Miss Emma Morcheuser had the misfortune to fall at work at the Ford Company's Manchester Plant and cracked her knee cap. After x-rays at Ypsilanti she was brought back to her home here. We were interested to learn that Dr. Kenneth E. Way now of Jackson and his father, Orville Way, have been authorized to go ahead with plans for a gasoline service station costing $12,000, at 660 W. Main street here in Manchester. Fred Buss had a lucky accident last week, lucky that it wasn't any worse. He was unloading a coal car and had the conveyor turned on when he became trapped under a pile of coal. That is his first. However, after some ten minutes calling for help, Clark Eckles happened to hear him, and with the aid of several men in the neighborhood and some ropes, Fred was freed from the avalanche of coal. The Michigan State Fair surprised Mr. and Mrs. William Dresselhouse on Monday evening, the occasion being a farewell party for the Dresselhouses who are planning to move from the Mattheson school district later this week. They will move to the John Trois farm in Sharon. Mrs. Henry Schurtz is confined to her bed with the flu. Mr. and Mrs. Robert and family were in Ypsilanti Sunday evening where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Marion Coffin. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Neil Brazee, a daughter, Jill Ann, at the Tecumseh hospital on Tuesday, December 4. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stockwell at the Saline hospital a son, Michael Vern, on Tuesday, December 11. In a double ring ceremony held Saturday evening, Dec. 8, at the Bethel Evangelical and Reformed church, Helen Marie Traub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Traub of Manchester, became the bride of John Edward Nimz. The service was performed by the Rev. T. W. Menzel. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nimz of Ann Arbor.

Patricia Jean Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Brooks, and Thomas Carlton, son of the Charles Carltons, were married Sunday afternoon in a three o'clock ceremony in the Iron Creek church by the Rev. Alvin Brazee before 300 guests. Gieske has retired after 32 years as manager of the Manchester Lumber Yard. He started to work for M. J. Yandel on March 29, 1920. Mr. Gieske is being succeeded by H. Alexander, who will manage the lumber yard which was sold to Allan Schaffer in 1945 and is now known as the Schaffer Lumber Company's Jackson yards for the past four months. The Manchester Flying Dutchmen varsity team won over the Clinton Redskins by a score of 37 to 0. A Christmas Cantata under the direction of R. C. Sottor will be held on Sunday, Dec. 22, at the Emanuel church hall. The title of the cantata is "Music of Christmas". Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dunnoy, Jr., returned home Monday after undergoing a tonsillectomy at Herrick hospital at Tecumseh. Mrs. Eleanor Grumpper left Willow Run by plane on Wednesday morning for Phoenix, Arizona, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Iva Church. Herman Meyer, who has been a patient in Herrick Memorial hospital the past two weeks, is convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. Karl Schwab. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Butler and family of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buccos and infant daughter of Ypsilanti were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waltz. Mrs. Mary LaDuke and sons of Detroit were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duffield Ball on Monday. The Duffield Ball family were in Chelsea to attend the birthday party for Joseph Ball, December 11.

Christmas present. You can give nothing more acceptable. The road's been quite muddy the past week. It is really too bad that with such nice gravel so easily procured, the roads are allowed to get into such a deplorable state. Some farmers have complained of the warm, wet weather of the past week, saying that it's not doing well but they forget that this weather is just what is needed to help the wheat which did not get an extra good start last fall. One of Manchester's most enterprising farmers has looked up his assessments in the Southern Wash-ton Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and says that they had averaged a little more than $2,500 on his $4,000 stock of about 65 cents on each $1,000. As he was one of the first members. (Continued on page 6)

WHAT'S THE ANSWER? In spite of frequent trips to the dentist, my teeth are often stained and discolored. Can you suggest a way of correcting this condition?

The Association issued 21,307 registry and transfer certificates to Michigan breeders during 1951.

In the first place, brush your teeth after each meal, to remove any food particles. Baking Soda (which is bicarbonate of soda) is a fine de-fizzer, especially good for removing fruit or smoking stains. Use a small or medium brush with a flat brading edge. Sprinkle a little soda in the palm of your hand—then brush! Work carefully and thoroughly, always away from the gums. Brushing regularly will help remove your teeth to their natural color.
