Career Notes

Jobs for High School Graduates

At eight or nine, youngsters are sure of their goal—"I'm going to be a cowboy...an actress...an explorer...a spaceman." At seventeen, however, they may not be so sure.

Where do their skills and talents lie? How can they develop them—to fashion a career? Perhaps interest lies in commercial art. Talented artists, a modern study outline, courses leading to careers in publishing, retailing, newspapers, magazines, advertising, are available in professional schools.

Teenage son interested in photography? He can study commercial, portrait or illustrative photography, develop his talent and skills under professional instructors. He will have the use of the school's modern equipment including cameras, lights, enlarging machines, etc. Result? A top flight photographer!

Young men are today often excelling women in interior decorating—once regarded as a "woman's" career. Fine opportunities at good salaries exist in all branches of home furnishings.

Required—interest in room arrangement, period, color design. This plus a feeling for fabrics...a flair for color...

Today's high school graduate can study fashion, polish his, or her, creative talent while acquiring technical information at one of the modern Ray-Vogue Schools.

When studies are completed, opportunity awaits in every facet of the fashion industry... as an illustrator, dress designer—or a career girl in fashion merchandising.

Vegetable Deluxe:

Chee-Scalloped Cauliflower

A year-round vegetable favorite makes a fresh springtime appearance in a new version. "Chee-Scalloped Cauliflower", that's easy to prepare, this new dish gets all its delicious cheese flavor from crushed inch-square cheese crackers used with tomato soup in making the sauce. More of the same tasty crackers are crumbled over the top for extra flavor accent. A single medium-size cauliflower makes four generous servings. Here's how:

- Chee-Scalloped Cauliflower
1 medium head of cauliflower, or 1 pkg. frozen cauliflower
1 10 1/2-oz. can cream of tomato soup
1 cup crushed Chee-It Crackers
1 teaspoon instant onion flakes
2 teaspoons chopped fresh parsley, or 1 teaspoon parsley flakes
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Remove outer stalks from head of cauliflower; separate flowerettes and cook in boiling salted water for 10 minutes. Or, cook frozen cauliflower as package directs. Drain. Arrange in greased 1-quart casserole. Blend together tomato soup, half of cheese cracker crumbs, onion and parsley. Pour over cauliflower. Sprinkle with remaining crumbs and dot with butter. Bake, uncovered, at 375°F. (moderately hot oven) for 20 minutes, or until sauce is bubbly hot. Makes 4 servings.

Milk is one of mankind's oldest known foods with records showing that cows were milked as long ago as 9000 B.C. The word milk itself is derived from the Sanskrit "mrit" which described the action of milking.

New methods of pasteurizing milk require about 15 seconds, compared with the old technique which took a half-hour.

The production of one pound of butter requires about 22.8 pounds of whole milk.

Evaporated milk, which is whole milk with only water removed, is now used principally in coffee and as an ingredient in cooking and recipes.

Milk has been a symbol of the good life through the ages. In the Book of Exodus, Moses is told that he will lead his people to a "land flowing with milk and honey."

June Dairy Month, begun in 1937, has become the largest annual promotion and information campaign of the dairy industry.

Cold milk is a summertime refresher, as well as a nourishing food.

How To Cook Eggs
A number of readers have asked for information on eggs. We now have a free leaflet on eggs and how to cook them properly. If you would like one, just write "Eggs" on a postcard with your name and address and send to Lydia Perrins.

To test an egg for freshness, put it in a bowl of cold water. If it sinks, it is fresh. Always have eggs at room temperature when you use them. If they are cold from the refrigerator, hold them under warm water a moment or two before you cook them. Never boil an egg — always simmer it slowly.

MCKEEVER-MURPHY WED
The First Baptist church of Tecumseh was the scene of a lovely June wedding Saturday evening when Miss Judith Ann Murphy and Ronald J. McKeever spoke their marriage vows before members of the nuptial families. Only Miss Murphy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy of the Hogan Highway, Clinton. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wurster of Manchester are the parents of the bridegroom.

The single ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. B. O. Bashore, pastor of the church. The altar was held attractive arrangements of pink gladioli and white daisies. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The only two attendants were matron of honor, Mrs. Harry Sturdevant of Manchester, sister of the bridegroom and Donald VanEtten of Manchester, who served as best man.

For her wedding, planned for simplicity, the bride chose a white ballerina length dress of scalloped nylon lace over taffeta. The very full skirt featured three rows of dainty blue ribbon, accented with bows. The fitted bodice, with cap sleeves featured a scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held by a rhinestone tiara. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Pink sweetheart roses, arranged in a dainty bouquet, were carried along with a lace covered Bible.

Mrs. Sturdevant, matron of honor, was dressed in pale blue embroidered taffeta and wore a corsage of pink carnations.
A reception was at the Tecumseh Union hall. Blue and white streamers and white wedding bells added to the festive occasion. The bride's table was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake, lighted tapers in milk glass candle holders, adding to the picture.

A buffet supper was served to about 250 relatives and friends. Mrs. James Wallace of Tecumseh, a sister of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Eugene Murphy of Clinton, sister-in-law, served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Merle McKeever of Manchester presided at the punch bowl and Miss Phyllis Robinson of Clinton served the coffee. Assisting with the supper were Mrs. Mabel Duncan and Miss Myrtle Mattis, both of Tecumseh.

The gifts were in charge of the matron of honor, Mrs. Sturdevant; Miss Lois Butler of Ann Arbor and Miss Linda Pulasky of Manchester. Mrs. Forest Murphy, another sister-in-law, passed the guest book.
The bride is a 1958 Clinton high school graduate and until recently has been employed at Coscarelli's Dairy Bar. Mr. McKeever attended Manchester high school and is employed by the Clinton Country Markets Inc. The couple will live in Clinton when they return from a short wedding trip in northern Michigan.

SHOWER
Marilyn Breitenwischer was guest of honor at a shower Sunday at the home of Mrs. Danny Goodman of Clinton. The twenty friends and relatives were present from Pontiac, Dearborn, Adrian, Clinton, Tecumseh, Ann Arbor, Chelsea, and Manchester. Miss Breitenwischer is bride-elect of Eldon Lamb with the wedding date July 9th. Pink and white was the color scheme for the affair. Refreshments were served by the hostess and Miss Breitenwischer received many lovely gifts.

DATELINES FROM CARE

600% RETURN ON AID SEUL, Korea—A $200 CARE investment in watermelon seed yielded a 600% return in benefits for 50 farmers and their families in Komak Ri, a refugee village 25 miles northwest of Seoul. With funds donated by Americans, CARE bought the seed in the spring of '59 so that the farmers could vary their crops and increase their income. Result: they sold some 18,000 watermelons; netted $1,200, which they used this spring to buy more watermelon seed, plus apple and peach trees to start fruit orchards.

PHYSICAL STANDARDS LOWERED FOR ARMY SPECIALIST ENLISTMENTS

Physical qualifications for entrance into the U. S. Army Graduate Specialist Program and Vocational Training Field have been lowered. This announcement was made today by M. Sgt. Dan Colasanti, U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 223 East Ann St., Ann Arbor. The change will primarily effect those persons wearing glasses. Up to now, many persons with eye defects have been unable to qualify for guaranteed enlistment for technical school or vocational field training. A survey within recruiting facilities showed that the Army was refusing guaranteed enlistment to highly qualified individuals with minor physical defects in vision and other areas.

In addition, mental qualifications in certain "special" categories have also been lowered. Persons who may have been rejected or told they could not qualify for guaranteed enlistment, and those who may have been in doubt about meeting physical or mental qualifications are urged to contact the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, 223 East Ann St., Ann Arbor.

Easy Does It With New Macaroni-Cheese Recipe

Did you ever hear of making Macaroni and Cheese without the usual basic cream sauce? Well maybe it's just never been thought of... until now. Here then is a top notch recipe for making a basic white sauce wrapped in a single wonderful casserole. And it's wonderful because there's no extra bother of making a basic white sauce. Then for added glamour and taste, there are plump, fresh mushrooms and even more novel, the substitution of Edam cheese for the usual Cheddar. This Easy-Do Macaroni and Cheese is excellent with either Cheddar or Edam, but for Pot Luck purposes, Edam makes it just a "wee bit" different and delicious. How is it done? It's as simple as this: First cook, rinse and drain the macaroni. Then mix it thoroughly with undiluted cream of chicken soup, onions for zip, pimiento for color, eggs and of course, Edam for a pleasingly milk and nutlike flavor. Finally, crown it with a garnish of mushrooms, freshly sauteed in butter, and bake! Such fun... so little time to prepare it... sooooo good. Comments? At the next Pot Luck, just try this novel cooking switch on one of America's old favorites, and see. EASY-DO MACARONI AND CHEESE 6-8 servings Preheated 350° oven 1 8-oz. package elbow macaroni 2 cans cream of chicken soup 1/2 cup chopped onion 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento 4 hard cooked eggs, diced 1/2 pound Edam or Cheddar cheese, diced 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms 2 tablespoons butter Cook macaroni according to package directions except reduce salt to 1 teaspoon. Rinse and drain. Combine undiluted cream of chicken soup, onions, pimiento, eggs, and cheese with macaroni in 2 quart casserole. Sauté mushrooms in butter to garnish top of casserole. Bake 25-30 minutes in preheated 350° oven.

Take the prize at the next Pot Luck with winning, Easy-Do Macaroni and Cheese, made intelligently good with flavorful Edam cheese, plump, fresh, mushrooms and soup.

HEPATITIS INCREASES IN COUNTY

Dr. Otto Engelke, County Health Department Director says that the county probably will experience a record number of cases of infectious hepatitis this year. It is a disease of the liver. There have been reports of over 20 cases in the county so far this year, compared to 29 cases during the entire year of 1959. The number of cases has been increasing since the fall of 1958 throughout the state and nation. Infectious hepatitis is a communicable disease which can cause serious liver damage and sometimes death. State Health Department officials say that the increase during the first part of this year can be associated with contaminated wells in suburban areas.

This is caused by the overflow of septic tanks from the excessive moisture this spring. Dr. Engelke said most of the cases are in Manchester, Whitmore Lake and Ypsilanti areas, and from Hamburg district in Livingston County. The health officer expects 1960 to be the worst year for infectious hepatitis, a jaundice-type virus infection, since 1953, when the county had 129 cases between May 1st and August 31st. Engelke said he is concerned about residents living in areas not serviced by municipal type sewer and water facilities. It is recommended that suburban residents take the following actions to help prevent the spread of this disease: 1. Keep an eye on septic tanks and wells and if they become flooded and overflow, don't drink the water. 2. Obtain water from a neighborhood municipal water supply. Use the neighbor's water only if his well has not overflowed with the possibility of being contaminated. 3. After the well water recedes, clean the well and disinfect it after you have pumped it long enough to flow clear water. Health officers will be glad to show how this is done properly. 4. If you are unable to obtain water from a neighbor or a municipal source, and it is necessary for you to use your well, be sure to boil the water for at least 15 minutes before using. In the meantime have the well water tested.

Manchester received little damage from one of the season's most damaging storms last week Thursday evening. Most of its punch was centered in a line from Kalamazoo to Detroit. This was the second storm of the day and residents were still jittery from unconfirmed tornado reports. High winds and torrential rains turned the village into a scene of disorder as tree branches and power lines tumbled. A large limb fell on a transformer in the west end of town and electric power was curtailed for about four hours. Consumers power men worked to restore the power by 11:30 p.m. Only homes in the western part of town were effected by lack of electric power. Many basements in the area were flooded. Fire damaged the exterior of the Pleasant Lake tavern about 8 miles northeast of Manchester shortly before 3 a.m. Friday. It started outside the building on the northeast corner and was discovered almost immediately by a resident of a nearby trailer camp who summoned the Manchester fire department. Firemen said they were able to confine the blaze to the exterior, but that in 10 to 15 minutes they would not have been able to save the structure. Sheriff's department and insurance representatives were investigating. There is no wiring on the side of the building where the blaze began, according to the owner, Louis Brow, and one was known to have been in the building at the time.

In addition, the first place winner received a $500 scholarship from Pure Oil Co. and will compete in a national road-e-o in Washington D.C. Tom McNutt represented Manchester in the state finals. STATE DOESN'T REDUCE VALUATION

The State Board of Equalization set $650,802,500 as the state equalized valuation of property in Washtenaw County for taxing purposes although the county had requested that the valuation be reduced to $612,000,000. This will allow the county, schools, and townships to raise more taxes for each mill of taxing power given them by the county Tax Allocation Board and will reduce state aid to most school districts in the county. The equalization committee of the County Board of Supervisors had asked the State Board of Equalization to reduce the equalized valuation on real property in the county to the level set by the supervisors when it adopted a county equalized figure. Washtenaw County's equalized valuation was raised by 9.7 per cent on the recommendation of the State Tax Commission, which reported earlier in the year on a three-year field study it had conducted in the county. "The action of the State Board of Equalization was anticipated. Unless the door is poned to some revision, we can't expect any further assistance," Supr. Robert H. Marsh, chairman of the supervisors' equalization said. He added that Washtenaw's protest to the state was on a different basis than other counties. "We believe there was an error in cont. on pg. 2"

WASHTENAW COUNTY REGISTERS 5,320 TRAILERS

Of the 323,995 trailers registered in Michigan, 5,320 are listed as being in Washtenaw County, according to records of the Michigan Department of State. James M. Hare, Secretary of State, pointed out that registrations of both light and heavy trailers are increasing at a much greater rate than are passenger vehicles. "There are a good deal more than twice as many trailers on the road today as there were 20 years ago," Hare said. "In the case of heavy trailers this may be an indication of the increased use of motor transport over rail by many shippers and in the growing popularity among many motorists of using light trailers for hauling camping, cottage, and suburban supplies. Trailer registration fees collected through the first four months of 1960 were almost a half million dollars above those of the same period in 1959. Hare predicted that the use of personal trailers would continue to rise during the next decade. "Many of Michigan's hundreds of thousands of new watercraft owners are going to tire of exploring their own lake and get the urge to put their boats on trailers in search of new adventure in other Michigan waters," Hare said. "The growing number of boat launching sites on our Great Lakes and on our smaller lakes seems to make this trend inevitable."

EARMARKING COUNTY FUNDS FOR ROADS

A proposal that $65,000 be taken from the county general fund to aid townships and cities in repairing damage to local roads and streets caused by the severe spring breakup was referred by the Board of Supervisors back to its roads and bridges committee. The proposal was referred to the committee with instructions for it to determine whether it would be legal to give part of the funds to cities. The committee proposed that the money be taken from non-tax revenues of the county and that $42,000 be given to the County Road Commission and $23,000 be divided among cities in the county. Several supervisors from the cities said they thought that giving county funds to the cities is illegal and that the proposal was designed "to get their vote." Prosecutor William F. Ager said he had checked the law and found that the county could not legally take money from tax monies for this purpose but had not determined whether it was legal to give county collected revenues to cities.
