COME TO THE FAIR Exhibits Awards Fun for all

FIVE GENERATIONS: Represented at the 102nd birthday observance Friday for Mrs. Caroline Bruns (seated center) were five generations. Mrs. Bruns, now living at the Washtenaw County Hospital, is a former Manchester resident. Mrs. Bruns holds her five week old great-granddaughter, Marie Kathleen Gruber. Beside Mrs. Gruber are Mrs. Martha Bruns (left) 77, a daughter-in-law, and Michael Gruber, (left) 28, a great-granddaughter, and Mrs. Carl Gruber 49 a granddaughter.

Mrs. Caroline Bruns celebrated her 102nd birthday, August 3 at the Washtenaw County hospital where she had lived for over a year. When asked what is the secret of living such a long life she said, "It might be hard work." It was in 1952 that she decided that she was getting too old to work any more.

She was born August 3, 1860 in Schalla, Germany, the daughter of Bernard and Anna Elsie Kuhl. She came to the United States with her family in 1884 and on November 11, 1888 she married Lewis Bruns at Green Garden, Illinois.

They moved to a farm in Sharon township on New Years Day, 1890. Her husband died in 1907. In 1920 following the death of her father she moved to 223 Riverside Drive in Manchester and soon became a familiar figure. Neighbors knew her for her unfailing warmth and good humor and for her music. She could be heard for many hours of the day or night playing her organ and singing German hymns.

She was known to everyone as "Grandma Bruns." She lived alone, without "modern" conveniences and raised a small garden every year, until September 26, 1957. It was then that she fell while adjusting a window shade. She moved to a convalescent home in Tecumseh, not because of poor health but it was feared that she might not be so lucky if she fell again.

She now lives at the Washtenaw County hospital in Ann Arbor where grown-up Manchester children who were

The fair board has announced that the final plans are made for year's community fair. President Lehman Wahl says that everything is in order and that this should be Manchester's biggest fair. The Carpenter Amusement company promises to have the concessions in place for the opening of the fair Wednesday.

Exhibits are to be brought in Wednesday from 9 a.m. to noon. Judging will begin at 2 p.m. At three o'clock there will be an egg toss for 12-16 year olds and another contest for children to 12 years and under.

Highlight for Wednesday will be the big parade at 6:45 p.m. led by the high school band. The queen will be crowned at 8:30 p.m. and at 9:30 there will be the drawing for the daily gate prize.

Thursday there will be the cooking school at the civic auditorium at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Harriet Cookson and Mrs. Ellen Tallis, Home Economist from Consumers Power Company showing the latest in modern cookery. This is sponsored locally by L.V. Kirk Electric.

Also at 2 p.m. Thursday there will be a softball game between the North Farmers and the South Farmers. At 3:30 p.m. there will be a pie eating contest for boys ten years and under. Pies will be furnished by the Manchester Bakery & Grocery with prizes of $2, $1 and 50 cents. In the evening there will be the steer judging under the lights with Bill Finley of Michigan State University doing the judging.

Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. there will be a wagon backing contest with all contestants 21 years or under. Prizes are $5, $3 and $2. There will be a tug of war for boys 12 and under and a sack race for girls 12 and under at 4 p.m.

A talent show is scheduled for 7:30 and those interested in taking part are asked to contact Mrs. Bernard Kemmer. At 10 p.m. there will be a fireworks display by fire chief, Lawrence Scheid and the fire department.

Saturday there will be the steer auction at 1:45 p.m. and a Little League Ball Game at 2:30 p.m. At 5 p.m. there will be a drawing for bicycle and in the evening at 8 p.m. the Duke of Paduach will be the entertainer.

Junior High Program Outlined

All junior high students will be required to register before school officially opens September 4 at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Celestia Ingraham, at the junior high office will have charge of registration from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. according to the following schedule.

Thursday, Aug. 23 for those who will be out of town on vacation during the week before school opens.

Monday, Aug. 27, seventh grade - last name A through L will register from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and M through Z will register 1 to 4:30 p.m.

Tuesday, Aug. 28 - eight grade - last names A through L from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and M through Z from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Aug. 29 - all those who could not come according to above alphabetical schedule.

Students not able to register according to above schedule and dates will do so on September 4th, according to Ted Tapping, principal. All students who wait until September 4th to register may be waiting even longer the first day because no student will be admitted to any class until he or she is registered.

New courses offered this year on a trial semester basis and a brief description of each is as follows:

GENERAL MUSIC is open to seventh graders who are not in chorus this class will be the learning, singing and appreciation of various kinds of music. Other activities related to the general field of music will be developed by Roger Morrison as the semester progresses.

INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE This course will be an introduction to forms of expression through consideration and enjoyment of choice. Well known works and new works by authors of repute will be discussed. All refinements and other details of this course will be outlined with the junior high school group in mind. As presently planned this is not a course the less adept readers would have success with.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE ORIENTATION Plans now seem to indicate this course may be treated as an approach to international understanding through the acquaintance with its contribution to English, learning cognates and learning some reading skills through enjoying stories of other ways of life. It is hoped, that an interesting and inquisitiveness regarding foreign languages will be developed which can then possibly be built on during later years in school.

ART IN USE: Not open to 8th grade or 7th graders in chorus. This course is being planned to include block lettering, color designing, poster and sign planning, enlargements, and an accent on free-hand and creative work using a variety of media.

Fair Parade

Entries in the Manchester Community Fair parade are asked to be ready to leave from the athletic field at 6:45 p.m. Wednesday, August 15. Prizes of $10, $7 and $5 will be awarded the three winning floats.

Children with decorated bikes are asked to meet at the mill after the parade to be judged. Prizes of $3 for first, $2 each for second and third, and $1 each for fourth, fifth, and sixth will be awarded.

Fire Dept. Called

The Manchester fire department was called to the Glen Snyder home about three miles east of town about 2 a.m. Saturday when the smoke filled house awakened the Snyders. Cause of the fire could not be immediately determined and firemen estimated the damage to be about $100. The Snyders live at 9089 Eiseman (Austin) road.

Mrs. William Anthony Hieber, Jr.

Couple Wed Saturday in Candlelight Ceremony

Evelyn Beth Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Krueger of 11254 Hieber Rd. Pleasant Lake and William Anthony Heuser, Jr. of Dearborn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Heuser, Sr. of Downers Grove, Ill. were married Saturday at 7 p.m. at the University of Michigan Lutheran Chapel in Ann Arbor.

The candlelight service was read before an altar decorated with bouquets of white glads and huckleberry.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose to wear the same candlelight satin gown worn by her three sisters for their weddings. It features an illusion neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt fell into a cathedral train. A head piece of satin roses held her finger veil of nylon net with applique lace around the veil. She carried a cascade of white roses with a detachable corsage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. F. Tomlinson Sparrow of Ann Arbor, sister of the bride and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Karl E. Pregitzer of Belding, sister of the bride and junior bridesmaid was Sarah Beth Pregitzer also of Belding, niece of the bride. Their gowns were light blue sheaths with square necklines of blue organza over taffeta. They had a fish tail knee length panel at the back. Their pill box ringlet headpieces held their light blue matching veils. They carried yellow roses. The junior bridesmaid dress had a full skirt with a wide sash and large bow at the back.

Best man was Kenneth Heuser of Downers Grove, Illinois brother of the bridegroom. Seating the guests were Wm. A. Shield of Parkridge, Illinois; Stephen H. Terry of Birmingham, Lawrence F. Krueger, Jr. and F. Tomlinson Sparrow of Ann Arbor, brother-in-law of the bride.

At the reception at the church hall which followed the ceremony, Mrs. Viola Bross served punch.

Mrs. Larry Hazen of Manchester had the guest book, Mrs. Belur Radhakrishnan of Ann Arbor poured coffee and Miss Barbara Meek of Ann Arbor cut the cake assisted by Mrs. Don Newman of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Karl Corn of Downers Grove, Illinois. After a honeymoon on the East Coast the couple will reside at 1255 Hillman, Dearborn.

Telephone Co Helps

Because of the cooperation of two telephone companies a California woman was able to hear her sister get married in Ann Arbor. Mrs. James C. Cathey, Jr. of Sacramento, Calif., formerly of Manchester couldn't come to the wedding of her sister, Evelyn Beth Krueger to William A. Heuser Jr. with the help of Michigan Bell and California Bell Telephone Companies, a special telephone hookup with an amplifier was set up in the Lutheran Student Chapel on Washtenaw Ave. and transmitted to Mrs. Cathey's California home directly during the ceremony.

The sisters are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Krueger of Manchester. Krueger is principal of Pimms Field and Mary D. Mitchell Schools in Ann Arbor. Storms in the mountains across the country from here to California were reported. Mrs. Cathey said she could hear the entire ceremony, although some of it was coming through rather faintly. Michigan Bell Telephone said it was the first time on record that such a request had been made to the company. Mrs. Cathey talked to her sister and her parents after the ceremony. She said it was next best to being here and was thrilled at the good reception.

Senior Citizens will be able to take advantage of half-price rates Monday through Friday Aug. 27 to 31 at the State Fair. 50c

Mrs. Gustav H. Kuether

Kuether-Higgins Rites Read at Emanuel

Suzanne L. Higgins and Gustav H. Kuether were united in marriage Saturday evening in the Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed Church of Manchester. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bridegroom's father, the Rev. Ralph L. Kuether.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Higgins, and the bridegroom's parents are Rev. and Mrs. Ralph L. Kuether all of Manchester.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of silk organza over taffeta. Alencon lace outlined the modified Sabrina neckline and re-embroidered Alencon lace edged the back panels giving an inverted redingote effect to the bell-shaped skirt which flared into a chapel train. Her waist length veil of English illusion fell from a clip of Alencon lace with three self roses, and she carried a crescent bouquet of Eucharis lilies. Her single strand of pearls and matching earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. James Brown of Clinton served as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Anne Deters of Ann Arbor, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Nichols of Buchanan. The bride's attendants wore street length dresses of orchid silk organza over taffeta and carried cascade bouquets of white diamond pom-pom mums.

Ralph D. Kuether of Ypsilanti, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and the ushers were Hugh Higgins, of Manchester, brother of the bride, David Meyer of Chicago, Illinois, and Philip Collins of Danville, Illinois.

Mrs. Royal Daviter, church organist, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. George Turnbull of Birmingham.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Higgins wore a sheath dress of beige silk organza over taffeta with multicolored embroidery and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids. Mrs. Kuether wore a rose and grey sheer print with a corsage of miniature white orchids.

After a reception held at the church hall, the couple left for a two-week trip to New England. The bride's going-away ensemble was a spice brown suit with matching accessories and a green cymbidium orchids corsage.

Although it has not been definitely decided chances are remote that seventh or eight grade boys will be transported to the high school for a couple of periods a week for General Shop. Scheduling conflicts would seem to prevent this activity during 1962-63. The problem is still being worked on and may develop into reality in the future. Further information concerning Junior high school will appear in next week's paper.

Multiple Course Outdoor Banquet

As seen in Better Homes & Gardens Magazine

An Outdoor Banquet That's Easy To Prepare And Delicious

For a complete multiple course dinner to serve and enjoy outdoors, this one can't be topped. Begin with an appetizing tomato juice cocktail, followed by chips and dip; then the main course of meat (from the outdoor grill, of course), with a cool, crisp, tossed salad. For the dessert, simply serve light, cool, refreshing sherbet or ice cream. This meal is not a hot and heavy one to eat or prepare. It's sure to hit the spot with most everyone and can be altered for the sake of variety simply by changing the appetizer, the dip, the salad dressing, and the choice of beverages.

TRY THESE DELICIOUSLY DIFFERENT IDEAS

For the Cocktail, simply add a teaspoon of Horseradish to each cup (8 oz.) of tomato juice, and salt to taste. To put new flavor, sparkle and life in the dip; again, all you need to do is add a tablespoon of Horseradish to your favorite prepared sour-cream dip. To make a salad that's quick and easy, AND new; prepare your mixed greens and toss with this tangy dressing: 1/4 cup vinegar, 2 tablespoons oil, 3 tablespoons prepared horseradish. Combine all ingredients thoroughly and chill before adding to salad. 4 servings. Now, for the meat. Whether cooking sirloin, round, club, T-bone, or any standard cut steak; simply place on the grill and then spread with this sauce: Three tablespoons salad oil; three tablespoons Horseradish; 1/2 teaspoon salt; and 1/2 teaspoon of your favorite spiced or flavored salt. Mix well, spread, and leave on the steak till you turn. Then let the sauce fall when turned. Spread lightly on the second side and turn once more before serving. This recipe is enough for two pounds of steak. Increase to suit your taste on future efforts.

Family Pot Luck
BY HELEN MALE

Pork tenderloin, stuffed and roasted, gives a wonderful main dish. Use small amount of your favorite bread stuffing and place in-between two long, split and flattened pieces of the tenderloin. Tie with cord, roast in a moderate oven, covered for 50 minutes, then uncover for last 10 minutes to allow browning. Chopped bacon and onion cooked until golden makes a fine dressing for greens. After they're cooked, add diluted vinegar (about 1/4 cup to 4 slices of bacon) and a bit of sugar and salt for seasoning. Pour over greens while hot.

Heien's Favorite:

Green Garland Salad (Serves 4)
1 1/2 cups chopped raw spinach
1/2 cup dairy soured cream
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1 1/2 cups cottage cheese and green salad mix
Blend together sour cream, salt, onion salt and lemon juice and gently mix with well chilled spinach. Spoon 1/4 cup of this mixture into the shape of a ring and place 1/2 cup of the cottage cheese and green salad mix in the center.

Veal stewed and then creamed with hard-cooked eggs and a seasoning of mace and cayenne is wonderful with steamed rice.

Slice frankfurters and mix these with cooked macaroni and cheese sauce. You'll have a meat and macaroni dish all in one, nice to serve in squares.

Tiny lemon chips can replace chocolate chips in your favorite drop cookie for a refreshing change. Add a bit of grated lemon rind to sharpen the flavor.

Your routes for Long Distance DIALING starting Monday

Your telephone calls to Ann Arbor and Chelsea are considered local calls. All other calls are Long Distance.

Starting Monday (August 13 at 8 a.m.), you'll be able to dial most of your own Long Distance station calls. That's as simple as following road signs on a motor trip.

Always begin by dialing "1" to reach the Long Distance network. Then dial the Area Code, when necessary, then dial the phone number.

To call someone in Southeastern Michigan, dial "1" and the phone number you want.

To call someone in Western or Northern Michigan, or in another state, dial "1," then the Area Code—it's different than your own Area Code—and then dial the phone number.

Your Direct Distance Dialing booklet lists places you can dial yourself with associated Area Codes.

This new service is easy and so convenient! You'll get there faster when you follow the "road signs."

Even the most persnickety luxury-lover couldn't ask for very much more than a Jet-smooth Chevrolet (like that Impala Sport Coupe at the top). Yet it's all yours for a Chevrolet price. (And you know how low that is.)

JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET

Here's the best thing that's happened to make money go further since budgets—the lively low-cost Chevy II. It's got all kinds of room. And comes in 11 models, too—like the Nova 2-Door Sedan (second from top).

CHEVY II NOVA

Want a roomy family car and a sporty driver's car for one low price? The rear-engine Corvair Monza (e.g., that Club Coupe, third from top) plays both roles to the hilt. Care to join the club—and get a buy, to boot?

To Appear Saturday at Fair

The Duke of Paducah will be the Saturday attraction at the fair at 8 p.m. He is an outstanding example of the typical American humorist. His inimitable style of timing and delivering laughs in his soft, southern drawl has endeared him to both the sophisticated and the comedian. To millions of radio and TV fans, the Duke is known as a funny man who talks about his fat wife and ends all of his comedy routines with the now famous tagline, "I'm going to the wagon, these shoes are killing me!" But there is another side to this Duke of Paducah, a deeply spiritual side that makes him an interesting and inspiring speaker. Starting off with a comedy that is timely and funny, the Duke sets his audience up for what fighters term, his Sunday punch. Material for this serious talk has been collected over a period of time in the show business and hundreds of hours of reading and studying the spiritual side of life. This talk is very appropriately titled "If I had my life to live over."

Merchants Have Tickets

The following list of merchants have brown tickets which they have purchased from the fair board and may be used by children for a price reduction for rides at the Community Fair Friday afternoon from 12 noon to 5 p.m. They are: Brown's TV, Station Agency, A & B Grocery, Paul's Dairy Bar, Uphaus Drug, L. V. Kirk, Gambles, Bernoms, Manchester Enterprise, Manchester American Legion, Grossman-Huber, Earl Alber, Manchester Drug, Walt Schaible, Spike's Mobil, and Marshall-Schaible. Proceeds from the sale of the tickets will be used to defray the expenses of the Queen Crowning.

School Registration

All students who were not in the Manchester Public Schools last year are requested to register before September 4. Junior High students will do this according to registration schedule as printed in another part of this issue of the paper. Parents of elementary pupils are requested to register them

'NO NAME' STEER JUDGED GRAND CHAMPION

Main attraction at the Community Fair Thursday night was the Steer Club Judging. The Grand Champion steer is owned by Victor Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mann. First place showmanship award also went to Vic Mann. He is 16 years old and will be senior at Manchester High. Specializing in agriculture Vic plans to be a conservation officer.

The Grand Champion Steer has no name. Vic was always going to name the steer and had a long list to choose from but he never got around to it.

School Sport Requirements

Physical examinations for football players, nine through twelfth grade, are required. Cards are available at the principal's office and can be picked up any time. High school principal, Chester Koceski has announced that every student will have to take a physical exam card signed by his doctor before he can practice.

The Reserve Champion is owned by Billie Kemner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kemner. His steer also took second place in showmanship. Susan Walker's steer was in third place for showmanship. Placing third with the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion was the steer owned by Roger Leach.

RESERVE CHAMPION 2nd Place Showmanship

Judging the steers was Bill Finley, extension specialist from Michigan State University. Union Savings Bank will again be host to the Steer Club members and their fathers, prospective buyers, committee members and those concerned with the steers at the Fair. A dinner meeting will held at 11:30 a.m. Saturday at the Emanuel church hall.

Fair Queen

Reigning as queen of the fair is Mary Knapp, a member of the Class '64. Runners-up are Susan Walter, Class of '63, and Bonnie Bentschneider, Class of '62. Before school was out each class in high school and the class that will be entering High School in the fall chose three candidates to represent their class in the contest. All of the candidates rode in the parade which opened the community fair. The parade was the largest in the history of the fair and was highlighted by the antics of a clown. Several floats were in the parade and first place winner was "Candy Land" made by the class of '65 and sponsored by Marx and Marx and Uphaus Drug. Second place went to Hills and Valley 4-H for their float "Get a Wiggle On"; and in third place was "Follow That Dream" by the Class of '64. Honorable mention went to "Universal Language" by the Class of '66.

3rd PLACE SHOWMANSHIP

Prizes for the best decorated bikes went to: Judy Gaff; 2nd place winner was Donna Braun 3rd place, Margaret Kemner; 4th, Barbara Kemner; 5th Eddie Braun; 6th, Gloria Grossman. Gate prizes went to Mrs. Robert Dayss and Mrs. Jim Palmer.
