School Housing Situation Critical

Election Is Over - Down Go The Posters

Allie Luckhardt says "Well, she's all over for another spell" after the election last week as he removed some of the election posters. Nearly every pole in the downtown Manchester area was pretty well covered with posters urging the vote in one way or another.

Citizens Curriculum Committee Discuss Situation With Kingscott

The Citizens Curriculum Committee met and held an informal discussion with school personnel and consultants from Kingscott, about our educational program.

It seemed apparent that the high school program and elementary program are pretty satisfactory; but the junior high program it is believed needs study.

Students of this age need a good general program, plus a good academic program and good counseling, to adequately prepare for high school and subsequently the future.

The language arts integrated unit now in use, seemed acceptable as well as the courses, but the facilities appeared to be inadequate. More guidance for children of this level was discussed as well as better science facilities.

A practical arts area was discussed and a need for a work area for cooking, sewing, ceramic, woodworking and metal working, seemed to be needed where some practical education could be developed. This would give potential college preparatory students who can't take vocational subjects on the senior high school level a better opportunity. This would also create an interest level with children at an earlier age.

In a Citizens' Committee meeting held a week ago the housing needs were discussed. The increase in enrollment was explained and different alternatives were discussed.

A six room addition to the present high school (the main reason this was considered was this seems the most economic method to house our children the next three or four years, as we already have a developed site and utilities). The points discussed against this were:

- a. It is advisable to keep the junior high and senior high school separated.
- b. These junior high rooms would have to be converted to high school rooms as the high school grows and we again would have to face junior high housing in the near future.
- c. The present special facilities (Home Economics and Shop) would have to be expanded if they were to be used for junior high school students.
- d. Building a new junior high school.
- e. It is too expensive.
- f. The playground and room size at the present intermediate school is not adequate for all elementary students.
- g. Building small neighborhood schools at Spaford and Rowes Corners. The Committee didn't even discuss this, probably because there are no so called neighborhoods at these points and practically all children would have to be transported.

4. Remodeling the present intermediate school into a junior high school and building an elementary school. (This solution seemed to please the great majority of the people present. The reasons seemed to be as follows:

- a. The present intermediate,

Mrs. Yungclas Breaks Leg In Fall

Ninety-three-year-old Mrs. H. T. Yungclas is hospitalized at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor where she was taken Saturday with a broken right leg. She tripped and fell in her home at 419 E. Main Street while descending from her kitchen to her living room. About a year ago she fell and broke her right hip and had been recovering satisfactorily from that injury. She managed to attract the attention of her tenant, Ted Carter, who came to her aid. She is reported to be very comfortable and able to sit up some.

Spring's Due To Arrive Thursday Night

Anybody ready for spring? It's coming at 10:08 p.m. Thursday. But it doesn't feel much like it with the temperature in the mid 40's during the day and in the 20's at night.

According to Prof. Hazel M. Losh, U-M astronomer it's going to be late coming this year—about six hours later than normal. The reason is that the year's length is an uneven number of days. For people who like seasonal points, Prof. Losh points out that a year runs 365.2422 days.

The body of John Reule, 7 years was recovered Friday night from the Maumee River about a mile from where he disappeared. Some one hundred neighbors, police and firemen from Waterville, Ohio, and Chicago, were in the search. He was a fourth grade student in Waterville school.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. George Williams, one brother Timothy and step brothers George Eric and Christopher Williams; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Reule of Albuquerque, New Mexico, formerly of Manchester. Young John lived for some time with his grandparents in Manchester.

Board Members and Civic Groups Explain At PTA Meeting Monday

The school housing problems were discussed at the meeting of the PTA Monday evening when School Board president, Luther Klager explained the probable need for additional housing for school children within the next five years. Superintendent Robert Masten explained the present enrollment figures and housing needs and Mr. Klager briefed those present on how these figures had been presented to the Citizens Committee and how they in turn had inspected new schools.

Mr. Klager told how Kingscott's Educational Consultation Service had been hired to help with future planning.

Mrs. Beulah Gramman, working on the Curriculum Committee told about her group's findings and how some of their suggestions had been put into operation.

Mr. Ted Tapping explained the Junior High Curriculum and Mrs. Pat Rosen discussed the limited facilities for practical arts, science and library and told how rather than build these facilities, they could be remodelled into the old building. She pointed out that a science room could be renovated and probably have room to establish a practical arts area. She said this would not make a good elementary school because of limited playground.

Willard Mean reported on the four solutions offered at the meeting and the one that met with general approval which seemed to be the best solution. He explained a new site and remodeling the Junior High at an estimated cost of $275,000.

Bill Kowalski of Kingscott architects gave some comparative costs and Mrs. Beulah Gramman explained how it may fit into the Pleasant Lake Bond obligation if a stage program is developed. Laurel Breitenweicher of the school board explained what a stage program is and how they might be developed.

It was the consensus of opinion of those present that it would be beneficial to have another such meeting to explain progress in the near future.

Dairy Banquet Will Be In Saline Mar. 22

The third Annual Washtenaw County Dairy Banquet will be held Saturday night, 7:30 p.m., March 22, at the Saline Elementary School. The banquet, sponsored by Washtenaw County Dairy Council, has become one of the county's major agricultural activities of the year.

The event represents the county's largest agricultural enterprise. Washtenaw County dairy farmers produce over 110 million pounds of milk annually. The value of milk sold off the farms of the county is nearly four millions of dollars annually.

Some good advice on a top sports event coming up, Stop down at the U of M Athletic Administration building in Ann Arbor and pick up some tickets for the N.C.A.A. swimming championships at the University of Michigan on Saturday, March 22. This may be the only chance you will have to watch an Olympic champion in action or see a world record broken.

Next week, we'll look at the League of the Lakes, and also start previewing the baseball picture for Spring and Summer.

March 2, 1949—Lucky Lady II, Air Force Superfortress, completed first non-stop flight around the world—23,432 miles in 94 hours, 1 minute.

March 8, 1917—Riot and strikes in St. Petersburg marked the beginning of the Russian Revolution.

Just a reminder that beginning next week we will be taking a look at the area spring sports teams, schedules and personnel. This will include baseball, golf, tennis and track.

We said last week that we'd take a look at some of the better ball players we watched this year. We were not able to see every player on every team throughout the year, but we must judge only some of the better ones we watched throughout the cage season. For this week, let's stick with the Huron League, where we saw most of the boys in action.

Norm Weyher of Dundee, who in our opinion was the best in the loop would have to be placed on the list. How about Bill Bradley of Saline's Bill, in the opinion of the coaches and followers, of Huron League teams was one of the best this season. A good shotmaker, Bracey was just about the loop's strongest rebounder. This may surprise some of you, but we'll go along with Lincoln's Chuck Lindstrom for the third man on the front line. Lindstrom was a hard worker as we watched all season. The big man was real tough on the boards, and we never failed to

with Tom N. Johnston

When school sports, we have hopes that at least one of three area teams who have moved well in tournament action up to now will end up in the State finals. The clubs involved of course, Dundee, whose only defeat thus far this season has been at the hands of the Saline Hornets. The Vikings of John Macpeta have looked very good thus far. Last Thursday night they fought back to notch a one point win over Michigan Center. In what was one of the most thrilling ball games we have ever watched. Norm Weyher, Dundee's great give and take center, his hot point average of over 23 points per game, besides playing a great floor game. "Wait" at this writing the Vikings have yet to meet Hudson in the final of the Class C Regional championship at Tpe-lanti, we feel that they can take this and move into the state quarter finals, and we hope further.

Britton High School, who has been ranked 3rd in class D will see a long state play, and could go a long way. Brighton has had a couple of come from behind victories in competition thus far, and may have the "guns" to go all the way.

The column along with WOLA will be following these teams as far as they go. We will be up at Lansing for the semi and final games, and will give you an inside look "From The Pressbox" on all tournament action.

Tri-County To Hear Buzzo

Tom Buzzo of Baldwin, an organizer of and spokesman for the Greater Michigan Conservation League, will speak at next Thursday's meeting of the Tri-County Sportsman's League.

The meeting to which all clubs of MUCC District Two have been invited to send delegation, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Tri-County Clubhouse near Saline.

The Greater Michigan Conservation League was organized as a rival of Michigan United Conservation Club, which the Greater Michigan group claims does not truly represent the state's sportsmen.

Buzzo and his fellow promoter, Tom Carnahan, are arch-foes of the Conservation Department, particularly its deer management policies.

"Although the Greater Michigan Conservation League is seeking to extend its influence on a State-wide basis, it so far is active chiefly in the Baldwin and Gladwin areas. Its membership is small but highly vocal."

A Tri-County spokesman said both James Foxman, executive secretary of MUCC, and Harry R. Galnes, MUCC field representative, have been invited to Thursday's meeting.

Mr. Carlos Dorr is a patient at St. Joseph hospital, Ann Arbor, where he underwent surgery last week.

RADIATION CUT

The Atomic Energy Commission announced new standards somewhat reducing maximum radiation dosages which atomic workers may accumulate.

The maximum permissible dose of radiation has been three-tenths of a rem per week in AEC facilities. A rem, Roentgen Equivalent Man, is a dose estimated to produce a biological effect equivalent to that produced by one Roentgen of X rays. This comes to theoretically 468 rems over a period of, say, 30 years.

OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8, the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission, the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world—the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires—no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began—across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2 1/2 miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet—but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slacked its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 50 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes—and the engine was never turned off!

The screw-footed Chevrolet puns past a road sign that says "danger" and ahead lies the toughest part of the perilous Andean climb.
