Children Tour Willow Run Airport
Last Friday was an exciting day for many of the boys and girls attending summer playground, according to junior director, Birdella Flood.
About sixty-five accompanied by several parents and helpers took a bus trip to Willow Run. The first stop was at Recreation Park, Yorkland and take off. They watched a plane as it landed. They were greeted as they landed on the playground. Then they boarded the buses and continued on their way to the airport.
A guide met them and took them on a tour of the entire terminal, including parts of the huge building. He told them many interesting bits of information about each part. All agreed that they had a very pleasant day.

Hog and Cattle Crop on Increase. The fall pig crop may be 10 per cent larger than a year ago, according to farm economists at Michigan State University. Reports of farmers' intentions as to fattening indicate this will likely be true. The spring pig crop was nine per cent larger than the previous year. The two large crops combined may total 101 million head—the largest production since 1951. The farm economists say that prospects for large supplies will tend to hold down seasonal price increases for fat cattle in August. On the brighter side, however, rising consumer income is expected to provide a continued strong demand for beef.

Our Photographer Was On The Job

ATLICK the tar-trucks spread the black, sticky tar, along comes another truck with trailer spreading coarse stone gravel. Just as the photographer was about to snap the picture the trailer hitch broke and the gravel was dumped on the street. In this particular case it was necessary for workers with Ward and Van Nuck to grab shovels and level off the gravel by hand. About 15 men from the Detroit company are here on the contracted job.

Annual State 4-H Club Show To Start Aug. 30

For more than 2,000 Michigan 4-Hers the next two weeks will be chock full of putting the finishing touches on projects, demonstrations and exhibits for the 4th annual State 4-H Show. These boys and girls will work hard at it because there'll be competing for money and award prizes.

These 4-Hers selected to represent Michigan's 69,000 4-H Club members, were chosen at the final training and elimination meetings held in various districts in Michigan during the past month. The judging school eliminations applied to members judging dairy livestock, poultry, crops, vegetable garden, home improvement, food preparation, sewing and clothing. Winners in archery, public speaking and talent acts were also selected.

Going into its 18th year on the Michigan State University campus, the show is scheduled Aug. 30-Sept. 4. The four-day competitive event has been held on the M.S.U. fair grounds since 1937. The state fair in Detroit was abandoned during the war. Since then the boys and girls have wanted to return to the camps to hold their final state-wide show each year. In the 18 years it has been held at M.S.U., the state show has more than tripled in size.

Prizes totaling $15,000 and awards trips to the International Dairy Exposition, National 4-H Club Exposition, International Live-Stock Exposition, all in Chicago; Waterloo Dairy Cattle Congress, National 4-H Camp in Washington, D.C., and the Toronto Exposition will be given.

About 5,000 individual exhibits will adorn four buildings on the campus. Friends and family of 4-H state winners to attend the program and exhibits. They will see 1,100 head of livestock, 300 chickens, 100 rabbits and 25 wool fleeces besides the other displays of home and garden.

Time is Short For Entering Celery Contest
The time left to enter the Michigan Celery Promotion Association Contest and win a scholarship to Michigan State University is limited. All boys and girls who are planning to enter must have their essays in by August 25, 1955.

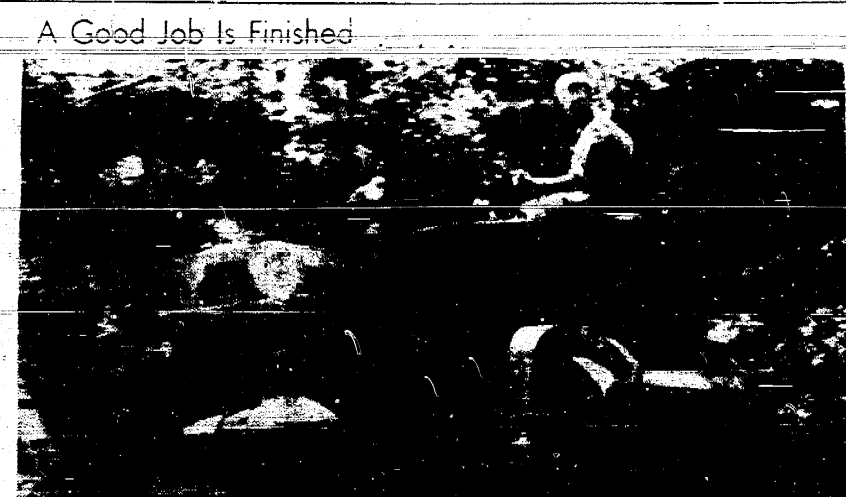

Entries must be under 25 years of age and students at Michigan high schools. The subject of the featured essay is "Why I Think Michigan Celery Is a Good Michigan Crop."

Entry blanks and complete information may be obtained by writing the Michigan Celery Promotion Association, 44 Association of Commerce Bldg., Grand Rapids, Michigan.

CRENCH! CRUNCH! The big roller rumbles and the stones are packed firmly into place. Cars do the rest in the packing of the gravel and Manchester will have smooth roads.

Heavy Traffic Helps Nurserymen

Dust Kaning—The traffic problem in Michigan has proven a factor in the increased sales of garden plants.

Joseph Polso, of Detroit, president of the Michigan Association of Nurserymen, in a speech at the Michigan State conference, reported that the heavy traffic on Michigan roads has helped nurserymen sell more plants at home—and this increasing their demand for more garden plants.

Wool Industry Leader Urge 'Yes' Vote On Issue

Sheep industry leaders are trying to convince farmers that they should vote "yes" in a referendum on whether or not they want to set up a special wool promotion program.

The referendum is something of a precedent setter. It was provided for in the national wool act passed by Congress last year. The question being whether producers wish to have a small per cent of their incentive payments deducted to pay for an advertising campaign.

In addition to the funds based on the volume of wool produced, are in favor of the program, the agriculture department will deduct one cent a pound from the payments due in 1956.

At the session of Congress held, wool industry interests tried to persuade legislators which would have the livestock industry pay a tax on hairy products to be used in an advertising campaign.

Grins As He Builds

"BOTH OF US are building. Dad, commented Larry Alber, as he watched his dad and other workmen putting up the new Alber filling station. Last week's ninety degree heat didn't seem to trouble him very much, as he built mud pyramids on the floor of his dad's new building on West Main.

According to his dad some of the mud structures "weren't too bad."

Seek Way of Preventing Potato Crop Surplus

Growers are said to be giving serious thought to killing potato vines early as a means of preventing surplus of the crop for late-planting tubers.

The Agriculture Department reports that it is receiving requests for information on the effects of vine killing — the subject of three reports which it has received.

Department officials are meeting with industry leaders at Chicago to look for some means of dealing with the impending surplus. Present estimates are that the late crop, which is produced in Maine and Idaho, will result in about 50 million bushels more than the market can absorb.

Gov't Surplus Down on Butter

The government bought about 15 per cent less of butter, cheese and dry milk for price support purposes in July than it did in the same month a year earlier.

The Agriculture Department says it had about 59 million pounds of the three commodities on hand on July 31—about half as much as in the stockpile 12 months before.

Much of the butter, cheese and milk has been given away at home and abroad, substantial amounts have been turned over to the Army and the school lunch program and some has been sold. Except for dry milk, the department bought substantially more of the commodities in July than it disposed of.
