March of Dimes Poster Boy

Four-year-old Bobby, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval E. Murray, 1412 Frederick, Ann Arbor, has been chosen as the 1957 Poster Boy for the annual March of Dimes, which will be held from January 2 through 31. The Year In Review

Glancing through the files of the year's high, Manchester's Enterprise at the close of 1956 we note a few important happenings and a few not so spectacular.

JANUARY

The Michigan Water Resources Commission filed suit against the village in order to start the ball rolling to build the new municipal sewage disposal plant.

Manchester Dismen had shaken up ten out of a possible 11 baskets in a game.

Manchester schools were closed because of the heavy snow storm which blocked country roads.

Road Commission workers tolled for hours to free "Jazz" get together of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult.

Garuda were employed at the Manchester school to discover and vandalism in this area.

School employees were given six days off for the Christmas holidays.

Citizens Planning Committee Begins Survey Of School System Needs

Thirty members of the Citizens Planning Committee for the Manchester schools on Monday, December 17, visited all of the district's school buildings on a tour of inspection.

The committee, organized in November at the request of the school board, has the job of surveying the needs of the school system during the next few years. They met Monday at the high school, last boarded buses for successive visits to the elementary and intermediate schools, the Spaulding and Rose Corners rural schools, and the Pleasant Lake school also at 8 a. m.

The group, under the direction of William Mann, is organized to plan three committees: a housing committee, headed by Herbert Jacob to consider the need for additional building; a survey committee, under Carl Settle, to report on repairs and changes in the present buildings and a finance committee headed by Stanton Rosch.

Two of these committees will meet first Monday after the holidays, January 7, to begin their studies. The survey committee will meet at the intermediate school at 8 a. m. since it is here that the need for some modernization is most apparent. The housing committee will meet in the high school also at 8 a. m.

Superintendent William Mann said there is no immediate crisis in the school system. The growth of the school population, however, calls for planning now so that tomorrow's needs will be anticipated.

Display Winners Announced

The judging committee for the Village of Manchester's contest for the best outdoor Christmas displays and decorations named, as the three winners, Ray Uphaus of 26 Auburn, Alton W. Schaefer of West Main Street and Joe Van DeGrupe of 208 Morgan Street. The three winners received cash prizes of $10.00 first prize, $5.00 second place and $3.00 for third prize.

There were many homes in the village decorated beautifully for the holiday season, but only those listed with the village clerk, asking that their displays be judged could be entered in the contest sponsored by the village council.

Only five villagers had listed their addresses, with the village clerk of course, and the judging was to be confined to those on the list.

Holly Hop Queen Crowned at Holiday Fete

Plan Dimes Kick-off On January 3

The March of Dimes "Kick-off" dinner will be held Thursday, January 3 at 6:30 p. m. at the new lodge hall of the Loyal Order of the Moose at 390 S. Maple Road, Ann Arbor.

Key workers, drive chapermen and others will gather at that time to get their final instructions before the drive actually gets underway in Waukesha, Wis.

The Rev. Karl H. A. Rest of Manchester will give the invocation of occasion, and the judging will be confined to those on the list.

Wm. Ehmann Burial At Concord, Ohio

Architect's Drawing Of Ford Plant At Rawsonville

Design details of Ford Motor Company's new Rawsonville plant is being built on a 30-acre site in Woodland Township. The 785,000 square foot of one-story manufacturing space, about half of which is for plant administrative purposes, will be in use by the end of this year. A connecting two-story office building, which now are located at Rawsonville plant is expected to employ more than 3,000 persons.

Board Will Study Present and Future Needs In District

The board of directors of the Manchester Area Newsbriefs +

Norbert Pfaffe, a German exchange student here last year, sends holiday greetings to his friends on this side of the ocean through The Enterprise. Norbert made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Allan Schaefer and family. The notice on the scenic Christmas card reads as follows:

"A Merry Christmas to you and all readers of your paper. I wish them all a nice Christmas and a Happy New Year. Sincerely, Norbert Pfaffe."

Of particular interest was his card, which was the post card type originally requiring no envelope. It pictured a small group of houses, mountains in the distance and tall pine trees all snowy.

The series is open to any junior or senior high school student, both boys and girls, in the county. The project is sponsored by the Ann Arbor Y. M. C. A. Advance registration for the class must be made Monday evening, January 7, at the Y. W. C. A., 243 S 4th Ave., Ann Arbor.

Schools closed for the holiday vacation will reopen next Wednesday. On the school calendar is the basketball game at Detroit on Friday, January 12, at 6:45 p. m.

On Friday there was a party for the high school in the gym with Rev. Karl Rest the speaker. A skit "A Change of Heart" was part of the program arranged by the Future Homemakers club by Jane Rhoades. In the cast were Carol Fern, Elizabeth Oates, Chris Galinis, Barbara Cox, Gretchen Holstein and Sandy Beckington. The Friday party was a project of the Student Council and at the conclusion there was an exchange of gifts.

At the 31st annual meeting of the Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association held at Bloomfield Hills earlier in this month, Richard H. McLean of Dearborn was elected to the presidency succeeding A. B. Pfeiffer of Detroit. Bank and Trust Company, who now became chairman of the Board. A note of interest is that the McLeans are building a new home near Fellows bridge northwest of Manchester and expect to take possession early in the spring.

In addition to reelecting all of the eligible directors from last year there were two new directors from Washtenaw County. They are Luella Smith and Willis R. Bott.

Morgan Kern, son of Mrs. Mary Kern, spent the Christmas holidays with his mother. He had recently completed a ten-week course of study in air control tower operation at Olathe, Kansas where he received a scholastic rating of third in a class of nineteen.

"Junior" as he is known to his friends here has returned to his work at the Grosse Ile radio control tower.

The Michigan Milk Producers' Association reports that the 1956 season was a record one for the state. The total milk production for the year was 11.2 billion pounds, an increase of 1.2 billion pounds over the 1955 season. The increase was due to a combination of factors, including a longer growing season, improved breeding, and better management practices.

Group Suggests Congress Give Agriculture Department More Farm Program Control

An independent study suggested today that Congress give the Agriculture Department more control over farm programs on a crop-by-crop and region-by-region basis. The study, sponsored by the Research Foundation of the Twentieth Century Fund, says that the current farm program is too inflexible and that it should be replaced by a more flexible one. The study also suggests that Congress should give the Agriculture Department more control over the distribution of farm income.
