NOTICE FROM THE MICHIGAN STATE POLICE DEPARTMENT

With November and December averaging a fifty of the annual Michigan traffic deaths, Sgt. Carl Anderson, the Clinton State Police Post, is warning motoris and pedestrians to be unusually vigilant in these hazardous months.

The toll for last November and December was 299, 20 per cent of the 1959 total the same as the 33 year average computed since traffic records were begun. More hours of darkness due to shorter days mean more driving and walking is done in reduced visibility Sgt. Anderson pointed out Frequent unfavorable weather conditions increase hazards. In addition, acl day shopping adds to volume of pedestrian and vehicle traffic in these menths. 'More alert oriving and walking can cut down this year end toll," Sergeant Anderson emphasized. increase their safety. orists and pedestrians must work at it every day. You can't take safety for gran-

Sergeant Anderson offered these safety tips: To drivers: Because traffic hazards increase in November and December, increase your alertness. Take it easy after dark and in bad weather. Increase your caution at hills, curves and intersections - there may be ice or snow. Obey the traffic laws and signs and watch out for the motorist or pedestrian who may not. Safe driving can prevent accid-

To pedestrians: Be especially alert for the added walking hazards of the season. Don't block your vision with packages or other objects. Walk only where motorists expect you, but be , n guard for the motorist who may be inattentive o careless. Be extra cautious at night and in bad weather. Remember, careful walking can keep you unharmed so always take your best steps in traffic.

Periodicals are also available for borrowing as well as books.

Three best sellers were added to the list this week "The Lovely Ambition" novel by Mary Ellen Chase 'Mistress of Mellyn'', a omantic novel of suspense Victoria Hold, and "Born Free''. a most remarkable animal story by Joy Adamson which was recently reviewed in "Life" magazine.

Education Week is announced to the student by the addition of three outstanding books for background reading as well as historical study. These are "America Grows Up," and "America Moves Forward." The series was written by Gerald W. Johnson a distinguished journalist and authority on history. These books were purchased especially for teen-age history students, but adults will find them most entertaining for fast reading.

Classics are usually passed up by the student beause of the unattractive ancient volumes available. Two new editions of standby reading "Kidnapped" by Robert Louis Stevenson and "The Last of the Mohicans" by James Fenimore Cooper have been added to the Young Peoples collection. For historical background reading there is "The Winter at Valley Forge" a Landmark book by F.V. W. Mason "Ticonderoga-the Story of a Fort' by Bruce Lancaster and "Washington and the

OPEN LETTER TO WASHTENAW COUNTY VOTERS

There are several important facts that the voters of Washtenaw County should know about the County Drain Commission before balloting November 8th. These facts establish a record unparalleled in Michigan.

During my six years in office I have installed many, many miles of county drains and apportioned the cost within the benefited district. In the process of doing this work, easements were obtained from the land owners. Moreover, I would be responsible for damages which might occur to property resulting from the work, but consider these facts:

- 1. I have never had to buy an easement.
- 2. I have never had to condemn private property to obtain an easement.
- 3. I have never been asked to pay for damages to any property as a result of my work.
- 4. I have never had an appeal of my apportionment.
- 5. Drain engineering costs have been sharply reduced and even eliminated entirely on some pro-
- 6. The annual per capita operating cost of the Drain Commission has been reduced to less than 14 per person.

If these facts, showing responsible, economical operation of my office, meet with your approval, I will appreciate your vote November 8th.

Sincerely,

JOHN H. FLOOK

Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner Republican Incumbent

America and the New President

The coming national election, according to attorney Joseph N. Welch, looms before Americans as the greatest political question mark in history.

Yet for this nation, he writes in the current issue of Woman's Day, "the next four to eight years involve nothing less than survival. Bleak though that prospect is, that is what we face." No longer can we afford to 2be impressed with what poli-tions. True to the rugged in-dividualism he exhibited in 1954 when, a registered Re publican, he served as special counselor to the U.S. Army in its famous televised "war" with Senator Joseph Mc-Carthy, Mr. Welch is forthright on the voting issue: "I shall look hard and thoughtfully the two candidates. read about them, and listen to their voices. I not care about the par which each belongs. I scare about one thing only shall want him to give sor evidence of being a Washi ton, a Lincoln or a Rooseve And to that candidate who h
