OPEN MEETING PLATED MARCH 11

Manchester Business and Professional Women are inviting the public to a special meeting, Monday, March 11 to hear Professor Charles Joiner, assistant Dean of the University of Michigan Law School.

His topic will be an explanation of the proposed new constitution. The meeting will be held in the All Purpose Room of the Nellie Ackerson School. Previously it was announced that the meeting would be in the Civic auditorium. A film strip will supplement his talk, which will be followed by a question and answer period and a coffee hour. The local club asks the voters to join them in this opportunity to become better acquainted with the proposed constitution.

Professor Joiner promises to be a very interesting speaker. He is a graduate of the University of Iowa where he received the Bachelor of Art degree in 1937 and the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree in 1939. Until 1947 he was trial attorney and associate in a law firm in Des Moines, Iowa. At that time he joined Des Moines College of Law as a part-time lecturer. He served from 1943-45 as First Lt. in the Air Corps, in the Pacific and American theaters. He received two Battle Stars in 1945, the Air Offensive against Japan, and the Easter Mandates Campaign.

In 1947 he became Assistant Professor of Law at the U-M. He was promoted to Associate Professor in 1950 and to full Professor in 1953. In 1939 Prof. Joiner was awarded the Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition by ASCAP. Professor Joiner is chairman of the Joint Committee on Michigan Procedural Revision, established by the Michigan Legislature, the Supreme Court of Michigan, and the State Bar of Michigan in 1956 to study and make recommendations for a revision of the Michigan Judicial Act and Court Rules. He is also a member of the Committee on Public Relations of the Senate Advisory Committee on University Affairs 1961-62.

He is a member of the Methodist church and a Republican and the author of two case-books used in law courses in the field of Civil Procedure and numerous law review articles.

RIVER RAISIN PROJECT TO BE STUDIED

A River Raisin Watershed project is being studied by some 114 people for Washtenaw, Lenawee, and Monroe counties at the community Center in Tecumseh. Almost all towns and cities in Lenawee and Monroe counties which would be affected by the plan were represented. The giant effort which could eventually include areas in Jackson and Hillsdale counties is gradually moving ahead due to the dedicated efforts of several area men. Ron Pocklington of Britton has been the main spring in the proposed reclamation of the Raisin River, dating back to when he ran survey of the watershed for the government in the 1930's.

At the meeting a 15-man steering committee, in which a variety of communities are represented was set up. In this group is Richard Kuntz of Manchester. Within a week a five-man committee will make a technical review of the watershed to study the general condition of the river. Then the committee will accept a formal application from the Tecumseh Council for an engineering survey. The governing body has already approved the idea of damming a trio of lakes, 461,720 acres of land drain into the Raisin through the four counties of watershed, Jackson, Washtenaw, Hillsdale and Monroe. The water level has been dropped in recent years. Mr. Pocklington told the group that there were probably 4 possible sites for dams along the river, which could form a chain of lakes, boost water levels and offer a variety of recreation areas.

Earl Fenton, of the Michigan Soil Conservation Service told the audience about recent changes in Public Law 566 under which the Raisin plan could win federal funds. In cases of flood prevention the government would pay as high as 100 per cent of costs. With recreation, the government matches local money dollar. Local municipalities can borrow their share at an interest rate of 2.9 per cent from the secretary of agriculture. Size of the project cannot exceed 250,000 acres. But the project can be set up in a series of several should the overall need be bigger.

LITTLE LEAGUE MEETING SET

All fathers of boys who will be playing Little League Baseball this summer are urged to attend a meeting on Thursday, March 14 at 8 p.m. in the Nellie Ackerson Multi Purpose Room. This also includes last summer's Little League managers. The success of this year's program will, to a considerable extent, be determined by the turnout of fathers at this organizational meeting.

CHEST BOARD SETS MAY 2 FOR ANNUAL MEET

Manchester Community Chest Board set May 2 as the date for the 1963 annual meeting. All area organizations are requested to send representatives and the public is urged to attend this meeting to give suggestions for Chest policies and to elect four of the 12 board members who will serve for the next three years. Two agencies were voted portions of their budgets at the February 28th meeting of the Recreation Council, $1950 and the Boy Scouts $500. The Boy Scout budget allotment of $500 in the Manchester Area Drive was $268 below the average per Scout member quota in the Washtenaw District and the board voted to add this amount to their budget to be paid by September 1, when the final settlement of accounts can be made.

Stanley White was appointed to represent Manchester Chest at the Michigan United Fund sessions in Lansing. All United Fund Agency requests are reviewed at these sessions and their final quotas for the year are determined by committees formed from members of every Community Chest in the State. Louis Vogel was appointed to represent Manchester at the Red Cross budget hearings in Ann Arbor this spring. Board members whose terms expire in 1963 are Clarence Fielder, Mrs. Glen Lehr, Clayton Parr, and Ted Tapping.

The nominating committee includes John Aithouse, chairman, Tom Marshall, Mrs. Ray Tirth and Mrs. F. M. Reck. Names to be submitted for candidates are to be given to committee members to be placed on the ballot or should be presented at the annual meeting.

TOWNSHIP LIBRARY BOARD TO MEET

Manchester Township library annual board meeting will be March 25 at the local library. Annual reports will be presented and the budget for 1963-64 reviewed in preparation for presentation at the annual Township Board meeting on March 30.

This year's nominating committee is Mrs. Richard Kuntz and Mrs. Dan Boutell. Board members whose terms expire are Miss Nellie Ackerson and Mr. Donald Dorff. Two board members are elected each year by the Township board to serve a three-year term each. A complete file of Constitution Revision material is now available through the aid of the Washtenaw County Library for those who wish to review for themselves the old and new constitutions before the April first decision.

WELL KNOWN AUTHOR DIES AT SUTTONS BAY

James B. Hendryx, well-known Michigan author, who died in Sutton's Bay Friday March 1, was well known to Manchester residents. For many years he made an annual trip to Manchester to visit Franklin M. Reck with whom he planned trips into the unexplored parts of the Ontario wilderness on assignments for national magazines. During his lifetime, Hendryx wrote some seventy-five books and hundreds of magazine articles. His most famous books were the Gennie Morgan stories, written for the American Boy Magazine, and it was while he was turning out these books that he met Reck who was an editor of the magazine from 1926 to 1941. Another highly popular series of books dealt with a mythical character named Black John, an outlaw who lived on the border between the Northwest territory and Alaska.

Hendryx was born in Sauk Center, Minnesota, where he was a classmate of Sinclair Lewis, author of Main Street, Arrowsmith and other books about Midwest America, and Claude Lewis, noted surgeon. Both Lewises and Hendryx were at one time in Who's Who in America. After two years at the University of Minnesota, Hendryx went west to work at the TU Ranch in Montana and in 1902 he and another cowboy named Tex went to Dawson at the height of the Gold Rush. There he panned gold, cut wood for river steamers, delt faro in the gambling houses, and became friends with such fabulous characters as Jack London, the author, and Robert W. Service, the poet. For some years after that he worked on newspapers Chicago and Cincinnati and during this time he began writing and selling his stories of the Northwest. In 1915 he gave up newspaper work and moved to Sutton's Bay just north of Traverse City, where he found his ideal combination of fishing, hunting and writing.

In 1956 Hendryx was featured on Ralph Edwards popular television series, "This is Your Life." In the final scene of the program with Hendryx seated on the davenport surrounded by his family and friends, one of the grandchildren seated on his lap asked: "Grandpa, can you take your teeth out, like you used to?" It was on this same program that Hendryx summed up his philosophy of living in response to a question by Edwards, who asked, "Jim, now that you've had seventy-six years of active life, would you change anything if you had a chance to live your life over again?" Jim replied: "No, I'd just do more of it." For twenty-five years, Hendryx and Reck made annual trips into the wilderness on trout-fishing expeditions.

A Manchester farmer was hospitalized last week Tuesday when he was severely cut about the face by a chain saw while working on his farm at 2165 Neal Road, Manchester.

Mr. Daves said he was out in the woods Tuesday afternoon and during wood when the accident occurred. He said he didn't know exactly what happened—the first thing he knew he saw the saw coming towards him as he bent over his work.

He suffered a broken nose, and cuts about the face and skull. X-rays showed no brain injury.

Mr. Daves was working alone in the woods

LETTER TO EDITOR:

40 College Street
Hillsdale, Michigan
Feb. 25, 1963
Dear Editor:
We have just read the Enterprise of Feb. 22 and noticed your editorial, up in the left hand corner. Since you want to hear from readers we thought a note might be in order.

We have lived away from Manchester for nearly three years, and have taken the Enterprise ever since, and of course we took the paper while living in Manchester. We enjoy getting the paper and it does help us to keep in touch with the happenings there.

Henry looks forward to getting it and when, accidentally we might miss a week, we feel sort of let down. We think you are doing a good job with the paper, and we do know that you can't print news if there isn't any.

We take the Jackson Citizen Patriot and the Hillsdale Daily. We find that the Hillsdale Daily has changed a lot since we came here. But it is a paper, and we would not want to be without it.

We feel that all news papers are having a harder time than they did. There is so much they can't print. We don't want to be like Russia and not get the news of our towns.

Just thought that this might help you a bit.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Henry Pfeifle

PERSONAL
Mrs. Francis Houk and her daughter Mrs. Mary Krauss have closed their home in Norwell and have entered the Cedar Knoll Rest Home in Grass Lake.

STAFF MEMBERS NEEDED FOR SUMMER SESSION

At the special meeting of the Manchester recreation committee, Mr. Ted Tapping, chairman of the group, informed the committee members that two replacements for the summer recreation staff would be needed.

The post of Assistant Director is vacant since the departure last fall of Mr. Fred Brown to Mesick, Michigan. The position of Junior playground director needs to be filled due to the plans of Miss Mary Koebbe to attend summer school at Eastern Michigan University. The committee expects to have these positions filled by early spring.

Mr. Elwin Benedict has accepted the invitation of the committee to become a member of the Recreation Committee. Mr. Benedict has been a manager of a little league team for the past few years.

Changes in the swimming program were suggested by the Director, Mr. Roger Marrison, and approved by the committee. This summer the children wishing to take swimming lessons will leave Manchester by bus for Wamples Lake about forty-five minutes earlier than the time the other buses depart. By doing this it is hoped that those who need to learn to swim may have their lessons without distractions.

Considerable concern was expressed by the Director and the committee over the problem of suitable competition for the 16-18 year-old baseball team. Teams from other nearby communities formerly available for games have either joined with the City of Jackson League or the Detroit Free Press League. Both are fine leagues, but expensive to participate in due to the added traveling expense. Most games in these leagues are played out of town. The Director was instructed by the Committee, however, to make a thorough study of each alternative. No decision regarding this problem will be made until early in April.

An early organizational meeting of all little league managers is being planned by Mr. Marrison, and will be announced soon. Any fathers of boys playing Little League baseball is very cordially invited to attend this meeting also.

Recreation committee members are Mr. Ted Tapping, chairman, Mrs. Ted Stautz, treasurer, Mr. Robert Clark, village council representative, Mr. Eugene Bentschneider, Community Chest representative; and Mr. Elwin Benedict.

MANCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL

March 1, 1963

Seniors of the Week

Miss Darlene Steele is the Senior of the Week. She has attended Manchester Schools all her school life. Darlene has been a very active member of the class of '63. She became a member of the FHA in her Freshman year, and remained in the club all through high school. She is presently secretary of the FHA. She was a member of the Future Teachers Club in her Freshman and Sophomore year. In her Junior year, Darlene led a busy life. She was secretary of her class, a member of the girls basketball varsity team, and on the production and writing staff of the Ad-Venture. She received a Journalism award for her part on the paper. She was on the Visage staff and received a Service award. Darlene played the lead in the Junior Play, "You Don't Take It With You" along with Bob Paul.

Darlene is now in her last year of high school. Her Senior year is one she will always remember. She is secretary of her class, helps in the office, and is on the Visage staff. She was a member of the Homecoming Queen's Court and Chairman of the Holly Hop. In the little spare time Darlene has, she collects stuffed animals, likes to water and snow ski, and she enjoys all sports. We all wish Darlene a very happy future filled with good luck.

Another senior of the week is Bob Bunnay, who is a student of Manchester High School and has always attended this school.

In his spare time he enjoys playing basketball and working on model airplanes. Bob's freshman year was a busy one. He played on the basketball team, and was a member of the track team and basketball team, plus being Vice-President of the Freshmen Class.

In his sophomore year he was on the Junior Varsity football team and a guard on the Dutchmen's Varsity team. Bob is now a very active senior. He is again on the Varsity basketball and football team. Bob has helped to add a great many points to the score. In the senior play, "The Mouse-trap", Bob portrayed Sergeant Trotter.

What Bob has enjoyed most in his years at Manchester High School is being able to participate in sports. Everyone will be sorry to see Bob leave after graduation because he is a very active, well-liked, senior who was an important member of our sport teams.

After graduation Bob's plans are uncertain, although he would like to attend dye school or go into a branch of the service. Even though his plans are unsure, we know that Bob will succeed in everything he attempts.

Woodworkers

In the shop classes the boys are working on an exercise designated by Mr. England. This exercise is designed to test the boys' knowledge of the use of the plane, the ruler and their planning and carrying out their plans for procedure.

The advanced workers are using hard wood, while the beginners in shop are using soft wood. The wood has to be designed to specific dimensions, as to length, width, and thickness squareness, and flatness.

At the dinner table one evening, my 12-year-old son's dinner manners seemed to have hit a new low. Furious, my husband started to berate him and tell him what to do. Then I got into the act and soon we were both talking at once. In the midst of the confusion my son threw up his hands and howled, "Wow—stereophonic nagging!"

FARMERS OF AMERICA FUTURE

Freshmen Tests

Last week the freshmen were given the Kuder Interest Inventory test, by Mr. Mains. These tests will help the freshmen determine what courses they should be taking in comparison to their occupational interests.

The results of this test will be combined with the aptitude test and achievement test results to determine the future steps which the freshmen will be taking.

Soph. News

The president, Jim Mann, called the meeting to order. The secretary's report stood approved as read. The treasury's report stood approved as read. We have $2,106.06 in the treasury. We made $106.25 from the dance on January 11. We have made $125.45 from the magazine sale which is $1,850 under the quota. Dues must be paid by the next class meeting. If they aren't paid by then these people will have to go to class parties, field trips, or to any class activity. If the dues aren't paid by the time you are a senior, then you may not go on a senior trip.

Eugene Huber made a motion that the people who organize things should get money for doing it. Karen Durr seconded it. The motion was passed.

Mike Schneider made a motion the meeting be adjourned. Diana Shadley seconded it.

Safety

Two hot rods sat quivering at a stop light, their teenage owners eager to be speeding down the highway. Over the roar of the motors the kid in the hopped up red Ford yelled, "Hey, Tom, that's a pretty fine custom you have there."

"Yeah, I bought it for a song, too. You remember the guy who was killed in that big wreck up town, about a month ago? Well, I picked up his hot rod at a used car lot. I had to do a lot of work on the body; it was a mess, but the motor was in fine condition. I bet it will beat anything on the road."

"Want to prove that?" Jim called as the light turned green. He gunned out with a loud roar, just asking for a drag.

Tom took his dare and went after him. Faster and faster the two went neck and neck down the two lane road. Seventy-Eighty-Minty. Beads of sweat broke out on Tom's forehead. He was scared, but he wouldn't chicken out. Then suddenly, a truck loomed up right in front of him! No time to turn. To get out of the way Tom felt a sudden agonizing pain in his chest, then nothing.

His hot rod sits on the used car lot again. The body is really mangled, but the motor is good. It can be bought for a song, and the car dealer says, with a little work, it will beat anything on the road.

NEW STUDENTS

We would like all the people of Manchester to know more about our two new students of Manchester High School. Their names are Janet and John Engelbert. They moved from Saline, which is where they started school.

Janet is a Sophomore and is 15 years old. She belonged to the P.H.A. and P.N.A. in Saline. She likes sports and especially likes to watch basketball and football games. Janet likes all the kids at Manchester High and said it was very easy to get acquainted.

John is 16 years old and is now a Junior. At Saline he belonged to the Varsity club. He was on the starting line up of the Saline basketball team this year. Basketball is his favorite sport. John is now on the Manchester team, awaiting his 6 week time period to run out so he can play.

We wish Janet and John all the luck of Manchester High.

Editorial

Manchester needs a youth center. There is no meeting place for young people to serve as a recreational center. "All Work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is an old saying that certainly holds true.

A large room equipped with a snack bar and a record player or juke box would be desirable. Bowling is becoming a popular pastime of teenagers and while the cost of such equipment would be expensive it would be paid for by fees charged for its use.

Such a center would encourage teenagers to remain in Manchester rather than going to Ann Arbor or some of the other surrounding towns for lack of "something to do." Thus it would eliminate the hazards of driving on the highways so frequently.

Parents, churches, and civic groups should get together with a goal in mind of organizing a youth center. Boys and girls with all their energy need an outlet for their go-power, such as a recreational center would provide. Sandy Koernke

Student Council

The Student Council met on February 14, second hour. The meeting was called to order by the President, Bob Paul. The secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer reported $199.39 in their treasury.

They judged the Sportsmanship ballots for the Dexter and Pickney Basketball games. The election for class officers and Student Council members for next year will start on May 1. Petitions will be in circulation from the first to the fourteenth. On May 20th the voting takes place. And on May 21 is the Awards Assembly. They then picked various committees to decide on how the election should be started.

They discussed the citizenship and service awards, and how the people would be picked for these awards. Out of four people, two will be picked for the citizenship awards, and out of eight people, four will be picked for the service awards. It was suggested that the teachers make out a list of students, then the students add on to the list anyone else they wished, and then the teachers would make the final decision. But this was not passed. It was then suggested that the whole faculty nominate for the citizenship and service award. It was made into a motion by Bruce Oates, seconded by Karen Schumann, and passed.

There will be a new league for the 1964-65 season. It will consist of Brooklyn, Grass Lake, Manchester, Clinton, and Saline High and Ypsilanti-Roosevelt. Sheror McLeod and Sally Scoble are to let the student body know about this new league, and make up forms for picking a new league name.

The Sports Schedules were discussed. Varsity Club has always taken this responsibility in the past, but were not available this year. The Student Council has volunteered this service if the Varsity Club doesn't want to do these schedules.

The Washtenaw County Student Council meeting was also discussed. The League Dance is at Dexter High on March 30. Their next WOSC meeting will be held in Roosevelt on either the 18, 25, or 26. Advertising for this dance will be discussed at the next meeting.

The second Student Council exchange day will be on April 18. The names of six members are to be brought picking out of the Council first, and the rest, if possible, out of the Student Body.

The meeting was adjourned.

COLLEGE,

HOW ABOUT FERRIS INSTITUTE?

Ferris Institute has long been known for the manner in which it has opened the doors of education to many serious minded students despite their previous limited educational background and attainments. Ferris Institute is proud of the label "opportunity school"; bearing testimony to its many years of distinguished, versatile service to people from all walks of life.

Because of the spread of educational offerings from high school competition courses to several college degree programs and vocational, trade, and technical offerings, varying from the several months to two or three years in length, a sincere person, with a strong combination to improve himself, and capacity to profit from the instruction offered, can fit into the institution's program at the point where he is, educationally, and go as far as he is able and desirous of going. Many others who may or may not have completed formal schooling, have enrolled in terminal courses thus preparing them for profitable employment.

Four scholarships are now available in Rural Public Library. Five-hundred for each scholarship. A two year program for Library Aide Training at Ferris Institute. For more information about the programs offered, see Mr. Mains. Hurry or you may be too late to enroll.

COLLEGE ANYONE?

The university which we are going to write about this week is the University of Michigan.

The University of Michigan welcomes applications from prospective freshmen and considers the freshman class a very important part of its student body. The admission of all students is on a selective basis. In University schools and colleges which do not have sufficient facilities to accept all qualified applicants. As a state supported institution, the University admits, to the limits of its facilities, all qualified applicants who are residents of the state of Michigan, provided they seem prepared to carry their chosen programs of study successfully and submit their applications within the time stated by the University.

Over two-thirds of the freshman class traditionally have been residents of Michigan. Among out-of-state applicants preference is given to qualified applicants who are children of alumni. Students from foreign countries whose educational background would place them below the sophomore level in the University are not admitted, unless there is unusual evidence of maturity and command of English. The University has no program of instruction for students who are not prepared to carry the regular first-year courses. There is no provision to admit freshmen on probation or on trial. All freshmen are expected to be able to carry a full, normal program of studies and to demonstrate in the first year their ability and willingness to be successful in their studies.

Freshmen are admitted directly to the following schools and colleges according to the field of studies they wish to follow: College of Architecture and Design, College of Engineering, Dental Hygiene two year program in the School of Dentistry, Physical Education programs in the School of Education, College of Literature, Science, and the Arts.

After the game the Seniors sponsored a lively dance. Mr. Saronek was the disc-jockey. A limbo and twist contest was featured. The dance was attended by Manchester, Chelsea, and other area schools. Mr. and Mrs. Eames were nice enough to chaperone the proceedings.

In a movie the authors said that horses were used a lot, they are, and from the way it looks they will be for a long time. When you drive through the country you see a horse and tractor in the same field working side by side.

The home manufacture of molasses has gone down quite a lot and the mountain people have turned to the still, for profit.

When you look from my cousin's house you can see the big green mountains in the background. In the morning they are slightly covered with fog. There is much lumber along the Tennessee and Kentucky borders. Electric power is plentiful because of the T. V. A.

VALENTINE'S DAY

On the fourteenth was Valentine's Day, but the 8th grade waited one day later to celebrate it. They celebrated it by voting for a king and queen. David Ahrens and Gloria Dettling were chosen. The runners up were Gary Wilde and Debbie Steele. Crowns were made for them, and they had a lead-off dance. After that everybody danced and had a good time. Pam Lamb 8-2

Freshmen are expected to be at least 16 years old and to be graduates of accredited high schools or preparatory schools. Graduates of unaccredited schools will be asked to take examinations before they are considered for admission. The requirement of high school graduation may be waived for adults provided there is evidence through examination that they are likely to be successful in the University.

Students may apply for admission any time after October 1 of their senior year in high school. In order to receive equal consideration with other applicants the student must apply and have all required credentials on file by March 1.

Freshmen are admitted to nine of the University units. It is necessary for applicant to indicate on his application the unit he wishes to enter. Insofar as possible, freshmen should enter the unit in which they wish to receive a degree. (e.g., a student interested in engineering should enter the College of Engineering directly as a freshman) in general, it is not advisable for freshmen to attend the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts for an exploratory year if they have definite interests in a curriculum offered in one of the other eight units. Students may transfer freely from one University unit to another at the end of the freshman year.

The student should first discuss his plans for college with his high school counselor. If it seems reasonable for him to consider attending the University of Michigan, he should write to the Admissions Office of the University and request appropriate announcements and application forms, or get the forms from Mr. Mains. The University does not charge a freshman application fee.

For further information about Michigan, see Mr. Mains.
