BUDGET PUBLISHED

The budget published herewith for the 1962-63 Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive was determined after careful consideration by Manchester's own people--the twelve members of the Community Fund ist at the Iron Creek Church board, representing all the sections of this area. These Almost 40% of the funds stay in Manchester for local accompanied by Mrs. H. Fisk grpups. Of the remaining 60%, the community receives an inestimable but very real amount of direct return-there is the Blood Bank, health and welfare, disaster services, youth guidance and child and old age care which are freely given by United community Fund Agencies so often without the recipient even being aware of their services. Tax supported agencies depend on this supplemental service.

The date, originally set for To understand what this budget means the following October 11 had to be change allocation is listed: United Fund-$2,112.; Salvation ed because it conflicted with Army $250; Portage Trail Boy Scout Council-$500; American Red Cross-$2,620; Volunteers of America-$50; Huron Valley Child Guidance - $50; Clovers- $125, Manchester Recreation-$2,625; Manchester Year Book-$200; Manchester Student Council-$200; Manchester School Band-$200, Pleasant Lake School-$50. REV. & MRS. EPPS HAVE WEEK END HOUSE GUESTS

Rev. Jesse Epps and family were happily surprised Saturday afternoon to have guests from Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crause.

Mr. and Mrs. Crause were members of the Official Board of the Embury Methodist church, where Rev. Mr. Epps was pastor from 1945 to 1948. Mrs. Crause taught in the Sunday school. Their visit brought the Epps up to date on the news about their many friends of the parish. The Crauses were enroute to Jackson where Mrs. Crause has a sister living.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rockwell and daughter, Rushan from Bristol Methodist church, Flint, attended the morning ser vice and took the Epps out to dinner.

Mr. Rockwell has been treasurer of the Bristol church for several years, organist about 15 years. REv. Mr. Epps was pastor of the Bristol church from pastor of the Manchester Methodist church in June of

The Rockwell's visit was likewise very enjoyable in that many of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Epps at the Bristol church were learned about through their visit during the afternoon.

COMING EVENTS W.S.W.S. of the Sharon E. U.B. church will meet Thurs PERSONALS day, Oct. 18 at 2p.m. with Mrs. Robert Pratt the devotional leader. Hostesses will be Mrs. Gustav Larson, Mrs. Philip Cerwinka and Mrs. Lawrence Bowers.

FROM THE POSTMASTER

Postmaster George Merriman notes that there is a general misunderstanding among the mailing public that indemnity will be paid by the Post Office Department on all lost or damaged mail. According to the postmaster, patrons are often disturbed when they present a damaged parcel to the post office and find that no indemnity will be paid unless the parcel is insured. registered or collect-on-delivery (c.o.d.). "Although every effort is made to protect all mail while it is in the custody of the postal service," the postmaster said, "unavoidable circumstances occasion ally occur which result in mail being lost or damaged. The only way mailers may reduce the possibility of financial loss on valuable items is to vail themselves of those services which pay indemnity such as registered, insured and C.O.D. "The fact that indemnity is not paid on ordinary mail, does not mean that the post office has no interest in situations where ordinary mail i slost or damaged or othe rwise improperly handl-

Postmasier Merriman wants it to be known that reports of public loss, rifling, delay or damage to ordinary mail are of the greatest value in finding and correcting faults in the postal service.

Complaints concerning the postal service may be made in writing to the postmaster or they maybe made orally by calling GA8-8482. If the handling of mail, the envelope or wrapper should be

Debt Rapidly Being Liquidated

Dan Boutell, School Board Treasurer, reported many spects of the School's financial condition to Manchestcitizens at Monday evening's meeting.

Mr. Boutell reported that of the Nine Hundred Thousand borrowed for School Building Construction during ne last ten years, Five Hundred Thousand has already een paid, leaving a balance to be collected of Four lundred Thousand Dollars.

He stated that the Pleasant Lake School would be paid or this next year. A collection of something less than hree mills for the next five years would pay for the Tigh School. Taxpayers would have about nine years at ess than two mills to pay for the Nellie Ackerson

Mr. Boutell reported that the operation budget picture not as satisfactory. With our extra millage we gaind nothing on the deficit during this last year. He also tated that next year's budget is not expected to improve he deficit. This practice of a constant yearly deficit, e stated, is of great concern to the Board as the Deroit Banks question the legality of loaning operating oney to schools who carry a deficit. Mr. Buttell statd that if our level of income is not improved the board as no choice but to cut maintenance and capital outlay nd at the same time increase the teacher-pupil ratio. e stated that at the present time the budget for capoutlay and maintenance are embarrassingly low. Mr. Boutell thought that the citizens should consider eplacing the Pleasant Lake Debt Retirement Tax with equivalent Building and Site Millage earmarked for improvement of school libraries and facilities so rongly recommended by last year's Study Committee. Mr. Boutell stated some comparisons of the Manches-District to the other five hundred thirty six districts the state that he had compiled from 1960 State Deertment reports. At this time he stated there were 297 hools larger than our local school.

There were 267 schools collecting more operating illage and total millage.

There were ninety school districts with a better valution per child than the local district. He stated that the icture has changed as the school enrollment has inreased locally and the valuation has decreased. Mr. Boutell strongly recommended that area citizens avolve themselves more than ever before in the future oblems with school finance.

ducation is an Investment

In an informal talk presented to the area citizens Monlay evening Superintendent Masten stated there is is some proof now that education is a sound financial

He stated that a recent study of government spending n Veteran's Education has proved to increase income of these service men to the point that the increased Federal Income Tax, because of this training, shows a yearly 10 per cent return on increased federal taxes. He states that because of this advanced training and igher income there would be a return also reasized on more property tax locally and more sales tax on a regional basis. Mr. Masten states that better instruction facilities, programing on the local level will produce adults better abl e to face adult responsibilities. In turn, these people should be in a better position to earn money, own property and pay taxes. In this manner the taxpayer can realize a substantial dollar return on their investment in education.

Mr. Masten also reported that several of the less expensive items on last year's report had been completed this year.

The major changes were as follows: 1. The enlarging of the Junior High School Library. 2. The removal of the hall storage room in Junior High School.

3. More integrated teaching in the senior High School. 4. The combination of High School Agriculture lasses. 5. The addition of a third year of German in High School. 6. The introduction of Speech into the High School Curriculum.

He reported that many other aspects of the program for improvement of the schools were being investigated Mr. Masten finished his report with some personal recommendations for the consideration of the general public.

He said that no time should be wasted in getting to work on a complete curriculum evaluation. Also he thought that School Board policies should be organized and codified in the near future.
