The universal hymnal of this as we sing "Onward Christian Soldiers." The Son of God Goes Forth to War. "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," and we could multiply them by a score. It has been known for centuries as the Church's military.

The veteran Paul told Timothy that the soldier's life is a warfare; a light from beginning to end against temptation and circumstances; against disappointments and failures; against forces that buffet and discourage us. Soldiers give up their life for the Kingdom of God.

A soldier is not complete until he is part of the army. In church we identify ourselves actively with the church, please the command and keep high the banner of the cross. "Put on the breastplate of faith and love; and the helmet of salvation, the hope of righteousness." (Eph. 6:16)

Incentive offered in the National 4-H Dairy program by the Larro SureFeed Division of General Mills include four medals for winners in each county. An all-expense trip to the Club Congress for the high-ranking members in the state.

Lenten Meditation "Why The Church"

By Rev. Henry McKenzie

The Church is pictured in many forms. Some think of it as a temple, or as a family or a brotherhood of believers, but the final analysis will show the real church is an "army with banners." It is organized to fight a desperate and mighty foe and at the same time to build the Kingdom of God in the hearts of men.

The universal hymnal of this as we sing "Onward Christian Soldiers." The Son of God Goes Forth to War. "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," and we could multiply them by a score. It has been known for centuries as the Church's military.

The veteran Paul told Timothy that the soldier's life is a warfare; a light from beginning to end against temptation and circumstances; against disappointments and failures; against forces that buffet and discourage us. Soldiers give up their life for the Kingdom of God.

A soldier is not complete until he is part of the army. In church we identify ourselves actively with the church, please the command and keep high the banner of the cross. "Put on the breastplate of faith and love; and the helmet of salvation, the hope of righteousness." (Eph. 6:16)

Pitcher Vernon Law of the Pirates has been pitching up a little better change at the club's training camp at Fort Myers, Fla. And a little extra for some of his mates. The first Pirates home run, with 32 on each man on base at the first inning, was collected with a grand-slammer. The same day Law picked up another $3 which the same man had laid on the line for the first pitcher to hurt three scoreless innings.

Easter-Tide Renewed Hope For Better Future

By F. V. Parker
Easter lilies and loyalties transcend the lines of nationalism, racial characteristics, political point of view, cultural attainments, social distinctions, and denominational differences.

To the oppressed people everywhere—the colored people of the south who are bearing the brunt of the segregation debate—the human souls in concentration camps of atomic communist states—the millions in Russia itself—there is a heartwarming hope for a better future.

The ideas of Christ as revealed in the New Testament include unity with God the Father, in reverence to the life, the dignity and worth of individuals, the moral qualities inherent in every person.

Easter Sunday there will be two local masses at 8 and 10 a.m.
