Dutchmen Lose

By Doug Boose

Manchester's basketball team dropped eight points behind the Onsted team early in the first quarter and failed to challenge their lead until the fourth quarter, finally dropping a 51 to 40 decision.

The short court played the Dutchmen's widely practiced fast break, while Onsted, used to their court, rolled up a quick lead while playing good defensive ball. When Manchester finally did start rolling early in the final quarter, so did Onsted, pulling away after the Dutchmen closed the gap to four points.

The Flying Dutchmen his for a fair percentage of their shots, but inconsistency on defense still bothered them. Experience and practice will probably iron out that factor, and if the offense improves as it should during the year, Manchester could finish strong.

Tom Adams and Harold Dreesch each netted 8 points for the Dutchmen to lead them in the scoring department. Adams has averaged over 11 points now for three games.

In second team play, the Little Dutchmen were victorious as they came from behind to win with a strong fourth quarter finish, 49 to 40. Connie Goner, Dan Kehoe, and Grover Hestonnetched 14, 13, and 12 points respectively for the Manchester team. This gives the Little Dutchmen a 2 win, 1 loss record now.

The Dutchmen play at Dexter Friday, January 7th, so let's come to the game and cheer them on against a favored Onsted opponent team.

Evergreens Background For Candlelight Wedding

Boughs and wreaths of Christmas greens and poinsettias were used to decorate the home of the bride's parents when Darlene Mary Knorrp spoke her wedding vows to Irving Carl Richter in a candlelight service at 7 p. m. Saturday, December 18.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knorrp of 542 West Main street. Mr. Richter is the son of Mrs. Philip Cerwinka also of Manchester.

Evergreens and lighted candelabra flanked the archway where the service was performed by Rev. Carlton Foltz of the Methodist church.

An ivory flannel suit dress with satin binding and accented with seed pearls and sequins was worn by the bride and she carried a Bible topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Miss Doris Ann Blumenauer, classmate of the bride was her only attendant. In Britany blue flannel styled similar to that of the bride, her corsage was pink roses and Stephanotis.

Lynn Voegeding, Manchester served as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held for 40 guests in the dining room.
