A place for everything and everything in its place . . . that's the prime rule of every homemaker interested in kitchen efficiency. Carrying out this maxim to the utmost are the two new Carvel Hail products.

A striking new electric sharpener has been developed by world-famed industrial designer, George Nelson, for Carvel Hall. Really a boon to the housewife who no longer has one remaining the comes in a striking combination of black.

The new Constellation Steak Knife Set comes in a handy un-breakable tray that can be set in-to any kitchen drawer... and then removed as a handsome acces-dull knives that had to be carted off to the sharpener periodically ... or the bother of owning a big, cumbersome sharpener for which there was no convenient storage space. This new sharpener features an exclusive wall mounting for in-sac convenience as well as storage ... saves valuable counter space. Designed so that the knife cage will automatically be inserted against the sharpening whesl at an angle of 36°, knives can never be damaged as a result of sharpening. Beauty complements efficiency in this extremely compact sharping the strength of the country.

Do You Want a Mink Coat?

What woman doesn't want a mine ... coat, that is. And if mink isn't within the budget, then perhaps one of the more moderately priced fursually sained as well. Whatever your choice, the life of your furs will be prolonged by following just a few minute rules:

1. Do not dry a wet fur coat on or near a radiator or any other heat.

2. Do blot excess moisture gently with a clean dry cloth, and hang the coat on a sturdy hanger, in a place where air can circulate reely about it.

3. Never attempt to brush or comb your furs. Damage can result unless you have been carefully incructed. Shake furs well to 'fium' tp'' before such wearing.

4. Never allow fur to be dry cleaned. Have your coat cleaned goth season by a reliable fur cleaning process.

5. Always unbutton your fur caand lift your shoulders slightly and lift your shoulders slightly before you sit down. This little trick avoids strain at the back and seams.

6. Give immediate attention to small rips and tears. 7. Avoid friction in carrying packages against your coat.

8. Never store your fur coat at home over the summer months. This is poor economy, since exposure to summer heat may ruin skins beyond repair. Now that you know just how to take care of that "mink" of

HOLIDAY HISTORY

Come March 25, you might with good reason wish your friends "Happy New Year," For centuries this was New Year's Day.

According to the Encyclopacdia Britannica, the change in the Gregorian calendar in 1752 made it necessary to wipe out 11 days of the year, which was done by declaring that the day after September 2 was September 14, not September 3. This brought England into step with the Catholic countries, which had adopted the Gregorian calendar in 1582.

During the Middle Ages, March 25 was considered the first day of the new year by most Christian peoples, but in Anglo-Saxon Engiand, New Year's Day fell on what is now Christmas—December 25. At the time of the Norman Conquest of England, however, William the Conqueror ordered that the year should attent on the first of January—possibly, it is believed, because

A few yards of light-as-a-breeze and pretty-as-a-garden casement fabric—the whiz of a sewing machine—and this young homemaker has given her windows a brand new look for spring and summer. Lighted by the beauty of Lurex threads, these part cafe curtains will sparkle by day and glow softly in lamplight creating a new decorative effect in every room?

BERRY bright! So sings the spring and if the birds don't "peck" all the raspberries what's good!) you can make this delicious concoction—

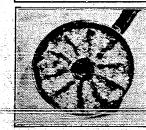

Berry Bright Special — with Berry Bright Special 1 package raspberry-flavored gel-atin; 1 cup hot water; 1 cup cold water; 1 tablespoon lemon juice; 1 cup fresh red ravoberries; 3 tablespoons sugar; 1 medium ba-Dissolve gelatin in hot water, Add cofd water and lemon juice. Chill until elightly thickened. Combine raspberries and sugar; let stand 10 minutes. Fold into gelatin with banana. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. For salad, serve on crisplettuce with mayonnaise. For dessert, serve with plain or whipped cream. Makes 6 servings.

Sunny Pimiento Eggs Set The Mood

You can't help but start the new day with a cheerful disposition when a skiller of Sunny Pinniento Eggs is sizzling away on the stove. The aroma is mighty tantalizing and the appearance pretty, but just wait until you taste that first delicious forkfull. Who ever thought those extra seasonines—headed by the flavorful pinniento—could work such wonders with scrambled eggs.

To make it a real Good Morning with a sunny mood for certain, garnish the scrambled eggs with a round, fat pinniento sun radiating bright red pinniento rays. It's enough to perk up all the sleepyheads and bring a sunie to the before-breakfast scowler.

Biggest "Rush" since the Klondike!

So head for your Dodge Dealer . . . and take your pick!

The moment the new Dodge hit more than you'd pay for one of the dealers' showrooms, the "rush" was on. New car buyers had struck gold . . . and they knew it! Actual sales figures throughout the country show that sales have doubled over last year as America goes for "The Big One!" And why not? In the new Dodge you'll find "solid gold" luxury and "low price three." In its class, it actually costs less than cars up to 9 inches shorter. And its flair-fashioned styling is stealing the "Oh's" from cars costing a thousand dollars more. The rush is on . . . with 17 magnificent new Dodge models to choose from. So head for your Dodge dealer's value-for only a few dollars a month ... and take your pick!

She said. "Although the custom of wearing poppies in honor of the war dead sprang from World War 1 when the little red flowers grew in profusion between the crosses, row on row, we wear them too for those who gave their lives in World War 11 as well as those who gave their lives in the European theater where the poppy is a native wild flower. Now, we wear them, too for the dead of the Korean conflict. This year we hope to see poppies over every heart as we honor the dead and aid the disabled on Poppy Day."
