Patricia Sogland, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph England, who was taken to Foote Hospital, Jackson Wednesday for a tonsillectomy returned home Friday.

EILEEN TOWNSEND ELECTED TO STATE FFA OFFICE

Eileen Townsend has been elected to the State Office of parliamentarian, Ypsilanti Home-makers of America. Also chosen were two other girls to represent Michigan on the Youth Advisory Council. They are new president, Joyce Dunlap of Chelsea and the retiring parliamentarian, Yvonne Brown of Beaverton. The three are planning to attend the National meeting in Chicago July 13 through 17 and will be staying at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Along with meetings and activities the girls will be modeling clothes which they made at the State Fair in Detroit.

Mrs. Townsend is a sophomore at Manchester high school and attended F.F.A. Camp at St. Mary's Lake, Battle Creek. She has her Junior Homemakers degree and has been active at FFA bake sales, helping with dinners and took part in the style show and also in a skit at the Regional meeting.

In her local chapter she is FFA historian, chairman of the FFA week and style show. She served as big sister in initiation at the local school and is working on her Chapter Degree. There are 85 girls in the local chapter, and 11,064 in the over 300 chapters in the state.

Manchester FFA Chapter belongs to Region 3 which includes Adrian, Brooklyn, Chelsea, Clinton, Concord, Dexter, Hanover, Manchester, Michigan Center, Napoleon, Parma, Petersburg, and Creek, Saline, Springport, Tecumseh, Temperance and two schools in Ypsilanti. The state officers are elected by the two voting delegates from each chapter.
