School Board to Consider Replacement

Two special meetings have been called by Board President Luther Klager for discussion and subsequent appointment of a board trustee to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Breitenwischer who passed away Oct. 25th.

The preliminary discussion revolved around the untimely passing of Mr. Breitenwischer and the implications that would be felt by the local school program.

During Mr. Breitenwischer's nine years of office, he had spent a great deal of his time with the concerns of educating the areas youth. His attributes had given the board of education a sense of balance.

In discussing his strengths as a board member, the following items were identified as guides for a possible successor:

1. He was a man that liked young people and children.
2. He had faith in our younger generation.
3. He had high principals and goals.
4. He was a positive thinker.
5. He was a good Christian and portrayed this in his actions and thinking.
6. He never shirked duties which were his.
7. He never shifted his responsibilities to another person or group of persons.
8. He had patiently educated himself as to school operations and methods.

The board of education, after some discussion, agreed that these are attributes that all outstanding public officials should follow.

It was decided by the board that after two meetings they should be in a position to contact the person of their choice. If he should accept, he would be sworn into office at the regular meeting, November 13th.

Banana Cream Pie That's Different

There's always a new way to make a heavenly pie and this glamorous Glazed Cream Puff Pie is really newsworthy. Its light and delicate shell is an oversized cream puff that's not at all hard to make. The delectable filling, made with vanilla pudding mix, is topped with a raspberry gelatin glaze and sliced bananas. Try this for your next company meal and enjoy your guests surprise and pleasure!

GLAZED CREAM PUFF PIE

1 package Jello-O Vanilla Pudding	1 package raspberry-flavored gelatin
and Pie Filling	1 cup boiling water
2 cups milk	8 to 12 ice cubes
1 baked 9-inch Puff Pie Shell, cooled	1 banana
	Sweetened whipped cream

Combine pie filling mix and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Cool only about 5 minutes, stirring once or twice. Pour into Puff Pie Shell. Chill.

Dissolve gelatin completely in boiling water. Add ice cubes and stir constantly for 2 to 3 minutes, or until gelatin starts to thicken. Remove unmeted ice. Slice banana over pie filling. Cover with gelatin. Chill until set—about 30 minutes. Garnish with sweetened whipped cream, if desired.

To make Puff Pie Shell, combine ¼ cup butter or other shortening and ½ cup boiling water in saucepan. Bring again to a boil. Reduce heat and add ½ cup sifted flour all at once, stirring rapidly. Cook and stir until mixture pulls away from sides of pan in smooth compact mass—takes about 2 minutes. Remove from heat. Add 2 eggs—one at a time, beating thoroughly after each. Then beat steadily until mixture is satiny and breaks off when spoon is raised.

Spread dough evenly over bottom and sides of a 9-inch pie pan and pile remaining dough around rim. Bake in hot oven (425°F) 35 minutes. Remove from oven and prick bottom and sides with a fork. Bake another 5 minutes, or until dry and crisp. Cool before filling.

That it is to aid and support a local industry, has been shown in many communities where a high level of prosperity has been maintained through steady employment and the retention of money within the trade area. This is to our advantage to do business whenever possible with such firms as the Lemble Distributing Co.

Alexandra's leadership in beauty culture training has been won by upholding the finest traditions of art and science that have been developed by the profession as a whole.

Mrs. Ethel Nettleship and Mrs. Ethel Dunham, the directors of the school, have prided themselves upon the record of the play clothes and rush outside to play hop scotch. When it becomes dark, they get inside and get the Chinese Checkers board and usually play this until bed time. The teenagers, you guessed it, are listening to the radio. ## Makes A "Lot" of Sense

The other day I was driving by Slim Thomas' used car lot, when I noticed he'd put up a big neon sign. Trouble was, one of the letters was upside down. So I drove in. "Hey, Slim," I said, "that's a nice new sign—but one of the letters is wrong-side up!"

"Heck, I know that," laughs Slim. "Matter of fact, I had it made that way deliberate. Figure folks were bound to come in to tell me about it—and it works! I must get four or five new prospects a day."

Then he grins down at me. "By the way, Joe," he says, "I could give you a pretty good deal on that car of yours..." From where I sit, "look before you leap" is especially true whenever you start to give advice. Unlike Slim, some folks may not welcome your suggestion—especially about personal tastes! Whether your neighbor takes coffee with his meals, or prefers a glass of beer—that's really his own "business." Giving folks credit for knowing their minds is a good way of keeping friendships "right-side up."

The bride and groom were married at the Baptist Catholic Church in Monroe, Michigan, on Saturday, November 4th, of Miss Tanis Wolf and Mr. Jack L. Ekin. The Rev. A. Joseph Immel performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the solemn high mass at 11:00 a.m. before an altar decorated with white candelabras.

The bride wore a gown of imported silk peau de poie. It was fashioned on simple princess lines with a cuffed empire bodice, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A ponytail floating bash panel, accented by a single cabbage rose forms the empire chapel train. Her matching headpiece was an open crown between Anne of peau de poie with a simple rose at forehead. It held bouffant butterfly three layered French illusion. The bride carried a prayer book adorned with a dainty bouquet of three ymbidium orchids from which soft lines of stephanotis and pearl beads gently floated downward and backed with ivy and other greens.

The maid of honor was Miss Patricia Wolf, sister of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of satin peace in antique gold. The gown was fashioned on princess lines with scoop necklines, three-quarter sleeves and modified bell-shaped skirt. The full gathered bustled back was accented by a self fabric cabbage rose. The matching headpiece was a velvet open crown pillbox topped by a bouffant veil. She carried a miniature fireside basket with an arrangement of white pomps tinted gold and wheat stalks and croton leaves. Miss Beverly Dvovich and Miss Bonnie Vivian were the bridesmaids, and wore gowns of the same color and style as the maid of honor. They also carried flowers same as maid of honor's. Howard Peterson served as best man. Ushering were Herbert Williams and David Little.

New Books Added To Local Library

Ninety new books have been added to the local library collection, after Exchange Day at Ann Arbor library last week. Each library in the Washtenaw Area Library Association exchanged a third of its books from the collection which has been loaned to the area by the State Library for the 1961-62 project. There are new books for adults as well as all ages in fiction, fact and for reference.

One hundred percent success was attained by Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive this week with a total of $8,575. Campaign chairman, Clarence Fielder, points out that every donor and every solicitor in the area is to be commended for the accomplishment. Each division did slightly better than last year and the average individual gift is a fraction higher than before.

However, the most marked success in the campaign is due to Industry. Michigan Gas Storage and Marshall-Schable, Incorporated, initiated pay-roll deduction this year. Their fund representatives, Carl Settle and Tom Marshall, and their cooperating employees are congratulated by the chairman for their progress.

Double A. Products under the guidance of D. A. Roach and Herbert Upton, Jr., expanded the company's efforts on the part of the 1961-62 drive and general employee solicitation was conducted at the plant for the first time. A study of the campaign and the company's support of the area in which it is located have brought about most favorable results and a general feeling of mutual helpfulness.

Increased cooperation on the United campaign at Chrysler Proving Ground and the tremendous assist from the local employees of nearby companies, Ford Motor, Tecumseh Products, Hoover Ball and all of the others, who designated their gifts to the Manchester fund are especially thanked by Chairman Fielder and the committee.

Once more Manchester area is to be congratulated for the spirit of cooperation that is the mark of success of the community.
