School Notes

Juniors

Students and faculty guests turned out in large numbers for the candlelight choker dinner served at the Junior-Senior Reception held in the Civic auditorium. Bill Kirk was master of ceremonies. Jack Creech, president of the senior class and Jerry Meyer, president of the junior class, both gave short talks. Miss Nellie Ackerson, guest speaker for the evening mentioned humorous incidents occurring when the present seniors were fourth graders and then concluded her talk with good wishes and advice for the graduates.

Sophomores

Summer dances on the tennis courts are being planned by the sophomore class. The first dance will be on June 28 a 4 every other Wednesday following until August 20. All dances will last from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. and dancers may play records at some of the events.

Freshmen

A freshmen bake sale held at the Hamilton market added $25.00 to the class treasury. Judy Walter was chairman from 1 to 5 p.m. and John Hall took over from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Steer Club

Warren Hult was guest speaker at the annual Steer Club Dinner held in the Hamilton market. This is an annual event sponsored by the Optimist Club. Mr. Hult's talk was illustrated with pictures by Ira Jump. A question and answer period followed the roast beef dinner.

Student Council

Petitions for next year's class officers are circulating and must be turned in to the student council representative by next Friday's class meeting. Elections will take place on May 21.

F.H.A.

Installation of the new Future Homemakers officers will take place Wednesday, May 21 at 6:30 p.m. in the Civic auditorium. Members of the girls are invited to a potluck dinner and program afterwards. At this time new officers will be presented by the old officers and installed by Pat Whitten, outgoing president. Officers: Dorene Ahrens; secretary, Elaine G. Gharret; treasurer, Gretchen Holsten; reporter, Karen Kemmer; historian, Ellean Townsend; degree chairman, Carol Baum; pianist, Martha Boutell; and song leader, Elaine Hoener.

F.F.A.

Manchester's Future Farmers members are dynamiting stump out of a bog ground. They have won on Chuck Kemmer's farm for the past few weeks.

Band

M. H. S. Bandmen are practicing marching every Tuesday and Thursday when the weather is good. In preparation for the annual Memorial Day parade to be held May 30. The band will follow to the cemetery where the memorial services will be held for the honored dead. Manchester high school bandmen under the direction of Robert Sortor presented their annual concert of the year last Friday and made a profit of $40 on the tickets bought by the 150 people present.

Orientation

Written and oral reports on careers are being made by Mrs. Martha Jump's orientation class. Differential aptitude tests were also taken to discover what the student will be best suited for in the future.

American History

Research papers on American people, places or things must be completed today by Ford Longenecker's American history class. Each paper must be based upon information from at least five different books and magazines.

English

"Weraher von braun" a story from Reader's Digest about the prominent space engineer, has been read by Barry Ellis' ninth grade English class. Education in the United States Army, a story from their literature book, has also been read. They will next be reading and acting out a play by Shakespeare.

German

Section 3 of ninth grade English is practicing penmanship and writing of theme or original stories.

Chemistry

Chemistry students are studying a unit on organic compounds. This includes an extensive study of the composition as it is present in all living bodies.

Physical Education

Warm days find Mrs. Martha Jump's physical education class on the tennis courts and softball diamonds. Various needle sports are played in the gym on cool days.

Home And Family Living

Child care and child psychology are being studied by Mrs. Lois Armstrong's home and family living class.

Mechanical

Sketchings of floor and house plans are being drawn by Mrs. Gurd's mechanical drawing class. The plans will be completed at a later date.

Home Economic

Family budgets are being planned by junior and senior home economic students. The girls' sewing classes are also busy with their projects.

Biology

Genetics is the topic that the biology classes have been studying. It is the study of heredity.

Speech

Introductions to speeches are being written by Barry Ellis' speech class. The students are practicing using different devices such as the element of surprise, humor and sudden climax in these introductions.

Attendance Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown attended the Vian Food Supplement Convention at the Masonic Temple in Detroit Saturday. They were awarded the plaque for outstanding sales as a 4th anniversary award for District 140. There were 20 people present at the convention about 2500 people present. This was the first Michigan convention.

BRIDE: Beatrice Fowler became the bride of Glenn Haeussler in a ceremony Saturday in the First Methodist Church of Chelsea.

Beatrice Fowler, Mr. Haeussler Exchange Vows

The First Methodist Church of Chelsea was the scene Saturday of the wedding of the former Beatrice A. Fowler of Ann Arbor and Mr. Glenn Haeussler of Saline. The Rev. S. D. Kinde was the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a pure silk bombazine gown styled with a chapel train. Alenon lace trimmed the neckline and bodice which had long sleeves. A tiny bombazine Juliet cap trimmed in Alenon lace and seed pearls held a fingertip French illusion veil, and the bride carried a white orchid on a white pocket book.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence V. Fowler of Ann Arbor. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Haeussler of Saline.

Mrs. William M. Darnell of Lansing, a sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Mrs. Norman P. Lambarth of Bethel Church road, was the bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in waltz length princess styled dresses of aqua over taffeta. They wore matching crowns and carried arm bouquets of roses.

Victor Haeussler of Saline served his brother as best man.

Ullers were Weston Haeussler of Tecumseh, another brother of the bridegroom, and A. H. F. W. Luchman of Pleasant Lake.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The 3 tiered cake was cut and served by the bride's aunt Mrs. Harold Bulte. The groom's cake was served by the groom's sister Mrs. Don Steiner. Mrs. Victor Haeussler poured the coffee and Miss Ruth Haeussler served at the punch table.

The bridal couple will enjoy a month long wedding trip to be spent in California, Texas, and Mexico, and on their return about June 1, will be at home at 413 Madison St. Chelsea.
