OUR SAVIOR SPOKE

Seven times our blessed Savior spoke When on the cross our sins He took And died lest man should perish Let us His last and dying words In our remembrance cherish.

"Father, forgive these men, for lo, They truly know not what they do." Now to one contrite thief he cries: "Thou, verily, in Paradise Shalt meet me 'ere tomorrow."

To weeping Mary, standing by,
"Behold thy Son!" Now hear Him cry
To John, "Behold thy Mother!" The Savior's fourth word was "I thirst!"

The fifth was "My God, my God, oh why Forsake me?" Hark, the awful cry! The sixth, when victory was won, "Tis finished." for His work was done.

His last words, as woe and sufferings end, "O God, my Father, I commend Into Thy hands my spirit."

KLUMP RUNS L'itchen Car FOR SHERIFF

Elmer F. Klump

With a pledge to abolish a "code of censorship" in the Sheriff's Department and to fight for the rights of deputies, Elmer F. Klump. 66-year-old Whitmore Lake man, today announced he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff in the Aug. 2 primary election.

Klump, a uniform deputy himself, is the second Republican to announce his candidacy for his party's nomination for the post now neld by Sheriff George A. Petersen, also a Republican. John L. Tice, a former sheriff's officer, entered the GOP nomination race March 17.

Klump said if he is nominated and elected sheriff, complaint books will be "open in their entirety to the presswithout deletions or omissions -at any time of day or night.' Klump further said he will seek "equal rights and equal working conditions" for deputies if he is nominated and elected.

"For years the unform deputy the man who is out on the road day and night, winter and summer . . . has been neglected, abused and forgotten by the heads of the Sheriff's Department. These men, who are risking their health and many times their lives each day in performance of their duty, have never been given proper consideration," Klump asserted. "If I am nominated and elected I mean to remove these officers from the status of second class citizens." Klump, who served as Northfield township constable from 1952 until his appointment as a regular sheriff's deputy in 1958, said a "major trouble" with the present Sheriff's Department is that command officers are "almost wholly ignorant" of the workings of the shifts for which they are responsible He said were he to be elected he would require each command officer to ride road patrol on a regular schedule with deputies. A "roving sergeant" would also be assigned at various time to different shifts and would act as liaison between command officers and the sheriff.

Klump said county taxpayers "are not getting their money's worth" in the present assignment of duty for sheriff's offi-

Klump was born in Sharon township, attended schools in the Grass Lake area and for a number of years worked in and operated garages in the Detroit and Jackson vicinity.

In 1948 he purchased a service station at 9885 N. Main St. at Whitmore Lake which he still operates.

As Northfield township constable for 6 years he operated a township-owned police car and was also a fee deputy for the Sheriff's Department. Since his appointment Jan. 1, 1958, as a full-time sheriff's officer he has been assigned to the serving of civil papers as well as road patrol. He currently is on the midnight shift out of the Willow Village substation

He is married and has three children. Klump says he plans to con tinue employment with the Sheriff's Department until the start of active campaigning in the primary election.

> COUNTY ROAD EMPLOYES ASK BOOST

Washtenaw county road commission has been requested by a union which represents commission workers to grant employes a 45-cent across-the-board hourly pay increase as of April 1.

The request was signed by Milas C. Sexton, president of the Washtenaw County Road Commission Employes' Local 453 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes, and Willard Bowling, secretary of the local.

They said the request is "designed to bring the pay level of the Washtenaw county road commission hourly rated workers to equivalent rates of similar or identical job classifications in the comparable metropolitan area. "Other factors which enter into this request are the failure of the board to increase wages of its-hourly rated employes for more than two years and the inadequacy of the present cost-ofliving formula," they added...

Sexton and Bowling requested a "top level" meeting with the entire road commission, Howard G. Minier, manager of the commission and Patrick Clisham, personnel director of their grand-mother, Mrs. Racine, which was Smith, Jim Miller, Kevin Kirk, held Saturday. They return at the St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor for the past two weeks.
