The Civic club met Monday evening at the Emanuel Church hall for their dinner meeting with Carl Schaible making the suggestion that the club lend a hand to help Carr Park.

L. P. Wurster park commissioner, told the group that the village council has appropriated some $300 to be used in the purchase equipment.

Wurster said that it was only through the help of many people in the community that the park is in such excellent condition.

The matter of assixting with the park was referred to the board of control to bring recommissions, on what the club might do to help.

In the absence of Allen Schaffer, club president, the meeting was conducted by Lawrence Deverns.
