twelve feet in front of the stores. During the past eight years but few plank sidewalks have been built, our citizens preferring to construct of cement, and for about four years the village has assisted in paying the expense. This has stimulated the business somewhat and in several cases fairly good plank walks have been torn up to give place to cement walks. During the past season 28 different pieces of walk have been built, amounting to 10,862 square feet, for which the village has paid $651.72. Besides this the village has put in one cement crosswalk, and citizens have built many rods of walk about their places. For public walks there has been expended this season over $1,400 in this village.

Honey Of A Grapefruit Topping!

Greet the new grapefruit crop from Florida with a half grapefruit for breakfast, lunch or dinner; for a first course, salad or last course. Be sure to properly prepare your vitamin C-rich grapefruit halves for easy spooning, no waste. With a sharp knife cut Florida grapefruit in half crosswise. Loosen sections by cutting around each individual section. Snip out core with scissors. Do not run the knife around the entire outer edge of grapefruit.

For a new topping treat with your morning grapefruit half, spoon honey over the fruit instead of sugar. Honey production is up this year, and this is one of the ways in which you can use this flavorful sweetener and help the planned pollination program of the Department of Agriculture. Pollination is necessary to nearly all of our food crops, and increased honey consumption will help utilize the larger production.

Russian Captive Writes About Slave Labor

(The following letter, written by a German Nun captive of the Communists in Russia, was smuggled through the Iron Curtain into the American occupied Zone of Austria. For fear of reprisal, the name of the captive cannot be given.)

Dear Parents,
AT LAST I have an opportunity to give you some sign that I am alive. It is such a long time since we were carried off to Russia. How often do I cry out: Do not forget us, pray for us, help us. We are abandoned and destitute, plunged into unspeakable misery.

It is horrible what we are enduring here, 1500 of us Sisters. We are treated as beasts, driven to work with blows. If one of us collapses, she is left by the roadside to die. A guard may beat one of us to death without a sign of emotion.

AT FIRST WE helped build a bridge over the Dnieper—heavy work for men. We were forced to pull and drag the steel girders across the wide river. Whoever collapsed got the whip. Whoever did not get up again was brutally kicked by the guard into the river. Long exhausting days of hard work and hardly more to eat than a piece of soggy bread and watered soup. Many of the Sisters died during the work here, and we envy them.

Now we are working in a mine, a long day underground in stifling air, and here many have also died. If only we had someone to give us courage, to support and help us a little. But there is no one.

We are completely lost and lonely! No Sunday, no day of rest. Nothing but the endless working day, hunger, beatings, a pitifully cold barracks, a hard cot without warmth and full of filth and vermin. We ourselves are clothed in rags. We are no longer human beings.

IT IS SO very hard to have no hope, to see no star. Mother, can you understand now why sometimes the question comes, "How can God permit this? Why so much suffering? How much longer?" And then a black despair grips us. It goes beyond our strength, but despite everything we put our confidence in God and trust in His Providence.

We all wear a cross on our breasts, and in the midst of our sorrow and loneliness we find our refuge in Him—Him to Whom we want so much to remain faithful unto death. But pray for us! Pray, pray.

What we daily go through cannot be described, and yet we believe that God is permitting all this sorrow for the good of our souls. I cannot tell you everything—I dare not tell you how we women are dishonored here, shamed, trampled upon.

OH MOTHER, I do not wish to make your heart too heavy, and I tell you but the least of our sufferings. May God look with mercy upon us poor, crushed, tortured Sisters who, despite everything, still believe in Him, love Him, and remain alive for Him in this endless death.

Your poor child,
 (NAME WITHHELD).

Never A Dull Vegetable

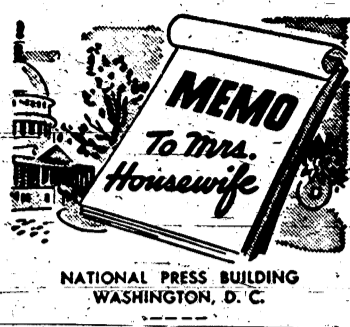

No need to worry about the cost of meat when vegetables are in such verdant profusion on the market. Now's your chance to pinch a penny while you fill your family with the vitamins and minerals so valuable to their health. Serve a whole meal of vegetables, serve 'em in pairs, treat them all to a good shake from the "third shaker"—and there won't be a dull one in the bunch!

The third shaker's Ac'cent (pure monosodium glutamate), the wonder seasoning that heightens, holds and blends natural flavors in all foods. It's particularly good in vegetables because it actually restores the "natural glutamate" they lost in travelling, standing, processing or storing—puts all the fresh wonderful flavor of the garden back in them where it belongs. The third shaker's Ac'cent assures of taste perfection at the table. Try this vegetable dinner and taste for yourself.

CAULIFLOWER POLONAISE: Place cooked cauliflower seasoned with salt and Ac'cent in one half of divided serving dish; sprinkle with chopped hard-cooked eggs and minced parsley, and cover all with bread crumbs browned in butter. Fill other half of dish with VIENNESE CARROTS: Add raw sliced carrots to heavy saucepan containing melted butter (about 1/4 cup) and 1 finely chopped onion; season with Ac'cent, salt and pepper, and simmer over low heat 30 minutes.

In a second divided dish place CABBAGE IN CHEESE SAUCE: shredded cooked cabbage seasoned with salt and Ac'cent, and combined with your own favorite cheese sauce; and FRENCH PEAS: shelled green peas cooked with lettuce leaves in 1/2 cup boiling water with one teaspoon sugar and 1/2 teaspoon Ac'cent added. Discard lettuce after cooking; season peas with salt, pepper and butter or margarine.

For the last third of this "Serve 'Em in Pairs" dinner prepare ORANGE BEETS and ASPARAGUS AU GRATIN: Over cooked beets from which skins have been removed, pour 1/4 cup butter mixed with two tablespoons grated orange peel, 1/4 cup orange juice, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon Ac'cent. Heat. Garnish for serving with unpeeled orange wedges. Place cooked asparagus seasoned with salt, pepper and Ac'cent and covered with Parmesan Cheese, in broiler (about 4 inches below heat); broil until cheese browns lightly. Couple for serving, with beets. And there is your vegetable dinner. See if it doesn't suit you to a T—for Taste.

Knits — sweaters and dresses — are going to be popular wardrobe items this Fall and Winter.

If you're a honey fancier you'll love this delectable topping for apple cobbler or hot gingerbread. First, cream 1/2 cup vitaminized margarine with 1 cup sifted confectioners sugar. Then add 2 tablespoons honey and 1 teaspoon lemon juice. Chill before serving.

Don't forget to close snap fasteners and zippers before putting garments containing them into the tub or washing machine. Protects them from being bent during the washing and wringing process.

If the hot summer sun has streaked your sheer glass curtains, why not strip their color with a good color remover, then tint or dye them a lovely fresh color with all-purpose dye that works on all fabrics.

Distribute the wear on your sheets by placing the small hem at the top of the bed at least half of the time. And for sweet-smelling sheets — store your perfumed toilet soaps near them in the linen closet.

When adding seasonings to ground beef for patties, mix lightly and shape with a "light" hand. Never pack if you like good juicy hamburger — and don't we all!

"Perry" On The Trail!

Remember the bowl and pitcher sets of by-gone days? If you're lucky enough to still own one of the prettier sets here's how to put it to good and glamorous use. Plant the bowl with a variety of small green plants, leaving space in the center for the pitcher. Then in the pitcher arrange philodendron or small ivy.

Homemakers who prepare lunch boxes daily will appreciate this sandwich filling which can be made up in quantity and refrigerated for at least two weeks: Blend 1 cup ground cooked ham with 1/4 cup real mayonnaise, 1/2 teaspoon mustard with horseradish and 1/2 teaspoon grated onion.

Women are going to love the new Fall fabrics not only for their good looks but because so many of them are washable. Examples are the velvety-soft cotton flannels and the cotton herringbone tweeds.

Top your ice cream sundaes with this scrumptious sauce. Over boiling water melt 6 ounces of semi-sweet chocolate. Remove from heat and quickly stir in 6 tablespoons of soft vitaminized margarine, stirring until melted. Place over hot water until ready to serve. Makes about 1 cup.

Sliced or diced zucchini, raw, is a delicious addition to tossed vegetable salads.

Novel Way To Serve Breakfast Oranges

If breakfast time is just one mad rush at your home, here's an idea for getting the family off to a good start with fresh California oranges: Have one orange for each member of the family. For hurry-up serving, as well as fast eating, cut the orange into halves starting at the top and going almost to the bottom peel. Cut each half into quarters and then each quarter into eighths. It's as simple as can be; with four quick cuts of the knife, the orange is ready to serve. Pull each piece apart slightly until it resembles opening flower petals. To dress up the orange, you could insert a cluster of grapes or a maraschino cherry in the center. Orange sections served this way can be pulled apart in a jiffy and eaten watermelon style.

By giving your family fresh whole oranges for breakfast, you're providing them not only with vitamin C and other important nutrients, but also the newly recognized protopectins. These remarkable protopectins aid in digestion and help you make the best use of all foods you eat. All parts of the orange—the juice sacs, membranes, and white outer parts—contain protopectins so now it's doubly important to eat whole oranges.

Expert and Champions

4-H Demonstrator Joan Tweten of Hibbing, Minn., an individual bread demonstrator at the Minnesota State Fair "shows how" to two junior baking champs, Mrs. Ruth Derousseau, Rice Lake, Wis., and Helen Constance Thatcher, Charleston, S. C., Grand National bake-off winners.

Hibbing, Minn.—These two junior champs, among the five famous cooks who have won top prize honors at the bake-off at the Waldorf, met for the first time when they formed a "Cook of the Year Club" at the Ann Pillsbury Home Service Center in Minneapolis. Anxious to compare notes, these women chatted busily about what they did with all their prize money, how they went about installing in their homes the General Electric equipment they won as bonus prizes, and what they said to Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, the Duchess of Windsor, and Margaret Truman, who awarded the prizes. They all claim they are intent on working out new and novel recipes to enter in the coming fourth contest to be climaxed by another bake-off at the Waldorf December 8, when the 1952 Cook of the Year will be named. Entries are being received now and until October 15.

New Lift For House Plants

Got some tired house plants which could use a lift? If the dirt in the flower pots has become hard-packed and dry so that no amount of soaking will help, Green Gold, the new soil conditioner, is just the remedy you need. It's the new miracle chemical for conditioning soil (not a fertilizer) that changes the soil structure so that hard-packed masses become smooth, easily-worked, crumbly loam. Plants begin to thrive once again as more air, moisture, and plant food are made available to their roots as soon as the conditioner is applied.

Application is quite simple. The contents of the House Plant package is mixed with one quart of hot water and stirred well. After loosening the top soil around the plant, the mixture is applied with a tablespoon, according to directions.

Tested and proved at one of the nation's leading universities by one of the world's foremost soil experts, this new chemical conditioner is fast becoming the first-aid treatment for house and window box plants. Many people are now working it into the soil of newly-potted plants, too, to insure better aeration and moisture conditions.

It comes in powder form in two sizes—29¢ and the larger $1 economy package, and can be purchased at garden supply stores or wherever you buy your seeds and plants.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

CALLING ALL AMERICANS

VOTING IS A PRIVILEGE TO BE CHERISHED, A RIGHT TO BE EXERCISED AND A DUTY TO BE PERFORMED.

VOTE—IT'S YOUR HERITAGE

Have you ever wished you could make a luscious, chocolate-y souffle that reaches upward in proud majesty and hasn't a thought of falling? Such a souffle can be one of your best accomplishments if you follow a good recipe carefully.

You will be the talk of the neighborhood as a chef if you learn the secret about souffles: timing. Note well the time called for baking in the recipe below: one hour ten minutes, or until the souffle is firm. When cooked, serve immediately—that's where timing comes in too, for this is a dessert that cannot be cooked in advance. Bring it to the table steaming hot and serve with your favorite sauce or heavy cream.

The results are well worth the care that's required, for this chocolate souffle is a truly delicious dish to add to your cooking accomplishments.

Chocolate Souffle

2 squares unsweetened chocolate	2 tablespoons butter
2 cups milk	1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sugar	4 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored
1/2 cup flour	4 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1/2 teaspoon salt

Add chocolate to milk and heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Combine sugar, flour, and salt. Add small amount of chocolate mixture, stirring until smooth. Return to double boiler and cook until thickened, stirring constantly; then continue cooking 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add butter and vanilla. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour and 10 minutes, or until souffle is firm. Serve immediately with your favorite sauce or with cream. Makes 8 servings.
