

SENIOR THEME

From time to time we will try to show you some of the outstanding work which some of our classes are doing. This week we are giving you an example of Senior English themes.

THE SEAMAN'S TALE

Four years ago I lived in a small village near the sea which had a population of not more than 400 people. The times were hard and many people were starving. I owned my own fishing ship but I did not have enough money to pay the labor to help me fish.

For a week I hunted around finding men who were out of work and would like a job fishing. The only wages I could promise them was part of the money which they got in selling the fish they caught. The men agreed to that and the next day we were off. My ship was especially designed to hunt whale and that is exactly what we did.

We were hardly out to sea for more than two days when we spotted a medium size blue whale. For a half hour we maneuvered the ship around in position to try and get a good shot. The whale was not more than 200 yards away so we aimed the harpoon and shot. We got a direct hit and the whale started to fight desperately. The men were in the small boats and out to the fighting whale in a matter of minutes. Two hours later the whale was dead. It looked like a porcupine because it had so many harpoons stuck in it. The men were happy but did not want to turn home. They were not satisfied with one whale, they had to have two.

Four days went by without seeing a thing. However, on the fifth day our luck changed. We saw a white whale that was so big it would make the water in the cove around a castle rise four feet. It was at least 100 feet long and weighed about 5 tons. The whale was not moving about much and within 5 minutes we had the harpoon sticking deep into the surface of the whale. The whale fought violently for three hours until the men thought it was safe to get in their boats and finish him off. The whale was about 3000 feet from the ship and the water all around was red from the blood.

When the men from the boats came within 2000 feet of the whale they noticed it was still and was not moving. When they were about 1000 feet from the whale they saw thousands of sharks tearing at the whale's body. In less than an hour all that was left of the whale was its skeleton.

The men never witnessed anything like this before in their lives and had to go home with just one whale and a very fantastic story to tell.

Freshman

During the past week, the Sophomores have been conducting their Freshman Initiation week.

This week during which all Freshmen have to honor the Sophomores. The Sophomores have set up certain rules which the Freshmen have to follow. Some of these rules are:

Say the O.R.L.D., which is Honorable Sophomore, I bow down to your supreme superiority. You are handsome and beautiful, and I am but a measly worm. I am honored to do your bidding. Now I humbly crawl away.

Carry SOPHOMORE'S books, pens, pencils, etc., when asked, during noon hour, before school, and after school, only.

No books in your lockers; carry all your books in a paper sack or a burlap sack.

PARASITE

In a study, half the other day five students filled their fountain pens from a bottle of ink. The thoughtful student had brought for his own use. In a math class the few students who brought tablets had to supply the rest of the class with paper on which to work their problems. Ink, paper, pencils—day by day a number of students call on somebody else to furnish supplies they should have brought themselves.

One sheet of paper or one pen will not be a hardship on a generous lender; but when next week's sheet is loaned day after day and never returned, the cost mounts real steadily. Many students coming from poor homes find it a hardship to supply their friends with supplies in addition to themselves. Those from wealthier homes begin to resent the habitual borrower. Is it fair for a few students to supply the rest?

stinginess and thoughtlessness are causes of borrowing.

Parasites live off other plants; borrowers live off other human beings. Are you a parasite?

FRESHMAN VIEWS ON INITIATION

Well, it's almost over. When I say "almost over" I mean, of course, Freshman Initiation time. That is, during the past week, we have been treated like we just burned down the school. No, we weren't given medals. Mostly, the initiation consisted of taking part in saying the "creed" and other fun things. During wartime, fun games like these were called "atrocities".

Now the big test comes up. Whether or not the Freshmen can pass the famous initiation dance remains to be seen. But don't be surprised if next week you read "How I Escaped Brutal Injury From The Sophomore Class."

SEE all you lowly Freshmen at the dance, respectfully yours, the MOST lowly Freshman M. "phizzy" Koda

No make-up or hair torts can be worn, no smoking of hair before or during school; girls can't carry purses.

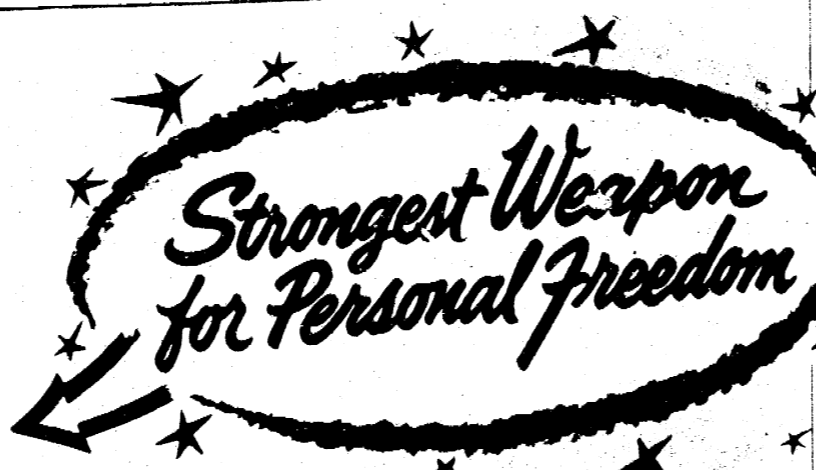

Can't go up town during noon hour, without a sophomore with you.

Rules apply from 8:00 A.M. until 1:00 P.M.

Certain odd combinations of clothes were required to be worn.

Saturday October 27, 1962 there will be a dance for the initiates.

The attire for the dance will be made out of sheets and burlap bags. They may wear vegetable souredges, rubber boots, men's colored apron coats, and a nylon stocking over their head.

Mrs. Anna Yungclas Dies at 98

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna M. Yungclas, long-time resident of Iowa and Manchester, Michigan will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday at the Jenter Funeral Home in Manchester. Reverend Jesse D. Epps, pastor of the Manchester Methodist Church will officiate.

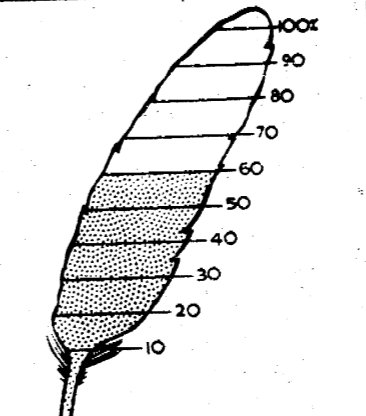

Mrs. Yungclas was 98 years old on April 29. With her husband, Henry T. Yungclas, she came to Manchester in 1946 from their farm in Webster City, Iowa. Mr. Yungclas passed away in 1952.

Mrs. Yungclas was one of the few surviving covered wagon pioneers. She was born near Streator, Illinois, in 1864, the daughter of a wounded Civil War soldier, John W. Argubright and Jane Hall Argubright. At the age of five she traveled by covered wagon with her family in a wagon train to Webster City. In the late Eighties she was a school teacher in Rapid City, Dakota Territory in 1890 she married Henry T. Yungclas of Webster City and settled down for the next 56 years to farming near Webster City.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Franklin M. Reck of Manchester, two sons, William H. Yungclas of Webster City, Iowa, and James A. Yungclas of Renwick, Iowa; a step-daughter Miss Florence Yungclas of Webster City, Iowa; two sisters and two brothers are still living. They are Ralph Argubright and Mrs. John Obenchain of California, James Argubright of Garnet, Indiana and Mrs. Milton Fowler of Kalamazoo, Michigan. Her descendants number 14 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Yungclas was a member of the First Congregational Church of Webster City, Iowa and of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church of Manchester.

Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Manchester. Friends may send contributions to the Methodist church Memorial Fund instead of flowers if they wish.

Fund Drive Hits 60 Per Cent

Forty per cent to finish this week! This is the aim of the 90 volunteers who are working on the Manchester Area United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive. The sixty per cent mark on the big red feather on the Davittor store was reached Monday afternoon.

Leading in the collections so far are Double A Products and the Manchester Public Schools. Double A has a payroll deduction plan for its employees for the first time this year. John Althouse, chairman, reports that pledges in to date total 90 per cent of the plant's goal, with two departments yet to hear from. He is confident Double A will exceed its goal by the end of the week.

Ted Tapping, chairman for the Manchester Public School Division, has heard from 98 per cent of the teachers and employees of the school system, with a total of $440 collected. The student coin card collection amounts to $125 additional with high school still to report. The Junior High School Student Council managed the unusually successful coin card drive among the student body again this year.

Campaign Chairman, Eugene Bentschneider is confident the $8,982 goal will be reached shortly. Mr. Bentschneider is especially appreciative of the lift Double A's performance has given to the general drive.

Coming Events

Owners of the A & B Market, Jay and John Lantis

Groceries, groceries and more groceries! That is the word from A & B Market on East Main Street, as the owners, Jay and John Lantis list their store with IGA. IGA stands for Independent Grocers Alliance.

The local store will be serviced by the Lee and Cady Division of Detroit. In joining this international organization the local men hope to serve their customers even better. The combined selling power of this organization is second only to that of the world's largest corporate chain.

The local store will be serviced by individually-owned wholesale suppliers who operate giant modern warehouses in many cities, from which member stores procure all of their inventory requirements on a low "cost plus fee" basis.

"Every IGA retailer, regardless of the size of the store benefits from membership and whether he operates a country crossroad store doing $5000 a week or a super market doing his $50,000 a week he does his buying at the same low price basis as the proprietor of a giant urban supermarket," Jay said.

John and Jay are especially anxious to have their patrons know that the high grade quality meat will continue to be sold in their store. The meat is selected by trained packing plant personnel and again inspected when it arrives in Manchester. Any meat that does not meet their rigid inspection will, of course, be rejected.

The Lantis brothers have been in the grocery business a long time. Jay was in his father's Napoleon store for 13 1/2 years before coming to Manchester more than a year and a half ago. Jay graduated from Chelsea high school. He and his wife and their four children, Debra 6, Michael 5, Dawn 2 and Dianna 1 year, live on Stoney Lake Road near Napoleon. John graduated from Napoleon high school after their parents, Agnes and Robert Lantis moved from Chelsea to open the Napoleon Grocery Store. That was how the grocery stores were named A & B, John and Jay remarked. A and B are the initials of their parents first names.

John is married and lives in Napoleon. The couple have a daughter, Dena, two years old. Most of the time John spends working with his father in the Napoleon store while Jay operates the Manchester store.

The local market size has been increased to accommodate a complete line of merchandise and now covers a total of about 5,000 square feet of floor space. There are 9 full time employees and 2 part time clerks at the store.

John and Jay say that by joining this grocery alliance they will be better able to serve the people of the Manchester area.

Youths Receives Scholarships

Seven young men from the county received scholarships to MSU Short Course. First year scholarships were awarded by the Washtenaw County County Banker's Association to Robert Weisenreder of Saline; Charles Smith of Milan; Malcolm Reinhardt of Gregory and Eldean Finkbeiner of Clinton.

Second year scholarships were awarded by the Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis to Charles Koenn, Chelsea, and William Lutz of Saline. Second year scholarships were awarded by the Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis to Charles Koenn of Chelsea and William Lutz of Saline. Also Richard Brassow of Dexter received a year scholarship from the Caulkins Foundation.

Neighboring Notes

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beissel entertained Miss Betty Cummings, Mrs. M.L. Cummings and Mr. Henry Smith. They went to Detroit to see Cinemas and had dinner in Ann Arbor. The party was in celebration of the birthday of their niece, Betty on October 31.

Comfort, silence and luxury to challenge any car from anywhere

There's a lot underneath the beauty of the '63 Chevrolet. Its roomy, comfortable body by Fisher screens out noise and shock. There's instant response in a choice of 6- or 8-cylinder engines. A host of refinements to make it run and drive like new longer, and plenty more that make it hard to believe it's a low-priced car. But you'll know your dealer can prove it!

50 MILES OF CABLE MAKES DIALING POSSIBLE

Approximately 50 miles of underground cable is now being ploughed-in to provide modern, direct distance customers of the Macon Telephone Exchange. Ken Conway, Tecumseh phone manager, says dial instruments are being installed to replace the crank type magneto phones now used by the Macon subscribers.

Conversion work for hooking up with General Telephone's Tecumseh, Saline and Britton exchanges and with the Bell Telephone Milan exchange on schedule. Initial surveys and publications determined the placement of boundaries to locate people in their chosen locality, according to general areas of interest.

HOUSE WARMING

A House warming was given for Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walkowe by their neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fielder and Mr. and Mrs. Art Fehr.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

LIVESTOCK WATER is an essential in winter as in summer. For best results, livestock need adequate ice-free water in cold weather. Besides the bother of breaking ice in water troughs, it usually costs more to feed livestock with cold water than it would to warm the water artificially with use of electric heaters. Set the thermostat at 45 degrees. Above this isn't economical—much below, the surface of the water is likely to freeze.

MOST FARM FIRES happen during the fall and winter months. The best method a farmer has for controlling a fire is to have a good water system. See if some changes need to be made. If the lines carrying electricity to the pump are broken or burned through, you can't pump the water. If the meter is on the house, it might help to re-rig the farm wiring. A central distribution pole will give you more sense from the electricity and it will be easier to run an independent circuit to the pump.

CANCREASITIS IN POULTRY FLOCKS is a common occurrence and can cause a profit. A milk outbreak can be cured by using hydrogen peroxide. The bleach is applied from the bottle to the raw wounds and bloody feathers. It is painless, stops bleeding and removes blood stains. It causes a severe reaction, however, treating individual birds takes too much time. Deblanching will probably require less labor and be more effective.

CONSERVATION RESERVE CONTRACTS which expire December 31, 1961, can be extended another year if you choose. Don't destroy your future cover on the land until you get the details of the new program. Conditions will be similar to those for existing contracts.

NOTICE COPY - DEADLINE TUESDAY NOON

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862—the same year that

IN MICHIGAN, farmers were harvesting badly needed grain for the Union armies. Michigan was one of the Union's important suppliers during the Civil War. And, after the war, the State's grain farmers found a good market with Michigan's pioneer brewers.

For even then, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation. Beer still provides enjoyment for folks in Michigan and a good living for the many employees and suppliers of the Brewing Industry.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

TUESDAY KNIGHTS EXTENSION CLUB

Mrs. Clark Norgaard entertained the Tuesday Knights Extension with 10 members and visitors present. Roll call was the "Biggest Event in Our Life in the Past Year."

Mrs. Eileen Disbrow joined the group. Ruth Rutherford and Eva Gilbert presented the lesson on "Family in the Midst of Change." A comparison was made between home and family of today and in 1915.

There was a discussion on the characteristics needed in children's world. Some of the qualities include: responsibility, morally righteous, optimistic, courageous and able to work alone. The next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. with Mrs. Dewey Gilbert as co-hostess. The lesson will be the Christmas in German Tradition. Roll call will be a Thanksgiving poem.

IRON CREEK CHURCH ELECTS OFFICERS

At the annual meeting and election of officers of the Iron Creek church trustees appointed for three year terms are Dewey Gilbert and Tom Cushman. Clark Norgaard was appointed for a three year term as deacon.

The treasurer is Loren Trolz; secretary, Mrs. Blanche Norgaard; social chairman, Mrs. Dewey Gilbert; assistant social chairman, Mrs. Harold Keasal; flower chairman, Mrs. Willizm Dresselhouse; Deaconess, Mrs. Emmett Noggle; Missionary chairman, Mrs. Alvin Brazee; Organist, Joan Trolz and Mrs. Harold Fisk; senior choir director Mrs. Harold Fisk; Junior choir director, Mrs. Richard Disbrow; ushers are Tom Cushman, Dewey Gilbert, Wayne and Gordon Moore and Sam S. Armstrong; Edward Brazee, Stanley Lewis and M. Watne.

Trustees whose terms do not expire this year are Emmett Noggle, Chas. Carlton, Lawrence Paul, and Irving Kuhl. Terms of deacons who have not expired are Tom Cushman, Charles Lewis and William Dresselhouse.

It was decided to have a church council made up of a representative from each group to meet with the trustees once a month. Rev. Soltan of Spring Arbor expects to supply for Rev. Alvin Brazee for the next few months.

Well, GEORGE ROMNEY,

what are you going to do about our STATE FINANCES?

The real question here is not alone one of money—but, mostly, one of serving people. Can a state government which is bankrupt, deeply in debt and poorly managed provide the right kind of services for the people of Michigan? Or can a state with a sound financial structure and which is well-managed provide better services? Under which kind of government will the people of Michigan benefit most? Better schools. Better mental health facilities. Better employment services. Better social services. All of these services, to be better, must be supported by a sound, well-managed state financial program.

Sound financial management for Michigan starts with spending reform. Spending reform does NOT mean the cutting of vital services. It does mean improving the quality of these services by eliminating waste and duplication. Then we need tax reform to make sense out of our present crazy-quilt tax program. A new tax program must reflect the wishes and the ability to pay of all the citizens.

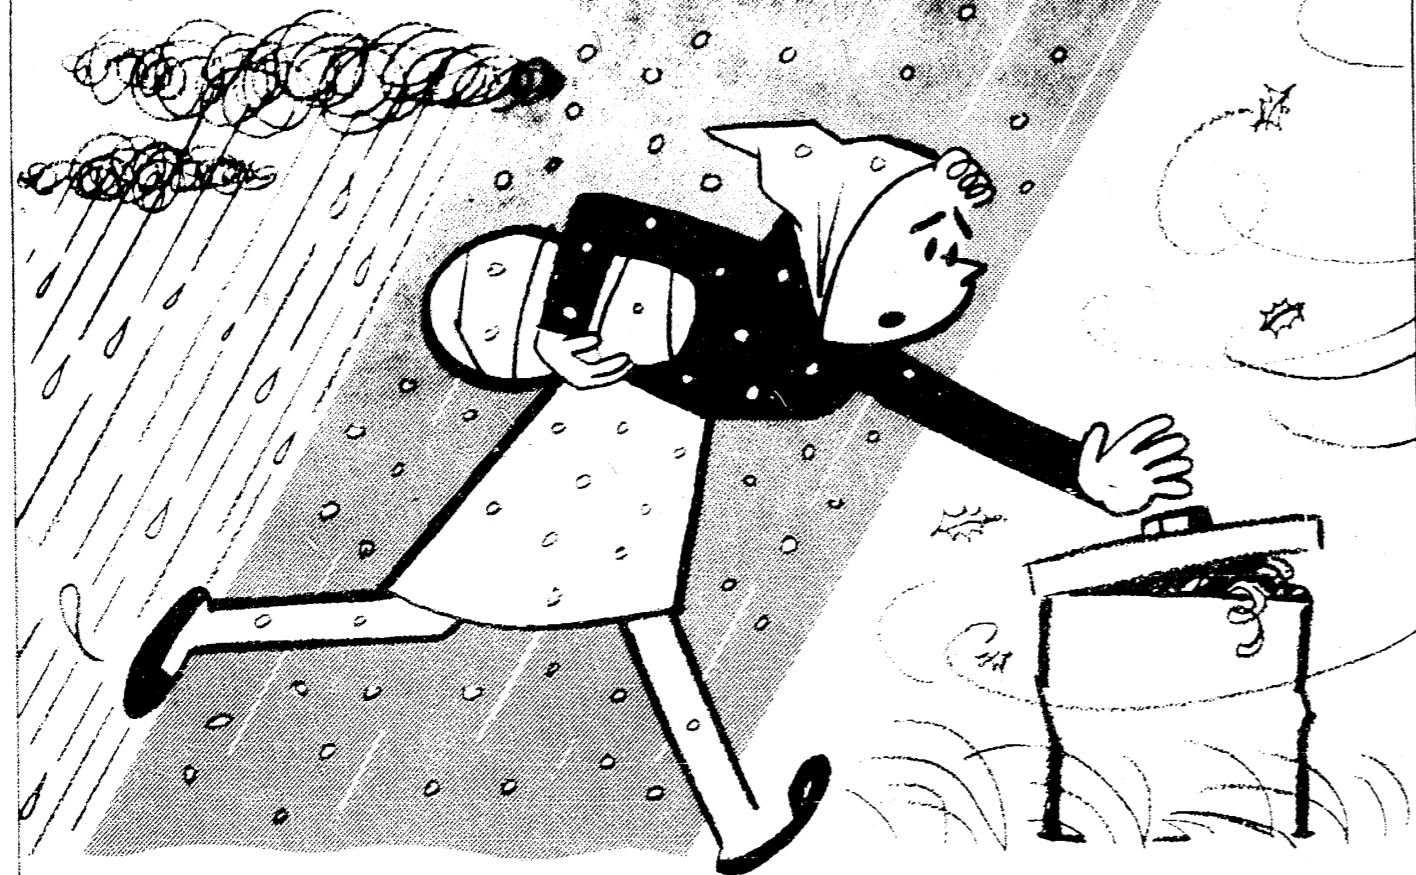

LEADERSHIP in Lansing is necessary to bring all sides together to work for a sound, equitable financial program that will benefit all the people of Michigan. I'd like to put my experience in leading groups of people with diverse ideas to work for you.

Will you give me a chance to PROVE what a new team in Lansing can do?

DISPOSE OF GARBAGE INDOORS... INSIDE A GAS INCINERATOR

The "Garbage Can Gallop" is that dash you take to the garbage can and back when the weather is bad. It's a futile rush, though, because nobody can outrun the rain, snow and wind. A Gas Incinerator is the solution. Inside your house a clean, compact Gas Incinerator will consume garbage, papers, even bones... consume them without smoke, odor, or noise. Clinton Shares Local Blood Bank

Three teams of solicitors for the Clinton Community Chest will be working in Southwestern Washtenaw County for that portion of the Red Cross Drive that is included in the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive. This area is included in the Manchester Blood Bank because Red Cross is "built" on county lines rather than school districts. The drive for membership and gifts is therefore taken for the Red Cross at the time the two villages have their annual drive for Community Funds. This fall, the Clinton drive dates are November 4 through November 10.

Those participating from the Clinton area are: SOUTH WEST section: Mrs. Jacob Bauer, general chairman for Red Cross; Mrs. Floyd Jacob, Mrs. Tom Carlton, Mrs. Robert Roe, Mrs. Lloyd Gibson and Mrs. Chas. Curtis.

Scout News

NORTHEAST section: Mrs. William Moeller, chairman; Mrs. Robert Girbach, Mrs. H.P. Schmidt, Mrs. Lloyd Randall, Mrs. Knowlton Brown.
SOUTHEAST section: Mr. Bruno Papsdorf, chairman; Mrs. Elmer Alber, Mrs. L. Lightfoot.
All Clinton solicitors are to report to their captains. The captains will report to Mrs. Jacob Bauer, Clinton Chest Board member and general chairman of the Clinton-Washtenaw County solicitation.

Coming Events

Wednesday, Nov. 7 the Guild of Bethel church will meet at the church with Mrs. Ted Parker and Mrs. Stanley White in charge of the program.
Third year Clovers will meet with Mrs. Robert Masten Monday.

Most of the (2319) Cub Scouts, their adult leaders and their Den Mothers of the Portage Trails, will become acquainted this month with the rugged heroes of the nation's early wilderness trails and the Old West.

The theme for the Cub Scouts for November is the Buckskin Pioneers. During the next four weeks Cub Scouts will learn about such pioneers as Daniel Boone, Lewis and Clark, Davy Crockett, Kit Carson, and "Buffalo Bill" Cody. It will require reading books about these pioneers and making models of early homes in the West and models of their clothes, furnitures, tools, and weapons.

An old buckskin suit can be readily made by the Cub Scout with the help of his mother. They can use old brown slacks and an old shirt dyed and with a good bit of fringe added. The hat can be made of old fur pieces and brown moccasins are worn.

Log cabins are made from corrugated cardboard with a door and window cut out. Logs and singles are outlined with two ice cream containers and a broom stick are used to make a butter churn. A split log and some pegs make a log bench. A cardboard barrel becomes a well. Oatmeal boxes pasted together are used in a log-rolling contest.

Models of the articles are made at home by the Cub Scouts and then brought to the monthly pack meeting when all the dens meet together with their parents. Further information can be obtained from the Boy Scout Service Center located at 106 S. Main Street, Ann Arbor.

Shower Given

There were 80 present at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Barbara Bertke and Roger Trolz who are planning their wedding on November 10th.

The party was held in the Iron Creek church hall Tuesday evening. Guests included members of the church and neighbors and friends of Mr. Trolz. The honored couple received many lovely gifts. Out of town guests were present from Chelsea, Tecumseh, Brooklyn, Vineyard Lake, Onsted, and Manchester.

1963 Auto Tabs

As 1963 white on green license tabs go on sale in all 83 counties November 1 James M. Hare, Secretary of State, reminds Michigan car owners that pre-weighed weight tax application forms will not be mailed this year.

"Each year since we cut out this costly practice in 1958 we receive a few complaints," Hare said, "but we have also heard from numerous taxpayers who feel that this is one service they will gladly do without if it results in saving hundreds of thousands of dollars each year. On this point, especially when we are operating on a curtailed budget, we agree with these economy-minded citizens."

Tecumseh Players

The Man Who Came To Dinner opens in Center Theater Tecumseh.
The Man Who Came to Dinner will run a second week beginning Thursday, November 1 through Saturday, November 3, at 8 p.m. in the Glass Room of the Tecumseh Community Center. The opening play of the Tecumseh Players third season is a hilarious comedy. One of George Kaufman and Moss Hart's best. Recently the players developed a sense of team work and became more professional with every production. Several of their members are appearing with the Clark Lake Players in the summer and the group is fast gaining the recognition their efforts deserve. Season tickets are being sold this year by writing Sidney Turner, 111 Pine St. Tecumseh and individual tickets are sold at the door.

"I like the way modern concrete roads keep their riding smoothness!"

The National Road Test confirms for taxpayers that concrete provides lasting riding quality.

Concrete and asphalt were tested side by side on 5 loops in the recent National Road Test, sponsored by the American Association of State Highway Officials. Loaded trucks traveled 17 million miles over the hundreds of pavement test sections.

At the end of test (two years of traffic), the surviving sections were measured for riding quality. Concrete averaged "very good." Asphalt averaged "fair."

It's with good reason that concrete is preferred for important roads such as state primary routes. The low upkeep cost of concrete saves taxpayers money year after year.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Families employing household employees working by the day, week, or throughout the year, may unknowingly be doing them an injustice by failing to report their earnings for social security purposes, Robert A. Kehoe, District manager of the Ann Arbor Social Security points out.

Any cleaning woman, maid, cook, baby sitter or handyman, who works for as much as $50 every 3 months should have his earnings reported and the social security taxes paid. If a maid comes to your house to do cleaning or laundry as infrequently as one day a week and is paid as little as $3.85 for her day's work, her earnings must be reported if she continues to work for you each week in the calendar quarter and earns $50 or more. The law has been on the books since 1951, but it is estimated that there are still many householders employing domestic servants part or full time who are failing to comply. The householders frequently does not learn of the law's application to him until his employee makes a claim for social security benefits.

Mr. Kehoe urged all employers who pay domestics $50 or more to get in touch with the Internal Revenue Service without delay.

OBSERVES 93rd BIRTHDAY

Clarence Gilmore, observing his 93rd birthday, Tuesday, October 16. During the past year he has been dividing his time between Manchester and Fowlerville with his two daughters, Mrs. Alvin Clark and Mrs. Julia Ruttmann.

Saturday his daughters entertained at the Clark home at a dinner for his immediate family and his brother and sisters. Later in the day other members of the family dropped in to pay their respects. Although Mr. Gilmore is staying with his daughters at present he still maintains his home in Tecumseh and is following closely the efforts to save the St. Peter's Church of Tecumseh of which he is a member.

Noting the beautiful weather we are having this fall Mr. Gilmore remarked, "There was snow on the ground 93 years ago, this time of year and what's more it stayed all winter--'til the next April. He admitted that he doesn't remember the heavy snow that sent farmers into the fields to bring in their corn which they had previously picked and put in piles, but he does remember hearing his father talk about it. That snow storm came on Clarence Gilmore's birthday, Oct. 16, 1869. There was no let up in the snow until the next spring.

Mr. Gilmore was born in Macon township, Lenawee county, the oldest son of James F. and Julia (Bradley) Gilmore. Of the six children four are living. One sister, Lulu Gilmore, 89 years, lives in Ridgeway and another Mrs. Alta Boyce, 87, lives in Tecumseh. His brother, Ray, 83, lives on the homestead near Macon.

He married Minnie Pomroy in November 1893. She died in 1943. They had three daughters and one son. A daughter, Gladys died at 15 years, and his son Stanley also has passed away. Besides his daughter, Beatrice Clark he has another daughter, Mrs. Julia Ruttmann of Fowlerville, Mich; three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

He was a farmer until he was fifty years old. At that time the family left the farm and moved to Tecumseh. He says he doubted if he'd enjoy having to be told what crops to raise and what fields to leave idle. But he adds, with a merry twinkle, "We'll have to admit that somehow the farmers manage to produce much more on smaller acreage.

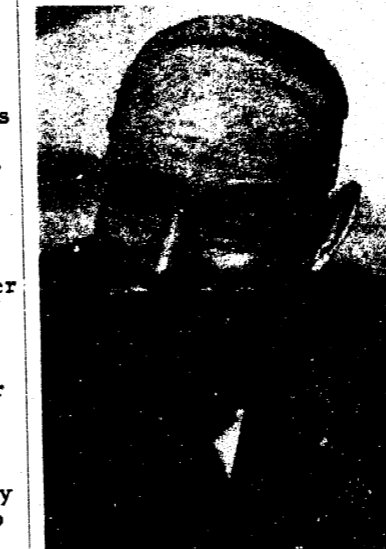

In his years of farming, Mr. Gilmore never had a tractor. He especially liked to raise lambs. In 1913 he bought his first four cylinder Ford car, complete with carbide lights, which he admitted that he didn't like and had them changed to a generator the first chance he got.

Remembering his childhood, he looked down at a white scar on his right hand. He and his brother had come home for school a 3/4 mile jaunt and as he kicked off his boots he accidentally hit the stove leg and it fell off.

The stove tilted back and the tea kettle of boiling water tipped off burning his hand severely.

"We always had our chores to do when we were children and among them was churning. This was done a good well. Probably some won't remember-- it was the kind with little rubber buckets on a chain in a pipe that brought up the water. We didn't have ice, but that water was good and cold. "Yes, I was born in a log cabin, but it wasn't long until father built on a kitchen and then later tore down the cabin and built the house in which my brother lives today.

with a dash chura. It may have been a slow job but that butter was very good, especially on our good homemade bread. "As I remember, we always had a kerosene lamp but my father never carried one down into the cellar. He always took a candle, believing it to be much safer.

"We did our own butchering in those days. That home-cured meat tasted fine on cold winter days. We had "I don't believe we used to even when we give credit to the road crews and mechanized equipment we have to clear out the roads. I remember one particular winter we had had so much snow. In March most of it melted but the first Monday in April (that was town meeting night) it started in again and was snowed in for days. That winter we had five or six feet of snow on the ground most of the time. That was in the days of rail fences and the snow piled up around them. A heavy crust formed on top and children and adults skated across the fields and fence tops. You could not get through the roads anyway.

"You know, we used to have a lot of fun. I just don't believe that children have that much fun any more today. There just wasn't anything to compare to a good sleigh ride with everyone joining in to go to some home in the neighborhood for a party."

Mr. Gilmore still likes to go. Until last year he has spent the last 17 years in Florida. He believes going to Florida has prolonged his life. Not only the weather has agreed with him but he enjoys playing shuffleboard and taking part in the contests there. He goes for frequent walks in the neighborhood but doesn't take the long walks he did a year ago. He enjoys reading and some television programs. He follows politics closely and doesn't remember ever failing to vote in a residential election. He plans to have an absentee ballot sent to him from Tecumseh this year. He firmly believes people should take an interest in their government--study the issues at stake and vote!

Coming Events

Holds Meeting

Mr. Charles A. James, Jr., Executive Vice-president of Maginnis and Associates Inc., Chicago, Ill. will speak at the regular meeting of the Washtenaw District Nurses Association at the Ann Arbor Public Library auditorium November 8 at 8 p.m.

Mr. James, a recognized authority in many fields of group insurance, will address the group on the subject of "The Professional Nurse In and Out of Court." Mr. James has twice received awards from Toastmaster International. He is a graduate of Columbia University and did graduate work at Rutgers University following his service as a Navy pilot in World War II. He has had wide experience in the insurance business and since joining Maginnis and Associates, Inc. in 1952, he has served as consultant, Missouri State manager, vice president. All nurses are welcome to have this chance to hear this important subject discussed.

Neighboring Note

Lauren Miller and James Engel of New Baltimore Michigan surprised Lauren's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Miller Friday. They are students at the Evangelical Lutheran Seminary at Columbus, Ohio and returned to Columbus Sunday.

YOU COULD LOSE YOUR REPRESENTATION!

Remember July 18?

Memories are short these days. So much is happening that we sometimes forget the events of only a few months ago.

But, when we vote on November 6, we'd better remember July 18.

That was the day when the Supreme Court of Michigan threw out, by a one-vote margin, the State Senate apportionment we voted for just 10 years ago. The court told us we had to take the kind of apportionment demanded by Gus Scholle, regardless of the fact that the people had overwhelmingly rejected it at the polls.

By that same one-vote margin, the Court also cancelled the primary election and told the people they might have to elect 32 Senators on an at-large basis.

This could easily have meant that all the Senators would come from one or two counties, depriving us of our voice--of any voice--in the Senate of Michigan!

Only action by the U. S. Supreme Court saved us! And the fight isn't over yet.

What does this mean to us on November 6?

Well, the present Governor has said that the Michigan Supreme Court decision, which almost cost us our representation in the Senate, was "A great victory for the people." Which people, Governor Swainson? Certainly not those of us who live here. Certainly not the 1,269,807 of us (a 294,289 majority) who voted for the present Senate plan that the Michigan Supreme Court threw out.

Fortunately, the Governor's opponent, Mr. George Romney, supports a Senate apportionment plan which provides effective representation for all the people. He also supports the right of the people to vote on the kind of legislative representation they want. Romney has called the Swainson-Scholle apportionment steamroller a "power grab." He's right.

When we vote on November 6 we ought to remember what John Swainson wants to do to our voice in the legislature. We ought to remember where George Romney stands.

We ought to remember that Governor Swainson's appointee, Attorney General Kelley, deserted the people and argued for Gus Scholle.

We ought to remember that two Justices of the Supreme Court are up for election, and that we can change the make-up of the Michigan Supreme Court by electing two new Justices.

Let's remember July 18 on November 6. Let's do what we can to see that we still have a voice in the State Senate.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

A former Manchester resident, Mrs. Elizabeth Ahrens will celebrate her 90th birthday, Sunday, Nov. 11. She was the fourth of six children of Sabastian and Helen Diebold in Sharon township. Her one living sister is Mrs. Francis Houck of Norvell, who will be 95 on December 28. In her early years she worked for Dr. Kotts, a dentist in Manchester and attended the Manchester Methodist church. November 15 she married Henry Ahrens of Norvell township. They had four children, Harvey of Wayne; Homer of Ft. Charlotte, Fla.; Archie of Jackson and Mrs. William (Junaita) Pierce of Manchester; seven grand children; and fourteen great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Elizabeth Ahrens

Mrs. Ahrens will be remembered for her kindness to people of the community. Whenever illness or tragedy struck Mrs. Ahrens was always on hand to help in any way she could. She was good as a practical nurse but had no formal training. One time a child was very badly burned in a house fire and there was no one able to help the doctor—except Mrs. Ahrens. Although she had never taken care of that type of injury, under the direction of the doctor, they managed to save the child's life. The child's mother was nearly blind and could not be of any help in caring for it. She remembers that sometimes people were very grateful for what she did and sometimes they didn't say "thanks". But that didn't matter and the next time trouble struck Mrs. Ahrens was ready to do what she could.

She never shirked hard work. She enjoyed it and found satisfaction in a job well done. She liked to bake. Before there was a bakery in town she baked for the village—took orders and baked bread at home. She recalls of having to be called out of bed to sell her last loaf of bread on several occasions and finding herself getting up extra early to make biscuits for her own family.

Manchester Leads In County

Manchester led the county for the Republican party individual small gift collection. A total of $223 was collected in the Manchester area by Mrs. Stanton Roesch and her 6 solicitors. This involved some 50 contributors. The largest single amount was $10.

Red Cross To Recruit Volunteers

The Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross has announced plans for an intensive volunteer recruitment drive during November. A tense international situation, increased numbers of local residents in uniform and an ever expanding population, were given as reasons for the recruitment. More trained volunteers are needed to work in the Red Cross disaster Preparedness program, to serve as drivers in the Motor Service, and to work in the expanding Blood Program. Preliminary plans for this intensive recruitment were discussed at a meeting of Chapter officials and their Public Information committee. Tentative plans call for a concentration appeal through the county newspapers and radio. Commenting on the need to expand the volunteer ranks, Chapter Chairman, James M. Davis noted that Red Cross performs specific functions for the federal government and that it has a continuing responsibility to County residents if a natural disaster should occur in the area. "The Red Cross has always been known as an agency that is ready to help in any emergency," Davis said, "and by expanding the volunteer ranks now, the high degree of readiness can be continued to meet any emergency."

"Good things happen when people give—and people will give when they recognize the need," Davis said. "We'll get new volunteers as if we help them realize the need for their services."

Arbiters Set Christmas Party

Members of the Arbitier Society voted a contribution of $5 to the United Fund at their Monday meeting. A Christmas party is planned for their next meeting night, Monday, Dec. 3 with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. and a fifty cent gift exchange. On committee will be Mrs. Jesse Walker, Mrs. Pete Wallace, Bertha Wallace and Mrs. Louise Way. Mrs. Joe Schwab will be acting secretary for the next few weeks.

Manchester's United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive is slowly, but surely reaching its quota. Eighty per cent was turned in by Enterprise deadline this week and final result should be available within a week.

For the first time, Double A Products has offered a payroll deduction plan for its employees and the result has been most rewarding. The 300 men and women working at the largest plant in the area have shown an unusual amount of interest and community spirit. The Industrial Division was delayed a week in starting and a few workers had already given to their house-to-house solicitor, the total gift from the employees to date is $2350, which was $850 over the goal.

Mr. H. H. Upton, Jr., General Manager of Double A Products Co., states, "the management group of Double A Products Co. is very pleased with the record contribution made by Double A employees to the Manchester United Fund."

"It is encouraging to note that Double A Products Co. employees participate and support such a worthy project as the Manchester United Fund."

The committee and team from the plant responsible for this record are: John Althouse, Don Crites, Paul Kappler, Victor Wurster, Franz Hayes, John Neudorfer, Charles Detling, Irvin Gill, Eldon Lamb, Irene Wurster, Ronald Ross, Robert Dorr, Norman Yarkow and Harry Martin. The team-of-the-week recognition goes to this group.

With this tremendous "shot in the arm", the local drive is sure to make it this year, Eugene Bentschneider, campaign chairman, states. The statistical picture of the drive is so different that predictions have been difficult to make. The house-to-house solicitation in both the village and rural areas has felt the reduction and it remains for the Industrial Division to make up the slack.

There are still key units in the Businessmen's Division to be heard from and a few outstanding contacts to be made. A plea from every solicitor on the drive is for those who have not made their donation or settled their type of gift to do so before this weekend.
