March is Red Cross Month

Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross is beginning the second phase drive for the headquarters badly needed for this. Plans for the building presented to the public summer and about one third of the $200,000 needed for the building funds are not of a Community Fund but the Red Cross drive was ended during the regular campaigns for the United and Community Chests in County. A building fund is a special project by its

T. Hawley Tapping of Ann Arbor will give a presentation of the Red Cross Building campaign at the Optimist Club dinner Monday night at the Adel Church hall in Manchester. A complete analysis of needs will be given, along with pictures of the present of the new plans.

Washtenaw County Chapter moved their new quarters recently announced in last week's Enterprise. Many people congratulated the announcement with the Washtenaw County plans. It is hoped that Washtenaw County Chapter can soon follow suite and be housed in a new location on Packard Rd. where voters can find parking facilities more.

Oak Grove Will Hold Annual Meeting

The Oak Grove Cemetery Association will hold its annual meeting on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, March 13th, in the Village Council Room. There will be three Board Members elected for a period of three years each.

If any lot owner is not satisfied the way things have been run you will get better satisfaction by coming to the meeting and explain it to the whole board, than if you corner a board member on the highway or call him on the telephone.

If you are afraid to come alone, bring another lot member with you. There will be report given for what we have done in the last three years and also a comparison with some of our neighboring cemeteries.

Immunization Clinic Scheduled

Dr. Scott Harris, President of the Washtenaw County Medical Society, announced today that booster immunizations against polio and smallpox will be offered without charge to students in the Junior High Schools of the county during the month of March. In those school systems which do not have separate Junior High School buildings, the immunizations will be offered to students in Grade 9 and 10.

The schedule for the clinics is Manchester Junior High, March 20th.

Students eligible for this program will be given request slips to be filled out and signed by parents and returned to the school prior to the date of the clinic.

The school clinics will offer smallpox vaccinations and/or polio injections to children in the grades specified who have not had either of these injections within the past four years or longer.

No diphtheria-tetanus boosters will be offered at these clinics this year.

The major reason for the changes in the immunization program is that there has been excellent immunization of entering school children prior to enrollment in Kindergarten. This has made the previous practice of including Kindergarten or First Grade children in the booster Clinics unnecessary.

Polio vaccine for the booster clinics is being made available through the Michigan Department of Health.

These annual booster clinics, now in their 22nd year, are made possible through cooperative efforts of members of the County Medical Society who volunteer their time, the schools, lay volunteers from the community and the personnel of the Washtenaw County Health Department.

Book Exchange Day March 8th

March 8th is Book Exchange Day for the Washtenaw Area State Library Book-Loan Project. One third of the books loaned to each participating library for the year 1961-62 will be exchanged at this time with the other libraries in the area.

At Manchester Township Library, this will mean that about 90 books new to our library will be ready for circulation next week. The Book-Loan Project is free service from the State Library involving 3000 books which were loaned to the Washtenaw area last June. The local library may also send to the State Library for special requests for readers in the area.

Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Mrs. Donald G. Eyestone

The St. Mary's Catholic Church in Manchester was the scene of a double ring ceremony, nuptial high mass, Saturday, March 3rd, 1962, at 11:00 a.m. The Rev. Fr. William Schneider united in marriage Miss Sara Louise Scully, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Scully of 214 Ann Arbor St., Manchester and Mrs. Donald Gene Eyestone of Fort Lewis, Washington, where he is stationed in the U.S. Army. He is the son of Mr. Kenneth W. Eyestone and the late Mrs. Eyestone of Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

The bride looked lovely in her sister's floor length gown of rosepoint lace over satin styled with a princess neckline banded in appliqued lace petals, trimmed in iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt of nylon tulle over satin has inserts of appliqued lace and ended in a chapel train. A matching lace claw cap trimmed in iridescent sequins and seed pearls holds the silk illusion finger tip veil. She carried stephanotis and a white orchid on a prayer book.

Mrs. Douglas Eifring, of Saline, sister of the bride, was the Matron of Honor. Best Man was Mr. James T. Scully of Manchester, brother of the bride. Ushers were Mr. David Walton and Mr. Gale Koebe both of Manchester. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the St. Mary's Hall. Their home will be in Tacoma, Washington where he is stationed nearby at Fort Lewis.

The bride is a graduate of Manchester High School and attended Marygrove College in Detroit. The groom is a graduate of Upper Sandusky High School and he attended the University of Ohio. He is presently stationed with the U.S. Army.

We Are Responsible....

Each Federal Income taxpayer is responsible for the facts and figures entered in the return he signs. This is true even if it is prepared with the assistance of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, District Director R. L. Nixon said today.

In advising taxpayers of this responsibility, Mr. Nixon said, we must remind them that they are responsible under law for all entries and all supporting documents in their returns no matter who prepares it.

The Internal Revenue, he said, welcomes returns prepared by competent professional persons, but such assistants in many instances can only rely on information provided by the taxpayer.

The taxpayer themselves are the persons primarily and finally responsible, he said.

Price, spice and everything nice!
Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole carload of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? (The wonder would be if you settled for anything less—once you get your hands on one at your Chevrolet dealer's!)

Gas Pumps Short

How 9.2 gallons of motor fuel can be put into a car having a tank rated to hold 8.7 is a stunt that recently aroused the skepticism of a motorist and representatives of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's weights and measures section alike.

The result was the rejection of eight of the 10 gas pumps at a Southfield service station for short measure. The owner of the station pleaded guilty in Southfield municipal court for having in possession a false measuring device. He paid a $30 fine and costs of $10.

A shortage of as much as 10 per cent on one pump was reported by Department inspectors who tested the pumps after a motorist informed Southfield police that he had been charged for 9.2 gallons of motor fuel. The most he had ever been able to get into his compact car in the past had been 8.3 gallons. Police notified inspectors.

The owner soon had pump repairmen on the job fixing the eight rejected pumps out of the 10 pumps at the station. State men re-inspected the pumps after the repair job and rejected two of the eight. One of them was now delivering a 10 per cent overage of motor fuel to the customer. The other pump could be started without resetting it to zero before delivering to a customer which is not permitted under Michigan law.

Diploma Mill for Nurses Outlawed

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett, and Alice C. Dorian, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Board of Nursing, announced today in Lansing that the Texas School of Practical Nursing, a mail order operation based in Dallas, has been denied a license to solicit students in Michigan. The school has been the subject of numerous recent complaints to the State Board of Nursing, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office, following a series of classified advertisements in Michigan newspapers.

Solicitation by advertising or otherwise violates Michigan law, it was emphasized, unless license has been obtained from the Superintendent of Public Instruction in conformity with the requirements of the Michigan Private Trade School Law, which applies to all activity in this state regardless of the location of the principal office of the school.

Attorney General Kelley expressed appreciation for the cooperation of representatives of Battle Creek newspapers and the Michigan Press Association, which worked with the Consumer Protection Division to terminate the illegal solicitation and to obtain deposit refund for Michigan residents who had answered the advertisements.

Dr. Bartlett, Attorney General Kelley and Miss Dorian cautioned against this and other mail order "diploma mills", suggesting a check with the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Board of Nursing before advertising is accepted or individual contracts entered into. For the convenience of newspapers and potential students, a list of education operations acceptable for licensing is maintained in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The Michigan Board of Nursing has compiled a list of Schools of nursing approved by that board. These lists are obtainable upon request.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

What is 4-H?

4-H Club Work for boys and girls is a part of the National agricultural extension system which reaches every State in the United States, Puerto Rico, and many foreign countries. 4-H Clubs usually are organized and conducted under the immediate supervision of county extension agents. Each member does a piece of work, under supervision of local leaders, that will demonstrate or teach better ways in homemaking and agriculture. Through the various worth-while activities carried on by the clubs, an effort is made to develop in the way young people qualities that make an understanding man or woman. Each member keeps a record of costs, labor and results; explains the work to others; makes an exhibit; and writes a final report which summarizes the whole year's work. The members consist of boys and girls between the ages of

In organizing a club the young people select their own officers, appoint their own committees and make up their own programs. They hold regular meetings where parliamentary procedure is practiced, the programs made in advance are carried out, demonstrations given, besides some recreation. There is also work in judging, special 4-H days, dramatics, pageants, tours, and camps. The 4-H Club work brings parents and young people together through common interest and builds attitudes and ideals which lead to constructive efforts which help to improve the whole community.

Civil Service Training Center

Three state officials joined today in warning Michigan citizens against mail order schools which offer coaching or training services to civil service job candidates. Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett, and State Personnel Director Franklin K. DeWald, raised their voices in unison to emphasize that no such schools are licensed to solicit students in Michigan; that the Civil Service Commission neither requires nor accepts their credentials; and that Michigan courts have found such operations illegal and against public policy.

Certain mail order civil service schools domiciled in other states are offering their services by direct mail and by classified advertisements in newspapers. Among those currently reported to state authorities are: Lincoln Service, Inc., and General Training Service.

Attorney General Kelley cautioned that no civil service training school can legally do business in Michigan and Dr. Bartlett added that solicitors for such schools cannot qualify for licensing under the Michigan Private Trade School Law.

World Day of Prayer to be Observed
Christians on six continents and many islands will participate in the observance of the World Day of Prayer on Friday, March 9. The day of prayer begins at dawn on the Tonga Islands in the Pacific. As the sun rises around the world, prayers will be offered in cathedrals, in churches of brick and of thatch and out of doors. Prayers also will be led by church women in hospitals, schools, business offices and factories.
All observances will be using the same themes, hymns and meditations. The service of worship comes this year from the minds and hearts of the women of Uruguay.
The Manchester area World Day of Prayer Service will be held at 2:00 P.M. at the Sharon Evangelical United Brethren Church, located at the corner of M-92 and Pleasant Lake Road.
The planning committee of the local church met with Mrs. John Price on Wednesday, Feb. 28th to complete the program. Those on the committee are Mrs. Harold Buss, Mrs. Alton Gehring and Mrs. Clyde Gieske. As a part of the Service of Worship, a dramatic presentation for World Day of Prayer, 'An Unbroken Line' will be given by the ladies of the host church.
Following the service, all are invited to the Fellowship Hour in the Church dining room. The committee in charge of the Fellowship Hour are Mrs. Arthur Wahl and Mrs. Robert Pratt.

New Optimists Initiated

Three new members were initiated into the Manchester Optimists Club last Monday night by membership chairman, Luther Klager. They were left to right in picture, Ted Koceski, High School Principal; Eugene Bentschneider, of the Manchester Tool and Die Company; and (far right) George Koda, publisher of the Manchester Enterprise. Klager is third from the right.

Two out-of-town guests, Herb Estes and T. Hawley Tapping, both of Ann Arbor, were introduced by Franklin M. Reck. Tapping gave the members a brief talk on the work of the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross, describing how 1400 voluntary workers in the county are handling the important business of the Red Cross—the Bloodmobile, Home Service training courses in waterfront, safety, first aid, disaster relief and other subjects. Seventy-five of these volunteers are in Manchester. Herb Estes, member of the County Drive Committee to build a new Red Cross headquarters, followed with slides showing the crowded conditions of the present headquarters in the Nickells Arcade, and showing an architect's rendering of the building being planned for Packard Road.

It was announced by George Koda and Franklin M. Reck, local chairman of the Red Cross Building Drive, that the full story of the work being done by Manchester's 75 Red Cross volunteers, will be carried in next week's Enterprise, March 22nd.

First Aid Course to be Given Over T.V.

Red Cross Chapters in Central, Michigan, Northern Ohio, and Northern Indiana will be taking to the airways by presenting the Red Cross Standard First Aid Course over Television. The seven week course will be offered over WILX-TV, Channel 10, beginning April 9th, at 9 a.m.

This will be the first time in this part of the country that such a course has been offered by the Red Cross over a commercial TV station. There has been one prior venture of this type, a highly successful course that was taught in the Milwaukee area last year. 1200 people passed the course given through that channel.

Corporal William Carter of the Michigan State Police, an authorized Red Cross First Aid instructor, will teach the course. An examination will be held in each of the participating counties at the completion of the course. Those who are enrolled in the course and successfully complete the exam will be awarded the Red Cross Standard First Aid Certificate.

Those wishing to participate in this course are requested to register in advance by sending $1.00 to "First Aid, WILX-TV, Box 380, Jackson, Michigan". The dollar will cover the cost of the text book and workbook.

Registration may also be made by contacting the Washtenaw County Chapter, 211 Nickells Arcade, Ann Arbor.

Life Saving topics to be covered in the program will include control of severe bleeding, artificial respiration, and First Aid for poisoning. First Aid, by Red Cross definition, is the "immediate and temporary care given to the victim of accident or sudden illness until the services of a physician can be obtained". Files of the Red Cross and other organizations are full of instances where a proper knowledge of First Aid has been responsible for saving a life.

Civil Defense officials recommend that at least one person in every family take a First Aid Course. They point out that in the event of enemy attack or disaster of any kind, that doctors, and hospitals might be unavailable for a long time. The difference between life and death could very well depend on the First Aid treatment they received.

Red Cross, which has been teaching First Aid for over 50 years, points out that when an accident strikes in the home or on the highway, or anywhere else, a proper knowledge of First Aid can often keep an individual safe.
