YOUR HIGHWAYS by JAY SCOTT

WHY $30 BILLION?
(Second of a series)
President Eisenhower's $50 billion Grand Plan for highway improvement is the biggest public works program ever proposed by an American President.

Why do we need so urgently to modernize our highways? Jack Cole, President, American Trucking Association, has noted, "The phenomenal growth of our nation's industrial and agricultural economy during the past few decades has coincided with an unprecedented reliance upon highway transport, and we're simply running out of roads."

Since 1940 total motor vehicles in the U. S. has increased 81%, or from some 32 million to over 58 million.

Meanwhile, total street and road mileage has grown but a small fraction, there are 1,227,000 of these CARE holiday packages for that many needy families in 31 European, Latin American and Asian countries, which are not needed for U. S. welfare programs.

All donations sent to "CARE Food Crusade, 980 First Ave. New York 16, N.Y.", or any local CARE office, will be acknowledged. Donors of $5 or more will also receive receipts signed by the recipients of each package they subscribe.

We have been paying in other ways. For instance, we're paying in death tolls, hospitalization costs, in higher maintenance and insurance costs, in wasted time and fuel and in senseless crashes. And in delay-produced transportation costs because most of what we eat and use comes over the highways at some point on its way to us.

Former U. S. Commissioner of Public Roads Thomas H. MacDonald said, "We pay for good roads whether we have them or not—and we pay less if we have them."

It's been estimated that the cost of inadequate highways is $3 billion a year—all in wasted money.

My Neighbors
By Bill Peterson
"Gosh, if they'd just give me the $12,000 it takes to make a decent one job, I wouldn't clutter up the labor market!"

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God... (Romans 8, 28.)
When we really love God, we obey His commandments; we seek and follow His guidance, we gladly and trustfully accept His will as against our own; in faith, we know that even adversity works toward our ultimate good.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the Lord... (Jeremiah 23, 24.)
The Holy Spirit is ever present, is in all places and all things, surrounding us night and day as invisibly but as certainly as the air we breathe. He knows our every thought—and this is a blessed comfort to those who love Him.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
AT HOLIDAY TIME when the mood is light, and colors bright, serve a smooth, pretty pudding, dressed up gaily with red cherries and whipped cream. This Lemon Pudding de Luxe is companionable with any Christmas cake or Christmas cookies you have on hand, so if your entertainment budget runs low towards the season's end it may be considered economical, too!

LEMON PUDDING DE LUXE
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin 1/4 cup sugar
1 cup hot water 2 tablespoons lemon juice
3/4 cup cold water 1/2 cup heavy cream
1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup drained halved red sour pitted cherries

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water, salt, sugar, and lemon juice. Chill until slightly thickened. Whip cream until thick and shiny, but not stiff. Fold cream and cherries into slightly thickened gelatin mixture. Pour into large serving dish or individual molds. Chill until firm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

They Need Your CARE Help
This mother and child in Southern Vietnam, refugees from the communist north, are typical of the hungry families you can feed this Christmas by contributing to CARE.
Each dollar you give covers overseas distribution costs on two CARE food packages containing a total of 25 lbs. of U.S. farm surplus which have been washed to storage. Two families who need food badly receive a 14-lb. CARE food package, bearing your own name and address.
There are 1,227,000 of these CARE holiday packages for that many needy families in 31 European, Latin American and Asian countries, which are not needed for U. S. welfare programs.
All donations sent to "CARE Food Crusade, 980 First Ave. New York 16, N.Y.", or any local CARE office, will be acknowledged. Donors of $5 or more will also receive receipts signed by the recipients of each package they subscribe.

New Year Outlook For Agriculturists

Michigan livestock raisers may look for a slight downturn in their profits during 1955, according to the annual outlook released by Michigan State College agricultural economists.

Careful management will be essential, they say, and often the deciding factor between profit and loss here is the capsule run down on various livestock enterprises:

HOGS: Profits will not be as good in 1955 as in 1954. Supplies will be 7 to 8 per cent larger than last year. Prices will be well below the high levels of early 1954, but not much below prices this past fall. Freezer pig prices are expected to be lower relative to market hog prices than they were in spring of 1954. Watch for good boys in feeding logs, the economists advise.

CATTLE: Lower profits are expected in 1955. Prices of the highest grades of cattle will remain about the same as in 1954. Prices of cows and feeders and weaners will probably decline some.

LAMBS AND WOOL: Profits from lamb feeding will be smaller in 1955. Lamb feeding was profitable in 1954 and feeder lamb prices have been bid up, narrowing the spread. To encourage an increase in the production of wool, Congress authorized supporting wool at high as 110 per cent of parity. In 1955 wool will be supported at 62 1/2 cents per pound.

COMING YEAR TO BE GOOD FOR MOST DAIRY PRODUCERS.

A strengthening of fluid milk prices in 1955 is foreseen by Michigan State College agricultural economists in their farm outlook for the coming year.

Based on a leveling milk production and a strong demand for dairy products, exports to heavy consumers will be less than $2.00. It is expected that fluid milk prices should average 15 to 20 cents hundred pounds above those paid in 1954. Producers who ship milk to manufacturing plants will receive about the same prices in 1955 as in 1954.

The Fred Heinrich family also Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Huber were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hirth in Ann Arbor Thanksgiving.

Outlook Good For Agriculturists

Michigan livestock raisers may look for a slight downturn in their profits during 1955, according to the annual outlook released by Michigan State College agricultural economists.

Careful management will be essential, they say, and often the deciding factor between profit and loss here is the capsule run down on various livestock enterprises:

HOGS: Profits will not be as good in 1955 as in 1954. Supplies will be 7 to 8 per cent larger than last year. Prices will be well below the high levels of early 1954, but not much below prices this past fall. Freezer pig prices are expected to be lower relative to market hog prices than they were in spring of 1954. Watch for good boys in feeding logs, the economists advise.

CATTLE: Lower profits are expected in 1955. Prices of the highest grades of cattle will remain about the same as in 1954. Prices of cows and feeders and weaners will probably decline some.

LAMBS AND WOOL: Profits from lamb feeding will be smaller in 1955. Lamb feeding was profitable in 1954 and feeder lamb prices have been bid up, narrowing the spread. To encourage an increase in the production of wool, Congress authorized supporting wool at high as 110 per cent of parity. In 1955 wool will be supported at 62 1/2 cents per pound.

COMING YEAR TO BE GOOD FOR MOST DAIRY PRODUCERS.

A strengthening of fluid milk prices in 1955 is foreseen by Michigan State College agricultural economists in their farm outlook for the coming year.

Based on a leveling milk production and a strong demand for dairy products, exports to heavy consumers will be less than $2.00. It is expected that fluid milk prices should average 15 to 20 cents hundred pounds above those paid in 1954. Producers who ship milk to manufacturing plants will receive about the same prices in 1955 as in 1954.

The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

Like most good ideas, this one is pretty simple. Chevrolet and General Motors set out to build the first low-priced car that would:

- bring you the very freshest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, skills, resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new idea? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!
Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no ordinary "budget" job. A relaxed, low profile . . . soft surfaces from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Slump-Night wheel covers . . . a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you look inside . . . exciting fabrics and trim are harmonized with the whole car.

A Sensational Ride!
You live the new idea instantly . . . you glide . . . actually glide because spherical joints "roll with the punch" of the road in Chevrolet's new Glide-Ride front suspension. And outrigger rear springs mean new balance in turns . . . turns made so effortless by new ball-race steering. And when you stop, five braking control checks that notch down in front . . . you get "heads up" stopping. Tubeless tires mean much greater protection against blowouts. And with new high-level ventilation there's fresher air.

Drive with care . . . EVERYWHERE! Make December 15 and every day SAFE-DRIVING DAY!

"EVE"

Power Beyond Compare!
You also feel the new idea quickly . . . quick power like a panther's paw with the new Turbo-Fire V8 (162 h.p.) and two new "Blue-Flame" 6's. And marking this performance is a 12-volt electrical system giving you better ignition, faster starting, greater electrical reserve for any of the power assists you might desire. You have a transmission choice of economical Overdrive and improved, automatic Powerglide (optional at extra cost) or standard shift.

Even Air Conditioning!
And if you desire the convenience of power assists (optional at extra cost) . . . you'll find new power-steering and improved power brakes on all models. Power-controlled windows and power seats are available on the Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, while air conditioning may be added on V8 models.

Won't You Try It?
Here, we can only tell you how successfully the Motoramic Chevrolet expresses the new idea behind it. But the car itself can quickly show you! Come in for a demonstration drive, soon! You, first, choose your get.

Second Cinerama Production To Arrive In Winter

The mail at Music Hall, Detroit these days is heavily sprinkled with letters requesting reservations for the second Cinerama production. All such requests, Manager George Sauter announces have to be politely refused. Not even Sauter knows from various places 300 miles around Detroit by people who have seen the first Cinerama film and are expecting the second to be an exciting one.

Intermediate Grades Join To Present Christmas Program

A grade school Christmas program will be presented in the high school auditorium Tuesday, December 21 at 1:30 p. m. Parents of the 5th and 6th grades are invited to attend. The exchanging of gifts and a small party will be held Wednesday afternoon in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade rooms for the students only.

The sixth grade with Mrs. Barbara Kataloff, the teacher will present "What Could I Give Him?" In this play the characters are the characters in the Bible. A chorus provides the traditional Christmas carols. Narrators are Carol Britten, Alden Cooper, Ronald Mann and Judy Kirk. Jerry Creech, Jerry Evisizer, Dick Shadley, Melva Strang, Judy Blalock, Judy Hizen, Margaret Furgason, Joe Weinhardt, Donald Blalock, Guy Albert, Dennis Maurer, Corinne Raymond, Vincent Smyth, Carolyn Fink, Judy Walter, Sallie Scheld are the characters including Bobby, his double, his parents, shepherds, wise men, angels, Mary, Joseph, and three students.

In the chorus will be Joyce Clouse, Joan Fehr, Barbara Kappler, Gretchen Kirk, Marilyn Fink, Elliott Townsend, and Nancy Gilbert. Mr. Robert Walter's 6th grade children who have parts in the Christmas play to be given as a part of the Christmas program are: Carol Meyer, Gretchen Hamilton, Norman Smith, Ann Walter. The third play, "The Man On The Street" will be acted by Bonnie Bentschneider, Teddy Wheeler, John Ball, Norma Craig, Douglas Higgins, Arthur Holstein, Jack Lockridge, Richard Mings, Margaret Steele, and John Wallace. Pat Binkow will play the guitar during intermission. Mr. Ted Tappin's 8th grade and Mrs. Albert Atchaker's 7th grade will present additional specialty acts.

John Gauss Buried At Oak Grove

John M. Gauss, aged 82 years, passed away at his home at 432 South Macomb street early Thursday, December 2, following a lingering illness. He was the son of Jacob and Katherine Hatfield Gauss and was born August 2, 1872 in Freedom township.

He married Nellie Gray on January 20, 1897 and resided on a farm in Manchester township until January 1919 when they moved to Manchester. He worked as a section hand for the New York Central railroad.

Besides his wife he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Vera Frey of Manchester and four sons, Herman of Adrian, Olin of Milan and Charles and Erwin of Manchester; seven grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one brother, half brother Jacob Schable of Laurin Township and a sister, Mrs. Laura Breen of Norvell township.

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 4 at 2 p. m. at the Methodist church and burial was in Oak Grove cemetery. Rev. Carlton Politz officiated. Arrangements were made by the Jeter Funeral Home.

Sharon Farm Bureau Meets

The Sharon Farm Bureau met at the township Saturday evening, December 11 for their Christmas party. Fifty-five members were present, representing 17 families. After a ham and potato supper was enjoyed by all, Mrs. Laura Breitenwischer led the group singing of several Christmas carols.

Cards of condolences were played and there was an exchange of gifts. Mrs. Alvin Boucalle and Mrs. Ed Schuman were in charge of decorations. The refreshments were arranged by the kitchen committee with Mrs. Mahlon Smith, Mrs. Ray Weidmayer and Mrs. Anton Feldkamp.

There was no business meeting. The next regular meeting will be held January 14.

Hats Theme of Legion Ladies Christmas Party

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 117 held their annual Christmas and membership party on Wednesday, December 8 at the Legion hall. Proceeding the business meeting 22 members and 3 guests enjoyed a potluck dinner served by Mrs. William Romelhardt and her committee.

The Community Service Chairman reported that there are now 3 wheel chairs, 1 bed-side table, 1 set of bedside rails and 3 pair of crutches. The unit decided not to sponsor the magazine drive this year. It was also decided to renew gift subscription to the Enterprise for the Manchester people at the Washtenaw County Infirmary.

The New Year's Eve party was discussed at some length and it was decided that the Auxiliary would not prepare the lunch this year. Good Cheer Chairman, Miss Marion Fox gave her report and the following program will be presented by the Manchester high school band on Friday, December 17 at the high school auditorium at 8 p. m. in the direction of R. C. Sator.

The Stars and Stripes Forever. John Philip Sousa. If Thou Be Near, J. S. Bach. Fingert Overture, Wm. J. Skene. Suite: 1. March of the Peasants. 2. Horn Solo from Der Freischutz. Solo by David Frieschitz. Solo by Der Freischutz. 3. Invitation to the Dance. 4. Andante. 5. Minuet. 6. Huntsmen's Chorus.

On the Mall, Edwin Franko Goldman. Merry Christmas, Bennet Walters, Yoder. Rumbalatta, Paul Yoder. The First Noel, Arr. Clair W. Johnson. O Holy Night, Adolphe Adam. Soprano Solo, Shirley Gage. March of the Three Kings, 18th Century French tune. Fingert Bette Benschody, J. Pierpont. arr. by Walters.

Charle, more formally known as "C. H." Seckinger was born on a farm four miles from Manchester September 22, 1880 and with the exception of six years in Chelsea and Ypsilanti "learns" the business. He spent his entire life in Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Seckinger plan to move to California after he retires. He has held forth in the grocery business since 1927. A daughter, Mrs. Jack Haddad, lives on the West Coast and the Seckingers plan to make their future home near their daughter's. A son, Richard, was killed in action in World War II.

Mr. Seckinger was 17 when he first donned the white apron of a grocery clerk in 1897. He was a grocery clerk in 1897 when the Jaeger and Dietle grocery store in Manchester. From there he went to Chelsea and worked two and one-half years for Lou Freeman and three and one-half years in Ypsilanti for McPherson-House grocery. In 1904 he returned to his home town to work for J. Fred Schable, thus beginning a solid half-century of grocery business in Manchester.

With his brother Joe as a partner the Seckinger grocery was organized in 1908. Later he bought the Altemeyer, LeRoy, Stone, Dun, Landwehr, Norman, McLeod, Terry Ayers, Charlie Roberts, Teddy Wheeler, Betty Seckinger, and the grocery business soon took on the added task of operating a bakery which existed for the ensuing 17 years until 1925.

In 1913 Mr. Seckinger became the sole owner and for the past 41 years has handled the business alone. There's much more to seeing Charlie Seckinger leave the grocery counter in Manchester than just missing his familiar figure behind the counter. There's the problem of Charlie Seckinger's "cheese." It seems that many people from distant points bought his cheese which he buys on the market but ages himself. His cheese department is a real carry-over from the grocery store of yesterday. It's on the counter and covered with a glass lid which is suspended from the ceiling by a rope passing through a pulley, weighted along the wall.

Of the many changes in the operation of stores today Mr. Seckinger recalls that one of the real improvements is sacks. When he first entered the grocery business—the common paper sack was anything but common. Imagine the work and skill necessary to "sack sugar" in a plain piece of wrapping paper. That was one of the first things necessary for the grocery clerk of yesterday to learn.

Mr. Seckinger isn't getting out of the grocery business completely because his daughter and son-in-law operate a grocery in California. Although they have no specific plans for him to "get behind the counter" he admits he'll probably "sneak" we got two cents more per dozen for white eggs. But in Boston—just to keep the feel of it.

With his brother Joe as a partner the Seckinger grocery was organized in 1908. Later he bought the Altemeyer, LeRoy, Stone, Dun, Landwehr, Norman, McLeod, Terry Ayers, Charlie Roberts, Teddy Wheeler, Betty Seckinger, and the grocery business soon took on the added task of operating a bakery which existed for the ensuing 17 years until 1925.

In 1913 Mr. Seckinger became the sole owner and for the past 41 years has handled the business alone. Memories of Yesterday—The well known cheese department of Charlie Seckinger's grocery store in Manchester has attracted many customers from distant points. Now to retire, Mrs. Alfred Strang, 6th grade teacher, Laurin Leason and pianist Ronald Rheas.

A familiar chapter in Manchester's business history will soon draw to a close when the Jaeger and Dietle grocery store in Manchester. From there he went to Chelsea and worked two and one-half years for Lou Freeman and three and one-half years in Ypsilanti for McPherson-House grocery. In 1904 he returned to his home town to work for J. Fred Schable, thus beginning a solid half-century of grocery business in Manchester.

With his brother Joe as a partner the Seckinger grocery was organized in 1908. Later he bought the Altemeyer, LeRoy, Stone, Dun, Landwehr, Norman, McLeod, Terry Ayers, Charlie Roberts, Teddy Wheeler, Betty Seckinger, and the grocery business soon took on the added task of operating a bakery which existed for the ensuing 17 years until 1925.

In 1913 Mr. Seckinger became the sole owner and for the past 41 years has handled the business alone. There's much more to seeing Charlie Seckinger leave the grocery counter in Manchester than just missing his familiar figure behind the counter. There's the problem of Charlie Seckinger's "cheese." It seems that many people from distant points bought his cheese which he buys on the market but ages himself. His cheese department is a real carry-over from the grocery store of yesterday. It's on the counter and covered with a glass lid which is suspended from the ceiling by a rope passing through a pulley, weighted along the wall.

Manchester Exchange Club members and their wives as they gathered Tuesday evening for their annual dinner. The banquet was held at the Saine American Legion Home.
