"WAKE UP AND READ" LIBRARY WEEK SLOGAN

"Wake Up and Read" is the slogan for Library Week, April 16 through 22. Manchester area people have always been library conscious. We have had continuous library facilities since 1838 with a public library that is second oldest in the county. Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti libraries were established at an earlier date but Ypsilanti was not in continuous service.

Free public library facilities for the township have varied greatly in the one hundred twenty three year history of the institution. For years it was closely allied with the country school system, for a time it was housed in a portion of a local store. The library was brought into its present existence by the Women's Library Association and it has grown slowly but steadily to its position of importance in the Washtenaw Area Library Association.

Adults who grew up considering the library a children's haven will now find that adult fiction, reference material and periodicals are exceptional for a library of its size. Library service also includes getting a special material for specific needs from the State Library or other large cooperating units.

As the community has grown, so has the library service. It has grown beyond the bounds of the township from which it gets its name and main support. Library service, therefore, becomes a business matter between neighboring townships in order for all of the people in the area to have the advantages of free books. Use of the library has always been supported by Sharon Township both in Manchester and Chelsea so that the residents of that area have had access to public libraries over the years.

Freedom Township residents may, at this time, receive free library cards for book borrowing at Manchester Township Library through recent partial support by their board. The special library service to the Pleasant Lake school will continue only until the end of this term. It will not be possible to continue the same service again in the fall unless further support for the project is available from Freedom township. This service is not to be confused with the regular school library. This is public library service with hundreds of books available for children to borrow at the school instead of having to come to town for them. A volunteer committee from the Pleasant Lake P.T.A. has made this project possible.

Bridgewater Township Board will decide at the next meeting, early in May whether or not they will give their residents who live in the Manchester area the free library service which can be available to them through township support of the service.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

GO SLOW IN SWITCHING COWS TO PASTURE. A sharp change from barn to pasture feeding usually causes cows to lose weight and drop off in milk production. Spring grass is high in water. Cows may not be able to eat enough to meet their nutrient needs. It may take as much as 180 pounds of forage to equal 36 pounds of hay on a dry matter basis. At the start, barn cows out only a few hours. Increase pasture time gradually to get cows on full grazing by the end of two weeks.

APPLY HERBICIDES IN A BAND. Banding requires about one-third as much material as broadcast methods. Point is to delay cultivation as long as possible after banding. Otherwise, cultivating may uncover or throw new weed seeds into the weed-free row. If it's absolutely necessary to cultivate, use low riding row guards to keep the cultivator from throwing soil into the treated row.

DRENCH YOUR EWE FLOCK after lambing. Pastures in the spring are relatively free of worms as a result of several months of cold weather. So it's a wise idea to try to keep them that way by turning ewes out free of worms. Ewes which have lambs can be drenched with phenothiazine. However, it's not advisable to drench pregnant ewes. Instead, use a phenothiazine-salt mixture.

CHECK THE AIR CLEANER on your tractor often to prevent excessive engine wear. Remove the oil cups and fill it with new oil frequently. While you have the oil cup off, take the cover off the stack and look through it to see if it's clear of dirt. Use a cloth or a stick to clean it. Give the cleaner a complete overhaul about once or twice a year.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

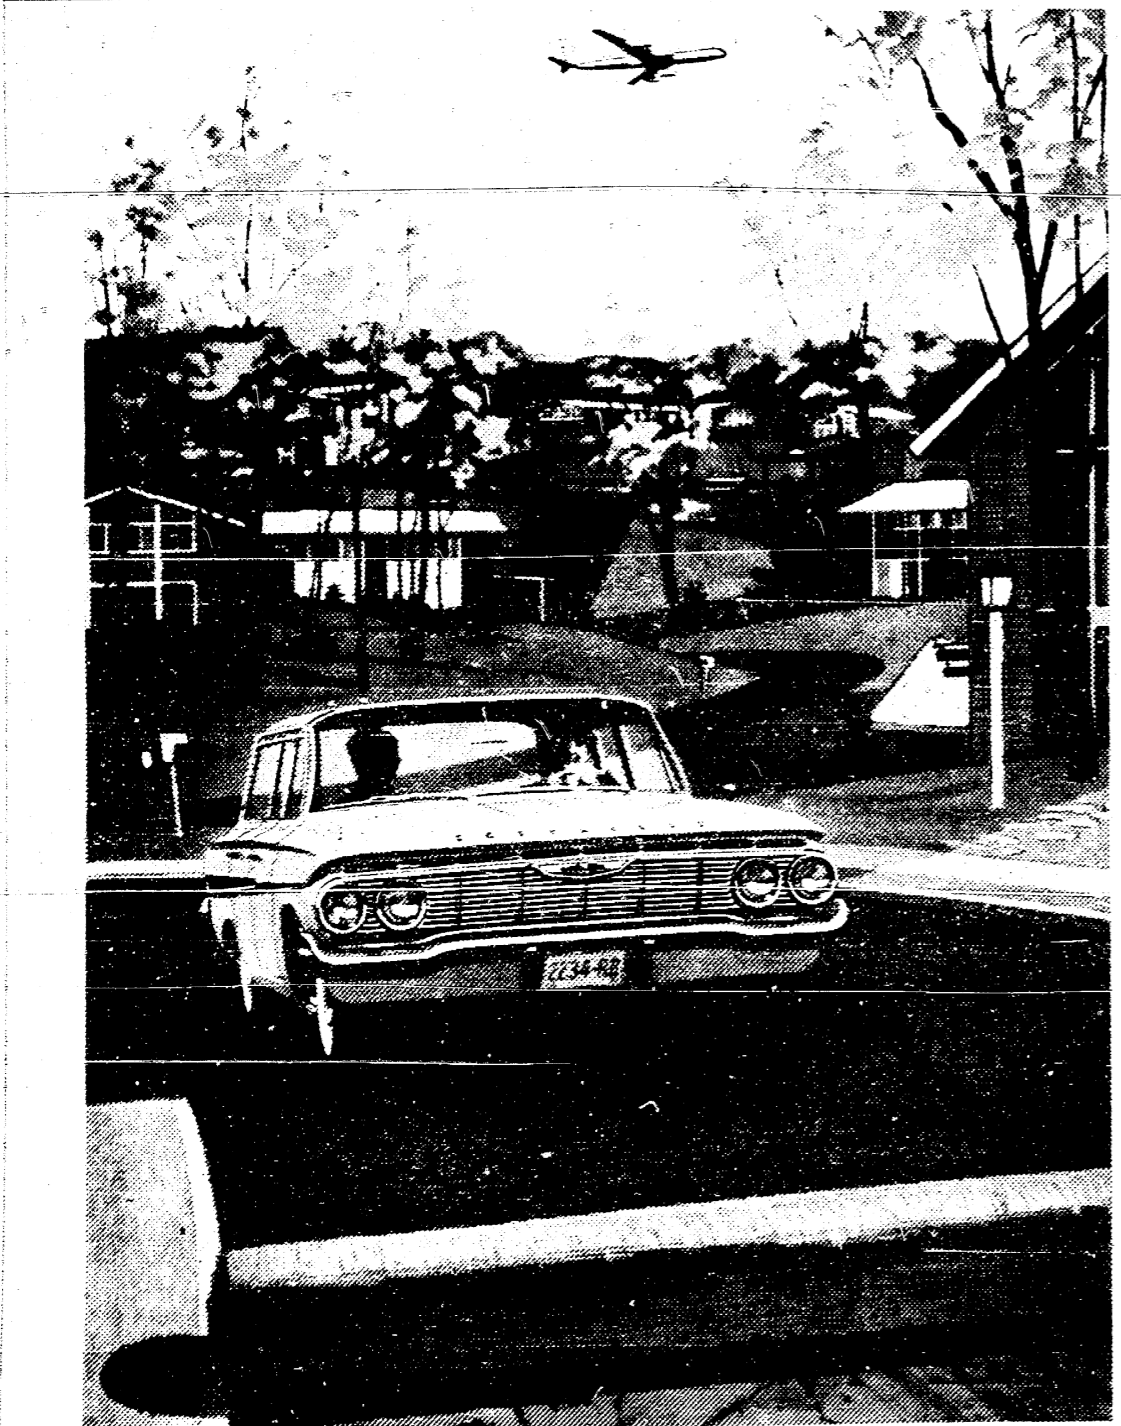

Silence, Please!

Cap Edwards' little boy started taking saxophone lessons a few weeks ago, and they tell me the noise on Upper Main Street was pretty bad.
Then, one afternoon, the Edwards' house was quiet again, and Mrs. Jackson next door figured the boy must have given up tooting his horn. Next time she saw Sis Edwards she asked her about it.
"Well," Sis said, "we knew that racket must be driving you folks crazy. So Cap got a soundproof telephone booth from the phone company second-hand. Junior practices in it to his heart's content. Even I don't have to hear him!"
From where I sit, Cap is living up to one of our oldest American principles — respect for a neighbor's privacy and feelings. You can be sure a thoughtful man like this never tries to force his opinions and preferences on anyone. He's the sort of man who'll go out of his way to have a bottle of beer ready to serve his guests even though he may not prefer beer himself. We can all learn a "lesson" in tolerance from Cap's phone booth.

As Modern

Exciting things are happening today . . . dramatic developments in Gas appliances and the ever-increasing availability of Natural Gas has brought the "space age" right into the home! When you look around at the modern miracles Natural Gas is performing . . . hi-speed cooking units and push-button ovens with automatic controls—refrigeratorfreezers that never need defrosting and automatically keep a supply of ice cubes handy—smokeless odorless incinerators that make the garbage can pass—fully automatic Gas dryers and washer-dryer combinations that make laundering a convenient "anytime, any day, any weather" affair—and water heaters that satisfy "modern living" demands . . . it all sounds futuristic. But no indeed, these household benefits are here today, making the home as modern as a space satellite!

Travel Tips
Language
American tourists are becoming linguists! Tired of having their vacation enjoyment limited abroad, more and more U.S. travelers are learning new languages. In international tourist haunts, English is spoken. But travelers who wander of the beaten path know that a few native expressions are a must. Isn't learning a language a long process? Ottenheimer Publishers, Inc., of Baltimore, Md., studied this problem—discovered that you learn a language faster as fast by hearing and speaking it as by studying it in a book! Language records solve the problem, and Ottenheimer now produces Gateway Language Records in Spanish, French, German, Italian and Russian. Travelers pick up languages fast by sticking to a conversational approach. You'll be surprised at the phrases that come in handy! In Spain or South America: "Su vaca esta en camino" (Your cow is blocking the road) . . . in Italy: "C'è un errore nel conto" (There's a mistake in the bill) . . . and in Russian: "Shufahr, skalkub vy v smachduh Krimlat?" (Driver, what's your rate to the Kremlin?). Learning to get along in another country is easy—and it's half the fun of traveling. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Trolz was Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jacob and family.
Mrs. Ethel DeVerna is a patient at St. Joseph hospital, Ann Arbor where she was taken for observation.

Kitchen of Future
Will Take Orders
Via Telephone
It's a long way in the future, but the day will come when the absent housewife will be able to cook and serve a meal to her family by giving long distance directions to her electronic kitchen by telephone.
Today a housewife who plans to leave home for a few days must plan ahead to provide balanced meals for her family at home. But once the meals are planned and prepared, her electric refrigerator-freezer can keep them ready for heating and serving.
The woman planning a trip should make up menus for each day she is to be away, then shop in advance and cook and freeze dishes on the menu. Casseroles, soups, spaghetti sauce and casseroles, pies and cookies can all be made in advance and stored in the freezing section. There'll be room left for ice cream, jellies and other frozen foods. She should also get a good supply of fresh foods such as bacon, eggs, cheese, butter, cold cuts, fruits and vegetables to store in the specially cooled and humidified refrigerator compartments, where they'll stay fresh a week or more.
Daily menus should be posted on the kitchen bulletin board. After checking them, all the stay-at-homes have to do is reach in the refrigerator-freezer, heat their meals, and eat. The refrigerator freezer will be their "supermarket" right at home, stocked with enough nourishing meals to last for days.

ULES VAN DEGINSTE GETS NEW JOB
Sheriff George A. Petersen has announced the appointment of two marine deputies and a new road patrol officer.
Assigned to check boats on Washtenaw county's 52 lakes and two rivers this summer are Jules Van DeGinste, 49-year-old Manchester resident and Henry J. Fuller, 36, of Whitmore Lake.
The new road patrol officer is Ray Armbruster, jr., 33, of Saline.
Mr. Van DeGinste served as an officer with the Grosse Pointe Park Police Department for 15 years and is employed by the Chrysler Motor Co. in the plant protection department. He has lived in this area for the past 10 years.
Fuller has been a marine deputy for the past three years. He has also worked as a fee deputy with the department in addition to his duties as fire chief for the Northfield Fire Department. He also operates the Whitmore Lake Sheet Metal Shop.
Deputy Armbruster attended Saline schools and served in the U. S. Air Force in 1945-46. He formerly was self-employed and for the past six months has been a fee deputy with the Sheriff's Department. He is married and has four children.
For the past week Armbruster has been working with the department's Detective Bureau and is scheduled to go on uniform road patrol duty this Sunday.
Deputies Van DeGinste and Fuller will check the county waterways for safety violations by boats and will be assisted by civilian volunteers who live on or near the various lakes. In addition, the two marine deputies will inspect all boats which are rented by area liveries to the public. These boats are required to pass safety inspections before licenses are issued to them.
The two marine deputies with Sheriff Petersen and Detective Lt. Vincent J. Snell are scheduled to attend a meeting of marine law enforcement officers to be held next week at Higgins Lake.

MANCHESTER Telephone Lines
By NICK PRAKKEN, Manager
YOU PROBABLY aren't conscious of it—but chances are you're using your telephone more than you were, say, 10 years ago. How can we tell? Because we're a lot busier here at the telephone company handling your calls. For example, 10 years ago our Michigan customers made 9,762,000 calls during the average day. In 1960 we were handling 14,881,000 calls on the average day in Michigan—a 52% increase! Much of this results from new customers, of course. But quite a bit comes from the fact that you're picking up your phone more often because you can call more people, and more people can call you. It makes us happy to know your telephone is working harder for you—saving steps, making life easier and more pleasant.
IT'S HERE — Michigan Bell's Spring Phone Fair. It features a variety of telephone services including the Home Interphone, which lets you use your phone as a communications system right in your home. You'll also see the colorful little Princess phone (it lights!), the convenient wall phone, volume control phone for the hard of hearing—and lots more. Don't miss the Spring Phone Fair—it's at your telephone business office now.

Highest 'Pass' Yet Skydivers Make Trade at 6,000 Feet

ED GREEN DOUG DAILEY Skydivers Pose To Show How It's Done Picture and news story courtesy of Jackson Citizen Patriot

BY RAY V. MEAGHER
(of the Citizen Patriot Staff.)
Doug Dailey, 1949 Ackerson Lake Rd., passed a one-foot-long, rubber-tipped baton to his buddy, Ed Green of Manchester, out around Napoleon Sunday afternoon and set a first for Michigan.

What's so unusual about that? Nothing, really except that the baton passed from hand to hand while Doug and Ed were falling free at a speed of 174-feet-per-second and were 6,000 feet above the ground after jumping from an airplane.

Seconds after they passed the baton the pair maneuvered away from each other and then about 22 seconds later they pulled their ripcords and floated safely to earth.

It was the first time that anyone in Michigan has successfully pulled the baton-pass act although it has been tried many times, according to members of the Jackson Sport Parachute Club who said the feat represents the ultimate in sky-diving maneuverability.

Skydivers are people who like to jump from airplanes and then do tricks and maneuvers while plummeting towards the earth before they pull the ripcords on their chutes at the very last minute.

There's a good sized group of them living in the Jackson area and they spend weekends when weather permits in the sky above Maule Airport at Napoleon gliding about, doing loops and barrel rolls and dives, in short playing like they were birds while all of the time they are heading for a very hard earth at that 174-feet-per-second speed.

SOUNDS EASY.
Doug and Eddie have been doing this kind of thing since 1959 and like the other members of the club they can do all kinds of tricks in the sky by maneuvering their hands.

But Sunday they reached their peak when that baton passed between them. Here's how they did it. They went up in a plane piloted by Al Greenwood of Manitou Beach.

At 7,800 feet Ed jumped out and quickly rolled onto his back and spread out his arms and legs in spread eagle fashion.

An instant later Doug dove out head first and swept his arms down and behind him so that they resembled a sharp V or Delta wing. He caught up with Ed within seconds after leaving the plane and then rolled over and spread-eagled himself out flat in the same position as Ed.

Then by maneuvering their hands and while still plunging downward they came close enough together so the baton could be passed. Then by more maneuvers they separated so when they reached 2,200 feet they had room for both to open their chutes and come safely to earth.

During their maneuvering they were at times as far as 50 to 60 feet apart.

Although Sunday's feat was a first for both, Ed has 96 jumps in his record and Doug 71.

"WONDERFUL FEELING."
They jump from airplanes presumably for the same reason that people soar off ski jumps and climb mountains—because they find it challenging and thrilling.

"It's the most wonderful feeling I've ever felt," Doug said, adding, "I can give no further explanation of why I do it."

"You feel as free as a bird and for a few seconds you really are," Ed chimed in.

Both men seemed surprised when they were asked if there weren't times when they got just a bit frightened when they were up there speeding towards earth.

"No, of course not," they both answered. "What's to be frightened about. You have a 'chute, you know?'"

"Well don't they ever wonder if the 'chute might not open?'"

"Oh no. You make sure that everything is in order before you go up."

"Why if I ever once worried about the 'chute opening I would never jump again but I can't see why I would ever worry," Doug said.
