Manchester man weds Lansing girl

MRS. STANLEY E. BUSS

After a honeymoon at Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Buss are at home at Sparta Village, East Lansing. The bride, the former Eleanor Marie Boettcher, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Boettcher of 1215 East Hazel Street, Lansing. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Buss of Manchester.

For the December 20th wedding at the Christ Lutheran Church in Lansing, the bride chose a gown of French brocade satin with a deep neckline and an insert of illusion. A pearl and sequin crown secured her veil and she carried white camellias.

Mrs. William Lynn of Reading, Ohio was her sister's matron of honor in a cocktail length red velvet gown. She carried a white fur muff adorned with red pom-poms.

Identically dressed bridesmaids were Lois Kahres and Barbara Brenzetti. Nancy Boettcher was her cousin's junior bridesmaid and Cindy Van Setters and Debbie Juchartz, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

Carl Buss of Manchester was his brother's best man and David Steininger of Chicago, Illinois and Joe Kirk of Manchester seated the guests.

Russel Buss was junior usher. A reception followed in the church parlors.

The bride is a graduate of the Edward W. Sparrow hospital school of nursing and her husband is attending Michigan State University.

THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE, this community's home-town newspaper, was purchased Tuesday by John and Barbara Stomman of Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Stomman, owners of The Booster, Milan's Shopping Guide, and also The Manchester Penny Saver, purchased The Milan Leader newspaper from Michigan Publications, Inc., and Frank G. Haney of Ypsilanti in the same transaction.

As readers of this issue will notice, the paper is now a new size and shape. The new owners express their regrets at the lack of news content in this issue, but due to the shortage of time in preparation this week, we're unable to do otherwise.

We ask your patience for just a couple of weeks while we attempt to organize. Thank you.

Manchester coming events

The January Parent Teachers Association meeting will be held at the new high school gym Monday, January 19 at 8 p.m. The meeting will feature group discussions.

George Bergman, Chelsea high school counselor will be on hand to discuss the value of counseling with the high school parents. Seniors will also be discussed by this group.

Parents of intermediate children will have a group discussion on the curriculum for the next three years.

Parents of elementary students will hear a panel of teachers from the grades who will talk over specific problems.

The February Founders Day meeting will be held at the Civic Auditorium on February 16 with a potluck dinner at 6:30 and entertainment by magician R. C. White.

The program of the March meeting will be conducted by the Board of Education with a discussion of school plans and problems. This will be an open town meeting with the public invited to attend.

Meetings

The annual meeting of the Michigan Sheep Shearers Association will be held Monday, January 19 at the farm of Allen Faulhaber at 18424 West Austin Rd., Manchester. The meeting will be held in the old Shore Farm restaurant building and will begin at 10:30 a.m. with discussion of Pleasant Lake Road. The terms of office of three directors, Carl Lesser, Don Balous and Wendell Richardson will expire at this time.

The Washtenaw Farm Council will hold its annual meeting and election of three directors on Tuesday, January 20 at 8 p.m., in the new Farm Bureau office on Ann Arbor-Saline Road, corner of Pleasant Lake Road. The terms of office of three directors, Carl Lesser, Don Balous and Wendell Richardson will expire at this time.

The Freedom Ideal Homemakers will meet Friday, January 16 at 1:30 p.m. for a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Reno with Mrs. Ben Breitenwieser as the co-hostess.

What would you do?

What to do with the funds from the chicken barbecue? This was the question confronting the Optimist club and the Junior Chamber of Commerce when the two groups met jointly Monday at the Emmanuel Church hall. They have on hand in the fund $1,320 and this year it is anticipated that the proceeds may exceed $2,000.

President of the Optimist club, Carl Schabie brought up some of the proposals which included:

1. Give the money to help finance the proposed new lighting system for the village main street. Consumer Power Company proposes that fluorescent lights, giving three times the amount of light as the present ones be installed. It was suggested that the money be used to purchase the new light poles which would be needed for the new fixtures. These will cost about $150 each and 15 poles are needed. Under such a plan the Consumer Power Company would pay any additional cost for installing poles and the village would buy new fixtures. This new lighting system would cost about $90 per month more for electricity than the present set-up.

2. Junior high principal, Ted Tapping proposed that the money be used to more adequately finance the summer recreation program.

3. It was suggested that the funds be put toward a Community Center for young people.

4. Some of the money could be used to help finance a filing system for the township library. All suggestions were referred to a committee including five Optimists, Dr. J. R. Jones, L. V. Kirk, Lawrence DeVerna, Don Sutton and Don Braxton to work with a committee from the Jaycees, to determine the best possible use of the money and to report at the next Optimist meeting.

A guest at the meeting was William Kramer, one of Santa Claus' helpers, who told about one time when he popped five wash tubs of corn and made into cracker-jacks to give to kids on his mail route when he was a rural mail carrier.

The regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service will be held at the Methodist Church hall Wednesday, January 21 at 1:00 p.m. A planned luncheon will be served with Mrs. Don Mackintosh serving as chairman. The worship and program committee are Mrs. Raynor Hensley, Mrs. Clinton Vallet and Mrs. Don Martin. Dramatization and slides on the Middle East will be the theme.

Fire destroys Township home

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ball and their five children lost all their possessions in a fire which destroyed the interior of their five-room home at 8521 Pleasant Lake Road, Freedom Township, Friday.

A neighbor, Eldon J. Condit of 846 Pleasant Lake Rd., summoned Saline firemen to the scene after another neighbor, Wilbert Schabie of 8005 Pleasant Lake Road discovered the blaze at 4 p.m.

The fire, which Saline firemen believe started from an overturned heated space heater, left only the walls standing of the former Girard school which had been converted into a house. There was no dollar estimate available on the loss, which Mr. Ball said was covered by insurance.

Mr. Ball had left four of his children with his mother, Mrs. Margaret A. Ball of 4770 Lincoln Center Road, Lima Township, and was about to visit his wife and five born daughter at a Jackson hospital when he was notified of the fire.

March of Dimes style show Tuesday, Jan. 20

A style show of spring fashions by a famous California designer will be given for the benefit of the Washtenaw County March of Dimes Drive at 8 p.m. Tuesday, January 20 at the Michigan League at 227 S. Ingalls, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. R. C. Kerr of Manchester is among the prominent county women chosen to model outfits both by Koret of California and other American fashion designers. Also modeling will be Mrs. Leo Hoop, Designer; Mrs. Arthur Taylor of Milan and Mrs. Ellsworth Smith of Chelsea.

Mrs. Meredith Babby, who is in charge of community relations and special events for radio station WQIA will be the commentator on the fashion show.

Door prizes will be given away. Mrs. Hart of 1890 Owens Rd., Manchester will have tickets.

This year's March of Dimes drive, with a county goal of $85,000 will aid not only polio but will provide funds for research into the cause and cure of arthritis, birth defects and virus diseases. These points were brought out last Thursday at the kick-off dinner of the March of Dimes chairman from Washtenaw County which was given by the Moose Lodge in Ann Arbor. In addition to the dinner they presented the first check to the drive.

MRS. KERR HONORED FOR SERVICE

Attending from Manchester were Mrs. R. C. Kerr, general chairman, Mrs. Tom Lockridge, chairman of schools and Marie Schneider in charge of publicity. Mrs. Kerr was presented with a floral bouquet for having been working as a chairman the longest of anyone in the county. This is her seventh year as drive chairman. Other chairman appointed by Mrs. Kerr include: Mrs. Richard Knouse in charge of organization; Mrs. Clarence, chairman of the Mother's March; Mrs. Martin Kasal, chairman mailing cards; Mrs. Eugene Best-Schneider in charge of canvassers and posters, Mrs. Norman Wallace and her husband were also at the kick-off dinner. Mrs. Wallace is rural chairman for the county.

Mrs. Kerr noted that the Clowers (girls' organization) will sell balloons to help the drive on January 24.
