Glen Weber was re-elected and Armin Haussler was elected to succeed James Pratt of Manchester who declined another term as a director. Both new directors, elected for three year terms, are Saline men.

This is the newest organization of its kind in the county and showed a profit of slightly over $300 for the year. Byron Carpenter, representative from Michigan State College, gave a talk on the A. B. A. Don Johnson, Washtenaw County Agricultural Agent, was among the speakers and Howard Heath, farm editor of radio station W. P. A. Heart Fund Benefits From Local Community Chest

While the air waves are urging the nation to give "from your heart for the Heart Fund," Manchester citizens can rest assured that they have already given the quota requested this year. The Heart Fund is one of the many drives for funds that cooperates fully with the local Community Chest. The amount budgeted annually to the United Health and Welfare Fund of Michigan takes care of this appeal in the Manchester area.

It is estimated that some 176,000,000 work days were lost in a single year through cardiovascular illnesses. Even if each hour were valued at $1, that would still be a terrific amount of working dollars lost—$176,000,000. It is also estimated that 10,000,000 Americans are affected by these diseases—that's almost as many as live in Michigan and Indiana combined!

Rheumatic fever is responsible for more deaths in the school age group than polio, whooping cough, diphtheria, measles and meningitis combined. Further analysis of statistics reveals that rheumatic fever, including rheumatic heart disease: (1) ranks with tuberculosis as a great, disabling, chronic disease; (2) except for accidents, is the most common cause of death among school children; (3) is the second most common cause of death by disease in the 20 to 24 age group; and (4) causes much of the heart disease in later life.

The Michigan Heart Association (included in the local Community Fund) has provided financial support to the Rheumatic Fever Control Program of the Michigan State Medical Society. This is a statewide program aimed at controlling and bringing about a marked reduction in the number of rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease cases in Michigan. Since its inception in 1945, the program has increased from an original pilot control center to 31 Rheumatic Fever Control Centers located in fifteen well defined areas of the state.

In addition to the Rheumatic Fever Control Centers, the Michigan Heart Association is also placing great emphasis on research to find the answers to the cause, or causes, or rheumatic fever which are still unknown.

There is a bright side to heart disease picture, however. In the past 25 years more progress has been made by medical science in combating cardiovascular diseases than in all previous history. Thirteen years ago the first successful operation was performed upon a living heart. Less than three years ago, the first successful operation was accomplished inside a heart chamber. Dramatic progress is being made in the treatment of some forms of heart disease through recently developed drugs. New methods of control and rehabilitation are being developed.

The task is tremendous, the solution to the problems is essential and the vista of hope is alluring. Your dollars are and have been helping through the Manchester Community Fund ever since the first Red Feather Drive in the

Manchester Firm Wins Construction Contract

A $24,064 bid has been accepted by the Clinton village council for the construction of an addition to the municipal light and power plant here. The bid was made by the Schaffer Lumber Co. of Manchester and was the lowest of three submitted.

The building will be a 40 by 36-foot addition to the present plant. It will house additional generators to meet the increased demand in the community for electric power. The council accepted the bid after hearing a report from Floyd Tate, chairman of the light committee. He said a constantly increasing demand is being made on the power plant, and present facilities will be unable to meet the needs in a short time.

He said the Christmas decorating program cost the power plant fund $751 and that 5,000 light bulbs had been furnished consumers without charge in the last year. In addition, more than 500 service calls had been made in 1953 without charge to the customers.

A potluck dinner and a program celebrating the 5th anniversary of the dedication of the Zion Lutheran Church hall at Rogers Corners was held there by approximately 160 members and friends on Sunday.

A highlight of the program was the burning of the last notes, freeing the church of the $50,000 debt which was incurred five years ago when the church hall was built. Rev. M. W. Brueckner, who has been pastor of the church for the past 28 years, noted that between 80 and 90 families comprise the membership of the parish. There'll be a hot time in Brooklyn Tuesday night when the Women's Bowling League holds position night. Last Tuesday night's deeds sewed everything up quite nicely.

Manchester Drug left Widmayer's Furniture and Hardware Store looking for a soft chair to land in or a ladder to climb out of the cellar, as Manchester Drug took four points from the hapless five, not helping them a bit.

Second place Uphaus Drug narrowly squeaked by the Manchester Bakery five for three points. One thing we know, Widmayer's won't be lonesome down there, the Bakery is right there with them.

Schaffer's Lumber Company got the short end of the tree Tuesday night and watched Carl M. Schaible's Fords whiz by with 3 points. We're sorry, girls, you'll have to do this all over again on position night, as you are in third and fourth place respectively.

Lannom's Variety Store had to be satisfied with not too much variety Tuesday night, when they and Hamilton's Market split the difference with two points apiece.

E. Knauss of the Schaible Five really found the right track and rolled a 503 series with a 202 game in the middle. Nice going, Edna.

B. Flood, 165 and 168, and L. Trent 170, did all right for the Manchester Bakery team, with B. Flood rolling four successive strikes.

Other games in the upper bracket were: P. Soldan, 187 and 167. Pat also rolled four successive strikes. J. Schaffer 175, and she took a turkey home with her; V. Schaible 172; J. Schlicht 168; and B. Schaible 167.

The Manchester Businessmen's Bowling League has a new leader this week when Short's Electric Service broke the tie with Mary's Tavern by grabbing 2 points from Kappler's Contractors while Mary's Tavern was being held to 1 point by Widmayer's Sales and Service.

In the Kappler-Short tussle Kappler's got the first game but Short's got the next 2 games, though by not enough pins to take total pins. Kappler's got total pins by 4 pins. The 500 series bowlers in this match were Homer Kappler 500, Art Golas 519, Laurence Kappler 551 and Ralph Wurster 585.

When Widmayer's and Mary's Tavern clashed there wasn't much heavy bowling done as Lyle Widmayer was the only one with a 500 series, which was 510.

A. B. C. Service stayed in third place standing although they ran into a little trouble in Mann's Millers who took 3 out of 4 points from the Service team. Willard Mann, 513 series, and Dewey Hartbeck, 507 series, were the big bowlers in this match. Spike's Mobil Service and Carl Schaible's Ford team had a close match, but Spike's got 3 out of the 4 points. Schaible's team was spotted 2 pins each game and when total pins were counted at the end of the match Spike's got total pins by only 8 pins. Jim Baker, 554 series, and Earl Bersuder, 533 series, of the Ford team were the big guns in this match.

Klager's Hatcheries grabbed 3 close points from K & W Farm Supply. All the games were close and each team had a 500 series bowler; for Klager's Dick Widmayer, 517, and for K & W's Ken Kouba, 500.

In the battle for the cellar position Double A Products closed the gap on Jan & Jim's Grill to 1 1/2 points by taking 3 out of 4 points. In this match not one bowler reached the 500 series mark but the Double A team had more "stuff on the ball." The 200-or-better game bowlers were very scarce as only three fellows had such games; they were John Dunny, Jr., 228; Ralph Wurster, 222, and Ken Kouba, 215.

Pins Awarded For Citizenship

Mrs. James A. Smalley of Whitmore Lake presented pins to seven outstanding high school girls at the meeting of the Sarah Caswell Angell Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held last night at the home of Mrs. Albert J. Logan of Cambridge Rd. Receiving citizenship pins were Betsy Dicks of Saline, June Leeman of Manchester, Joan Curtis of Dexter, Evonne Miller of Milan, Janet Widmayer of Chelsea, Elizabeth Fralick of University High School and Sandra Kay Hannah of Ann Arbor High School. Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Teed of Melrose Ave. were guests at the affair. Mothers of the girls also were guests.

Delegates to the Continental Congress in Washington, D. C., were elected. Headed by the regent, Mrs. Sydney P. Cook of Baldwin Pl., the delegates are Mrs. Benjamin Klager of Woodland Drive, Mrs. Arthur W. Smith of Oakland Ave., Mrs. Walter P. Staebler of S. Seventh St., Mrs. Donald O. Brown of Olivia Ave., Mrs. J. C. Winton of Baldwin Ave., and Mrs. Ragnar Arnesen of Martin Pl.

Dr. L. Lamont Okey of the University gave a lecture recital on Abraham Lincoln. Pouring at tea were Mrs. William M. Laird of Scottwood Ave., and Mrs. Walter C. Pomroy of Oakland Ave., vice president general from Michigan.

State Farmers Get $11,300,000 From Processors

Michigan farmers last year received more than $11,300,000 for vegetables sold to canners and freezers.

"This income resulted from the harvesting of almost 200,000 tons of vegetables for commercial processing," explained M. P. Cortilet, vice president in charge of American Can Company's Central division.

"The cash return to the state's farmers was about $4,500,000 more than for the 1942-51 period and approximately $600,000 over last year," continued the executive for the firm that perfected the modern food can.

Mr. Cortilet explained that "the increasing popularity of canned food is directly responsible for the utilization of about 72,600 acres in the state last year for production of asparagus, lima beans, snap beans, cabbage, cucumbers, green peas and tomatoes."

"Michigan in 1953 led all states in the production of cucumbers for processing," he added. "It harvested approximately 25 per cent of the nation's total crop."

"Some of today's pin-up girls ought to be buttoned up instead." —Ima Washout, Augusta, (Kans.) Gazette.

Fashions For MEN OF DISTINCTION

3-D COMES TO CLOTHES — Third dimensional textures will lead the men's fashion parade this year, according to Calvert's Man of Distinction Stylist. Rich nubby touch styling of men's wear fabrics is being widely used for suits, sports jackets and topcoats. Both slubs (yarns of uneven thickness) and nubs (small balls of vari-colored wools) in black and white are scattered over the blue background of this handsome worsted business suit, giving it a rich thickness suggesting the Hollywood influence of 3-D.

Brotherhood Week February 21-28

They were Brothers
By Carl M. Saunders, Editor Jackson (Mich.) Citizen Patriot

They call her the "busiest ship in our fleet"—the aircraft carrier Leyte. She has been with the fleet off Korea for four months, and now on this October day she was just about ready to return to active duty after 10 months in the Boston Navy Yard for overhaul.

It is a tragic whimsy fate that this ship, which had won two battle stars in Korean action with a minimum of casualties, should now suffer disaster.

The thing came suddenly. Most of her personnel were aboard, and with them were civilian painters, metal workers and other craftsmen.

A tremendous explosion shook the Leyte and echoed among the lesser craft along the Navy docks. The Leyte shivered and rolled as though struck by a giant wave. Smoke seethed from below decks.

A second explosion followed; and searing fire flamed from the hatches and ports.

Eleven men, Stewart Osie Ward among them, were caught in the steward's compartment on the third deck. One man clambered up a hatch into the fire and was dead.

But let Stewart Ward tell it as reported in "Time".

"Then we heard a cry from the hatchway, and we ran over there and pulled down a burning officer. He was burned beyond recognition. We put blankets around him, and he said 'I am a Catholic. Get me a Chaplain. My blood is type A.' I told him that all of us were trapped down there, and there was nothing we could do. He then told us to use the Morse Code and tap it out on the bulkhead."

The burned officer, with no word or complaint or groan of pain, carefully taught the seamen how to signal SOS by tapping.

"Then," continued Stewart Ward, "he said, 'Let us pray.' 'He led us in the Lord's Prayer.'"

Rescue crews responded to the tapping of SOS; but it was too late for Lieut. Leonard M. DeRose. He was dead.

He was a Catholic. With him as he died and among those who joined him in the Lord's Prayer were Protestants of various denominations. And there were Negro mess hands. Perhaps Jews.

But, trapped in the smoke and the flames, they were all brothers.

No one curled his lip and said, "He doesn't belong. He attends a different church. He utters strange prayers. He isn't one of us."

And so always is the unanimous testimony of those who have been under fire and near death—the Brotherhood of Man then becomes real and unquestioned. There are no chasms of disagreement then.

"Must man always stare into the black gloom of death to find the common denominator of Brotherhood?"

The answer to that question is the reason we Americans join with the National Conference of Christians and Jews in marking Brotherhood Week, and that answer must come from our hearts.

Emil Sattler Attends Mohawk Carpeting Institute

Mr. Emil Sattler and Gerald Bergren of Smith's Floor Covering, Ann Arbor, returned last week from Amsterdam, New York, where they attended the Mohawk Retail Carpet Institute. Sattler stated that it was one of the most thorough and interesting courses he had experienced. Also the course covered styling and quality control. They were also conducted through the Mohawk Mills. While there they also had a chance to visit Bigelow guest house, which included a tour through the entire Bigelow Mills.

Immunization Clinic

County wide Diphtheria, Tetanus and Smallpox immunization clinic dates were set today by Dr. Paul Barker president of Washtenaw County Medical Society, sponsors of the program for the past ten years.

"With the cooperation of the Health Department, the schools, and above all, the interested parents, we were able to vaccinate 5,028 children for smallpox and to raise to maximum levels the immunity of many of the 6,335 children who received booster doses of diphtheria and tetanus toxoid in last year's record program," said Dr. Barker. "The Medical Society is dedicated to this continuing effort to suppress any epidemic possibilities which would develop were these immunizations and vaccinations neglected," he added.

Resident staff physicians from the University and St. Joseph's hospitals are joining the medical practitioners in the county in donating their time. Health Department and school services are tax supported as is the cost of the toxoid and vaccine supplied by the Michigan Department of Health.

There will be no charge for the immunizations and vaccinations at the clinics. All children of school age or under who have not been vaccinated in the last five years will be offered vaccinations for smallpox. Diphtheria and tetanus booster shots will be given to children who have not been so immunized in the past three years.

"The success or failure of the program will depend largely upon the cooperation of parents, and their interest in signing request slips that each child will bring home from school, and their diligence in directing their children to participate in the clinics," said Dr. Barker. "Records of all immunizations are important too," he added, "and should be carefully preserved for the use of doctors whenever their services are needed."

The clinic will be in Manchester on March 25 at 9:00 a. m.

Lent Is Time for Self-Discipline

By Thomas F. Stransky, PPS Staff Writer

ON THE SPORT PAGES occasionally appear the training schedules of our nation's best athletes. Some swimmers daily race 150 lengths of the pool.

THE PURPOSE of this self-restraint is love of God. We realize that the discipline of our mind and body only for the sake of ourselves is silly egotism.

Long hours of practice, balanced diets, and the careful pacing of the day are necessary to perfect the body and give the mind mastery over muscle and nerve.

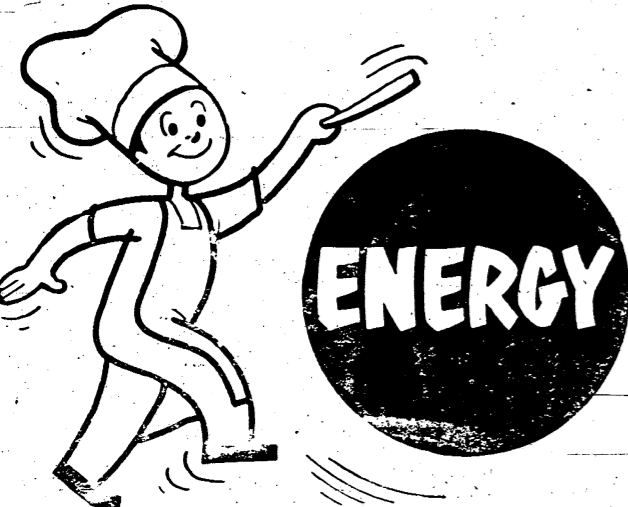

Only those who seek an excuse for their weaknesses and sin laugh at Lent. "Follow nature, seize pleasure while it flies," they say.

ST. PAUL OBSERVED this rigid self-discipline in the athletes of Rome and Greece. "Every athlete must keep all his appetites under control; and he does it to win a crown that fades."

SELF-DISCIPLINE, then, is not giving up anything; giving up is a loss. It is the exchange of something we do not need for something we do need.

Lent is the time of year when Christians should concentrate on the meaning and practice of self-discipline.

Lent also reminds us of the Crucified Christ. He is our example. With our eyes on Him we take the chisel of our own will and cut off the chunks of selfishness, jealousy, and hate until we finally take on the image of Christ.

Women are Key to Nations Spiritual Strength

Boston - The salvation and spiritual strength of America will depend on the faith and devotion of its women, Bishop John J. Wright of Worcester declared here.

He stated that "in the last analysis, humanly speaking, historically speaking, the strength of the Church will lie chiefly in its devout women. In calling for increased spiritual activity in nation, state, and community during this year, he pointed out that the American way of life and the existence of the Church face days of "testing, trial and perhaps trouble."

President Blasts Attack on Religious Liberty

Washington - President Eisenhower termed the religious persecution in Hungary as "an unprincipled attempt to destroy spiritual and moral influence in that country."

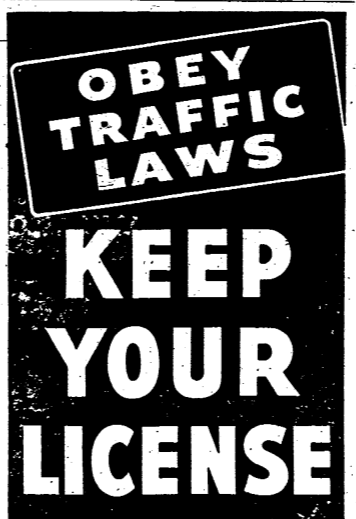

Writing to Frederic L. Vorbeck regarding the fifth anniversary of the imprisonment of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, the president said that the American people "regarded the attack on him as a blow against religious freedom in Hungary and an unprincipled attempt to destroy spiritual and moral influences in that country."

"The communist assault upon religious liberty and leadership in Hungary has failed, however, to turn the Hungarian people from their faith in God." Speaking of those persecuted for religious freedom, he said that their spirit "has become, indeed, a symbol of faith and freedom for our times."

Farm Shops May Be Big Or Small; It Depends on How They Are to Be Used

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau
If you're thinking of a farm shop, agricultural engineers have some sound advice to offer. Much of your planning depends on the mechanical skills you have now—or want to develop. It depends, too, on your equipment requirements; the need for keeping your needs. You'll find that a building large enough to house broken machinery will pay off in terms of better, faster and easier work during bad weather or at night.
Electrical equipment most frequently used and most helpful in emergencies or just for maintenance operations includes a transformer-type arc ing it in top operating condition, and the sort of shop which is best for all-around convenience and efficiency.

Here's a shop equipped for maintenance and repair of heavy field equipment.

Careful planning, however, will help you to avoid mistakes and save money. If you have a minimum amount of equipment and do not use a shop much for repairs or making the things that hobby-conscious farmers enjoy turning out, the building need not be too large. And tools may be limited to hammers, saws, etc., with, perhaps, a grinder, drill and soldering iron for certain special jobs.
However, if you do have some heavy machinery on the farm you'll be wise to consider constructing a new shop or making necessary changes in one of your existing buildings to meet welder, air compressor, circular and band saws, and a lathe for wood or metal. Welders, particularly, have helped farmers meet some notable emergencies—times when a corn picker, hay baler or wagon reel broke during a critical harvesting period.
Any repair or maintenance job takes the right kind and number of tools—plus time and energy. But all must be concentrated in a shop geared to your requirements, with plenty of room, satisfactory light for each job, enough electrical convenience outlets for your electrical equipment, and with the building adequately wired so that your motors and lights will operate

THE THUNDERBIRD, a new kind of car combining high performance with the comfort, convenience and safety of a conventional model, has been added to the Ford line. The Thunderbird has a powerful 160 h.p. Y-block V-8 engine and its low, graceful body is of all-steel construction. Equipped with a convertible cloth top which folds completely out of sight behind the rear seat, the Thunderbird can be purchased with a special composition hardtop, making it a complete all-weather car. Its overall height is 51.5 inches—nearly a foot lower than the 1954 Ford sedan—yet it has only slightly less road clearance. Most of its major parts are interchangeable with Ford's regular line of cars. The Thunderbird is scheduled for production by Ford Division next fall.

Ford Thunderbird Introduced

The Thunderbird, a new kind of personal car combining high performance with the comfort, convenience and safety of a conventional model, was announced today by Ford Division.

The Thunderbird has long, low graceful lines. Its all-steel body is of durable, conventional construction. The car is powered by a new, 160 h. p. Y-block V-8 engine. It can be purchased with a special composition hardtop which makes it a complete, all-weather car. The Thunderbird is equipped with a convertible cloth top which folds completely out of sight behind the rear seat.

L. D. Crusoe, Ford Motor Company vice president and general manager of Ford Division, said the Thunderbird will be placed in production next fall. It will be shown to the public for the first time February 29 at the Detroit Automobile Show.

"The Thunderbird will begin a new era in the automotive field," Mr. Crusoe said. "While it resembles a sports car, it is a full-size vehicle—most of the major parts are interchangeable with our regular line of cars. It is completely engineered and built so it can be serviced by any Ford dealer.

Ford test engineers say that "from a standing start, in 40 seconds the Thunderbird will be 53 car lengths out in front of a conventional 1954 car."

"The Thunderbird's hardtop is so light that two teen age girls could remove it easily," Mr. Crusoe said. "And, of course, the cloth convertible top is always available."

The Thunderbird's high fenderline sweeps backward in a straight line and is slightly lower at the tail fins than at the headlights. Its low silhouette is indicated by the fact that the door tops are only 33.7 inches from the ground and over-all height is 51.5 inches. This is nearly a foot lower than the 1954 Ford sedan, yet it has only slightly less road clearance.

Round rear bumper guards on the Thunderbird also have two center spinners which serve as openings for the dual exhaust system. Tail lights are eight inches in diameter and are topped by high-arched fender ends.

Demonstration Agent Anna B. Brown. New and timely topics of interest and importance to resort, restaurant, motel, cabin, cottage, and ranch operators are planned for discussion. Classes will be balanced with entertainment and free time to meet fellow-operators and share experiences with them.

This three-day educational institute is a part of the tourist and resort program of Michigan State College, led by Prof. Frank W. Suggitt, head of Land and Water Conservation Department. This program has assisted thousands of persons with technical guidance on many problems over the past eight years. This work is carried on with correspondence, meetings, and personal counsel through the Cooperative Extension Service.

As now planned, this year's program will include new topics for discussion, by experienced operators of tourist and resort businesses, as well as persons well-qualified in specialized fields. Topics will include: floor maintenance, lighting, insurance, guest hospitality, food purchasing, fish cookery, frozen food problems, resort entertainment, motel bookkeeping and records, motel and resort grounds improvements.

In order to give more specialized help, the program Thursday, March 4, will be divided into three sections running concurrently. One section will discuss quantity food problems while a second will cover timely subjects of interest to resort and cottage owners. A third section will concentrate on aspects of motel development and operation.

Those wishing to attend this second annual Resort and Motel Institute can obtain information by writing to Continuing Education Center, Kellogg Center, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan. Although no limits have been placed upon total attendance, lodging in Kellogg Center is limited and reservations should be made soon. Other lodging accommodations are also possible in the area, allowing all to attend who may wish to do so.

MSC Observes 99th Birthday

Michigan State College has entered its 99th year of service with plans shaping up for its Centennial Observance in 1955.

M. S. C.'s official birthday is Feb. 12, which is also the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. It was on Feb. 12, 1855, that Michigan Governor Kingsley Bingham signed the bill creating Michigan State College.

The college officially opened its doors in the fall of 1857 with 81 students and a faculty of five. Operating under the presidency of Joseph R. Williams, the college had only one building—Old College Hall.

The founding of M. S. C. as the first agricultural college in the United States led the way for the passage of the Morrill Act seven years later. This act created the national system of land-grant colleges.

M. S. C.'s Centennial year in 1955 will begin with Founder's Day on Feb. 12, 1955, and will continue with programs of international significance through the rest of the year.

Driver Training Program Boosted

Michigan's driver education program has been given a boost with a second $5,000 grant from the Allstate Foundation of Chicago to Michigan State College's Continuing Education Service.

Purpose of the grant is to stimulate increased and improved driver education in Michigan's public school systems. College officials said the fund will be used in the same way as last year's similar grant—to provide scholarships for teachers enrolled in courses in driver education and safety, to stimulate high school officials to start or continue driver training classes, and to increase the number of high school students receiving instruction.

A course, designed for teachers of driver education, will be offered at M. S. C. as a three-week workshop from August 2 to 20. Scholarship students will receive tuition and living expenses upon approval by the Continuing Education Service. Subject matter for the course will include classroom instruction and practice driving in dual-control cars, sound driving practices, purchasing of a car, care of a car, elementary mechanics, legal factors involved in driving, physical and mental requirements and use of tests.

A general program for teachers of driver training is conducted by M. S. C. throughout the year. It is made possible by several grants, including one from the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety committee. Television courses also are produced, teaching proper skills, habits and attitudes for experienced as well as beginning drivers.

The Continuing Education Service also operates programs for school bus drivers and commercial vehicle drivers.

A heating pad developed by industrial research includes a special harness so that a farmer may strap it on his back to keep warm while running tractors in winter.

Resort-Motel Institute Planned

All resort and motel operators of Washtenaw County are invited to attend the second annual Resort and Motel Institute, to be held on the Michigan State College Campus March 3, 4, and 5, 1954, as announced by Home

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Handy and Easy "Sign Up"

Last month's safety drive was a big success—almost. Every one helped—the schools ran movies on safe driving, Rotary put up posters, and Handy and Easy Peters went out on their own.

The boys put up a big sign by the side of the highway. It said, "Slow down—the life you save may be your own." It was a good idea—after the police moved the sign back twelve feet.

In their enthusiasm Handy and Easy put it too close to the road—in fact, right on the sharpest curve on the highway. They made driving unsafe by cutting off the view around the curve.

From where I sit, lots of people—even though they mean well—suffer from short-sightedness now and again. For instance, some can never see any further than their own preferences. They even go so far as to object to my choice of a glass of beer with supper. Shouldn't we always take the "long view"... and respect our neighbors' rights?

MSC Authority Tours Far East

Dr. Walter R. Fee, head of the history and social science departments at Michigan State College, has returned to the campus after a six-months tour of the Far East, four months of which were spent in Japan.

Dr. Fee declared "it is imperative" that American people generally learn more about Far Eastern peoples, "the problems which they have and the way they look at them. These people are becoming increasingly conscious of their importance and right to play significant roles in world affairs," he said.

They have and the way they look at them. These people are becoming increasingly conscious of their importance and right to play significant roles in world affairs," he said.

Nitrogen Bulk Plant Being Erected At Saline

Farmers in this area soon will have a nearby source of high-analysis nitrogen fertilizer, B. J. Funk, of Kentland, Ind., said today, announcing that his company has started construction of an anhydrous ammonia bulk plant at Saline.

In addition to marking the establishment of a new business enterprise in this county, construction of the bulk plant will benefit farmers, Mr. Funk said, by making readily available needed quantities of anhydrous ammonia, the most economical and most concentrated form of nitrogen fertilizer known.

The first shipment of anhydrous ammonia arrived here about Feb. 20.

The bulk plant, operated by Edw. J. Funk & Sons of Kentland, will distribute anhydrous ammonia manufactured by Mathieson Chemical Corporation, one of the nation's largest manufacturers of fertilizer chemicals and pesticides. The Funk Company is well-known to farmers here as the producers of the original Super-Crost Hybrid seed corn.

In charge of the Saline plant will be Dale Hostetler of Adrian, salesman for the Funk Company. In addition to this plant, others are expected to be started in this area within the near future.

The use of anhydrous ammonia as a source of nitrogen for soil-building is a relatively recent development. Nevertheless, the chemical has been widely demanded by local farmers who are acquainted with its highly successful use on millions of acres in many states. Agricultural authorities recognize its superior ability to increase crop yields.

Anhydrous ammonia is a water-free gas consisting of 82 per cent nitrogen and 18 per cent hydrogen. It has proved itself to be an excellent source of nitrogen for practically all crops and types of soils. Anhydrous ammonia can be applied at any time when the ground is not frozen and will be available when the crops need it.

This new chemical fertilizer is injected into the soil by means of special mechanical applicators. Metered amounts are applied by tubes connected to steel knives. The knives deposit the nitrogen at and desired depth, usually six inches. There is no loss into the air or leaching from the soil because the nitrogen is combined immediately with the clay particles in the soil.

Local Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hosmer entertained their euchre club on Saturday evening with prizes going to Mr. and Mrs. Duane Roller, Mrs. James Baker and Ted Roberts. The traveling prize went to Mrs. Norman Fielder.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Trinkle have been caring for their grandchildren, Leslie and Karen Kopa, while the children's mother, Mrs. Elmen Kopa, underwent a tonsillectomy at the Tecumseh hospital. The children returned to their home in Tecumseh with their parents on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Paul and family have moved into their new home at 7612 Lamb Road. Mr. and Mrs. John Cashin and family of North Lke are living in the house which they vacated at 7590 Lamb Road.

Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club met at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Marx with Mrs. John Bunney giving an interesting life story of Marian Anderson, the great colored singer. Mrs. A. A. Weinert of Dearborn, and a member of the local club gave the history of the composer Ethelbert Nevin and played several of his compositions. Among those she played were Narcissus and The Rosary, which the group noticeably enjoyed.

Mrs. George Diferderfer invited the club to her home for the March 2 meeting.

The ladies in this lucky land of ours use enough lipstick every year to paint 40,000 barns. It looks better, however, on the gals!

Journey Into Wonderland

Did you ever see snow fall upward? If you get to the Grand Canyon quickly, that is what you may find. Rising drafts from the warm desert on the Canyon's floor blow the snow upward. Trail parties, coming from the Canyon, often find snow on the bottoms of their hat rims.

At your first view of the Grand Canyon, the bottom seems to have dropped out of the earth, leaving a gigantic abyss surrounded by mountain ranges and rock temples of ever-changing colors. More than 1,000 square miles of exquisite beauty await the winter or spring visitor to the South Rim. Off-season trips are increasingly popular—travel is lighter, accommodations available, and the scenery more dazzling than in mid-summer.

A trip down into the Canyon on muleback is an exciting adventure. From various colored strata that form the steep Canyon walls, the history of the earth may be read. The whole experience is a photographer's dream—a sightseer's ecstasy.

Good roads and direct railway connections take you there quickly. Hotel accommodations are as low as $3.00 single and $4.00 double, with children at half rate; auto cabins cost even less. Advance reservations will assure your comfort. Write or wire Walter D. Rouzer, Fred Harvey, Grand Canyon, Arizona.
