The occasion will be the annual chicken broil put on by the Optimist Club and the Jaycese of the Athletic. Field. This yearly feast has become famous during the past four years, not only for the quality of the food served, but for the spectacle of 1,000 chicken halves being alow-broiled over long charcoal pits, under the care of a hundred chefs, waiters and hosts, all of them in real life, businessen and farmers.

Some time aço, the poultry deposite of the solvey over charcoal, bosted with butier, and lightly salted, was a few states of the best manner of the best possible tasting food.
