Court and the cause of its being an issue in this election is the old American quarted over states rights. Historically, the Issue is a simple one. The United States is not a nation that grew out of the soil; it was formed by the 12 colonies that rebelled against Great Britain in 17% by trunnelating the Decimation of Independence. They attempted to govern themselves under the Articles of Confederation which were so loose that practically specified no national government could fune. no national government could fun-tion. Under the influence of the Soderalist Party hell by Aforenad Hamilton, the Constitution was written and adopted and this h been our law since.

While the Constitution does etablish a central government wilspecific authority, it protect states rights by the 10th Amenment which declores:

"The powers not granted to the United States by the Constitution nor prohibited by it to the State are reserved to the States respetively or to the teacole." The auction of the Lamb Club Cought exceptionally high prices, lambs being sold.

Ethan Jones and Douglas Smith attended an organizational meeting for Washtenaw County Young Republicans. Wednesday night at Arm Arbor Republican Headquarters. 101 S. Fourth avenue.

Bruce W. Franklin, of near Chelsea, was elected temporary president. Other temporary officers elected were Charles R. Stiles, Ann Arbor. Vice-president; Florence M. Denby Ann Arbor Township, secretary and Charles R. Staeble, Ann Arbor Township, treasure.

The officers were elected on a temporary basis until a constitution can be drawn up and put into effect for the club. There were 35 members present.

The translation has received the sponsorship of many of the county's leading Republicans including four prominent officeholders. They are Congressman Geo. Meader, State Senator Lewis G. Christman. State Representative. George W. Sallade. and Arm Arbor Mayor William E. Brown, Jr. The speaker was State Representative Ceorge W. Sallade who stressed the role young people are playing in the Republican Party. The next meeting was scheduled for September 19 with party officials and candidates as speakers. Anyone in Milan interested in being affiliated with the group is asked to contact either Mr. Jones or Mr. Smith.

Democrats Open County Officers Washtenaw County Democrats officially opened their Campaign Headquarters at a County Democratic Committee meeting and reception. More than one hundred Democrats gathered in Ann Arbors City Hall to hear committee reports of the progress made in campaign organization and of the plans for the meet two menths.

The League also called for legisters and atternative annexation procedure which would leave to an impartial body the decision as to whether a city or willage could annex surrounding territory.

League members also called on the legislature to help hard-pressed communities expand vital water and sewer services by granting planning leans, and undercriting planning leans, and undercriting structure in Michigan. Such a study should produce recommendations but they asserted that water and sewer facilities should remain under local authority acting jointly with the state only through the Michigan Health Department and commissions.

Monday afternoon at the Board of Supervisors annual session the legistative committee was authon freed to place East Ann Arbor annexation to Ann Arbor City on the ballot for the November 6 election.

A petition which was signed by 600 persons requesting the annexation has been filled with the board. If East Ann Arbor is annexed to Ann Arbor East Annexabor will automatically be placed on the January I tax roll as part of Ann Arbor. For Check Code

The prosecutor was directed to check on the legality of a proposed County Electrical Code Ordinance, which, if drawn up, would call for a county electrical inspector, who would have to be highly deucated in the electrical field.

The question of the possibility of the county ordinance was lirst brought up in January by Schem Township Supervisor William Scheel, but it was tabled until the fall syssion.
